EXE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swayne's PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicine can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with diarrhea at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841
DR. SWAYNE: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 1 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. Promptly attended to. may26

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, MARCH 4, 1865.

TO-DAY, Saturday, March 4, at noon, is the time for the second inauguration of PRESIDENT LINCOLN. The 4th of March, in each year of Presidential accession, has always been noticed throughout the country, in cities and large town, by the ringing of bells and display of flags.

This year, it has been proposed by some devout people, to spend the hour from 12 to 1 in prayer for the Country's Welfare, for liberty and peace, union and prosperity. We presume no one would object to this course, in public or social prayer meetings, where that is practicable,—and by individuals, in all other cases, where assemblies are not convenient.

There is also great occasion for thanksgiving, over a peaceful, hearty election, a stronger Union than ever, many successful captures of rebel cities, sealing of rebel ports, and fair prospects of victory and peace.

THE REBELLION.

The Chattanooga Gazette of March 2, has details of the capture of the rebel yawl and 14 men at Chapman's landing, below Kingston, on the Tennessee, by seven loyal Tennesseeans. The yawl was armed with torpedoes intended for the destruction of Government property. The party were uniformed and acted under orders of the rebel Navy Department. The yawl was built at Richmond, and brought to Bristol on the cars; it was placed in the Holston river and moved thence with muffled oars to the place of capture. Their instructions were not to disturb anything, until they got below Kingston, where they were to destroy Government transports, &c.

The Richmond Examiner of the 26th indicates that Gen. Schofield has joined Gen Sherman, and that Hardee's Charleston force and the remnant of Hood's old army, have been cut off from uniting with Johnston. Richmond papers of the 28th indicate that Sherman is moving toward Raleigh leaving Johnston's force in his rear. It also is reported that movements of Union cavalry are taking place in Northern Virginia.

The Examiner of the 28th says Columbia, S. C., is freed from the power of the Federals, but three fourths of the city is burned.

Correspondents from the army of the Potomac say there are indications of another attempt by the rebel rams to come down James River.

Rebel papers insist that Gen. Grant is preparing another attack, and will make it as soon as the roads permit.

The number of deserters now coming into the Army of the Potomac average 140 per day, and veterans at that, conscripts not being allowed on picket.

A late Richmond Enquirer says,—"The air is filled with alarming rumors. Every fear has found a voice, and every ear is opened to the tale it tells. Measures of precaution are construed to presage disaster.'

EXPEDITION TO ST. MARKS.—A private letter from a Son of Portsmouth in the United States Navy, dated Key West, Feb. 22, contains many interesting items, some of which we copy:

We arrived at this port this morning, from a trip up the coast, and to-morrow morning we leave for St. Marks, with Gen. Newton and staff on board. We are to attack that place, as it is the only port open to blockade runners, except Galveston. We are to take 300 troops, and 1200 have gone to-day, in two vessels. Eight armed vessels are to take a part in the expedition, and the land force to co-operate with the navy. The rebels there have one ram and a floating battery.

We brought down 17 rebel prisoners from U. S. bark Midnight, who were taken by a boat expedition from that vessel. The sailors took their launch 24 miles overland, got above the Johnays, and surprised them. These rebel soldiers were stationed as a guard to keep the negroes from escaping down river, but our sailors took 150 negroes, with the guard, and we brought them all to Key West together.

You would laugh at the darkies' talk about things on board our vessel. One of them was greatly pleased with the ship's compass, and said,—"Dat's queer thing—you tell by him where to find de rebels, an' de nigger, an' Key West, an' cherry sing."

On our way here we spoke the army transport Reliance, a few hours from Fort Myers, with intelligence that the Fort was invested by 4000 rebels. We put our prisoners and negroes on board the R., and steered for the place, where we arrived on the morning of the 20th, but could not get up within five miles of the fort. We therefore sent up two boats—Launch and Second Cutter—with a 24-lb boat howitzer, which soon cleaned out the rebels. Our loss was eight negro soldiers killed and as many wounded. The rebels caught one negro, killed and quartered him. Our darkeys say they will not be taken, and threaten to retaliate at St. Marks, if they get a chance.

We remained till Fort Myers was reinforced, and then left for Key West.

— The Herald's dispatch says the President's inauguration speech will not occupy more than from five to eight minutes in delivery.

— Hugh McCullough has been nominated by the President as Secretary of the Treasury.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

The Stamp Act of 1765.—Opposed in Portsmouth.

In 1765, the opposition to the stamp act grew more violent, as the time appointed for carrying it into effect approached. George Meserve, Esq., a native of this town, son of the late Colonel Meserve, who died at Louisburg, was the agent for distributing the stamps in New Hampshire. He was in England at the time he was appointed, but soon after returned to this country. On his arrival at Boston the 9th of September, he heard the public sentiment relative to these oppressive acts, and the determined opposition that was made to them in every part of the country. Upon the recommendation of his friends, he resigned his office of stamp master before he landed. The news of his arrival reached this town; but his resignation was not generally known. The indignation the populace against him was manifested, not only by words, but on the morning of the 12th of September, his effigy was exhibited at the hay market. It was accompanied by that of Lord Bute and the Devil. Bute was at the head of the British ministry, that procured the passing of the act, and they supposed the Devil to be the instigator of it. The effigies hung there through the day, and in the evening were carried through the town in a tumultuous manner, and publicly burnt. Mr. Meserve arrived here the 18th of September, and was immediately surrounded by a large concourse of people. To pacify them he made a public resignation of his office on the Parade. [Now called Market square.] He was congratulated on his safe return by his friends, who then waited upon him to his own house. The stamped paper, intended for this province, arrived at Boston the 30th of September, and there being no persons authorized to take charge of it, Governor Bernard directed it to be lodged in the Castle. The stamp act was to go into operation the 1st day of November. Newspapers were subject to stamp duties.

The New Hampshire Gazette on the last day of October, appeared with a black border round it, an emblem of mourning for the loss of liberty; and the printer stated that he should publish it no longer, as he could not submit to the unjust tax.

On the morning of the inauspicious day, a collection of people from the country, expecting that the stamps would be distributed, were marching towards the town for the purpose of preventing it, but being assured by a number of respectable gentlemen of Mr. Meserve's resignation, and that the stamps were not here, they dispersed, and returned to their respective homes. The day was ushered in by the tolling of all the bells in Portsmouth, the vessels in the harbour had their colours hoisted half-mast high; about three o'clock a funeral procession was formed, having a coffin with this inscription, Liberty aged 145, stamp. It moved from the State house, with two unbraced drums, through the principal streets. As it passed the Parade, minute-guns were fired; at the place of interment a speech was delivered on the occasion, stating the many advantages we had received and the melancholy prospect before us, at the seeming departure of our invaluable liberties. But some signs of life appearing, Liberty was not deposited in the grave; it was rescued by a number of her sons, the motto changed to Liberty revived, and carried off in triumph; the detestable act was buried in its stead, and the clods of the valley were laid upon it; the bells changed their melancholy sound to a more joyful tone.

A spirit of discord began to appear among those persons who were kept in order only by the restraints of law. They know that stamps could not be obtained, and supposed that the courts of law could not proceed without them. In this they were mistaken; the courts were open, and all business proceeded in the same manner, as if the act had never passed, except that the sheriff would take no bail bonds, and the debtor, arrested on mesne process, was obliged to remain in custody until the decision of his cause. Associations were formed a Portsmouth of its most respectable inhabitants, to support the magistrates in the execution of the law, and every attempt to disturb the peace of society, was instantly suppressed.

—— Messrs. Garland & Conner, of Exeter, purchased of Oliver Hilton, esq., of South New Market, four fat oxen, for which they paid $800.

—— Capt. M. F. Corcoran, of the 10th regiment, who was wounded and taken prisoner in November last, has been exchanged, and has arrived at his home in Manchester.

A VOTE FOR FREDERICK SMYTH is a vote for a self-made man, who, by virtue of his own abilities, has risen to an acknowledged position among the best men of the State, standing unexcelled as an excellent financier and safe director of important affairs. It is a vote for a man who has laboured assiduously for the success of the Union armes, visiting in person many battle-fields to aid and comfort our wounded heroes. It is a vote for a man who has always been identified with the agricultural interests of the States, whose resources are well understood by him; and, to sum up all, it is a vote to sustain the Administration in speedily ending this slaveholders' rebellion, and in bringing peace and freedom to our entire country.

— The deaf mutes at the Hartford Asylum have a company who have acquired surprising proficiency in military drill, all the orders, of course, being given by signs.

THE CALIFORNIA WINES.

LEXINGTON, MASS., March 2.

Some years since, Messrs. Editors, I wrote you from a very different latitude, of dining with Charles Heidsick, the great champagne manufacturer, and in a spirit of badinage christened him "the Apostle of Temperance." Perhaps that was one of the truths that are sometimes spoken in jest, for I find that heads infinitely wiser and much older than my own have promulgated the same idea. The late Theodore Parker once wrote that when we had clothed our hillsides with vineyards, then, and not till then, would we have abolished the vice of intemperance from our midst. A drunken Frenchman is almost an anomaly.

This article is suggested from my having spent a very agreeable day recently in company with three gentlemen engaged in the manufacture and sale of native wines, which seem destined to become such an important item in the produce of our modern El Dorado, and of consumption over our whole country. The party embraced Messrs. S. C. Perkins of Boston, Stern of New York, and Chas. Kohler of San Francisco, all of the firm of Perkins, Stern & Co., of Boston and New York.

Messrs. Kohler & Frobling commenced business in 1854, in the a basement on Merchant st., San Francisco with about 500 gallons of wine in their cellars. Starting as the pioneers, they were alone in the wine business for two years and a half. Their business was very limited indeed at first, and they felt remarkably encouraged when they would receive an order for half a dozen bottles of wine, which one would carry to the address of the party in a basket on his arm. As business increased, and warranted such a turn out, they hired a horse and wagon to attend to the orders. When about two years in the business, it had increased sufficiently to keep a team of their own constantly employed. Finding their place too small, they took two of the cellars in the basement of the building they now occupy, known as Montgomery Block. As the business kept on increasing, so did they gradually enlarge their room, until, at the present time, they occupy ten cellars of the Montgomery Block. In Los Angeles they have rented the entire basement of the City Hall building,—seven large cellars. Besides these, they have, at Wolfskill's and other vineyards near Los Angeles, bodegas or storing vaults, containing upwards of 500,000 gallons of wine in all, and about 20,000 gallons of brandy. At their own vineyard they have 22,000 vines in bearing; but they purchase the yearly crop of some 300 or 400 acres more in that vicinity, and a portion of the crop grown at Anaheim. During the fall, the busy season or vintage, they have upwards of 160 persons at work, including Indians in their vineyard.

They use 120,000 bottles yearly, and in 1860 established the house of Perkins, Stern & Co., the pioneer house and the only one in the Atlantic States dealing exclusively in California Wines. The wines improve in a remarkable degree by the voyage, said to equal 50 per cent., and for their merits received five out of the six premiums at the Wine Convention in Cleveland, Ohio, where they came in competition with the leading brands of Western wines.

California has special advantages for her vineyards in that they are exempt from the diseases which have affected vines in the more eastern States and Europe, and in the almost total cessation of rain during the growing season. The State Commissioner estimates that California will soon produce an annual crop of 10,000,000 gallons of wine, a source of wealth that will press hard upon the amount gathered from the earth in the shape of gold.

From the beginning of this enterprise, the gentlemen named above have sought to produce an article that should compete in quantity, quality and price with the wines of the old world. They now estimate their crop by hundreds of thousands of gallons, its quality and price can be easily tested by persons in nearly all parts of the country, and the Surgeon General of the United States, after a careful analysis of these wines, has pronounced them all pure.

Their vineyard at Los Angeles, naturally a lovely spot, is said to be a charming place, thanks to the skillful management of the late Mr. Frobling. Fruit trees of all kinds have been planted, and the orange groves and rows of olives, the umbrageous fig and the beauteous pomegranate, are interspersed with every variety of peach, pear, plum, apple, apricot, almond, chestnut and walnut trees, sufficient to entitle it to be called a grand orchard, were it not that the long lines of luxuriant vines assert their claim to the more appropriate title of a vineyard.

The Jesuit missionaries who, in 1681, founded the "City of the Angels," and planted a few vines from which to make wine for their own consumption, little thought of the vast importance that branch of industry was destined to assume in our day. The valley of Los Angeles is likened to the celebrated "Rhoingau" of Germany for the superiority of its wines over those of other portions of the State; and persons purchasing would do well to examine the label to see if it bear the name of this house.

☞ We refer our readers to the NEW YORK AND LIVERPOOL PETROLEUM COMPANY's advertisement in another column of this paper, as also to the following notice by the New York Independent:

PETROLEUM.—Our readers will have noticed an advertisement of the New York and Liverpool Petroleum Company in our columns. Daniel S. Dickinson is the President, and he is associated with gentlemen of experience in the business. A careful study of the prospectus will reveal the advantages of the investment. The discovery of Petroleum is so recent, and the necessary demand so large and increasing, that this Company may be said to proceed upon a permanent basis. Their prospectus speaks frankly and fairly, and the name of Mr. Dickinson, who has here, we believe, for the first time, associated his name with any corporate enterprise, should satisfy the inquirer that it is not a mere speculation. All the funds paid in form the working capital of the Company, and no one connected with it is interested in selling the Company's land or property at a fictitious value or at any profit. Stockholders are mutually interested in all the profits of the Company. Several of the Trustees are located in the oil region, and have acquired their wealth and experience in the business, and have a personal supervision over the Company's affairs, and it is expected that large quarterly dividends will be regularly paid from the first of January.—*N. ASSOCIATION, Situate on Oil Creek and the Allegheny River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.

There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 200 Barrels per day, worth, at the present price of Oil, $1,700 daily, or $612,400 per year.

The entire property cost the present Subscribers $2,275,000, and is already paying about 2½ per cent. per month, and will, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten-fold.

There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.

The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later,—and on the first of February a dividend of about 2½ per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.

It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield $33,000 per day, or $11,945,000 per year.

Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,

No. 47 Congress Street, and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.

Cheering Prospect.

The United Petroleum Farms Association has declared a dividend of 6 per cent. for the last three months, payable Feb. 20th. There are 15 wells now producing, 18 more wells going down, and 150 more wells to be put down this Summer.

Now if 15 wells will pay 2 per cent. per month, how much will 150 wells pay per month?

Any sum as high as $650 to $1000 may be subscribed for a few days to accommodate the Citizens of Portsmouth.

☞ To-day is to be generally observed as a "Holiday" (at least by cessation from work) almost everywhere; and we have altogether too much respect for our President —God bless him!—and for our country, to disregard the occasion—not to mention our regard for ourselves. So we shall print no Chronicle on Monday. [And by the way, five holidays in a year are all we Chroniclers get—six we think is the most we ever took; but we hope the time will come when all working men may be allowed at least twelve—one each month.]

— The workmen on the Navy Yard have this 4th of March as a holiday.

☞ We are glad to welcome Ensign Thomas S. Gay, U. S. N., of this city, who has been confined four months in the Salisbury and Libby prisons, since his capture at the destruction of the rebel ram Albemarle; and is just now paroled for exchange. Mr. Gay was one of the volunteers to accompany Lt. Cushing on this hazadous but successful trip in the little torpedo-boat, and Cushing was the only one who escaped captive or death. Had he been taken, he would undoubtedly have been bayonetted on the spot. The only other Portsmouth officer at Salisbury or Richmond, was Lieut. Robert Spinney, of a colored regiment, who is doubtless ere this exchanged. Mr. Gay has been promoted from Acting Master to Ensign, for gallantry on the occasion refered to.

☞ Prof. Carnes, the Blind Musician, gave a concert to a very good audience on Thursday evening. He possesses rare powers as a vocalist, and is a good performer on various musical instruments. The audience was well pleased.

☞ The closing Lyceum entertainment is fixed for Thursday evening, March 16th, and will consist of Readings by Wyzeman Marshall, Esq., of Boston; Singing by Mrs. Cary, the popular contralto, of Boston; piano accompaniment by Mr. Day of this city; and a special selection of pieces by the Cornet Band.

☞ Rev. Mr. DeNormandie will deliver the seventh Sunday Evening Lecture of the Clergymen's series, in the Unitarian Church, to-morrow evening, at 7 1-2 o'clock. Public invited.

☞ It is stated that Mr. Samuel P. Treadwell, of this city, is to be the Democratic candidate for County Treasurer, in place of John E. Rider, esq., the nominee of the convention, who declined on account of the uncertain position in which the Democracy stand since the resolutions of their late State Convention.

☞ It is stated that the U. S. S. Minnesota, now fitting at this Naval station, will soon be sent to sea, being one of a large fleet to visit the Mediterranean. The Colorado, Powhattan, Kearsarge, and others, are reported to be bound in the same direction.

☞ Lieut. George M. Welles, formerly of the Minnesota, has recently been detached and ordered to the Marine Barracks, at this Naval Station.

A detachment of marines under command of Lieut. I. H. Washburne, went down to Boston on Thursday, with a draft of seamen from the Vandalia.

☞ The Ballot correspondent says,—"the Portsmouth Steam Factory having missed for some time past large quantities of cotton spool thread, the matter was investigated, and the Agent more than a month since gave the facts to an officer of the police, but nothing was done. One day last week the loss was stated to detective Frank B. Johnson, and he was requested to proceed to ferret out the thieves. In a few hours Mr. Johnson had secured several basketfulls of thread at different places, which had been taken from the mill by girls working in the winding room. Several girls were brought before the Police Court on Saturday afternoon, some of whom were convicted. Girls have seemed to regard it as a legitimate business to supply themselves and families in this article. Indeed, the confessions of some go to show that persons heretofore considered respectable have received thread from operatives, which of course was known to have been stolen. Col. Webber is taking the most effectual means to stop the leak. There is no doubt that enough has been stolen from the mill since the commencement of the manufacture of this article, to make a small dividend."

☞ At Amesbury, says the Villager, "the Select Readings given by Miss King before the Lyceum, called out a large audience, who manifested their appreciation of her reading by hearty applause. Maud Muller, The Mantle of St. John de Matha, Barbara Frietchie, gems from Whittier's sparkled with new beauties. The humorous pieces were read in a most excellent style, and the whole audience were delighted with the evening's entertainment."

— Gold, Friday, 98 1-2.

— As Government Bonds are not taxed, some people make the mistake to suppose that National Bank stock also is untaxable. But the error will readily be shown by reference to Sec. 41 of the U. S. tax bill of June 3, 1864.

— The Bulletin publishes a list of rebel sympathizers and deserters residing in Memphis, who have taken the amnesty oath. They number 1045. The name of Andrew Jackson Donelson is among them.

— The stern post of the Kearsage, containing the shell fired by the pirate steamer Alabama, has been sent to the Navy Department at Washington.

READINGS BY MISS KING.—We are happy to annouce that Miss Angela S. King, daughter of the late Thomas F. King, (for nine years a popular Pastor in this city,) and sister of the late Thomas Starr King,—will give public Readings at the Temple, on Wednesday evening, the 8th of March. Miss King has received the most flattering commendations wherever she has appeared. The best critics in Boston pronounced her second to no lady elocutionist who has appeared in that city.

The Boston Transcript says of her readings at the opening of the new chapel connected with the Hollis Street Church:

"The initiatory service consisted of readings by Miss King. The selections were from Browning, Sheridan, Bayard Taylor, Knowles, Whittier, Holmes, Pierpont, Mrs. Hemans, and T. B. Read. These gave Miss King an opportunity which she used with marked success, to show the versatility of her elocution and the results of her careful study. With a melodious and powerful voice, an animated and earnest spirit, she passed from the gay and joyous and comic, to the serious, sad and pathetic, with quick transitions that were easy and natural changes of mood. Her feelings and sympathies were engrossingly given to the different topics her distinct, mellow and expressive tones interpreted.

There are few readers who combine so many different qualities, and whose renditions are of so wide a range. Measuring with accuracy her own powers, she is sure to satisfy her hearers with performances as excellent as they are varied in their character. There is an especial heartiness in her humor, and the evidence of sincerity in her tenderness. With her, nature reunites the inspiration of art."

The citizens of Portsmouth should surely show their appreciation of living merit, as well as their respect for departed worth, by giving Miss King an audience limited only by the capacity of the Temple.

Tickets 25 cts. to be obtained at the stores of Messrs. Foster, Hutchings, Shores and Preston. Doors open at 6 1-2. Readings commence at 7 1-2 o'clock.

☞ Kerosene Oil of prime quality, and the best quality Chimnies and Fixtures, may always be had at H. H. & F. W. HAM'S, Exchange Buildings, Portsmouth. f9tf

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the Seven-Thirty Loan.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is

THE ONLY LOAN in the Market

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

DR. URANN,

PRACTICAL PHYSICIAN,

Who has made so many wonderful and instantaneous cures in Boston, New York, Hartford, Springfield, and more recently in New Hampshire and Vermont, has taken

ROOMS FOR THE PRESENT AT THE

FRANKLIN HOUSE,

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

DR. URANN'S treatment is such that by it

All Curable Diseases

are affected in one or two treatments, and many are entirely cured by one, as the following will testify:—

W. P. HOMER, 50 and 52 Federal Street, Boston, for many years was troubled with Heart complaint, so bad that at times he was unable to attend to his business; after one treatment he was able to run up stairs, work in his garden and attend to his business; has since gained 12 pounds

Mrs. ELLEN COREY, of Cambridgeport, Mass.—Sciatica; so lame that she could not walk without assistance; after one treatment of fifteen minutes was well as ever, and could walk a mile free from pain.

Mrs. SARAH F. STILES, Lowell, Mass., had Fever Sores on both legs of twelve years standing; her right ankle measured eighteen inches, and was as blue as indigo; she could not move her foot; after one treatment it was reduced one-half, she could move her foot freely and is getting well rapidly, her left ankle all healed.

Prof. G. M. LARRON, 1 Dix Place, Boston, troubled with Spinal difficulty, was in much pain; relieved by one treatment.

Miss HANNAH COOL, Campton, N. H.—Spinal difficulties; was unable to walk but a short distance or do any kind of work; perfectly cured, and is now the picture of health.

Miss C. FROTHINGHAM, Boston, Portrait Painter, was troubled with great depression of spirits, at times was unable to attend to her favorite employment; was entirely cured, and she expresses herself, is "made over anew."

Mrs. J. BROWN, Boston, a severe cough and pains through her lungs, cured.

Capt. W. H. LAMPSON'S child, Lowell, Mass. The child was pronounced by physicians as hopelessly idiotic. The child could neither walk or sit alone, and took no notice of anything. After one treatment he began to improve, and has so far gained as to be able to walk alone, can talk, takes notice of everything, laughs and sings, and appears perfectly well.

Mrs. HINCKLEY, wife of A. T. Hinckley, of State Arsenal, Hartford, Ct., troubled with hip complaint and contraction of the cords of the legs; could not get her heel to the floor within four inches; had to be brought down stairs in arms; after one treatment of twenty minutes was able to run up and down stairs with ease, and is now able to walk the streets.

Mr. J. TURNER, Hartford, Ct, troubled for many years with loss of memory; could not attend to business; had been under the best medical treatment in England with no beneficial effect; after one treatment was perfectly restored.

Miss MARTHA ST. JOHN, Simsbury, Ct., was confined to her bed from spinal difficulty and prolapsus uteri; had not been dressed for more than a year; in twenty minutes she was enabled to dress and walk out to one of the neighbors, a distance of about a half mile; she has since been to Hartford and to church, and is improving daily.

Mrs. HENRY LOOMIS, Southwick, Mass., troubled with fits and spinal difficulties, could not walk without much difficulty, perfectly cured by one treatment.

Mrs. WM. JENKINS, Unionville, Conn., troubled for over two years with chronic liver complaint and rheumatism, had a large lump on her side which was very painful; was unable to lie down. Cured by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

JOSEPH H. ELDRIDGE, formerly of the Hartford Police, more recently on Hartford and New Haven Railroad, was obliged to give up his business on account of a severe cough and bleeding, perfectly cured and can now do a good day's work.

LYDIA L. FULLER, of East Wallingford, Vt., had entirely lost the use of her limbs after a severe attack of diptheria, was restored by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

FANNY DAVIS, of Moretown, Vt., had been confined to her bed for more than five years—was not able to stand—after one treatment of less than an hour, was enabled to walk around the room, and is now quite well.

Miss HUTCHINSON, daughter of Judge Hutchinson of Windsor, Randolph, Vt., was troubled with fits, having some days from fifty to one hundred. She was unable to eat anything but liquids—was not able to stand. After one treatment she began to improve, until now, she is the picture of health, able to walk as well as any one, eats hearty and has no fits.

SOUTHWICK, Mass., July 21, 1862.

DR. URANN,—Dear Sir:—I suppose it is ever a pleasure to you to learn the convalescent state of your patients; notwithstanding my long three years of almost absolute confinement to my bed, unable most of the time to converse with or see any company, and for over two years unable to feed myself—yet with this painful picture of human wretchedness which made life almost a burden, since your treatment my spine, on the 7th day of June, I have been able to take my meals at the table, with my family, ride out daily, and converse freely with all; and without some new misfortune befalls me, I shall soon be able to interest myself in the labors of my profession, at least to preach one sermon a Sabbath. Without flattery, in my honest judgment, there is no better treatment in the hands of men for the Spinal Disease than the one which you honor, and as my heart beats with sympathy with all Spinal sufferers, I only wish they knew the wonderful utility of your treatment, and avail themselves of the same. Yours with respect and gratitude,

M. H. RISING.

DR. URANN'S TERMS

Are such that all can avail themselves of his treatment.

☞ Persons at a distance who are unable to visit the Doctor, by sending particulars of their cases, with one dollar enclosed, will receive advice and learn whether their cases can be treated at a distance. In all cases, state age and sex.

NEGRO EQUALITY—AN IRISH INCIDENT.—A few days ago a couple of Irishmen got to talking politics, and the dispute grew exceedingly hot. One was a gentleman of intelligence and education—the other an illiterate Broom Ranger.

"An' its meself that'll niver vote for a par-rty that 'ud make the nagur aiqual to me" said the latter.

"The negro equal to you?" said the other; "why, I am ashamed to hear that a countryman of mine is afraid of a negro becoming his equal. But you say you are a Democrat—tell me what you mean by Democracy?"

The poor fellow couldn't give any intelligible explanation; "he was a Dimocrat," and that was all, and he "wasn't goin' to have the dounned nager made aiqual to him."

Just then, a respectable looking colored man was seen on the opposite side of the street. The loyal Irishman called him over, and said:

"Come, my friend, can you tell me what Democracy means?"

Without hesitation a very satisfactory answer was given; when, turning to the other, the Union man continued:

There, now, you see this man knows more than you do. He's your superior. It's you who are trying to drag him down to your level. I'm ashamed of you; I disown ye. It's not an Irishman ye are, at all—its a bogtrotter ye are!"

GEN. LEE NOT A GOOD SOUTHERNER. The Examiner, in the course of an article on arming the slaves, thus speaks of the Confederate General-in-Chief:

There are many other considerations, which are not military but moral, political and social, relating to the future of the black race as well as of the white—all of which oppose themselves strongly to the revolutionary measure now recommended.—On these Gen. Lee cannot be admitted as an authority without appeal; indeed, his earnestness in providing that "those who are employed should be freed," and "that it would be neither just nor wise to require them to work as slaves," suggests a doubt whether he is what used to be called a "good Southerner;" that is, whether he is thoroughly satisfied of the justice and beneficence of negro slavery as a sound, permanent basis of our national policy.

"IT IS EASIER FOR A CAMEL" &c. &c.—As an illustration of the different views of individuals as to income, we heard a day or two since the following, which, as the subject of income is now fresh in the public thought, we publish. In one of the oldest, perhaps the oldest, city of the Commonwealth, two partners in business rendered to the assessors under oath, their incomes. Unfortunately they had no consultation before making their figures; and so the junior with the least interest, gave in his income $50,000, while the senior, who besides his interest in the partnership, had large investments elsewhere, returned, as his income, only $12,000. The clerk, who was sent to pay the taxes of the partners, was surprised, and insisted there must be some mistake. Perhaps there was!—New Bedford Mercury.

—It is estimated that the nominal value of the Southern slaves is not far from nine hundred millions of dollars.

TRIAL AND FRIENDSHIP.—Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus has had a trial among three million families, and is pronounced the best Saleratus in the known world. Its use always brings a smile to the household; it keeps them in health; it helps make the weak strong, and saves hundreds from that dreadful disease, dyspepsia. As you value health, use it. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 122 Liberty Street, New York.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, 8 years for the Art of 1857.)

70 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not unquestionably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE. The subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason for believing he can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water: also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron B. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The Chronicle.

ENLISTMENTS.—The following information is obtained from an authentic source in Washington:

On the 27th of February, 6685 men were enlisted into the service. The average number of men mustered in daily for the past three days was 3,296. The average number mustered in for the past ten days was 3,295. If recruiting is kept up, the army will be speedily reinforced to the extent necessary to put an end to the war.

A FIRE IN THE REAR.—Gov. Brown has sent a message of strong hostility to Jeff. Davis, to the Georgia Legislature. He calls for a convention of the Confederate States, opposes the arming of the slaves, and demands the repeal of the rebel conscription law. Richmond papers of Tuesday publish extracts from Gov. Brown's message, and bitterly attack the governor and his sentiments.

A RAILROAD INCIDENT—ALMOST AN ACCIDENT.—On Monday, a wood-chopper, near Burnside station, on the Hartford, Providence, & Fishkill Railroad, accidentally felled a large chestnut tree directly across the track just as a passenger train was advancing on a descending grade. The frightened man dropped his axe, turned pale as a ghost, and jumped up and down with terror as he awaited the uncertain issue. The engineer saw his danger, reversed his engine at once, and signalled for "breaking" up the train; but the momentum was so great that it could not be easily stopped, and the cow-catcher struck the ponderous trunk, parted it as though it had been a walking-stick, and then dashed on for several rods before it was brought to a full stop. It was a wonder that the cars were not thrown from the track. The chopper, on being asked what he was trying to do, replied, with an air of great concern, that he "had rather gi'n five dollars than bad that tree fall on the track."—Prov. Journal.

— The New York Independent breaks ground for female suffrage. It thinks the war has prepared the people to consider this question favorably. An exchange suggests that the Independent should make its first demonstration upon the churches, many of them—its own denominational ones among the number—not allowing a woman to vote in church matters, nor even "to speak in meeting."

—Capt. Geo. A. Deering, of Saco, escaped from the rebel prison at Andersonville, Ga., by a ruse. While the Confederate officer was calling a list of prisoners for exchange, the Captain observed a name that he knew was not that of any person then confined there. He responded to it, stepped among the lucky ones, and is now at home.

—— A child, 4 years old, of Smith M. Welch of South Hampton, was so badly burned on Friday by its clothes taking fire that it died on Monday. The mother of the child had left the room for a few moments, and hearing the screams of the little one, hastened back too late to save it from death. The father is in the 8th N. H. regiment.

— In Readfield, Maine, a few weeks ago the dwelling of H. M. Eaton was entered, and a round of beef stolen: but as the thief passed the stable, the watch dog demanded the beef, and after a warm discussion the dog confiscated it. In the morning the dog was found guarding the property, which was uninjured by man or dog.

— A Washington item of March 2, says, deserters continue to arrive in large numbers. They are better of a class than heretofore. Measures are being taken for the improvement of the condition of white refugees and freedmen in this Department; confiscated lots in the outskirts of the city and islands in the Mississippi are to be devoted to this purpose.

—Twenty years ago a few trading vessels occasionally entered the "Golden Gate" to purchase raw hides. In 1864, the shipment of treasure alone amounted to fifty-six million. There is now a heavy trade direct to India, China, and Japan, west.

—The Secretary of the United States Sanitary Commission, in reply to a correspondent at Savannah that the sick soldiers in hospital were suffering for want of delicacies, states that the Commission sent one ship load of stores to Savannah in advance of Sherman's arrival, and has sent another since.

—A society has been formed in Boston, called the "Massachusetts Episcopal Association for the Promotion of Christian Knowledge among the Freedmen and other Colored Persons of the South and Southwest." Bishop Eastman is the President.

— There is such a scarcity of hay and other food for cattle in Canada, that it is feared that many of the animals must die of starvation. Some of the farmers have slaughtered half of their stock to save the remainder.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, MARCH 7, 1865.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN was inaugurated for his second term on Saturday noon at Washington. His inaugural address published to-day, is a model of brevity and honesty.

The civic procession embraced the Mayor, and Councilmen of Washington, visiting Councilmen from Baltimore, the firemen of the city and the visiting firemen from Philadelphia with their engines. Among the benevolent societies present were the Lodges of Odd-fellows and Masons, including a colored Lodge of the latter. Several bands of music, two regiments of the invalid corps and a squadron of cavalry, a battery of artillery and four companies of colored troops joined the military escort.

The oath to protect and maintain the Constitution of the United States was administered to Mr. Lincoln by Chief Justice Chase in the presence of thousands, who witnessed the ceremony while standing in mud almost knee deep.

Everything passed off in a quiet and orderly manner, and not an accident occurred to mar the pleasures of the day.

THE MESSAGE.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S SECOND INAUGURAL ADDRESS.—Fellow Countrymen:—At this second appearing to take the oath of the Presidential office, there is less occasion for an extended address than there was at the first. Then, a statement, somewhat in detail, of a course to be pursued, seemed very fitting and proper. Now, at the expiration of four years, during which public declarations have constantly been called forth on every point and phase of the great contest, which still absorbs the attention and engrosses the energies of the nation, little that is new could be presented. The progress of our arms, upon which all else chiefly depends, is as well known to the public as to myself, and it is, I trust, reasonably satisfactory and encouraging to all.

With high hope for the future, no prediction in regard to it is ventured. On the occasion corresponding to this, four years ago, all thoughts were anxiously directed to an impending civil war. All dreaded it—all sought to avoid it. While the inaugural address was being delivered from this place, devoted altogether to saving the Union without war, insurgent agents were in the city seeking to destroy it without war—seeking to dissolve the Union and divide the effects by negotiation.

Both parties deprecated war, but one of them would make war rather than let the nation survive, and the other would accept war rather than let it perish, and the war came.

One-eighth of the whole population were colored slaves, not distributed generally over the Union, but located in the southern part of it. These slaves contributed a peculiar and powerful interest. All knew that this interest was somehow the cause of the war. To strengthen, perpetuate and extend this interest was the object for which the insurgents would rend the Union by war, while Government claimed to do no more than to restrict the territorial enlargement of it. Neither party expected the magnitude or the duration, which it has already obtained. Neither anticipated that the cause of the conflict might cease, or even before the conflict itself should cease. Each looked for an easier triumph, and a result fundamental and astounding. Both read the same Bible and pray to the same God, each invokes His aid against the other. It may seem strange that any man should dare to ask a just God's assistance in wringing their bread from the sweat of other men's faces. But let us judge not that we be not judged. The prayer of both should not be answered.

That of neither has been answered fully. The Almighty has His own purposes. "Woe unto the world because of offences, for it must needs be that offences come, but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh." If we shall suppose that American slavery is one of those offences which, in the providence of God, must needs come, but which having continued through His appointed time, he now wills to remove, and that he gives to both North and South this terrible war as the woe due to those by whom the offence came, shall we discern there any departure from those divine attributes which the believers in a living God always ascribe to Him? Fondly do we hope, fervently do we pray that this mighty scourge of war may speedily pass away.

Yet, if God wills that it continue until all the wealth piled by the bondman's two hundred and fifty years of unrequited toil shall be sunk, and until every drop of blood drawn with the lash shall be paid by another drawn with the sword, as was said three thousand years ago, so still it must be said, that the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive to finish the work we are engaged in, to bind up the nation's wound, to care for him who shall have borne the brunt of the battle, and for his widow and his orphans, to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and a lasting peace among ourselves, and with all nations.

— The Boston Transcript says that Professor Alonzo Tripp, the author and lecturer, has recently succeeded to the sole heirship of an ancestral domain valued at several millions. The estate, situated in British America, was originally a grant from the English crown to Achins Tripp, the inheritor's great-grandfather.

— "Time makes all things even," don't it? The stars and stripes have got back to Fort Sumter again.

THE REBELLION.

The Richmond Whig has the following telegram:—

"Fayetteville, March 1st. No Yankees have advanced in this direction from Wilmington. Other intelligence which could be communicated is contraband, but of an encouraging character."

"The confederate steamer Chickamauga was destroyed by her crew, to prevent her from falling into the hands of the enemy at Gray's Point, in Cape Fear river, on Saturday last. She is a total wreck."

The Whig editorially adds to the above: "We omit the first part of this telegram in deference to a request sent to the various Richmond journals. It related to Sherman's movements."

Information direct from Wilmington, under date of March 2d, has been received at Washington, containing most important contraband news. Everything is progressing well in that department. Trade is reviving. 1000 deserters and prisoners were about to be sent north.

Advices from City Point state that deserters during the past few days declare Sherman's forces had occupied Fayetteville, N. C., several days ago, without any difficulty. Porter's gunboats are said to have arrived at the same place.

It appears by advices from Mobile to the 6th ult., that the rebels were receiving reinforcements and strengthening their defences. The force in Mobile is said to be much larger than has generally been supposed. Gen. Canby has returned to New Orleans from a tour of inspection to Mobile Bay. Commodore Palmer's fleet is in order, and ready to commence an attack upon Mobile at any moment. The health of the troops was good.

The latest news from Matamoras is that the American flag has been hauled down by some unknown party.

Official dispatches from Gen. Grant represent that Gen. Sheridan has captured the rebel Gen. Early and most of his men. Gen. G. says deserters from every point of the enemy's line confirm the capture of Charlottesville by Gen. Sheridan. They say he captured. Early and nearly his entire force, consisting of 1800 men. Four brigades were reported as being sent to Lynchburg, to get there before Gen. Sheridan, if possible. Refugees confirm the capture, and say it took place on Thursday last, between Staunton and Charlottesville, and that the defeat was total.

The Despatch of the 2d says:—"We stated yesterday that the enemy in heavy force were moving up the Valley towards Staunton. As yet we have received no official information on the subject of their advance."

"A correspondent of the Montgomery Appeal, writing from Grenada, Miss., says affairs on the border are in a terrible condition. The country is full of Jayhawkers and robbers, composed principally of deserters. Such a reign of terror has been inaugurated that travel is almost completely broken up."

The N. Y. Herald's Winchester correspondence of the 3d, says Gen. Sheridan's force up the valley is well equipped, and commanded in person by Gen. Sheridan and his subordinates, Merritt, Custar, Devens, Forsythe and Gibbs.

A conspiracy to capture Gen. Sheridan was discovered, and three leading families sent outside our lines. A ball was announced, to which Gen. Sheridan was to be invited, and then the guerrillas were to come in and capture him.

The Raleigh (N. C.) Journal of the 2d says when their troops marched out of Wilmington they were brought to a stand-still at Alligator Creek, a short distance out, and their skirmishers driven back. It also says it is believed that Hagood's rebel brigade, with the exception of the 7th battalion, was captured.

The rebel papers are confident that Grant will move the moment the ground is sufficiently hard to permit him to do so. They say he has everything ready for an advance. The Federals are kept watching nightly for Semmes in the James River, while the rebels are kept active watching for deserters from their lines.

The U. S. transport Massachusetts, which arrived at Philadelphia on the 6th, brings news of the capture of Fort White, situated just below Georgetown, S. C., and mounting 17 heavy guns. The sailors and marines then landed and captured Georgetown. Adm. Dahlgren's flag-ship was sunk by a torpedo on her way down. All hands were saved but the steward.

— A coroner's jury in Chelsea, Mass., on the body of Catherine Brackett, have found a verdict of death by abortion produced by Eliza A. Holden, as principal or accessory to the fact. The woman Holden keeps a house in Chelsea for vile purposes, as the above transactions indicate. The deceased was 19 years of age, belonged in Portland, and had always borne a good reputation. A fearful load of guilt rests somewhere.

— The Despatch of the 2d says that owing to groundless reports most of the country people had stopped coming into the city, and the consequence is that there are no vegetables to eat.

CHARLESTON.—"Carleton," in one of his very interesting letters to the Boston Journal, says: Fort Sumter is surrounded by wire net-work, kept afloat by buoys. The fort could not have been carried by assault without a great loss of life. Immense batteries were erected in the city along the wharves; the rebels intended to hold the city to the last, even if the iron-clads passed Sumter. The citizens remaining, say it is the bitterest thing they have swallowed, to give up the city. Many of them did not dream that the city would be evacuated till the day before. There was great consternation in consequence. Five locomotives and several cars were left uninjured. Very little cotton was left, but an immense amount of rice—reported to be five hundred thousand bushels, uncleaned.

The 22d of February was celebrated. The war vessels were splendidly decorated. Each vessel fired a salute of thirty-six guns. A dinner took place in the city. Gen. Webster, Gen. Sherman's Chief of Staff, officers of the navy and army, members of the press, and civilians from the North, sat down to the table. "The President," "The Army and Navy," &c., were toasted, and sentiments were given never before heard in Charleston.

"Carleton" has secured the auction-block from the slave mart, which is on its way to Boston. He hopes to hear Governor Andrew make a speech from it in Faneuil Hall. He has also secured the locks from the iron gates of the American Bastile, as evidence that at last we have possession of the proud old city.

ODD ITEMS.—The New York News, Ben Wood's paper, is a faithful organ of the worst men and bitterest copperheads, in that metropolis and elsewhere, and with its editor and owner ought to be in the rebel camp or nowhere. Nevertheless, it sometimes gets off rich things. Here is one of them:

The movements which are now in progress in the States of the southern seaboard might have been set on foot three years ago. Nothing could have prevented Terry, in 1863, from making a landing, covered by gunboats, on the approaches to Wilmington.

Indeed! but where were the gunboats? and above all, where were the iron-clad ships to make it safe to risk such an undertaking?

Another item:

The campaign now in progress is the suggestion of a change of plan. That change has undoubtedly originated in the fact of previous failure.

Doubtless the plans have changed since Gen. Doubting has given place to Gen. I'll-try-sir.

NOT SO.—An exchange says:

When the terms Federal and Democratic were first used, they had a well-defined meaning.

We see some such trash as this very often. But the truth is, that the Federal party and name died in Madison's presidency, by the peace of 1815, and were buried out of sight by President Monroe! The Democratic party and name were born when Gen. Jackson became President. So that the Federal and Democratic parties were never opposed to each other, for one died years before the other was born.

The men who opposed the Federal Constitution, and who in 1800 defeated the Federal party and elected Jefferson, always called themselves Republicans; they never took the name democrat, and rarely used the term at all. Their ticket always bore the title Republican up to the war of 1812, and only once in that war, or shortly afterwards, it was styled Democratic Republican, and after that again always Republican, till after Jackson's election, in which many old federalists joined.

But in a few years we began to hear of the old Democratic party, and in later years some people were so ignorant as to suppose it was old. Not so; it was born about 1828, and exploded at Charleston in 1859, aged about 31 years, having set itself on fire by spontaneous combustion, as parties are apt to do.

☞ In the Concord Police Court, Feb. 28, a number of liquor cases were disposed of.—Jere. Colten for keeping a Sunday dram shop, was fined $9 and costs; also bound over in $200, for keeping liquor for sale.—Pat. Brenehan plead guilty of keeping liquor for sale, and was fined $50 and costs.—Christopher Hart for keeping liquor for sale, plead guilty; ordered to pay a fine of $50 and costs. Paid up. Promises to quit the traffic.—Dennis Sullivan for keeping liquor for sale, plead guilty, and ordered to pay a fine of $50 and costs. Paid up. Says he will send his liquor to some other market.—John N. Kimball, Ezra Morgan, Silas K. Batchelder, and Cornelius Healey for keeping liquor in their refreshment saloons, contrary to an ordinance of the city, fined $5 and costs each. Paid up and agreed to quit the traffic.—Luther C. Newhall for keeping liquor in his saloon, fined $5 and costs; afterwards arraigned for keeping liquor for sale, and ordered to furnish bonds in the sum of $200 for his appearance at Court. Wm. W. Dow, Reuben Fife, and John Torney were put under similar bonds, for the same offense.

FINANCIAL.—We quote a few paragraphs from the Commercial Bulletin's financial article:

The cry is still they come! We have to report that there are now 843 national banks, with a capital of 190 millions and a circulation of 100 millions. The national bank and greenback currency now in circulation, is, as nearly as can be ascertained, 770 millions. In January it increased 20 millions. Since August last it has increased 75. To these figures we must add, if we desire to comprehend the "inflation" that is now so much talked about, and so very generally considered alarming, the 150 millions of state bank circulation.

Deposits with the corporations, and in the hands of individuals, are running low everywhere. All the returns show this. The all absorbing governments, paying from 7 3-10 to 12 per cent., are in the hands of all. There's where the money goes. It has now become well nigh impossible to get the best mercantile paper done for anything like six per cent. As before mentioned, the best state stocks feel the pressure. Even the new Massachusetts loan sells low.

The 7-30 loan still sells well. Sales since Feb. 1st, 90 millions. Balance to be disposed of, 100 millions. A rush of small orders shows that the people are taking them. Their convertibility is the great attraction just now. The end of March may see the last dollar of them subscribed for.

Every one must see that the 7-30s are about as desirable a government security as the market affords. The 10-40 ranks next. The dearest bond of all is the old 5-20.

No man knows what the next hour may be delivered of. One thing is, however, certain. In the words of a venerable capitalist, specie is not quite yet out of fashion There is not a general in the field who can bring it below 160 within the next six months.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases of BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely eleorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, or the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

PRICE—$1 per Bottle.

LYCEUM.—The Ballot's Portsmouth correspondent says "The ninth entertainment before the Lyceum was, as usual, a liberal one, consisting of an excellent concert by the Band, (to speak well of our Band is not to compliment, for the press of other cities where the Band performs, always admits the superiority of its playing,) with Readings by Miss Shaw, and Declamation by Mr. Thos. Pemberton. We are astonished at the vast amount of entertainment the managers can return the ticket-holders for their money. The concerts and lecturers combined, are worth in these times a dollar each; and the liberality of the managers is of course met by a full attendance on the part of our citizens."

Messrs. Editors:—In a letter received, Rev. T. J. Greenwood,—himself an elocutionist of no ordinary ability, refers to the readings of Miss King, who is to appear at the Temple on Wednesday evening, in the following terms of commendation:

"Miss King is one of the best and most effective readers who have ever been before the public. Her voice is of great compass, sweet toned, richly mellow, and under perfect command. Its range of tone is used with a skill and power which makes every syllable tell in the most effective manner. She is admirable in discriptive pieces, and especially those of a lively vein. I have heard all the female celebrities who have read in Boston, including Fanny Kemble Butler, and am sure that among them all Miss King holds justly no inferior rank. If the Portsmouth people do not hear her when she visits your city, they will not only lose a rare entertainment, but they will do injustice to one whose claims as a Portsmouth girl, and whose rare merits, certainly entitle her to their consideration."

Feeling interested in everything that is calculated to improve the public taste and afford genuine enjoyment, I send you this for the benefit of the community.

A. J. PATTERSON.

☞ Miss King's Readings, to-morrow evening at the Temple. We are pleased to hear there is a prospect of a large attendance—for the lady herself merits it, as also does her entertainment.

☞ That Chief of Copperheads, C. C. Burr, and special pleader for rebels and traitors, is announced at the Temple on the evening of the 10th inst. The Stars and Bars says he comes at the call of "no party, but of several citizens who wish to hear him." Well, he hasn't got a party worth naming left on his side—that's a fact.

☞ A Concert of Vocal Music at New Castle by the Singing School, under the instructions of Prof. Foy of Portsmouth, will begin at the Congregational Church, this (Tuesday) evening, March 7th, commencing at 7 1-2 o'clock. A general invitation is extended to all. For order of committee—A. Keyes, Wm. Smart, L. Garland. 1*

☞ While there are not a quarter so many nice private horses kept in this city as there should be; still there are always some good ones, as is shown by the occasional sale of a prime animal at a high figure. Within a few months, three horses have been sold here, to be carried to other cities, for one thousand dollars or more, each; and no doubt there are others as good left—at least you will have no trouble to find them, if you leave it to the owners to decide.

Of the three, Mr. Langley's roan horse, price $1000, we mentioned at the time of sale,—and we learn that he is now owned by Dr. John B. Clarke, of the Manchester Mirror—and a hard couple they are to beat, Clarke and that horse; not to mention our old friend the Conductor, whose very name is significant,—"Go Lang."

Next, was the well-known handsome dark brown family horse and trotter, "Vermont Boy," which Albert Blaisdell, esq., consented to part with a couple of months ago, to a New York gentleman, for a roll of greenbacks to the amount of 1500.

And last, but by no means least, Messrs. Ferguson & Burley on Monday disposed of their fine gray colt "Portsmouth Boy," to Mr. McGee, a Boston gentleman here, for a round thousand dollars ($1000.)

☞ The Tribune says "Marcy would be easily run out, but for the feud in the Union ranks,—the bolt from the regular nominations giving Marcy a chance to slip in again;" and adds that "if General Marston should be beaten by the bolters, we think most of them would live to regret it—but we trust he is not to be beaten." No, we don't think there is a ghost of a chance for it. Marcy had 80 majority before—Lincoln 978 last Fall.

— "When the wicked rule, the people mourn," quoth the Manchester Union. Yes, and when the people rule, as now, such wicked sheets as dis-"Union" feel to mourn.

— Gold, Monday, 198 to 198 1-2.

GEN. GRANT'S PRIVATE VIEWS CONCERNING THE WAR.—A letter written by Gen. Grant, dated at headquarters of the Armies of the United States, Feb. 15, 1865, and addressed to an old schoolmate, Hon. Isaac N. Norris, says:

"Everything looks to me to be very favorable for a speedy termination of the war. The people of the South are ready for it if they can only get clear of their leaders. It is hard to predict what will become of them—the leaders; whether they will flee the country, or whether the people forcibly depose them and take the matter in their own hands. One or the other will likely occur if our spring campaign is as successful as I have every hope it will be."

—— The Union Republican canvass of New Hampshire gives Smyth 35,639, Harrington 32,718, doubtful 1572. Dividing the doubtfuls evenly, and the Republicans will carry the State by 2921 majority on the home vote.

—— The Monitor says, "The taxes of the Concord Railroad for the current year amount to $100,000.00, or four per cent. on its capital stock. Its other expenses are large in proportion. That's what's the matter."

READINGS BY MISS KING.—We are happy to announce that Miss Angela S. King, daughter of the late Thomas F. King, (for nine years a popular Pastor in this city,) and sister of the late Thomas Starr King,—will give public Readings at the Temple, on Wednesday evening, the 8th of March. Miss King has received the most flattering commendations wherever she has appeared. The best critics in Boston pronounced her second to no lady elocutionist who has appeared in that city.

The Boston Transcript says of her readings at the opening of the new chapel connected with the Hollis Street Church:

"The initiatory service consisted of readings by Miss King. The selections were from Browning, Sheridan, Bayard Taylor, Knowles, Whittier, Holmes, Pierpont, Mrs. Hemans, and T. B. Read. These gave Miss King an opportunity which she used with marked success, to show the versatility of her elocution and the results of her careful study. With a melodious and powerful voice, an animated and earnest spirit, she passed from the gay and joyous and comic, to the serious, sad and pathetic, with quick transitions that were easy and natural changes of mood. Her feelings and sympathies were ungrossingly given to the different topics her distinct, mellow and expressive tones interpreted.

There are few readers who combine so many different qualities, and whose renditions are of so wide a range. Measuring with accuracy her own powers, she is sure to satisfy her hearers with performances as excellent as they are varied in their character. There is an especial heartiness in her humor, and the evidence of sincerity in her tenderness. With her, nature remains the inspiration of art."

The citizens of Portsmouth should surely show their appreciation of living merit, as well as their respect for departed worth, by giving Miss King an audience limited only by the capacity of the Temple.

Tickets 25 cts. to be obtained at the stores of Messrs. Foster, Hutchings, Shores and Preston. Doors open at 6 1-2. Readings commence at 7 1-2 o'clock.

DEATHS.

In Charlestown, Mass., March 4th, Mr. SAMUEL DROWN, aged about 60, formerly a pilot in Portsmouth.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest, per annum; known as the Seven-Thirty Loan.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent, including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7 30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is

THE ONLY LOAN in the Market

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

DR. URANN,

PRACTICAL PHYSICIAN,

Who has made so many wonderful and instantaneous cures in Boston, New York, Hartford, Springfield, and more recently in New Hampshire and Vermont, has taken

ROOMS FOR THE PRESENT AT THE

FRANKLIN HOUSE,

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

DR. URANN'S treatment is such that by it

are affected in one or two treatments, and many are entirely cured by one, as the following will testify:—

W. P. HOMES, 50 and 52 Federal Street, Boston, for many years was troubled with Heart complaint, so bad that at times he was unable to attend to his business; after one treatment he was able to run up stairs, work in his garden and attend to his business; has since gained 12 pounds.

MRS. ELLEN COREY, of Cambridgeport, Mass.—Sciatica; so lame that she could not walk without assistance; after one treatment of fifteen minutes was well as ever, and could walk a mile free from pain.

MRS. SARAH P. STILES, Lowell, Mass., had Fever Sores on both legs of twelve years standing; her right ankle measured eighteen inches, and was as blue as indigo; she could not move her foot; after one treatment it was reduced one-half, she could move her foot freely and is getting well rapidly, her left ankle all healed.

Prof. G. M. LARRON, 1 Dix Place, Boston, troubled with Spinal difficulty, was in much pain; relieved by one treatment.

Miss HANNAH COOL, Campton, N. H.—Spinal difficulties; was unable to walk but a short distance or do any kind of work; perfectly cured, and is now the picture of health.

Miss C. FROTHINGHAM, Boston, Portrait Painter, was troubled with great depression of spirits, at times was unable to attend to her favorite employment; was entirely cured, and she expresses herself, is "made over anew."

MRS. J. BROWN, Boston, a severe cough and pains through her lungs, cured.

Capt. W. H. LAMPSON'S child, Lowell, Mass The child was pronounced by physicians as hopelessly idiotic. The child could neither walk or sit alone, and took no notice of anything. After one treatment he began to improve, and has so far gained as to be able to walk alone, can talk, takes notice of everything, laughs and sings, and appears perfectly well.

MRS. HINGKLEY, wife of A. T. Hinckley, of State Arsenal, Hartford, Ct., troubled with hip complaint and contraction of the cords of the legs; could not get her heel to the floor within four inches; had to be brought down stairs in arms; after one treatment of twenty minutes was able to run up and down stairs with ease, and is now able to walk the streets.

Mr J. TURNER, Hartford, Ct, troubled for many years with loss of memory; could not attend to business; had been under the best medical treatment in England with no beneficial effect; after one treatment was perfectly restored.

Miss MARTHA ST. JOHN, Simsbury, Ct., was confined to her bed from spinal difficulty and prolapsus uteri; had not been dressed for more than a year; in twenty minutes she was enabled to dress and walk out to one of the neighbors, a distance of about a half mile; she has since been to Hartford and to church, and is improving daily.

MRS. HENRY LOOMIS, Southwick, Mass., troubled with fits and spinal difficulties, could not walk without much difficulty, perfectly cured by one treatment.

MRS. WM. JENKINS, Unionville, Conn., troubled for over two years with chronic liver complaint and rheumatism, had a large lump on her side which was very painful; was unable to lie down. Cured by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

JOSEPH H. ELDRIDGE, formerly of the Hartford Police, more recently on Hartford and New Haven Railroad, was obliged to give up his business on account of a severe cough and bleeding, perfectly cured and can now do a good day's work.

LYDIA L. FULLER, of East Wallingford, Vt., had entirely lost the use of her limbs after a severe attack of diptheria, was restored by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

FANNY DAVIS, of Moretown, Vt., had been confined to her bed for more than five years—was not able to stand—after one treatment of less than an hour, was enabled to walk around the room, and is now quite well.

Miss HUTCHINSON, daughter of Judge Hutchinson of West Randolph, Vt., was troubled with fits, having some days from fifty to one hundred. She was unable to eat anything but liquids—was not able to stand. After one treatment she began to improve, until now, she is the picture of health, able to walk as well as any one, eats hearty and has no fits.

SOUTHWICK, Mass., July 21, 1863.

DR URANN,—Dear Sir:—I suppose it is ever a pleasure to you to learn the convalescent state of your patients; notwithstanding my long three years of almost absolute confinement to my bed, unable most of the time to converse with or see any company, and for over two years unable to feed myself—yet with this painful picture of human wretchedness which made life almost a burden, since your treatment of my spine, on the 7th day of June, I have been able to take my meals at the table, with my family, ride out daily, and converse freely with all; and without some new misfortune befalls me, I shall soon be able to interest myself in the labors of my profession, at least to preach one sermon a Sabbath. Without flattery, in my honest judgment, there is no better treatment in the hands of men for the Spinal Disease than the one which you honor, and as my heart beats with sympathy with all Spinal sufferers, I only wish they knew the wonderful utility of your treatment, and avail themselves of the same. Yours with respect and gratitude,

M. H. RISING.

DR. URANN'S TERMS

Are such that all can avail themselves of his treatment.

☞ Persons at a distance who are unable to visit the Doctor, by sending particulars of their cases, with one dollar enclosed, will receive advice and learn whether their cases can be treated at a distance. In all cases, state age and sex.

It's strange good people can patronize these baser sort o' things. And you heard the sympathy of A. Miner, did you? For my part I should rather like to hear that. He was our next door neighbor; and my Paul used to say that Adolphus Miner didn't exactly know what sympathy for anybody, and people generally didn't think he had; but, la me! times change, and now it seems he's got some, and had it set into music.—[Boston Post.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

16 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Reports, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsuccessful, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so low.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the best in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Silsa, and others.

FOR THE

CHEROKEE MEDICINES.

Glad News for the Unfortunate!

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.

Cures in from one to three days.

CHEROKEE REMEDY
—AND—
CHEROKEE INJECTION,
Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhea, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhea, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack Injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

Price—CHEROKEE REMEDY, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5.

Cherokee Cure, the great Indian Medicine,

ROOTS, BARKS AND LEAVES.

An unfailing cure for Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, and all diseases caused by self-pollution; such as Loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pains in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, Weak Nerves, Difficult Breathing, Trembling, Wakefulness, Eruptions on the Face, Pale Countenance, Insanity, Consumption, and all the direful complaints caused by departing from the path of nature.

☞ This medicine is a simple vegetable extract and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn cases.

☞ To those who have trifled with their constitution, until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, Despair not; the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed!

☞ For full particulars, get a circular from any drug store in the country, or write the proprietors, who will mail free to any one desiring the same, a full treatment in pamphlet form.

The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlets or advice to the proprietors,

The Old Established Hospital.
No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y.
QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!
DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private disease, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the latest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.
In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Blotches, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.
YOUNG MEN.
Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasures of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.
DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.
A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. Teller's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Matrimony. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. Teller has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.
TO THE LADIES.
Dr. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Vichois's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.
CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, the price per box, these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.
Office hours from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 1 to 5 P. M.
N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice. N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

The Washington Republican extra, of Monday morning says: "Officers of Gen. Schofield's army, who arrived here this morning from Wilmington, state that when they left that place on the 1st inst., deserters and refugees who came into our lines that day reported that Sherman, by a flank movement, had compelled the rebels to evacuate Florence, S. C., and was moving in the direction of Fayetteville, N. C., which is on the direct route to either Goldsboro' or Raleigh."

A Washington dispatch says evidence accumulates that Sherman has flanked Johnston's forces, and placed himself between them and Wilmington.

The report that he had flanked Florence says that place was occupied by our cavalry, who destroyed the railroad there.

The possibility of a junction between Gens. Sherman and Schofield is assured beyond doubt.

Wilmington correspondence of the 25th says Gen. Sherman's cavalry was reported at Florence a few days previous, and his main body has crossed the northwestern branch of the Cape Fear river, 60 miles from Wilmington. If so, he brings the Chickamauga between two fires.

(Note. As the Chickamauga has since been destroyed by the rebels, this report of Sherman's whereabouts would seem to be confirmed.)

The Richmond Examiner of the 4th denounces the execution of Beall, and says threats were made in the streets of Richmond to hang any Yankee officer on parole, who might be found at large.

The Sentinel says the Secretary of the Treasury would be glad to receive donations of money, bonds, plate, or other valuables, to enable him to pay the Confederate soldiers.

GOLD, on Tuesday, 199 to 197 3-4.

— A three cent copper coin has been ordered, and by law to be a legal tender up to sixty cents. The three cent postal currency is to be withdrawn.

— An extra session of the Arkansas Legislature has been called for the first Monday in April to consider the Constitutional Amendment to abolish slavery.

— At the election in Memphis on the 4th inst. for Governor and members of the Legislature, Parson Brownlow received 1186 votes, scattering 110. Smith, for State Senator, had 365 majority over Logue.—Mr. Timothy was elected Representative. All on the Brownlow ticket.

— The Richmond Sentinel of the 28th ult., in an article upon the reconstruction of Tennessee says:—"The North is treating us, whenever it has power to do so, as the vile corpus on which it is making political, communistic and socialistic experiments just as phrenologists experiment on hares, dogs and other animals, by removing parts of their brains or other members, to discover thereby the appropriate functions, properties and qualities of each member, and thus to acquire useful knowledge for all mankind from the protracted agonies and death of a few poor brutes."

— The late Union victories, and the second inauguration of President Lincoln, were celebrated in New York city on Monday. The procession was of great length, the military display fine, and the firemen made an excellent appearance. Other portions of the procession, including wounded veterans in carriages, and the trades, excited much interest. The procession was about three hours in passing a given point. The meeting in Union Square was largely attended. The crowd in the streets was probably the largest ever seen in New York.

—In the U. S. Senate March 6, an order was adopted directing the Sergeant-at-arms to remove forthwith from so much of the Capitol as is under his care, all intoxicating liquors, and hereafter to exclude liquors in every form from the Senate portion of the Capitol.

—Congress adjourned on Friday night in a more orderly and decorous manner than usual. For many days the members had been hard at work to complete the business, and especially on the tax bill. There was less drunkenness on the last night than has been known for years before.

—In the city election of Portland, Monday, the votes were, for Mayor, Jacob McClellan, (Republican) 1753; Cyrus Sturdivant, (Democrat) 674; Albert W. Waite, (Labor Reform candidate) 488; scattering, 10. The vote last year was as follows: McClellan, 1941; Carroll, (Democrat) 805; scattering, 8. McClellan's majority this year is 581, and his plurality 1079. Last year his majority was 1129. Every Republican ward officer was elected.

— A severe accident occurred on the Camden and Amboy Railroad, about 30 miles from Philapelphia, on Wednesday morning, killing 5 persons and injuring 30, mostly returned soldiers.

For the N. H. Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA, March 1.

Messrs. Editors:—As you were so kind as to publish the substance of a late communication, we hope you will insert the following abstract from our late Quarterly Report, viz:—

The New England Soldiers' Aid Association, of Philadelphia, has, during the quarter ending Jan. 1st, sent home, in neat walnut coffins, the remains of sixteen N. E. soldiers who died in this department.

We have aided the wives or relatives of seventeen disabled soldiers, while detained here, ministering to their relief by giving them from $10 to $20 each; [four of these were from N. H.]

We have given shirts and drawers, mostly woolen, to 122 soldiers, and socks, &c., to 237.

We have given to the feeble 94 bottles of wine and brandy, and 52 packages of dried fruit, jellies, &c.

We have given 3 reams writing paper, 1000 envelopes, several dollars' worth of postage stamps, and 50 lbs. of tobacco.

We have assisted 113 destitute N. E. soldiers to reach their homes, giving them various amounts up to $10 each, and small sums to treble the number—in every instance placing the articles in the hands of the soldiers.

We have collected pay and bounty for 51 N. E. soldiers, free of charge.

We have visited, and recorded the names, of over 3000 N. E. soldiers, and written over 600 letters.

Our rooms are daily open to all the soldiers of our common country, where they receive advice and assistance gratuitously.

Our system of weekly visitation enables us to learn the wants of the soldiers, and to relieve them directly and personally.

Our care for the dead is peculiar to our association; and while it draws heavily upon our treasury, it gives great satisfaction to the widows and bereaved friends of the deceased soldiers, and we have no doubt it will be appreciated and sustained by the liberal spirit of New England, on which we are dependant, to enable us to continue the work.

J. B. SMYTH,
Chairman of the Board.

J. P. WENDELL, Secretary.

—The TAX on Books was stricken out of the Tax Bill by the Senate. Senator Sumner denounced it as a tax on knowledge, whereupon Senator Hale pleasantly said that if a tax were laid upon knowledge the Senator from Massachusetts would surely be bankrupted.

—Cox of Ohio was reproached by Long and Corry of the same state, after the adjournment of the House on Wednesday, with disloyalty to the democratic party. Cox fitly answered back that they were disloyal to their country, and had better go to Richmond where they belong.

—The Clerical party in Mexico are beginning to organize in ear nest against the newly developed policy of the Emperor Maximilian.

The South Carolinians may not belong to the association of the "Straightouts" but their coat-tails do.—Lou. Jour.

WHAT THE "PRESS" SAY OF US.

GREAT GIFT DISTRIBUTION.—A rare opportunity is offered for obtaining watches, chains, diamond rings, silverware, etc., by Messrs. Arrandale & Co., at No. 167 Broadway. They have an immense stock of articles, varying in value, and all are offered at one dollar each. The distribution is very fairly done—you agree to take a certificate of a certain article, enclosed in an envelope, and are not required to pay your dollar unless you are satisfied with the article, which will certainly be worth more than that amount, and may be $50 or $100. An excellent mode this of investing a dollar.—Sunday Times, N. Y. City, Feb. 19, '65.

Messrs. Arrandale & Co, have long been personally known to us, and we believe them to be every way worthy of public confidence. N. Y. Scottish American Journal, June 11, 1864.

We have inspected, at the office of Arrandale & Co.'s Agency for European Manufacturing Jewelry, a large assortment of fashionable and valuable jewelry of the newest patterns. We also noticed a large quantity of silver plate, and understand that the whole of these newly imported articles are to be disposed of on a novel principle, giving great advantages to buyers, and affording extensive employment to agents. We know the firm question to be very respectable and thoroughly worthy of public confidence, and recommend our friends to read their advertisement. N. Y. Albion, Sep. 3, 1864.

By Messrs. Arrandale & Co.'s arrangement, the advantages must be on the side of the customer, for he has everything to gain, and nothing comparatively to lose. He knows what he will get for his dollar beforehand, and he need not send it if he is not satisfied. N. Y. Weekly News, Aug. 6, 1864.

EMPLOYMENT FOR LADIES.—The most eligible and profitable employment we have heard of for ladies is the sale of certificates for the "Great Gift Distribution" of Arrandale & Co. A lady of our acquaintance has been very successful in this way, not only in filling her own purse, but also in doing a good turn to those to whom she sold the Certificates, as will be seen from our advertising columns. Gentlemen can also be thus engaged.—N. Y. Sunday Mercury, August 14, 1864.

In our columns the reader will find an advertisement of Arrandale & Co.'s Gift Distribution of watches, jewelry and silver-ware. In payment of that advertisement we received several sets of the jewelry advertised, and we are warranted in saying that, both in finish and quality, they quite exceeded our expectations. They turned out to be just what they had been represented.—True Democrat, (Lancaster,) August 17, 1864.

The British Whig of Kingston, C. W., says, Nov. 26, 1864, one of our lady subscribers became an agent for Arrandale & Co., and by request brought some twenty articles, sent as prizes for her agency, to this office for inspection, and without hesitation we can state that each and all of the articles were worth treble the amount of cost to the recipients, and some of them six times.

We have seen some very pretty specimens of Table and Tea Spoons, Gold Watches, Ladies' Chain Pins, Bracelets, etc., which have been sent by Arrandale & Co., to this place for $1 each.—Angelica Reporter, N. Y. State, Feb. 15, 1865.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Dr. W. W. Brown, late Surgeon of the 7th regiment, has been appointed an assistant surgeon at the U. S. Hospital in Manchester, where have just arrived about 40 wounded soldiers from Fortress Monroe. They belong mostly to the 13th regiment.

—— The family of Hiram Welch, in Manchester, found their tea very bitter last Saturday evening, and some of them were sick: a doctor was called, who relieved them of poison. On examining the tea kettle the water therein was found strongly impregnated with strychnine, some of which was undissolved.

—— After the action near Fair Oaks on the 27th of October last, it was reported that the colors of the 10th N. H. regiment were captured by the enemy. Capt. Corcoran, of that regiment, who arrived at his home last week, states that when the rebels were charging he took the State colors, and, tearing them from the staff, hastily buried them. At the same time the color sergeant of the regiment wrapped the United States flag around his body, and bore it safely from the field.

—— At a public exhibition of the Spring street Grammar School in Exeter, last week, the first class gave a silver pitcher and salver to their teacher, Mr. Sperry French of North Hampton,—and the whole gave him the net proceeds of the exhibition being about $40.

—— The War Department has granted furloughs, to include the 25th day of March, 1865, with free transportation by the quartermaster's department to and from their homes, to all soldiers belonging to New Hampshire regiments now in the hospital in the Department of the Mississippi, who will not be fit for duty in fifteen days.

VICE PRESIDENT JOHNSON took the oath of office in the Senate, on Saturday. Before doing so, he made a short speech to the Senate.

He said by the choice of the people he had been made presiding officer of this body and in presenting himself here in obedience to the behests of the Constitution of the United States it would perhaps not be out of place to remark just here what a striking thing the Constitution was. It was the Constitution of the people of the country and under it here to-day, before the American Senate, he felt that he was a man and an American citizen.

He would say to Senators and others before him, to the Supreme Court, which sat before him, that they all got their power from the people of this country. Turning to Mr. Chase, Mr. Johnson said, your exaltation and position depend upon the people Then turning toward the Cabinet ministers he said:—"And I will say to you, Mr. Secretary Stanton, and to you, Mr. Secretary Welles, I would say, all derive your power from the people." Mr. Johnson then remarked that the great element of vitality in this government was its nearness and proximity to the people. He wanted to say to all who heard him, in the face of the American people, that all power was derived from the people. He would say in the hearing of the Foreign Ministers, for he was going to tell the truth here to-day, that he was a plebian. He thanked God for it. It was the popular heart of this nation that was beating to sustain the Cabinet officials and the President of the United States. It was a strange occasion that called forth a plebian like him to tell such things as these.

Mr. Johnson next adverted to affairs in Tennessee and the abolition of slavery there. He thanked God that Tennessee was a State in the Union and had never been out. The State Government had never been discontinued; for a time there had been an interregnum, a hiatus, but she had never been out of the Union. He stood here to-day as her Representative. On this day she would elect a Governor and a Legislature, and she would very soon send Senators and members to Congress.

MISS KING'S READINGS,

AT THE TEMPLE,

READINGS BY MISS KING.—We are happy to annouce that Miss Angela S. King, daughter of the late Thomas F. King, (for nine years a popular Pastor in this city,) and sister of the late Thomas Starr King,—will give public Readings at the Temple, on Wednesday evening, the 8th of March. Miss King has received the most flattering commendations wherever she has appeared. The best critics in Boston pronounced her second to no lady elocutionist who has appeared in that city.

The Boston Transcript says of her readings at the opening of the new chapel connected with the Hollis Street Church:

"The initiatory service consisted of readings by Miss King. The selections were from Browning, Sheridan, Bayard Taylor, Knowles, Whittier, Holmes, Pierpont, Mrs. Hemans, and T. B. Read. These gave Miss King an opportunity which she used with marked success, to show the versatility of her elocution and the results of her careful study. With a melodious and powerful voice, an animated and earnest spirit, she passed from the gay and joyous and comic, to the serious, sad and pathetic, with quick transitions that were easy and natural changes of mood. Her feelings and sympathies were engrossingly given to the different topics her distinct, mellow and expressive tones interpreted.

There are few readers who combine so many different qualities, and whose renditions are of so wide a range. Measuring with accuracy her own powers, she is sure to satisfy her hearers with performances as excellent as they are varied in their character. There is an especial heartiness in her humor, and the evidence of sincerity in her tenderness. With her, nature remains the inspiration of art."

The citizens of Portsmouth should surely show their appreciation of living merit, as well as their respect for departed worth, by giving Miss King an audience limited only by the capacity of the Temple.

Tickets 25 cts. to be obtained at the stores of Messrs. Foster, Hutchings, Shores and Preston. Doors open at 6 1-2. Read commence at 7 1-2 o'clock.

Messrs. Editors:—In a letter received, Rev. T. J. Greenwood,—himself an elocutionist of no ordinary ability, refers to the readings of Miss King, who is to appear at the Temple on Wednesday evening, in the following terms of commendation:

"Miss King is one of the best and most effective readers who have ever been before the public. Her voice is of great compass, sweet toned, richly mellow, and under perfect command. Its range of tone is used with a skill and power which makes every syllable tell in the most effective manner. She is admirable in discriptive pieces, and especially those of a lively vein. I have heard all the female celebrities who have read in Boston, including Fanny Kemble Butler, and am sure that among them all Miss King holds justly no inferior rank. If the Portsmouth people do not hear her when she visits your city, they will not only lose a rare entertainment, but they will do injustice to one whose claims as a Portsmouth girl, and whose rare merits, certainly entitle her to their consideration."

Feeling interested in everything that is calculated to improve the public taste and afford genuine enjoyment, I send you this for the benefit of the community.

A. J. PATTERSON.

☞ Rev. Mr. DeNormandie, on Sunday evening last, gave a very interesting and valuable discourse on Temperance, from his pulpit at the Stone Church. The audience was large, filling the spacious house; and so desirous are many prominent and public-spirited citizens (both in and outside the parish) who enjoyed the lecture, that the community generally, and especially the young, may have the benefit of hearing the same,—that we understand Mr. DeNormandie has consented to deliver it again; and this will probably be done at the Temple, some evening within a week or two,—on which occasion, we hear, it is proposed to charge an admission fee, for the benefit of the Portsmouth Freedmen's Society. We hope this will be done—both on account of the estimable charity referred to; and also as the lecture is pronounced by all who heard it, one of the best of the kind ever given here, and peculiarly calculated to interest the public generally.

TEMPERANCE.—Rev. Mr. Adams, in a temperance lecture recently, in Portsmouth, stated that there were one hundred and twenty grog shops in that city, and $360,000 was paid annually for rum.

The above item has gone the rounds of the press, and upon it have been hung a great variety of comments, especially by that portion of the editors who have always opposed every temperance effort while it was active, but have generally praised the past ones, when they could make a little capital out of it. They can make nothing out of it at this time.

The effort in Portsmouth this winter was begun by the Sons of Temperance, who requested each Pastor in our city to preach a Temperance Sermon in his own pulpit, on a Sunday evening, in turn. All agreed to do it, and all did it; and on such evenings there were no other lectures.

Mr. Adams, in his lecture, made the above statements, which are doubtless correct. They show an increase of drinking places, from about 80 the year before the war, to 120 now; and a corresponding increase of cost, doubled by the currency, and trebled by tax and speculation.

And it is to be considered also, that this increase of places is due, in great measure, to the great influx of people, not only of those who now reside and work here, but of bounty jumpers, men to enlist in the army and navy, and the nameless classes of men and women who hover round the dockyards and camps of all nations.

Under the efforts to enforce the law a few years ago, the places were down as low as 60; and in the Washingtonian time about the same. In the latter time there were once only 87 who avowed their sale; but the real number has never been below 60 for a single month in the last fifty years.

Fifty years ago, when the Town of Portsmouth had 7,500 inhabitants, the United States government levied a direct tax on 242 retailers of spirits.

This was double the present number of places,—while the population was only two-thirds of what it is now.

No strange thing has happened to us. There has been a flux and a reflux of the tide of intemperance and death—and while it is not possible for law or effort, in human hands, to convert our whole community to temperance—it may truly be said, no efforts in this direction are ever wholly lost.

Our pastors deserve our thanks for their effort; and no doubt good will come of it,—maugre the sneers or lies of those who never do anything to purify society, but all they can to corrupt it.

☞ We correct the statement about a girl who was said to keep back part of the Spools she had taken from the Mill,—as we now learn she made restitution of all she had.

☞ We understand that two marine engines are to be built at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, for the steamers Alert and Epervier. The boilers of these vessels are also to be constructed here.

☞ We learn that Mr. Albert H. Drown of Concord, has recently been appointed to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of G. J. Prescott, Master Machinist of this Yard.

☞ We learn that Miss King, who is to give readings at the Temple, has been engaged for a Professional tour in California—the theatre of the closing labors of her gifted brother.

☞ Counting in this day, March 8, we have had 89 days of sleighing,—as the snow fell Dec. 10, and sleighs were let here Dec. 11. We observe now, one or two carriages on wheels; but our streets are mostly covered with ice, more than a foot thick, and quite solid.

☞ A free and indiscriminate row was occasioned on Tuesday morning by the collision of two boats belonging to Navy Yard workmen landing at Kittery Foreside. It arose from a dispute about "Stage" rights, (not State rights) and from hard words came blows, which were dispensed in the most lavish manner, until some non-believer in the manly art of self-defence interfered and separated the pugilists. It don't seem to be necessary to quarrel about the landing places at Kittery Foreside, as there are ample accommodations for all, unless they act the part of hogs, and if so, they should be made to walk round by way of the Bridge.

☞ The Herald says the Eastern Railroad has under consideration the policy of changing the grade of the road at Newburyport, to come in on Water street, and have their station there. If they do that, and the Newburyport bridge should be discontinued, they might make those old piers useful.

— The Naval Appropriation bill makes the following appropriations: For the completion and repair of vessels, $24,500,000; for their equipment nearly $6,000,000; for the construction, repair, wear and tear of machinery of vessels in commission over $17,000,000. Appropriations for the navy yards are as follows: Portsmouth, N. H., $317,000; Boston, $25,000; New York, $896,000; Philadelphia, $285,000; Washington, $218,000; Norfolk, $468,000.

A TRUE AIM.—It has not been the aim of the proprietor of Hunnewell's great preparations, advertised on our first de columns, to base a false reputation by long and unmeaning advertising, but a real one by true results, to which all who try them will cheerfully assent. See advertisement.

The greatest discovery of the age is the new soap just come out, and known as the J Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap; it not only saves time in washing, but does the work in a much superior manner to all other soaps now before the people. The makers claim it is manufactured on an entirely different principle, and that it is a great labor-saving article, besides going much further than any other soap. Our experience confirms all the inventors claims for it. Try it, and we think all will be convinced of the fact, and will ever have the Gold Medal or none. 95

AGAIN AND AGAIN.—Our readers may think it strange that we so often urge upon their attention a medicinal preparation. All know we have, for a number of weeks, urged the importance of a supply of Coe's Cough Balsam in the house, ready for immediate use. But our excuse is that the vast amount of sickness, sorrow and death that are the immediate result of sudden coughs, colds and pulmonary attacks; while thousands of our children are dying from croup and lung complaints. Time and experience have proved that Coe's Cough Balsam is the most speedy and reliable preparation ever known to the world. Like magic it relieves the irritation of the throat, removes the stoppages that prevent breathing in croup, and heals all soreness of the throat, chest and lungs. No man should neglect to supply his family with a safe and reliable remedy like Coe's Cough Balsam, any more than he should neglect the supply of their daily bread. It costs but 40 cents, and the bottles contain twice as much as those of any other remedy at the same cost, while in merit it is superior to all others. All drug stores keep it for sale. 4j18dawkm

EYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1866. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWEET'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Sweet's in removing the worst kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JERRESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dis tress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I tried one bottle of DR. S. SWEET'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CRESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841

DR. SWEET: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CRESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle of one of Dr. Sweet's medicines will be paid for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWEET, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. mav26

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Assist'nt U. S. Patent Office, Washington, 8 do the Act of 1837.)

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions; and full and explicit advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have the advantage for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none MORE SUCCESSFUL AT OBTAINING PATENTS THAN THE SUBSCRIBER, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water: also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable,—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named persons, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Alsop, and others.

DR. W. R. MERWIN & CO.'S COLUMN

FOR THE

CHEROKEE MEDICINES.

Glad News for the Unfortunate!

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.

Cures in from one

to three days.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

—AND—

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

Price—CHEROKEE REMEDY, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5.

Cherokee Cure, the great Indian Medicine,

ROOTS, BARKS AND LEAVES.

An unfailing cure for Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, and all diseases caused by self-pollution; such as Loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pains in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, Weak Nerves, Difficult Breathing, Trembling, Wakefulness, Emptiness in the Face, Pale Countenance, Insanity, Consumption, and all the direful complaints caused by departing from the path of nature.

☞ This medicine is a simple vegetable extract and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn cases.

☞ To those who have trifled with their constitution, until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, Despair not; the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed!

☞ For full particulars, get a circular from any drug store in the country, or write the proprietors, who will mail free to any one desiring the same, a full treatment in pamphlet form.

☞ Prices, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5, and forwarded by express to all parts of the world.

The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived; by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlets or advice to the proprietors,

VOL. XXVI. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. THURSDAY, MARCH 9, 1865 : 68. No. 55.

The Chronicle.

FROM THE 4TH N. H. REGT.—A correspondent in the 4th Regt. writes from Fort Fisher, Feb. 16th; after alluding to the immense strength of the Fort and the great difficulties in the way of its capture, the valor displayed in the fight, &c. he says the 4th N. H. and 9th Me. were the only New England regiments in the fight. The 4th was led by Capt J. N. Roberts, of Dover, a brave, noble officer, one of the few who is loved by every man in his command. The loss of Col. Bell, who fell mortally wounded while leading his brigade close to the Fort, is deplored by the entire division. This regiment, the 4th, now commanded by Lieut. Col. Parker, has been in many hard fought battles the past campaign. At the mine explosion fifty-five bullet holes were put through the flag, and the staff shot away three times."

☞ Mr. Bonner of the New York Ledger being asked, why, when his time, patience, energy and brains were so constantly occupied,—why he troubled himself with horses, replied:

"Why?" said he, The reason is plain to any thinking man. I wanted relaxation from the cares of business; and the study of the noble horse was most in consonance with my feelings, outside of my family and business pursuits; and I came to the conclusion to have the best horse stock for road purposes that I could purchase; and experience has convinced me I was not astray in my action. When I drive out, I lay aside all my business considerations and reflections; and when I return to my family, I feel refreshed, not only in mind and body, but invigorated to such an extent, that it is pleasurable to the degree of entire satisfaction—for my family see the advantages of it, my true friends are satisfied with my course, and the public patronise me in my action."

— One Frederick T. Lerned, of Cambridgeport, Mass., has disappeared. He was the secretary of what was called the People's Mutual Mining Company, and it is reported that, as such, he had obtained subscriptions to the amount of about $10,000 for shares in his coal mining company, and put the money in his pocket, leaving the subscribers in the lurch. He was a fast young man, and owes another $10,000 or more.

— The Memphis and Vicksburg packet, James Watson, laden with Government freight, a large number of passengers, and 86 soldiers, sunk 12 miles below Napoleon, on the morning of the 5th inst. Over thirty lives were lost, including Adams' Express messenger, twenty soldiers and several ladies and children. The officers of the boat were mostly saved. The steamer and cargo are a total loss.

—There was a fight in the Canada House of Assembly on Wednesday last, Mr. Cauchon, a French Canadian, and Mr. Dufresne another member of the same race, being the parties concerned. Nobody was hurt, but the dignity of the House suffered considerably.

—Goldwin Smith says of President Lincoln's little Gettysburg speech—a perfect gem by the way, and the best speech he ever made: "It may be doubted whether any king in Europe would have expressed himself more royally."

—A. C. Dennison of Mechanic Falls, Me. is manufacturing large quantities of paper in the British Provinces. If we can now export paper, what relief would come from the abolition of the duty on paper?

— The result of the elections in New Brunswick will probably be in favor of a postponement of the Confederation scheme for an indefinite period. The Legislative union of Canada will probably go on, —The existence of petroleum in large quantities throughout the Russian empire has led to the grant of a concession by the Czar to a French company.

—A button-hole sewing machine is one of the latest inventions—the work being turned out at the rate of one hundred holes per hour.

—In two Philadelphia wards the drafted men have concluded to give a grand fancy dress ball this week, in honor of the country calling them to battle.

— The Anniversary of the death of Rev. Thomas Starr King was appropriately noticed at the Hollis street Church, Boston, Sunday morning.

— An exchange discovers that S. C. can probably talk more and do less than any other State in the Union.

THURSDAY, MARCH 9, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

A rebel account of Sherman's raid through Columbia, S. C., represents the destruction of property by an accidental fire as very great. The account says, that the "public stores were thrown open by the rebels, and everybody helped themselves. No stores were burnt. General Sherman entered Columbia in the afternoon, and soon afterwards they commenced destroying the public property. The depots and arsenals were blown up, and buildings in the suburbs containing public stores were fired. The country around the place is stripped of all eatables, and for transportation all the horses and carriages in the city were taken. The citizens are said to be in a destitute condition. Many negroes left with Sherman's army, but none were taken by force. Large numbers returned to their masters. No outrages are known to have been committed on ladies. The Federals were under strict discipline during their march through the city.

General Sherman's infantry and artillery were estimated at seventy thousand. No cavalry with him. His rear guard passed through on Tuesday afternoon. The troops were in the best condition, were well clothed and well shod, and marched as if they had just started on an expedition, instead of having been out for weeks.

Some of Sherman's officers said his destination was Raleigh and Salisbury. The General himself appeared in good spirits and confident of success. One corps took the road to Camden and Florence, another corps the road to Winnsboro, and Sherman with two corps moved on the direct road to Charlotte.

"The Charleston Courier of the 2d inst. says an officer from Sherman's army was in Charleston, taking initiative steps towards raising a regiment of white troops there. A number of the families who had removed beyond the limits of the city of Charleston had returned with their household goods."

Washington dispatches of March 7, say information has reached there leading some to doubt the reported capture of Charlottesville, and the rebel General Early by Sheridan, at least on the day named by rebel deserters. Gen. Sheridan is said to be at Staunton.

A letter direct from Wilmington says rebel deserters are coming into our lines there in considerable numbers. The exchange of prisoners has also commenced at that place. A letter also from Wilmington announces the reception of reliable advices there that Sherman's advance entered North Carolina over two weeks ago. He himself was at Camden, S. C., on the 28th of February.

It does not now appear that any of Gen. Sherman's force has arrived at Wilmington, or even that a junction had been effected with Schofield's army. General Schofield, with a portion of his army, had advanced ten miles out from the city, and met with frequent resistance from prowling bands of guerrillas and small detachments of the enemy, who appeared to be ever on the alert to pick up stragglers. The rebels were also actively endeavoring to cut off the supplies which were left at Wilmington under a strong guard, for the use of his troops.

It was anticipated that General Terry would soon resume active movements to aid Sherman.

The N. Y. Herald's City Point correspondent of the 6th says rebel deserters and refugees coming into our lines before Richmond confirm the report that Gen. Sheridan had captured the rebel Gen. Early and nearly his entire army on Thursday and Friday last in Shenandoah Valley, between Charlottetville and Staunton. It is believed Sheridan is now well advanced on his way to Lynchburg or Richmond, in whichever way he may desire.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says it is reported from Hancock's Headquarters at Winchester, Va., that Sheridan had defeated Early, but that Early is not captured.

The World's City Point dispatch says there were rumors in the Army of the Potomac that Sherman had defeated Johnston in a heavy battle, and captured 1500 prisoners.

The Herald's Sixth Corps correspondence of the 6th inst. says there are indications that Lee will fall back to the line of the Roanoke, as large numbers of negroes have already been sent there to throw up fortifications. The siege guns of Petersburg and Richmond have been sent in that direction.

Reports had reached Wilmington, March 2 confirming the statement that Sherman had reached Cape Fear river, 60 miles above Wilmington, previous to the 1st, thus baffling the rebel plans to concentrate against him, and forcing a battle near Goldsborough, with the advantages in their favor.

☞ The Newburyport Herald says that "It is generally agreed that Vice President Johnson was wretchedly drunk when he made his inauguration speech last Saturday." The Traveller correspondent says "Senator Wilson will introduce a resolution in the Senate, praying for the dismissal of all employees of that body who are in the habitual use of intoxicating liquors. It is a censure on the conduct of certain gentlemen on Saturday, high as well as low."

—The population of St. Louis is 165,449, an increase of 4,673 since 1860.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

— By the accident on the Camden and Amboy, N. J. railroad, Wednesday morning, the following New Hampshire soldiers are reported as wounded:

William E. Tucker, Co. D, 6th, lacerated in hands. Newton Reynolds, Quartermaster's Sergeant, Co. L, 2d, badly scalded; Frederick Rayre, Company G, 9th, severely injured in head. J. F. Foster, Co. A, 9th, fracture of the left ankle; G. A. Jennis, Co. D, 9th, scalded; W. J. Hull, Co. I, 9th, contusion of both legs; Horace Page, Co. G, 9th, right leg fractured; George M. Brooks, Co. B. 5th, right leg fractured, and severe contusion of chest; Wm. Regan, Co. L, New Hampshire heavy artillery, badly scalded in head and arms; Jos. Leland, 15th, fracture of right ankle; and some internal injury; William Morton, Company D, 11th, dead; William W. Fish, 11th, contusion of hip and leg.

—— Between forty and fifty men left camp in Concord Tuesday morning for various New Hampshire Regiments, under charge of Lieuts. Eldridge and Tischardi.

—— Judge Eddy, from the Republic of Liberia, who is travelling through the New England States, will soon arrive in Concord and spend a few days.

—— Among the patents issued from the Patent Office in Washington for the week ending Feb. 21, was one to Mary Pike, of Cornish, this State, for improved eye water.

—— The Cheshire Republican states that Curtis Houghton of Swanzey, recently shot an animal of the wild-cat or lynx species, of gray color, with spotted legs, and about three feet in length. It had just made a clean meal of a turkey, and was shot while engaged by a dog.

—— The tannery of C. J. Wallace, of Littleton, was burned on the night of the 25th ult.

—— A young man named Charles Doll, who deserted at the battle of Antietam from the 9th N. H. Regiment, and who has been at work in Enfield during the past two years under the name of Charles Hill, was arrested at Northfield, Vt., a few days since.

—— The Medical Director of the Department of the Susquehannah—including the hospitals in Philadelphia and vicinity, and also the hospital at Beverly, N. J.—has, at the urgent request of Governor Gilmore, received instructions from Surgeon General Barnes to transfer, without delay, all N. H. soldiers who are able to travel and will not be fit for duty for thirty days, to the Manchester Hospital.—Monitor.

—— Senator Hale's long term in the U. S. Senate, closed on Mch. 4th. A. H. Cragie succeeds to his seat—and we hope may leave as honorable a record.

—— The Mirror says Deputy Collector Straw of Manchester, has issued notices to those who have not yet withdrawn their scrip, from circulation, that he shall proceed against them according to law if it is not immediately done.

☞ The following tribute to the gallantry and patriotic devotion of Brig. Gen. Marston, is from the official record of the New Hampshire Legislature:

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

That the grateful thanks of the State of New Hampshire are hereby presented to Brigadier General Gilman Marston, for the patriotic devotion and conspicuous gallantry by which he has won for himself imperishable fame, and reflected honor upon the State of his nativity.

Resolved, That the Secretary of State be directed to forward a copy of these resolutions to Brigadier General Marston, and a like copy to the commanding officer of each regiment of New Hampshire volunteers in the field, to be read at the head of their respective commands.

Approved June 22, 1864.

CARROLL COUNTY.—A meeting of the Republican County Committee of Carroll was held on the 7th of this month at Ossipee, and every town but one was represented—and each member from each town asserted that in their respective towns they did not know a single republican who would vote against Gen. Marston.

A letter was received in this city yesterday from the member of the Committee who was absent from the meeting at Ossipee, wherein he says,—"I think every Republican vote in our town is safe for Gen. Marston." Q.

☞ We are informed by a gentleman whom Samuel B. Shackford of Conway told—that his (Mr. Shackford's) name was used at the Republican "Sore Head" Convention at Dover, entirely without his knowledge or consent. He was appointed on a committee (with Ezra Gould of Sandwich, who has heretofore publicly disavowed any connection with the "Sore Heads") of the Anti Marston clique at Dover; but is now and has been using every influence in his power to elect General Marston to Congress. Thus the Bolters degenerate every day—and we premise that by election day not a Corporal's guard can be found of the disaffected. X.

— Gov. Brown of Georgia describes the present situation of the rebellion very accurately. He could not do it better from a Northern point of view: "The night is dark—the tempest howls; the ship is lashed with turbulent waves; the helmsman is steering to the whirlpool".

LONDON ITEMS. Steamer Cuba's news, confirming the failure of peace negotiations, caused a slight depression in American securities and an improvement in cotton, but this improvement was afterwards lost.

It is stated that the U. S. steamers Niagara and Sacramento were at Ferrol, or cruising off there, watching the new rebel steam ram Stonewall, which was alleged to be unseaworthy.

The Phare De La Loire denies the statement that the French Government has sent any war vessels in pursuit of the rebel ram Stonewall, and says—"The Cabinet of the Tuileries does not consider that it possesses a right to pursue a ram of the Slave States, though by completing her fitting out in French waters she committed an audacious violation of French neutrality. We hope the result of the investigation into the subject will not be null. It is impossible for the affair to remain where it is."

The Owl says that probably the Government will take no measures for a naval force on the lakes, the Washington Government having explained its action to be entirely of a defensive character.

The British Army and Navy estimates, before Parliament, both show a material reduction in charges.

The official yellow book laid before the French Legislature, says France continues neutral on the American question. She has confined herself to the condition of French subjects in America, and regrets demands for the reparation of injuries have not been responded to in the manner expected from the Washington Government.

The Queen of Spain has agreed to the sale of the immense property forming the Royal patrimony, for the benefit of the Spanish nation.

— In Baltimore Secesh circles it is stated that there is really a serious misunderstanding between General Lee and Jeff. Davis, and that the breach, instead of healing, grows wider and wider. There are those in Richmond who do not hesitate to aver publicly that Mr. Davis is in favor of giving up Richmond to the Yankees; that he has won over Mr. Benjamin, the Secretary of State, to his way of thinking; and that the speeches of Messrs. Davis and Benjamin, delivered some three weeks ago, in which they artfully alluded to the possible evacuation of the capital, were intended as the entering wedge, in order to prepare the minds of the people for an actual evacuation of Richmond. On the other hand Lee is determined to hold Richmond if he can, believing that the loss of it involves the downfall of the Confederacy.

— Whatever else may be said of the 38th Congress, it has—be it spoken to its praise—been free from knock-downs and drunken fights; it has had no bowie knife displays, no bludgeons, no revolvers, no plantation manners of any kind. A few nights since Senator Saulsbury of Delaware got tipsy, so that he was not allowed to participate in debate; but that was only to let the country know that the slave-loving gentlemen of his State are fairly represented in the senate.

ANTIMONY "STRUCK."—In boring for oil in Wirt County, West Virginia, recently, some parties struck a rich vein of antimony. The sum of $360 per ton was at once offered for all the discoverers could supply, and at these rates their profits will rival those of the silver mines of Washoe and the oil wells of Venango.

— An entirely new style of locomotive has been recently patented and introduced in England. It is so constructed as to run either way without being turned about, (thus dispensing with turn tables), requires no tender, and is capable of passing the sharpest curves without difficulty or danger. All the wheels are driving wheels, eight in number, arranged in two distinct sets of four, with two cylinders to each set.

— The Richmond Enquirer contains an admission that the South's re-admission may become expe dient.

— Mr. Richard L. Robinson, of Portland, whose mysterious disappearance has caused much excitement there, for some days past, has turned up in Titusville, Pa., sick, and not knowing how he came there.

— Sherman, according to the Richmond papers, has already captured 100,000 bales of cotton since leaving Savannah.

☞ We honor Mr. Sumner, says the Boston Post, for the manly sentiment he expressed in the proviso he proposed to the motion to contract with Mr. Powell, for a naval picture to cost $25,000; this proviso declared "that in the National Capital, dedicated to the National Union, there shall be no picture representing any victory in battle with our fellow-citizens."—This is a sentiment worthy of an American statesman—of a Christian Patriot—and indicates a respect for propriety, a regard for the dictates of common sense and common justice which only can restore this country to the Union and to Peace. Mr. Sumner's course on the retaliatory resolutions was also, equally becoming.

GOLD, Wednesday, 197 5-8 to 197 1-4. The gold market all day was dull, with slight fluctuations in prices and a downward tendency.

ESTABLISHED

FACTS AND REASONS

FOR USING

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S

BLOOD-ROOT ELIXIR!

FIRST. The extraordinary curative effect of the Blood-Root Elixir was discovered by a regularly educated Physician: and the present proprietor also is a graduate from one of the highest Medical Colleges in New England.

SECOND. The Elixir is not alcoholic, contains no minerals, and may be relied upon as being composed of strictly vegetable substances; and no ingredient is intermixed that can unfavorably affect the most delicate constitution.

THIRD. The extensive and successful use of the Blood-Root Elixir, during the past year, proves it to be, without any qualification, the best and most valuable medicine that has ever been prepared for family use.

FOURTH. Medical science and skill have never been able to produce a cathartic medicine of equal power and effect, which contains so many desirable qualities. Its superiority as an aperient consists in its sure and thorough action, operating equally through all parts of the Bowels. It never produces griping pains in its operation; never occasions nausea; its flavor is pleasing and agreeable: and it will not be rejected by the most fastidious child. It may be safely used in all cases where laxative medicine is required. It will promote the comfort and health of both sexes, and of all ages: it will assist Nature during all infantile changes; it will, during the anxious hours of a mother's life, hasten and assuage her maternal pangs; it will render joyous and happy the lingering days of the aged and venerable. And when the Elixir is once introduced into any household, it will therein supersede all other laxative medicine.

FIFTH. The long period which the Elixir was used by the original proprietor, in prescriptions to his patients, and the great and unqualified success which has attended its more general use, during the past year, are confirmed by unsolicited testimonials, which in number and extended results exceed any estimate our most sanguine hopes so early had anticipated,—therefore we are fortified by unrefutable evidence, that our estimate of the efficacy and value of the Blood-Root Elixir has not been exaggerated.

SIXTH. In examining certificates received during the past year of its successful results, we are gratified in believing that our medicine has not failed in any case where it has been tried, to cure the most stubborn and chronic cases of COSTIVENESS.

SEVENTH. Most grateful manifestations have also been evinced by patients who have been relieved from LIVER COMPLAINTS of long standing. Also it has been effectual in curing CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN; and in eradicating HUMORS OF THE BLOOD. And many afflicted with deep seated incurable SCROFULA, have been greatly benefitted by a moderate use of the Elixir.

EIGHTH. In cases of COUGHS and COLDS it has proved successful beyond any assurance we have ever expressed; and those who have thoroughly tested its effect, believe it to be superior to all other cough preparations,—the Elixir, by its physical properties, equalizes the circulation of the Blood, and removes congestion. It also, when used as a gargle, or wallowed slowly, heals and soothes the irritated and inflamed membranes, from which the cough arises.

NINTH. Many persons suffer periodically from JAUNDICE, which is occasioned by a morbid and inactive state of the Liver. The Blood-Root Elixir is a sure relief from the dependent feelings and painful symptoms which are peculiar to that disease.

TENTH. DYSPEPSIA is an aggravating and disheartening disease, often leading to dangerous results. A limited use of the Elixir, according to the directions, will regulate the stomach and bowels with unerring certainty, and restore digestion to a natural and healthy action.

ELEVENTH. RHEUMATISM the Blood-Root Elixir will readily relieve; its warm and quickening effect counteracts the cold and morbid condition of the fluids, which is the primary cause of all Rheumatic affections.

TWELFTH. Persons subject to HEADACHE will be relieved in a few hours by a single dose of the Elixir.

☞ Every person taking the Elixir should carefully read the printed pamphlet which accompanies each bottle.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR RESTORATIVE" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "Dye," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxurious growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

PRICE—$1 per Bottle.

A TRUE PHILOSOPHER.—When we are tired of hard work, or dissatisfied, it may be disgusted, with our lot, from any cause, we just think of our old friend Daniel Drown; or, better yet, drive down to Sagamore and call on him, shake hands with him; we were going to say "see" him, but his room is too dark for that—so dark you can almost feel that. As but few, comparatively, of our readers will know who we mean, we shall tell his story anew in brief—hoping he will not be offended thereby, poor fellow.

As long ago as we can remember—and that is getting to be quite a while, now—there was inscribed on "the great rock" near "the old cellar" in Sheldon's Pasture, so called, the might-be doubly significant initials, "D. A. D.," deeply cut in the hard black stone, with a hammer and punch. A quarter of a century passes—that old rock is removed, the cellar built over, and the boy (older than we) who inscribed his name thus industriously, had forgotten us in our absence from home, as we should him, but for occasionally hearing of his terrible and continued affliction,—until we chanced to meet again, within a year or two. Then how old times rush back upon both—when his hopes were higher, and his prospects more bright, than most of his companions.

Daniel A. Drown was the only son of our late highly-esteemed citizen, Daniel P. Drown, esq., and was a young man of fine parts and great promise. He graduated with high honors from College—we believe at Harvard; and was at once offered a position of great responsibility and profit. But his flattering prospects were suddenly interrupted, and blasted forever, by a terrible inflammation of the eyes, which, despite the utmost exertions of medical skill, and the tenderest solicitude of parental and sisterly attention, through long and trying, and ever-lengthening months, has now confined him to a darkened room, with wet-bandaged eyes, for the period of twenty years!

And this to young man, at first of most vigorous health, of ardent aspirations, full of poetry and music, and love for nature and the arts. Alas! how sad! what buried hopes, what disappointed expectations, in that long life of sunless suffering.

And yet, our friend enjoys, even now, vastly more than many a fellow mortal seemingly greater blessed—more of friendship, more of music, more of appreciation of the beautiful, (in his brief moments when he can venture to risk his eyes uncovered, by shaded lamp-light;) more of patriotism, in hearing the news of the day read to him through heavy-curtained doors. And many readers do have acquaintance with him, after all, through his poetic and patriotic contributions to the literature of the day, both in newspapers and books—most of his writing being performed by means of a frame, fitted with wires for lines.

But twenty years is a long while—a generation of men almost—and many of the friends of his youth have passed away, and he has no opportunity to form new friendships or new acquaintances. Yet uncomplainingly does he endure all—and cheerfully bears up, thus, year after year, under burdens which it would seem human nature could not sustain for a single twelvemonth.

But we did not design to do more than merely mention the sad case of this our friend, in what he calls his "suffering retirement," as an example of the brightest christian philosophy we ever met; and this item has been called out by receiving from him a note thanking us for gratuitous supplies of papers for his "reader." As if we have another subscriber who pays us half so richly, as the consciousness that he so much enjoys the trifles we send him. F.

☞ An error once started by the press, is likely to travel a long while. As an illustration of this, read the following item from the Concord Monitor of March 7.

The New Londoners brag loudly over their harbor just now, and have good reason. While the cold weather this winter, has frozen over or clogged with ice all the other harbors on the coast, theirs has been as open as in midsummer. They justly think this is a strong argument why the new navy yard for iron-clads should be located there.

In the New London paper this was a blunder, which we showed up as soon as we saw it. In the Monitor it is a worse blunder, showing that the editor must be very ignorant of the affairs of the State of New Hampshire on tide-water, or very careless. The only seaport of New Hampshire, Portsmouth, has a harbor as clear of ice as New London can be,—and vessels have come to the Navy Yard and our wharves all Winter, as easily as they did in Summer.

☞ A workman on the Navy Yard, while at work on board the Colorado on Wednesday morning, fell a distance of 18 feet, injuring him severely. His fall was occasioned by grasping a rope which he thought was secured above.

GOT HOME.—The crew of the Confederate cruiser Florida, captured at Bahia, were landed at Liverpool on the 26th.

OUR QUOTA.—The following is a list of the deficiencies in Town Quotas still existing in District No. 1, under the call of Dec. 19, 1864; and the quotas assigned under it, as reduced by order of the President. Made up to March 9, 1865:

SUNDAY EVENING MUSIC. — Speaking of the grand Concert given in Boston last Sunday night, in aid of the Musicians' Union fund, Dwight's Journal of Music well says:—

"Properly speaking, and in sober verity, all good music is sacred, inasmuch as it springs from, expresses, and appeals to the purest emotions; and, more than words, it is the native language of religious sentiment. No music, at least no instrumental music, can be the opposite of sacred—can be sinful, hypocritical, selfish, viciously seductive, morally corrupt or corrupting, tempting a soul to hide its face from God.

"Common sense has long since settled it, that a Sunday evening may be more sacredly spent with pure and noble music, such as has no associations with any levity, than in that negative abstinence from all spontaneous life and occupation, which is mere mental and moral inanition and vacuity, and which is, in the majority of cases, the whole result of what is termed literally and strictly keeping the Sabbath." * * *

Which remarks, besides their general application everywhere, are especially fitting here at the present time—as is also this closing paragraph:

"In the present case, however, the charitable and fraternal end may well be deemed to make it a "Sacred" Concert. Some of the holiest of music, too, is in its programme. We are glad to hear that there has been a great demand for tickets, and we hope that no music-lover will neglect it. Let it be, as we have no doubt it will, a great success; encourage the musicians; this is one of the best ways to make the music better in our city in the times to come."

A soft or green Quaker would be as great curiosity as a dissipated Hebrew; but not so great a one after all as to find the woman who did not prefer the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap to any other the world can produce. Wife says it makes old clothes look as well as new, and a cross man the pleasantest and most lovely creature on the globe.—Try it, and our word for it, you will always patronize the Gold Medal Soap. 106

WHAT IS A

FRENCH ROLL PAN?

IS A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.

It is simply a nicely made

IRON PAN,

Or rather a series of Pans connected in one, of such peculiar form that all parts of the material contained in them receive an equal amount of heat, thus insuring a very

QUICK AND LIGHT BAKE.

For Sponge or Drop Cake, Muffins, French Rolls, Corn Bread or Raised Flour Biscuit, these Pans are Invaluable.

IN these days of high prices, it is worth while to

ECONOMISE

in any way. We give below a receipt for making a Cheap, Wholesome, and

PALATABLE BREAD:

"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."

By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to set before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.

BAILEY'S

Spring Roll and Cog Wheel

WASHING AND WRINGING MACHINES.

WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME AN institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all save an immense amount of labor and cost of material.

We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tubs, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.

To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial. If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the Seven-Thirty Loan.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is

THE ONLY LOAN in the Market

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

ROBBERY AND ARREST.—Some weeks since it was announced that Capt. Johnston, an officer on General Shepley's staff, at Norfolk, Va., had suddenly disappeared, after drawing from the bank a large sum of money, obtained in some unexplained way. His mother, Mrs. Johnston, who resides in South Boston, received from him $13,000, and placed the same between the beds in her room for safe keeping. She confided the fact to a Miss Webber, and ten days ago the money was stolen. Detectives were detailed to look the matter up, and on Saturday, arrested Mrs. Eleanor Johnston, wife of a brother of Capt. Johnston. A female searched Mrs. Johnston, and in her bosom pads the whole amount was found—$10,500 and 10-40 bonds and a receipt from Burnett, Drake & Co., for $2500 more. According to the confessions of the prisoner, she was informed where the money was by Miss Webber, and took an early opportunity to appropriate it. Miss Webber was also arrested.—Boston Herald.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water: also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any articles can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

CHEROKEE MEDICINES.

Glad News for the Unfortunate!

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.

Cures in from one

to three days.

CHEROKEE REMEDY
—AND—
CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves,

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an aid or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with it at medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

☞ This medicine is a simple vegetable extract and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn cases.

☞ To those who have tried with their constitution, until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, Despair not! the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed!

☞ For full particulars, get a circular from any drug store in the country, or write the proprietors, who will mail free to any one desiring the same, a full treatment in pamphlet form.

The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these; those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlets or advice to the proprietors,

A GOOD THING.

MR. NASBY PROPOSES THE EMIGRATION OF THE DEMOCRACY.—I read in the Scriptures (a book I alluz pecrose whenever I'm bad sick) sumthen about tun tribes uv Israel that wuz lost. A ijee struck me. I see a way wich the present unholy devastatin war kin be stopped, and after givin the matter doo considersahen I'm convinst uv its feezibility. It is emigrashen. The Suthern branch uv the Democratic party ought 2 be convinst, by this time, that they ain't a match for the Ablibinists a fightin, jest as the Northen wing hez diskivered that it aint no match for om a votin. The fact is the entire plan uv repairing the old temple uv Dimocrisy with secession morter hez very much the appearance uv a faley-oor. My father, a Noo Gersey Dimocrat, once spilled lamp ile on a noo kote. He sat a nabor, who wuz reckless, wat wood take it out, and he told him sulpuric acid. The old man got some, and poured it on. The next day he went over to his adviser in great wrath, with the remnants of the kote.

"John," sed the old gentleman, "didn't you tell me that this ore acid wood eradicate grease from my kote?"

"Certainly, didn't it?"

"John, why didn't you likewise tell me that it would also eradicate the kote?"

Alas! the remedy Dimocrisy swallered to cure the cramp colic it got in 1860, is gnawin its bowels. It iz curin its ills ez strocknin duz hyderphoby in a dorg.

2 resoon. My ijee is Mexico. Let a peece be made, the terms uv which air that jest such uv the people uv the old Yoonited Staits ez hev maid up their individijle minds that they can't live under Ablishan tyranny, shall hev the privilege uv leavin with all their goods and chattels. Then we'll go to Mexico, upset that offeshoot uv European monerky, Maxemilyen, and set up pure Dimocrisy, with Ekel Rites and Slavery ez the corner stones. Some may object on the ground that Maxemilyen is by this time too hefty to be histid. Here is the forse wu kin kalkilait on:

Northen Dimicrats in kanady in consekence of the drafts,	200,000
Northern Dimicrats at home who spectid offis under M'ellan,	1,360,000
Suthern army, say	200,000
Grand totle,	1,750,000

Cood Maxemilyen stand afore sich a array ez that? Not enuy.

But sez wun, uf what yoose wood them peace Dimocrats and draft skedaddlers be to a military expedishen—tha won't fite. My gentle friend, Jeff'son D. knows his bisnis. Let him whisper in 2 ther ears that each and every wun of em that survives shel hev a Post Offis, and they'd wade in bild like deep. O it wood be a cheerin site to see them a chargin up the steps uv Shepultepec, with the inspirin cry "Post Offis." Every wun uv them wood be a hero.

There we'd set up Dimocrisy again. The country uv course we'd divide North and South, Free and Slave, for a Northern Democrat wood feel oneasy in his mind if he hadn't a South to serv. We'd hold National Convenshuns in the halls uv the Mont ezoomels, and oh woodn't it be soothin to agin beer Tooms and Ret, and them highminded fellows a bullyragg uv us? Methinks.

Ez every wun uv us wood be offis holders, where wood we get constitooence? Nacher has perwided. The Native uv that country wood serv admirably. But they couldn't understand your speeker. MYSTERIES OF CITY LIFE.—How true it is that "one half the world knows not how the other half lives." Not long since, one of our police noticed some loose straw about the steps of a large warehouse in Devonshire street, Boston; and apprehending danger from fire, made a close examination. He found a considerable quantity of straw under the steps, together with bottles and fragments of food, which led him to suspect that the place had been occupied. The premises were watched, and it was discovered that the place was really inhabited by four boys, who ate, drank, smoked and slept there, and as one of them said, "had a jolly time." They were friendless, and got their living during the day by peddling and in other ways, and made this their domicile at night. Of course, they were ejected from their habitation without the formality of a writ, and the premises closed up.—Boston Journal.

— The last squad of deserters who came into General Meade's lines were fired on furiously by the rebel pickets, but none of them were hit. After they reached a place of safety, some of our men inquired how it was they all escaped. "Oh," said the spokesman of the party, "those fellows fired too high to hit us." "Yes, yes," returned the picket-officer, "but why did they fire so high?" "Oh! why, don't you know?" answered the rebel; "well it's because they are coming over themselves to-morrow night."

—It is stated that in Germany there are 163 theatres, 60,000 actors, singers and dancers, and 8000 choristers.

FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 1865.

CONFEDERATE REBEL FAST.—This day, Friday, March 10, is the rebel fast day. The Richmond Whig of Feb. 28, contains the following programme for its observance:

In view of the fact that our position, as a people, is critical, it is respectfully suggested that all persons in the Confederacy observe Friday, the 10th day of March, appointed as a day of fasting and prayer, with more earnestness and solemnity than has yet been manifested, and to that end it is proposed: First, that all churches shall have at least three public services, the first early in the morning, the second at 11 o'clock, and the third in the afternoon or at night. Second, that such churches as can, will keep their doors open, and the services in operation without intermission during the whole day; the ministers relieving one another, and the people going and coming as they may need. Third, that the country churches protract their services through four or five hours. Fourth, that the people really humble themselves, and, as a means thereto, eat no more food than may be necessary to keep up their strength. Fifth, that all light conversation and unbecoming amusements be discarded, and the day be truly observed as a day of humiliation. If there be any virtue in a day of fasting and prayer it should be observed as the Bible directs. Heretofore, many have kept it as a mere holiday; this cannot be expected to elicit God's blessing. Our condition is such that trifling is madness. If we give all our time and hearts to it for that one day, we may look for a great blessing.

All this is commended to the consideration of the Confederates here at the North, who are very appropriately to have a political partisan preacher to address them this evening. We suggest, however, most respectfully, that "the Bible" does not direct any such fast as the Whig recommends, but a very different one; and as many crude notions may prevail about the matter, we copy three verses from the fifty-eighth chapter of Isaiah, which may well be weighed by the oligarchy who made war to uphold slavery, and by their confederates and tools at the North. The people of the olden time ask God, "Why have we fasted, and thou seest not?" The answer is given thus:—

Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the Lord?

Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and, that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

THE SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN is so called because it bears the interest of seven dollars and thirty cents per annum on a hundred dollars. It is issued in five different denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000. The interest is payable in currency, and "ciphers up" as follows:

One cent per day on a bond of.....	$50
Two cents per day on a bond of.....	100
Ten cents per day on a bond of.....	500
Twenty cents per day on a bond of....	1,000
One dollar per day on a bond of.....	5,000

The interest is payable in the form of coupons on the 15th of August and the 15th of November. The holder can cut these off, and get them cashed at any bank or broker's in the country.

The Bonds are due on the 15th of August, 1867. At that time, if the holder does not want his money, he can demand of the Government to exchange his matured Seven-Thirties for the famous 5-20 gold bearing 6 per cent Bonds. Just look at the Stock List and see what these are worth this day.

Seven-Thirties are for sale, at par, and accrued interest, by all Sub-Treasuries, National and other banks, and all bankers and brokers.

What are the special advantages of buying these bonds?

I. You get the big interest of seven and three-tenths per cent, right along. The value of the privilege of converting the Seven-Thirties at maturity into gold-bearing 6 per cents, added to this big interest, will give you in the end over 10 per cent interest for your money—dead sure.

II. The Seven Thirties can't be taxed by States, Counties or Cities. This will save to you from two to five per cent of your income.

III. The Seven-Thirties are the best and surest property in the world. They are literally a first mortgage on all the land, public and private, in the United States—on all the canals, railroads, ships, steamers, and factories—on all the business and the incomes of the Nation. This First Mortgage has got to be, and inevitably will be paid. Nothing can come between it and the holders.

IV. The Seven-Thirties are perfectly convenient. You don't have to hire lawyers or agents to look after them. Every woman can collect her own interest, and, when she wants to turn her bond into money, she can do so without paying a cent of fees to anybody. Unlike first mortgages on farms, heretofore esteemed to be the very best of securities, you don't have to search County Clerk's records, and make examinations and appraisements, if you wish to sell your 7.30 first mortgages on all the wealth and industry of the United States.

— The statistics of military-prison life on Johnson's island, where 7771 rebel prisoners have been received during the last two years, show a mortality of only 210, or little more than 2 1-2 per cent. The per centage of deaths among our prisoners confined at Salisbury, N. C., was more than nine times greater!

—Well-to-do people—Petroleum.

THE REBELLION.

A Washingington dispatch says information has been received from Winchester, Va., confirming the victory of Sheridan over Early. The battle took place at Waynesboro, and Sheridan, when last heard from, had captured 40 rebel officers, 1300 prisoners, 8 cannon and over 100 wagons, and was still following up his successes.

It is said the steamer which supplied the Pirate Stonewall with ammunition, &c., in Omberon Bay, France, has arrived at Bermuda. The Stonewall's armament is one 300 pounder Armstrong and two 75-pounder smooth bores. Her crew consist of 100 men. The pirate had reached Azores.

The English Army and Navy Gazette states authoritatively that the rebel government has cancelled orders for large numbers of torpedoes, and infers that they intend to abandon the coast, or have faith in an early peace.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 6th says, "The country turns in disgust from [the rebel] Congress. For four months it has set in Richmond, and day after day witnessed the military strength of the Confederacy dwindling away, and though Lee has appealed and implored it to use the great military strength of negroes for defence, yet it has wholly failed and refused to adopt this measure."

Poor Congress!—on one hand the Virginia Legislature has instructed its Senators to favor the arming of negroes; and on the other, a resolution has passed the General Assembly of North Carolina, protesting against the arming of slaves in any emergency without the consent of the States. Ultra State Rights and slavery, make a bad platform for action.

The Wilmington Journal in an article just previous to our occupation of that place, admitted that unless Sherman were speedily checked, Richmond would have to be evacuated.

It is said there are 35 blockade-runners lying in the bort of Nassau, whose occupation is gone. They represent capital to the amount of $15,000,000.

That part of Charleston which has been most damaged by our shells, is called by the negroes "Gillmoreville." Truly an appropriate name.

Nearly a whole company of the 6th N. C. rebel cavalry deserted a few days since and came into Newbern, bringing their horses and equipments. Negroes are coming in in large numbers. The rebels are conscripting every boy they can lay hands on. Both the troops and the people of that State are represented as heartily sick of the war. The Union prisoners confined at Florence were sent to Sanlsbury on the approach of Gen. Sherman. On the way many escaped and reached our lines at Newbern, under the guidance of negroes and loyal whites. Arrangements have been made to exchange ten thousand prisoners at Wilmington, and they are now being forwarded.

Richmond papers believe Gen. Grant has sent nearly all his cavalry to Gen. Sheridan.

A meeting has been held in Danville to obtain subscriptions of provisions for Lee's army. The Richmond Whig says "Lee's army must be fed or we lose all."

On Sunday Richmond was excited by a rumor that Johnston had defeated Sherman, and was investing the position taken up by the latter. Next day, however, the Richmond papers admitted the falsity of the report, but claimed that Hampton had defeated Kilpatrick at Cheraw. This latter report needs confirmation.

☞ The subscriptions to the 7-30 currency bonds continue to be from three to four million dollars a day—the strongest evidence yet given, both of the perpetuity of the Union through the ability and patriotism of the people; and also, especially, of the benefits and efficiency of newspaper ADVERTISING.

GOLD, Thursday, 196.

— Many of the town-meetings in Massachusetts on Monday took measures "for the enforcement of the liquor laws." Stoughton voted almost unanimously to prosecute all persons owning real estate who should let buildings for the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors. It was also voted to instruct the town officers to see that the law against the sellers of intoxicating drinks should be enforced.

— Mutual explanations between Great Britain and the United States have resulted in rescinding the passport order so far as it relates to Canada. The United States naval force on the lakes is to be the same as stipulated in the treaty of 1817.

— There was a robbery of diamond rings valued at $3000, in Boston, from Don C. Ayer, on Tuesday night. The thief entered the store, inquired for rings, which were shown him, when he suddenly snatched a tray containing about 25, and effected his escape.

— The trains upon the Rome and Watertown R. R. (N. Y.) were 48 hours in go in 18 miles last week, on account of the snow.

— The interior papers of Missouri say that large numbe rs of strangers are flocking into the State and buying farms.

DROP LETTER, No. 8.—Lexington, Mass., March 8th.—Years ago the fine hall in the Lexington House was a place of resort for parties from Boston, whence came crowds of bucks and their dears, to disport themselves in the hazy dance. But since Dr. Lewis purchased the property, not only have the thirsty travelling public been cut off from their accustomed glass of poison at the hotel, but the outside world has been debarred the use of the hall where it was wont to trip the light fantastic toe. However, e Doctor, being a live man, believes in people enjoying themselves in a rational manner, and on the 22d of February and 4th of March furnished opportunities for not only his large household, but also for many of the townspeople, to again test the fine floor of his hall. Prettily decorated with flags and evergreens, (the greater part of the ladies in gymnastic costume) the hall had the appearance which is rarely seen except at a fancy dress ball; and as the Dr. does not allow such pleasures to rob us of sleep later than 10 P. M., no baggard faces, leaden eyes or throbbing temples were the result on succeeding days.

Saturday began dark and threatening, the storm raged with violence at midday, while a ray of sunlight broke through the clouds ever and anon during the afternoon and at the close of day the sun shone with full splendor. I suppose the augurs all over the country, bored their audience, with allusions to the omen, in their inaugural orations, as being typical of the state of the country during Mr. Lincoln's occupancy of the Presidential chair; so I spare you the reiteration.

Truly one half the people in the world, know not how the other half live. I'll venture to say that a very small percentage of the residents of Lexington have ever been where I have to-day. At the end of an out-of-the-way by-path, I came upon a small factory devoted to making the hemp mats with many colored edgings, that, placed at our doors, save so great a quantity of dirt from being carried in. With a force of but six or seven hands, about 350 or 400 dozen mats are turned out here yearly. The operation of making the mats is quite interesting, particularly the working of the patterns in colors; but I fear me that if I undertake to describe the operation, your readers would be more befogged than I was when first watching the workings of the ponderous looms, the throwing of the immense shuttles, and the various other manual performauces necessary to produce even so trivial an article as the door mat which we trample under our feet. ION.

— A British officer who is decribing in Blackwood's Magazine his travels through the rebel States, sagely observes that "horses never kick in America," and also remarks that "the oysters in this country are rather too large to eat raw, but roasted they are delicious."

—A bill has passed both branches of Congress appropriating $1500 for Mrs. Wright, of Richmond, Va., for her courage and patriotic devotion in secreting Col. Streight and his party, and enabling them to make their escape from the rebels.

—According to a statement in the New York Commercial, since the month of August, we have captured 1301 guns from the rebels, not including the guns captured or destroyed on the Alabama, Florida, Tennessee, and other rebel crafts. During the same time we have not lost over 35 cannon.

— Albert M. Ballou, of Boston, committed suicide at No. 4 Revere Place, by shooting himself with a pistol, while in a fit of temporary insanity, on Wednesday afternoon. The poor fool thought there was a "conspiracy" against him. As if he was important enough for anybody to conspire against.

— Mrs. Sterling, wife of ex-Alderman Sterling of Toronto, who was instrumental in bringing the pirate Burley to justice, was knocked down in the street, on Saturday evening, by a ruffian, who exclaimed as he approached her, "If it had not been for your d—d husband, Burley would not be where he is." The cowardly assault was undoubtedly made by some "chivalric" Southerner.

It is a good thing to be above-board, but generally a bad thing to be over-board.

☞ We are informed that a few days since, a large bull-dog confined in a house at the North part of this city, seized an infant child lying in a cradle, and tore away one side of its face; and before the brute could be secured, he grasped the child by the throat, and shook it until life was extinct. It is said that the animal had been fighting in the street in front of the dwelling, and becoming maddened with rage, at being separated from the other dog, committed the above dreadful act. It seems hardly credible, but we give it as we learn it.

☞ Mr. H. C. Hoyt's third term of Writing School will commence on Monday evening next, at the State St. School House—for Ladies and Gentlemen.—Terms $1.50.

☞ We print this morning in our advertising columns, the programme for the grand closing entertainment of the Lyceum. It will be seen that ticket-holders are to get their money's worth. In fact, the committee are bound to spend for the people, every dollar they receive from them.

☞ The staunch old Rockingham Bank, the oldest in the city, announces to put on the National harness—and in an advertisement elsewhere, requests stockholders to speedily authorize the change, as of course they will.

☞ The recent alterations in the Temple have greatly enlarged and very much improved our only lecture and concert hall—which now consists of parquet and gallery, and will contain nearly 2000 persons when packed. The building will be vastly better than before, when completed; and the lower part of the house, which is certainly the better, will be fully as popular too, if not more so, when the people get accustomed to the change. The house is ready for occupancy now, but there is considerable finishing and ornamenting yet to be done.

U. S. S. ALBATROSS,
New Orleans, Feb. 23d.

Mr. Editor: Thinking that the people of Portsmouth would like to know something about the Albatross, I take the liberty of writing to them through the columns of your paper.

On the 9th inst. we left Philadelphia Navy yard, and on the morning of the 18th, when in sight of Carysfort Reef Light, we discovered barrels, casks, &c, floating past us, and soon the lookout gave the cry of "Sail ho!" and we soon saw from the deck a steamer. A boat from her soon came alongside, and informed us that the U. S. Transport Empire City was aground on Elbow Key, and had 300 troops on board. We immediately started for the steamer, and approached her cautiously lest we should be in the same fix. We anchored as near her as we dared, and sent a boat to ascertain the condition of things. We found that she ran ashore the night before between 9 and 10 o'clock, and they had been throwing overboard her cargo, which consisted of Government Stores, such as coffee, tea, sugar, powder, &c, in order to lighten the vessel.

We soon found to get her off the reef, was an impossibility; so we sent boats to bring off her passengers, which consisted of about 300 soldiers, including 36 prisoners for the Dry Tortugas, and 7 officers. We got all the crew aboard and made them as comfortable as possible, the Wardroom and Steerage being thrown open for the use of the officers. Having taken all the men from the wreck, with the exception of the captain and the crew who were determined to stand by her till the last, we shaped our course for Key West, Florida, where we arrived about 8 o'clock Saturday morning. Here Captain Du Bois received instructions to proceed to New Orleans with the soldiers, via Tortugas, where he would leave the prisoners. While lying at the wharf at Key West a plot was discovered among the prisoners to escape. They had procured a key to unlock their irons, but the plot was discovered in season to prevent its consummation.

We left Key West that night about 11 o'clock and steered for the Dry Tortugas, which we reached about 10 the next day. Here we landed the prisoners, and glad enough were to get rid of them. Having finished this part of our work we steered for New Orleans, where we arrived at 11.30 Monday night. The next day we landed our shipwrecked soldiers. During our passage up the river, the officers that we took from the wreck held a meeting and invited the officers of the Albatross to a supper at the St. Charles Hotel, New Orleans.

After enjoying ourselves until about 1 o'clock we broke up our meeting by singing Auld Lang Syne. We were most handsomely entertained by the officers, they doing all that lay in their power to make the affair pass off pleasantly.

Now Mr. Editor, you see that we have some good times. The health of the officers and crew is good, very few cases of sickness, and these light. Where we are bound is not decided yet; but if anything of importance occurs you shall know of it at the earliest opportunity.

Yours truly, IOTA.

LIQUOR SELLING IN BOSTON.—The hearing on the Liquor License question before the special Legislative Committee on that subject, was resumed Friday. Colonel Kurtz, Chief of Police, was on examination. Colonel Kurtz said 2008 places where liquor is sold in that city are known to the police. The keepers of these places are—Americans, 342; Irish, 1541; Germans, 78; colored, 19; Portuguese, 16; English, 11; French, 1. He believed a Liquor License Law could be enforced in Boston, as well as other License Laws; and he stated that in Baltimore, under a license system, no liquor could be obtained at the hotels or saloons on Sunday.

TRIAL AND FRIENDSHIP.—Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus has had a trial among three million families, and is pronounced the best Saleratus in the known world. Its use always brings a smile to the household; it keeps them in health; it helps make the weak strong, and saves hundreds from that dreadful disease, dyspepsia. As you value health, use it. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

A TRUE AIM.—It has not been the aim of the proprietor of Hunnewell's great preparations, advertised on our inside columns, to base a false reputation by long and unmeaning advertising, but a real one by true results, to which all who try them will cheerfully assent. See advertisement.

A household without the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap always on hand, is like a garden without flowers or a family without children. We pity each and all alike, but have no sympathy with the family which does not enjoy the luxury of nice, clean, white clothes—provided this celebrated and more than excellent Soap can be obtained; for these luxuries can only be enjoyed by its use. So do not cease trying till you obtain it. 107

DR. URANN,

PRACTICAL PHYSICIAN,

Who has made so many wonderful and instantaneous cures in Boston, New York, Hartford, Springfield, and more recently in New Hampshire and Vermont, has taken

ROOMS FOR THE PRESENT AT THE

FRANKLIN HOUSE,

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

DR. URANN'S treatment is such that by it

are affected in one or two treatments, and many are entirely cured by one, as the following will testify:—

W. P. HOMER, 50 and 52 Federal Street, Boston, for many years was troubled with Heart complaint, so bad that at times he was unable to attend to his business; after one treatment he was able to run up stairs, work in his garden and attend to his business; has since gained 12 pounds.

MRS. ELLEN CORRY, of Cambridgeport, Mass.—Sciatica; so lame that she could not walk without assistance; after one treatment of fifteen minutes was well as ever, and could walk a mile free from pain.

MRS. SARAH P. STILES, Lowell, Mass., had Fever Sores on both legs of twelve years standing; her right ankle measured eighteen inches, and was as blue as indigo; she could not move her foot; after one treatment it was reduced one-half, she could move her foot freely and is getting well rapidly, her left ankle all healed.

Prof. G. M. LARRON, 1 DIX Place, Boston, troubled with Spinal difficulty, was in much pain; relieved by one treatment.

Miss HANNAH COOL, Campton, N. H.—Spinal difficulties; was unable to walk but a short distance or do any kind of work; perfectly cured, and is now the picture of health.

Miss C. FROTHINGHAM, Boston, Portrait Painter, was troubled with great depression of spirits, at times was unable to attend to her favorite employment; was entirely cured, and she expresses herself, is "made over anew."

Mrs. J. BROWN, Boston, a severe cough and pains through her lungs, cured.

Capt. W. H. LAMPSON'S child, Lowell, Mass. The child was pronounced by physicians as hopelessly idiotic. The child could neither walk or sit alone, and took no notice of anything. After one treatment he began to improve, and has so far gained as to be able to walk alone, can talk, takes notice of everything, laughs and sings, and appears perfectly well.

Mrs. HINCKLEY, wife of A. T. Hinckley, of State Arsenal, Hartford, Ct., troubled with hip complaint and contraction of the cords of the legs; could not get her heel to the floor within four inches; had to be brought down stairs in arms; after one treatment of twenty minutes was able to run up and down stairs with ease, and is now able to walk the streets.

Mr. J. TURNER, Hartford, Ct, troubled for many years with loss of memory; could not attend to business; had been under the best medical treatment in England with no beneficial effect; after one treatment was perfectly restored.

Miss MARTHA ST. JOHN, Simsbury, Ct., was confined to her bed from spinal difficulty and prolapsus uteri; had not been dressed for more than a year; in twenty minutes she was enabled to dress and walk out to one of the neighbors, a distance of about a half-mile; she has since been to Hartford and to church, and is improving daily.

Mrs. HENRY LOOMIS, Southwick, Mass., troubled with fits and spinal difficulties, could not walk without much difficulty, perfectly cured by one treatment.

Mrs. WM. JENKINS, Unionville, Conn., troubled for over two years with chronic liver complaint and rheumatism, had a large lump on her side which was very painful; was unable to lie down. Cured by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

JOSEPH H. ELDRIDGE, formerly of the Hartford Police, more recently on Hartford and New Haven Railroad, was obliged to give up his business on account of a severe cough and bleeding, perfectly cured and can now do a good day's work.

LYDIA L. FULLER, of East Wallingford, Vt., had entirely lost the use of her limbs after a severe attack of diptheria, was restored by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

FANNY DAVIS, of Moretown, Vt., had been confined to her bed for more than five years—was not able to stand—after one treatment of less than an hour, was enabled to walk around the room, and is now quite well.

Miss HUTCHINSON, daughter of Judge Hutchinson of West Randolph, Vt., was troubled with fits, having some days from fifty to one hundred. She was unable to eat anything but liquids—was not able to stand. After one treatment she began to improve, until now, she is the picture of health, able to walk as well as any one, eats hearty and has no fits.

SOUTHWICK, Mass., July 21, 1862.

DR URANN,—Dear Sir:—I suppose it is ever a pleasure to you to learn the convalescent state of your patients; notwithstanding my long three years of almost absolute confinement to my bed, unable most of the time to converse with or see any company, and for over two years unable to feed myself—yet with this painful picture of human wretchedness which made life almost a burden, since your treatment of my spine, on the 7th day of June, I have been able to take my meals at the table, with my family, ride out daily, and converse freely with all; and without some new misfortune befalls me, I shall soon be able to interest myself in the labors of my profession, at least to preach one sermon a Sabbath. Without flattery, in my honest judgment, there is no better treatment in the hands of men for the Spinal Disease than the one which you honor, and as my heart beats with sympathy with all Spinal sufferers, I only wish they knew the wonderful utility of your treatment, and avail themselves of the same. Yours with respect and gratitude,

M. H. RISING.

DR. URANN'S TERMS

Are such that all can avail themselves of his treatment.

☞ Persons at a distance who are unable to visit the Doctor, by sending particulars of their cases, with one dollar enclosed, will receive advice and learn whether their cases can be treated at a distance. In all cases, state age and sex.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the Seven-Thirty Loan.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.

Two cents " " " " $100
Ten " " " " " $500
20 " " " " " $1000
$1 " " " " " $5000

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is

THE ONLY LOAN in the Market

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the [National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

— A Capt. Loper has been published all over the country for a year or two, as a defaulter,—but Mr. Solicitor Whiting has recently overhauled the accounts, and now says that "Captain Loper's conduct in his transactions with the Government had been honest, honorable and patriotic, and he was entitled to the respect and confidence of the Government and country."

— A woman in Pawtucket, R. I., bought goods worth $1.60, and gave the trader a $2 bill. She was handed forty cents in fractional currency, but indignantly declared that she would not take the "trash"—would make change herself first—and taking out a handful of silver, put sixty cents in the glittering coin before the astonished storekeeper, and received back a paper dollar, with which she went off satisfied.

— The London Times calls this war a ghastly duel. If so, all wars come under the same condemnation. War is, and always must be, a crime on one side at least—often on both. But when the robber breaks into your house, and holds a deadly weapon over your bed, you kill him if you can, to save your own life. It is ghastly homicide, but the jury will say it is justifiable.

— According to figures of the poor-law Board and the Refugees there are 2400 casual poor destitute and homeless every night in London. THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

CHEROKEE MEDICINES.

Glad News for the Unfortunate!
The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.
Cures in from one

to three days.

CHEROKEE REMEDY
—AND—
CHEROKEE INJECTION,
Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed,

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

Price—CHEROKEE REMEDY, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5.

☞ This medicine is a simple vegetable extract and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn cases.

☞ To those who have trifled with their constitution until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, Despair not; the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed!

☞ For full particulars, get a circular from any drug store in the country, or write the proprietors, who will mail free to any one desiring the same, a full treatment in pamphlet form.

The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, your life, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlets or advice to the proprietors, Communication.

THE RUINS OF CHARLESTON!—"Delenda est Carthago." (Carthage is destroyed.) The brave HANNIBAL, with his African army, crossed the Mediterranean to Spain, and thence proceeded to Italy and made proud Rome tremble with fear. The Roman armies ultimately succeeded in destroying Carthage, so that nothing remains but the historic account.

When this cruel, fratricidal war was waged by the Oligarchs, we said in a published article that "Charleston ought to be blotted from the map." That city was the nursery of the treasonable conspiracies to subvert the government and establish a new one with despotic powers, or, as was said,—"The Temple of Freedom whose corner stone is Slavery." There a proud and corrupt nobility dwelt. There were the disciples of John C. Calhoun. The latter in Congress at first advocated "a Northern and a Southern Republic," with an elective President in each! And afterwards he was at the head of an organized plot to sever the Union, which was defeated by the timely warning of President Jackson. Now, after a four years' sanguinary conflict, the flag of our Union proudly waves over that city smouldering in ruins: the nobility have escaped, leaving thousands of poverty-smitten women, children and old men to perish for want of food, if not supplied by our army, while the national authority has been vindicated by the recapture of Fort Sumter, in whose defence the first blood was shed in the war. The retribution is terrible, but just. It fails not to follow crime. Let it be a solemn warning against all future conspiracies to overthrow the best constituted government on the earth. The general conflagration of the city was not the doings of our army, but the work of fiends in human shape to prevent a large quantity of cotton and other goods from falling into the hands of our victorious army. Our concentrated army will now, doubtless, advance against Richmond, the last stronghold of the enemy. A reverse of the victorious career of our valiant troops would tend to protract the war. But the capture of the capital of Virginia can hardly fail speedily to restore the blessings of a permanent peace to our bleeding country. The city, perhaps, like Charleston, may be evacuated, and the demoralized rebel forces may retreat back to the valleys and mountains, in order, for a time, to carry on a guerrilla warfare; but it would be of short duration. The people on a wide belt on the seaboard, growing wider and wider, would insist on returning to their allegiance to the government; while the leading instigators of the rebellion, to avoid the death penalty of the law, would escape to foreign climes. CIVIS.

☞ A late London Times has an editorial on the official accounts of the recent peace conference, and concludes that the North came out best in the affair. It says the arbitrament of war is accepted afresh with more desperate determination. "We deplore the result, but it must be more evident than ever that neutrality, if we are allowed but to maintain it, is the only policy for England." The Paris correspondent of the Times gives a report that France has assured the American Government that there is no truth in the reported session of Mexican territory. The transaction is a mere lien on the produce of certain mines as security for French expenses. He also e pudiates the rumors of contemplated recognition of the South by Napoleon.

☞ It is stated that "there were 14,151,375 pounds of butter exported from New York in 1864, a falling off of 8,178,685 pounds from the year before." The quantity is, of course, known by the custom house entries. There has recently been a very large supply of butter in the city of New York. It may therefore be inferred that the high and exorbitant price of butter in our markets is, in part, owing to speculators and their agents running through the country to purchase butter to export to foreign lands, to the injury of their own country. Such speculators are like certain corporations, having no souls for future punishment. As the Spring opens, the price of butter and cheese will gradually fall to a more reasonable rate.

☞ The average annual yield of maple sugar and maple molasses in the Northern States is estimated at $1,000,000 gallons,—nearly a gallon to each man, woman and child in the whole Union. Besides the manufacture from sugar beets and sugar cane, it is said that sugar may be made from our green corn-stalks, which seems to be probable, as they contain a saccharine juice.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, MARCH 11, 1865.

☞ The P. F. V.'s are in a tight place. The Richmond Enquirer says:

That there is a party of whipped seceders in and about Richmond cannot be denied. They are cowed and are cowardly miserable wretches who brought the war upon the country, and would now surrender to the enemy. * * * No cabal of whipped seceders shall capitulate this country into slavery, and crouch at the foot-stool of Lincoln. Congress has utterly failed. It is incompetent and doing much injury. It has neither capacity nor courage, and is wanting in firmness and resolution. It is unfit for revolution. The very men who were foremost to secede are the first to surrender. A single head and single arm is now needed, and if Congress would entrust all honor with the President and General Lee, and go home, the Virginia State banks can furnish one or two millions in gold, and this will secure the supplies now needed. Let the Legislature promptly act and turn the gold over to Gen. Lee. Congress is defunct. The country no longer looks to it for any aid in the struggle. The negroes have been withheld until it is now nearly too late. The currency is beyond their power to help. Those who talk now of compromise mean submission to subjugation.

☞ Judge Sprague, of the U. S. District Court in Massachusetts, has resigned in consequence of age and infirmity. He was an able lawyer, once U. S. Senator from Maine, and a candidate for Governor. We remember an editorial joke on the flimsy but successful pleas urged against him. It ran thus: "Because J. T. Buckingham once said, 'Farmers have huge paws,' therefore Peleg Sprague ought not to be Governor of Maine." The other arguments were no better than this: but he was not elected.

LIQUOR AT THE CAPITOL. The U. S. Senate on Monday, March 6, without dissent, voted to instruct the Sergeant-at-Arms to clear out from the Senate wing of the Capitol, all the arrangements made for the sale of intoxicating liquors, and to prohibit the sale hereafter. Thus was the lesson of the previous Saturday, though a humiliating one in itself, made the occasion of a most important measure for the national honor and safety. In the other wing of the Capitol, this exclusion of spirituous liquors has been enforced by the speaker, Hon. Mr. Colfax, during the whole of the late session, thus securing a degree of order and sobriety in the closing days of the session to which Congress has for years been a stranger.

☞ It is stated that Maximilian, emperor of Mexico, has received at a special audience Mr. Peter Campbell Scarlett, Envoy Extraordinary of her Majesty the Queen of England. Scarlett presented to the Emperor several autograph letters from Queen Victoria. The first is a formal one accrediting the Minister. The second is a repetition of the first, but addressed to the Empress Charlotte as "My best beloved Sister," and the third is an acknowledgment of the letter sent by the Emperor to the Queen, in June last, informing her officially of his accession to the throne of Mexico.

☞ A Traveller correspondent says, the U. S. Steamer Monadnock had the pleasure of capturing the first blockade runner ever taken by an iron-clad. The prize is named the Deer, and was captured in attempting to run (what she supposed to be) the Charleston blockade on the 18th inst. Several of the monitor fleet claim her as their prize, but as the officers and men from the Monadnock boarded her first, she of course falls to their credit. From the captain of the Deer we learned that on the night of the 17th inst., five blockade runners ran within the outside Charleston blockade, but hearing the firing from the bombardment of that city, they steamed out again and went back again to Nassau. From the same source we learn that there are 64 blockade runners in the West Indies, waiting opportunities to carry out their dangerous traffic. Many of them are going to try Galveston and Mobile. We should imagine that the remainder will now return to their builders, for disposal for other purposes.

— The Boston Post and Journal "recommend Friday, April 14th, for Fast Day. The day is Good Friday, and is observed as a day of fasting by the Episcopal and Roman Catholic Churches. In Connecticut it has been set apart for many years by the civil authorities as a season of fasting, and without objection from any source." The day thus observed, once or twice, would seem all right. We have been accustomed to keep Thursday—but see no reason for that day in preference to Friday.

— In the new arrangement of Senate committees, Mr. Fessenden will head the Finance Committee, and Conness, of California, a new Committee on Mining. Messrs. Saulsbury and McDougal are left out altogether. The Joint Committee appointed to investigate Indian affairs will start early for the Plains. They propose to visit California and Oregon in the course of the summer.

THE REBELLION.

Sheridan's victory over Early is now fully confirmed. Col. Thompson of the 1st N. H. Cavalry, of General Sheridan's command, has just arrived at Winchester with 40 officers and 1300 men as prisoners, and 8 pieces of artillery captured. The principal battle was fought at Fisherville, 5 miles from Staunton, Va. [The Daily Copperhead will please copy.]

The Richmond papers seem to be going into fits over "the situation."

The Sentinel has an editorial demanding harmony and more action, or else it declares that the cause is lost.

The Whig is very hopeful that Sherman will be defeated, but says it fears that he will retreat without fighting.

The latest North Carolina papers do not say that Sherman has not advanced into that State, but declare that he is not near Fayetteville or Goldsboro.

The N. Y. Herald's Winchester correspondence says Gen. Sheridan has occupied Staunton, having met with no opposition after his victory over Early. Rebel prisoners report a heavy Union force marching on Lynchburg from East Tennessee, and its capture is vaguely rumored.

The Herald's James River correspondence says there are additional indications of Lee's intention to abandon Richmond. Government stores are being continually sent out of the city, and quite a large number of troops have also been sent away, it is presumed to Lynchburg.

An Augusta, Ga., paper gives another account of Gen. Sherman's march through Columbia. It says:

The 15th and 17th corps, with Sherman commanding, has a baggage train three miles long. Sherman left 200 beef cattle for the sick and wounded, and gave arms to the citizens to protect them from the negroes. Every article of subsistence was carried off, cellars, outbuildings, &c., being searched. There are 3000 (?) locomotives and cars penned up at Charlotte, N. C. Sherman will, of course, destroy this stock. Many were heavily laden with stores.

A Columbia S. C. correspondent of the Richmond Whig says that Sherman's course while occupying that city was marked by conciliation and leniency. It avers that Wade Hampton's rebel cavalry were dreaded twice as much as the Yankees, for the former shot and beat the citizens and robbed nearly all of the stores as they retreated through that city.

It was believed in Richmond that the bill to raise negro soldiers would pass the Rebel Congress on Tuesday. The Enquirer says it is now too late to arm the negroes.

The rebel army at Richmond is being fed by subscription. The Richmond Whig says circulars have been sent to magistrates and others to urge the people to contribute provisions for the suffering soldiers.

Within the past few days ten paroled and escaped prisoners arrived at the Washington Navy Yard. These came from the stockade prison at Florence, and belonged to various vessels, having been captured at different times.

The escaped men state that when Sherman marched towards Florence, they were hastily placed on the cars and started towards Wilmington; but when that place was threatened, they were taken back to Goldsboro, where they remained a short time, and were then sent back to Wilmington.

Gen. Canby and staff were to leave New Orleans for the neighborhood of Mobile, March 1.—Admiral Thatcher's flag ship, the Arizona, was burnt 30 miles below New Orleans Monday night, Feb. 27. Five of her crew perished.

The Commercial says a letter from an officer on the Niagara, dated Fanol, Spain, Feb. 18th, states that the rebel ram Florida, or Stonewall, was lying close by; that the Spaniards allowed her to come into port to make limited repairs, and that the Commander had asked to leave her in port while he went to Paris to annul the contract of the sale and throw her upon the hands of her former owners. The Niagara was eager to engage her, notwithstanding the odds of iron against wood.

A new movement in Grant's army is hourly expected. The Commercial's Hatcher's Run correspondence of the 6th says the roads having become passable, an advance toward the South Side Railroad is hourly looked for, though no orders have yet been issued.

☞ Dispatches at Boston, Friday, via New York, announce the evacuation of Richmond. The editor of the Boston Journal adds: "The authority for the above statement is not given. Its announcement caused gold to fall to 186 5-8." Before that gold was 190; later, 188. The report is probably premature; but events look toward it.

—The newly elected Chaplain to the U. S. Senate, Rev. Edgar H. Grey, is of the Baptist persuasion, and was for some years settled at Shelburne Falls, Mass. He is a native of Maine.

— Senator Wilson says loyal States can go on recruiting in the insurrectionary States, no legislation having been perfected to stop it.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

The Wibird Family—1765—Gov. Benning Wentworth succeeded by Gov. John, 1766.

Towards the close of the seventeenth century a person named Richard Wibird, came to this town in one of the King's ships. He was steward of the ship, or in an office subservient to the steward. His business was to furnish the table for the officers; he was generally called the King's poulterer. He married a Mrs. Dus of Hampton, who had been in the practice of bringing small articles to market, and afterwards kept a retail shop in what is now called Market street. He engaged in navigation, and was successful. By their joint exertions, they amassed a large estate. Mr. Wibird erected the first brick house ever built in Portsmouth. They left three sons, Richard, Thomas, and John. John died in early life, and left one son, whose name was Anthony, who was settled in the ministry at Braintree. Richard Wibird was educated at Cambridge, and received his first degree in 1722. Soon after he left College, he engaged in merchandise, and pursued that business with diligence through life. He was one of the original proprietors of Mason's patent. In 1739 he was admitted one of His Majesty's Council, and in 1756, received the appointment of Judge of Probate, and he retained the offices until his death, which took place the 25th of September, 1765, in the sixty-third year of his age. His house was the seat of hospitality; and many, especially among the clergy, partook of his munificence.

On Tuesday, November 12th 1765 Thomas Wibird, Esq., died in the 59th year of his age. He was educated at Harvard College, and was graduated in 1728. Having experienced the benefit of a liberal education, he esteemed all useful learning, and patronised literary institutions. In his will he left a legacy of fifty pound sterling to the school for the instruction of the Indians, at Lebanon, in Connecticut, under the direction of the Rev. Mr. Wheelock. Mr. Wibird gave sufficient silver to make two large flagons, to the North church, of which he was a member. In his Christian course, he endeavored to regulate his conduct by the precepts of the gospel, and to adorn his profession by a virtuous life and conversation. He never married, and being possessed of a handsome estate it was inherited, after the payment of several legacies, by some distant relatives.

A spirit of speculation in new lands, prevailed among all ranks in society. Applications were continually made to the Governor for grants, and he readily complied with the request. The townships were generally laid out six miles square; in each of which, he reserved to himself a tract of five hundred acres. By these reservations and the perquisites of office, he amassed a large estate.

Governor Benning Wentworth had not taken any active part in support of the unpopular measures, pursued by the British ministry, and was in favor with the people. Some complaints, however, had been exhibited against him, and the ministry had determined to remove him from office, and to appoint his nephew, John Wentworth, as his successor.

Mr. Wentworth had been sometime in England, and had acted as agent for the province; by which means, he became acquainted with the source of the ministry. He was patronized by the Marquis of Rockingham, whose name was Wentworth, and who was at this time, at the head of the administration.

He interceded with the Marquis in behalf of his uncle, and obtained permission for him, to resign, instead of being removed from office.

Mr. John Wentworth received his commissions as Governor of New Hampshire, and as Surveyor of the woods in North America, the 11th of August, 1766.

☞ Of Miss King's Readings at the Temple Wednesday evening, we shall attempt no criticism, other than to say that all the performances were excellent, entirely natural—delightfully exempt from the stage-struck style which most readers fall into after a while. The entertainment was all that everybody promised it should be, and all that everybody promised themselves it would be.

As to the lady herself, begging her pardon,—she was vastly more than "all our fancy pictured her"—a much more substantial "Angel" than we had pictured—a splendid specimen of physical, healthy woman, and rollicking good-nature; with charmingly modest demeanor, and yet assurance of concious power and love for her profession. And her voice—ah, yes, that is full, round and sweet—it takes your plump people to give out a plump tone; did you ever think of that?

We did not hear the whole programme; but from all who did, we could get nothing but praise and expressions of delight, both for "matter, matter, matter," and "manner, manner, manner." We will only mention incidentally, that we understood this was Miss King's first Reading on her own account—and that the battle of New Orleans, which she rendered so finely, she had never read before in public. Her joyous laugh will long wake sweet echo in the hearts of all who could enjoy it—and we pity any who could not—so clear, so free, so happily ringing out, "like the laugh of a child."

Miss K. is considered and was received by our best people, as a daughter of Portsmouth; and will hereafter be loved and cherished for her own dear sake, as highly as she was before on account of her sainted relatives' memory.

MORE LIGHT.—Messrs. Editors:—In behalf of many citizens, please allow a protest in your paper, against the new-fashioned style at evening performances at the Temple, of extinguishing the lights before the audience have left the hall. If the managers study economy, and thus begin its practice, or the sexton is in haste, it would be well for them to furnish easier and more numerous facilities for the exit of their patrons. All are not anxious to rush for the door and elbow their way through the crowd, at the instant a performance closes; and those who prefer proceeding more quietly would like "a little more light on the subject." SOMEBODY.

☞ At the caucuses of the Union men of Wards 2 and 3, on Friday evening, the following-named gentlemen were nominated as candidates for General Court:

Ward 2—William H. Hackett, George W. Tucker, Henry A. Yeaton, Lewis W. Brewster.

Ward 3—William H. Rollins, Ezra A. Stevens.

☞ It will be seen by the advertisement that the grand combination Concert, by the Old Folks Choir, is not to be given till next month—on account of the unsettled condition of the weather and the roads at this season. Also that a Rehearsal will be held Sunday evening, to which a general invitation is extended.

☞ A recent article in the Richmond Enquirer, takes as strong ground against State sovereignty as could be taken by a Northern statesman, and goes to the extent of asserting that, in its relations both to war and peace, it is a "true and beautiful theory," but utterly defective in fact and practice." But, (says Uncle Toby,) the theory is absurd and nonsensical. It makes each part to be greater than the whole.

— A few months ago, an old gentleman fell dead in the highway of a town in Massachusetts, on whose person was found twenty to thirty thousand dollars, in bills on one bank—many of them much worn and mutilated. They were offered at the bank, and the officers were obliged to call a meeting of the directors, in order to ascertain (so old were some of them) if the bank had ever made any such issues.

— In the procession in Washington on Inauguration Day, part of a regiment of colored soldiers marched in the line, followed by the members of a colored Masonic Lodge. White soldiers were in front and rear of these black men. The band of the colored regiment played, among other airs, "Massa's in the cold, cold ground."

— The oldest person in New England, Deacon John Phillips, of Sturbridge, Mass., recently deceased at the age of 104. At the funeral Rev. Mr. Angier said that Mr. Phillips was descended in the tenth generation from the Phillips who came over from England in the same ship with Gov. Winthrop.

— The Russian government is making large appropriations for organizing schools and colleges for the instruction of the emancipated serfs. Books are to be purchased for the poorer peasants, and other steps taken to diffuse the blessings of education.

— Within the last month 1900 rebel deserters have taken the oath of allegiance at the Provost Marshal's office at Washington, and been sent north.

☞ Mr. A. C. Hoyt's third term of Writing School will commence on Monday evening next, at the State St. School House—for Ladies and Gentlemen.—Terms $1.50.

☞ Kerosene Oil of prime quality, and the best quality Chimnies and Fixtures, may always be had at H. H. & F. W. HAM'S, Exchange Buildings, Portsmouth. f9tf

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

A household without the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal SOAP always on hand, is like a garden without flowers or a family without children. We pity each and all alike, but have no sympathy with the family which does not enjoy the luxury of nice, clean, white clothes—provided this celebrated and more than excellent Soap can be obtained; for these luxuries can only be enjoyed by its use. So do not cease trying till you obtain it. 107

TRIAL AND FRIENDSHIP.—Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus has had a trial among three million families, and is pronounced the best Saleratus in the known world. Its use always brings a smile to the household; it keeps them in health; it helps make the weak strong, and saves hundreds from that dreadful disease, dyspepsia. At you value health, use it. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the Seven-Thirty Loan.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is

THE ONLY LOAN in the Market

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

A KISS UPON THE SLY.

Let poets sing of Eastern climes,
And golden sunset hours;
Of shady nooks
And babbling brooks,
Of moonlight orange flowers;
Yet still to me
More sweet shall be (A joy no wealth can buy,)
A pair of posting cherry lips
To kiss upon the sly.

Oh, let them build their lofty rhyme
As e'en so e'er they may;
But give me still—
If so you will—
Another word to say:
Now hire to all,
Tall, fat or small,
I vow I'd rather die,
Than miss the bliss that's in a kiss
When taken on the sly.

LINES ON AN OLD PORTRAIT.

Eyes that outsmiled the morn,
Behind your golden tashes,
What are your lires now?
Ashes!
Cheeks that outblush the rose,
White arms and snowy bust,
What is your beauty now?
Dust!

GEOLOGICAL SPECULATIONS.—Prof. Agassiz, in the Atlantic Monthly, comes to the conclusion that the continent of North America was at one time covered with ice a mile in thickness. The proof is that the slopes of the Alleghany range of mountains are glacier-worn to the very top, except a few points which were above the level of the icy mass. Mount Washington, for instance, is over six thousand feet high, and the rough unpolished surface of its summit, covered with loose fragments, just below the level of which glazier marks come to an end, tells us that it lifted its head alone above the desolate waste of ice and snow. In this region, then, the thickness of the sheet cannot have been much less than six thousand feet, and this is in keeping with the same kind of evidence in other parts of the country; for, wherever the mountains are much below six thousand feet, the ice seems to have passed directly over them, while the few peaks rising to that height are left untouched. The glacier, he argues, was God's great plough, and when the ice vanished from the face of the land, it left it prepared for the hand of the husbandman. The hard surface of the rocks was ground to powder, the elements of the soil were mingled in fair proportions, granite was carried into the lime regions, lime was mingled with the more arid and unproductive granite districts, and a soil was prepared fit for the agricultural uses of man. There are evidences all over the polar regions to show that at one period the heat of the tropics extended all over the globe. The ice period is supposed to be long subsequent to this, and next to the last before the advent of man.

THE BIG GUN.—A correspondent of the Bangor Whig gives an account of a huge coffee boiler called the "Big Gun," the invention of a Philadelphia gentleman, and intended for duty in the field. It consists of three large boilers, containing about twenty-five gallons, with furnaces underneath. These are supported by two wheels, and under the axle is a box for wood and coal. On the fore wheel is a chest, containing canisters for coffee, tea, farina, sugar, and condensed milk. The whole is drawn by two horses, and is intended to operate on the battle field to supply the wounded with coffee, &c. This has been used on several battle fields, and is styled by the soldiers the "Big Gun."

— Field Marshal Viscount Stapleton Combermere, whose death is announced in the late English papers, was probably the oldest general in the world. He was almost sufficiently old to be Lieutenant-General Scott's father. Viscount Combermere was born in 1773, and General Scott in 1786. The former was therefore ninety-three years of age when he died. He was educated at the Westminster school, and entered the army seventy-five years ago, when he was eighteen years of age. He served with great distinction in India, under Lord Cornwallis and the Duke of Wellington, then General Wellesley.

— A Hartford paper says "a new and very sensible fashion is beginning to prevail in that city, in regard to funerals. The services are held, the assembly dismissed, and all except the family and other relatives of the deceased return to their homes; afterwards, the hearse and carriages come, and the body is accompanied to the grave by the family only. This gives the immediate relatives an opportunity to "take leave" of the deceased, and to perform the last office privately; and, in the case of families who are poor or in only moderate circumstances it saves much needless expense."

—Certain individuals are fearful of a collision between some of those erratic bodies, the Comets, and Mother Earth; and for the benefit of such, a recent writer upon the planetary system coolly remarks, "there need be no alarm concerning comets; for should one of those singular bodies come in contact with the earth and destroy it, the inhabitants would probably experience no pain, as the atmosphere of the comet would instantly suffocate every living thing, except the fishes, and so render them insensible to suffering." Let the timid console themselves with this reflection.

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years, attended with so bad a leg as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended in the best medical assistance, and a dozen bottles of his Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and other vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
from ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841
DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our home in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. A testimonial of medicine one of the best that can be found for the diseases above named. ISRAEL CHESLEY
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. mar26

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.
The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.
"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.
Cures in from one

CHEROKEE REMEDY
—AND—
CHEROKEE INJECTION,
Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.
CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Strictures, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is specially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.
It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.
It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.
CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an auxiliary or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack Injections.
☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.
For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will send one, free, to any address, a full treatise.

☞ This medicine is a simple vegetable extract and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn cases.

VOL. XXVI. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. MONDAY, MARCH 13, 1865 : 71. No. 58.

The Chronicle.

THE TOILETS at the Inauguration Ball, are thus spoken of by a correspondent:

Mrs. Lincoln looked extremely well, and was attired in a most elegant manner; her dress was made of white satin, very ample and rich, but almost entirely covered by a tunic or rather skirt of the finest point applique. Her corsage, which was low, and the short sleeves, were ornamented richly—a berthe made of the same material; and the shawl, also of the same rich lace, was most exquisite. Passementerie of narrow dusted satin ribbon and nouds completed the dress. Her jewels were of the rarest pearls, necklace, ear-rings, brooch and bracelets. Her hair, which was put plainly back from her face, was ornamented with trailing jasemine and clustering violets most gracefully. She looked exceedingly well with her soft, white complexion, and her toilet was faultless.—Her manners are very easy and affable.

One of the most elaborate and rich dresses in the room was worn by Mrs. George Francis Train: it was a very finely plaided blue silk, trimmed with a flounce of thread lace, almost as deep as her skirt, and other laces to match. Her hair was powdered with gold.

The multitude of recherche dresses worn by ladies of distinction, it would be impossible to enumerate. There was a preponderence of sensible, high-necked dresses; but a few, and some not American, wore corsages shockingly decollete. Many ladies who wore velvets, moires, and heavier silks, dispensed with hoops altogether, thereby displaying their good taste, as well as their regard for the appreciation of some approximation to the female form which still inheres or lingers in the mind of man; one, a dress of cloth of gold, with raised crimson velvet flowers, such an one as is seldom seen in this country, or afforded in any other. In her hair she wore a cluster of five or six enormous diamond rings, strung on a bandeau of velvet. Her laces were also of the finest quality. In her hand she carried a large fan of the most brilliant workmanship, which seemed to give a breeze of a more ardent clime than ours.

A more antique dress, high-necked and ample-skirted, of the most delicate shade of green imaginable, and worn by a young lady, was indeed exquisite; and also a very light lavender more antique, trimmed heavily upon the skirt and waist with long silver fringe, was superb. Silks predominated over the more airy textures. Diamonds and other precious jewelry were worn in great abundance, and rich laces were plentiful.

Some ladies displayed the bad taste of wearing their rings over their gloves. Every lady makes the most of her—"or somebody's else"—hair, which is frizzled and puffed and curled in the most extensive manner, and is powdered frequently with diamond and gold dust. One dress of mauve velvet trimmed with deep point lace, we must not omit to mention. It was royal.

SWAPPING BABIES.—A singular affair recently occurred in Evansville, Ind. which shows that children shouldn't be trusted with strangers. Two men, named respectively Jones and Smith, each accompanied by wife and child, arrived at the station of the above place late at night; and considering that it would be cheaper to lodge in the depot till the midnight train, than a hotel, they determined upon doing so. Soon after the children fell asleep, when the men proposed to go out; the ladies refused on account of the children; but an elderly woman who was in the depot offered to care for them while the parents were gone, and they finally consented. No sooner had they departed, than the elderly lady proceeded to change both the dress and positions of the children. The two parties separated without discovering the imposition, each taking the other's child. When Jones found out the state of affairs, he had Smith arrested by telegraph, and repaired to the station to recover his own. Both considered the other an imposter and a villain, and it was not long before they came to blows; but that was stopped by bystanders, who proceeded to enquire into the matter. It became apparent that the "elderly" lady was somewhat deranged, and had taken the above course on occasion of difficulty between the men; but it was soon satisfactorily arranged, and, recovering their own, both parties went on their way rejoicing.

—The special correspondent of the Washington Chronicle, writing from Charleston, S. C., says:

"The Charleston Mercury was removed about a week before the evacuation of the city, with press, paper, type, and everything. Nothing remains put the building itself.—In the office was a plaster statue of John C. Calhoun. A gentleman told some negroes who were standing near, that that was the bust of a man who had caused all this trouble, and that he was one of the ardent supporters of slavery. They immediately seized upon the figure and hurled it into the street, smashing it into atoms."

—It seems that a lawyer is something of a carpenter; he can file a bill, split a hair, make an entry, get up a case, frame an indictment, empanel a jury, put them in a box, nail a witness, hammer a judge, bore a court, and other like things.

—Mr. Carleton, the publisher of the Christian Advocate and Journal, New York, has "struck ile," having recently realized $100,000 for his devotion to the new goddess Petrolia.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, MARCH 13, 1865.

TUESDAY, March 14, is the day for electing State officers in New Hampshire, County and District officers, Senators and Representatives to General Court, and Representatives in Congress. Never have we seen less excitement on the eve of such an election: very rarely so little. Though no one doubts the general result, yet it becomes every Union voter to deposit his ballot early, for true and tried men.

REINFORCEMENTS FOR SHERMAN'S ARMY.—The New York World's correspondent at Port Royal, S. C., says every steamer which arrives there brings reinforcements for Sherman's army, which will be strengthened by thousands of troops when he makes known his positive location. They will be sent to Charleston, on route for his headquarters.

BOGUS NEWS.—We presumed to doubt the evacuation of Richmond, as a gold story, by which gold went down to 186 1-2 on Friday. That same evening, at the Evening Stock Exchange in New York, considerable excitement was got up by the "bears" on the strength of a rumor that Sherman had met with a disaster, and gold went up to 195, closing at 193 3-4.

— The Christian Commission has introduced a method of identifying sick or wounded soldiers in the army. It is called the "Identifier," and consist of a small card, with an eyelet in it through which a string is put, to suspend the card from the neck. It is intended to be worn around the neck in battle, and its chief object is to identify the person who wears it in case he should be killed or wounded.

☞ A writer who has a copy of the Charleston Courier of Feb. 28, says it looks rather queer to find in that original heart of treason, of secession and of despotism, James Redpath, the abolitionist, issuing his orders as Superintendent of Public Instruction. Where it was a crime to teach a colored child to read the word of God, the colored people are now instructed without let or hindrance, and the Liberator may be read in safety.

☞ In Santa Barbara county, Cal, four miles south of the town of Santa Barbara, there is a vine which was planted more than a quarter of a century since, and has a stalk now about ten inches thick. The branches are supported by a train or arbor, and extend out about fifty feet on all sides. The annual crop of grapes upon this one vine is from 6,000 to 10,000 pounds, as much as the yield of half an acre of common vines. It is of the Los Angeles variety. There is a similar vine, but not so large, in the vineyard of Andres Pico, at San Fernando.

— Says the Farmington Chronicle, "We know an appletree in a neighboring town from which 24 bushels of Baldwins have been picked in a single year. A common sized house lot covered with such trees would produce more income than the rest of the best house in the country. And what of that? Way, fill a part of your garden with appletrees."

A PRIZE FOR THE U. S.—On Monday last thirteen transports, with troops from Fortress Monroe, accompanied by the gunboats Commodore Reed and Yankee, proceeded up the Rappahannock river to capture a quantity of tobacco, known to have been sent from Richmond to Fredericksburg, to be smuggled into our lines. A schooner bound up with a cargo of whiskey and salt was captured. The cargo was removed, and the schooner blown up. Fredericksburg was garrisoned by a squad of rebels. Troops and sailors were landed, who captured manufactured tobacco to the amount of ninety-five tons, estimated to be worth $380,000. The country about Fredericksburg was scoured, and during the raid over four hundred prisoners were captured. An extensive contraband trade had been organized by the rebels on the Rappahannock, and the expedition was designed to break it up. As the vessels passed down the river on their return, a number of deserters came off from the shore.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—The U. S. supreme Court, through Chief Justice Chase, decided in a late case of cotton seizure, that there could be no seizure as prize of war, of private property by the Navy on inland waters of the United States or on land since the act of Congress of 1861, 1862, 1863 and 1864, and that therefore this property was not in that view, lawful prize of war; but the Court thought the property should have been given over to Treasury officers, as captured or abandoned property, under the act of March 12, 1863. This act prescribes the means by which loyal citizens may recover compensation.

— The Sanitary Commission has just sent by the steamer Uncas to Sherman's army in North Carolina, as soon as it communicates with the coast, an assorted cargo of hospital and field relief supplies.

THE REBELLION.

Refugees who have arrived in Newbern all states that Fayetteville, N. C., was in our possession last week, and Sherman was within forty miles of Raleigh; the rebel soldiers were deserting by companies, most of them retiring to their homes.

The Raleigh Progress says Sherman will soon be in possession of Raleigh, and will go whenever he desires.

Quite a panic has prevailed among the negroes of North Carolina since the announcement that they are to be conscripted to fight in the rebel army. The rebels are now gathering them for this purpose. A combination exists among the conservative slaveholders to resist this measure, some of whom are arming their slaves that they may defy the rebel authorities, and thus detain their servants, who exhibit a readiness to fight for their masters, and their homes rather than for the rebels. The Progress says great numbers of negroes are flocking to Sherman's army, with the assistance of their masters, with the promise that they will return and work for wages, as soon as it will be safe for them to do so. This gives the negro question an interesting aspect. It will not delay Sherman's movements, however.

On Thursday night a party of rebel cavalry, under the command of a nephew of ex-Governor Letcher, attempted to make a crossing at Muddy Branch, on the upper Potomac. They were met by the pickets of the 1st New Hampshire cavalry, who drove them back, killing young Letcher and ten of the party.

A Saturday Washington dispatch says the Government soon expects to hear from Sherman, via Wilmington. The last heard of Johnston he was in the swamps near Yadkin river.

A transport from Wilmington, March 7, brings a note from an officer at General Terry's headquarters, stating that scouts, refugees and deserters, who arrived freely during the past two days, all concur in saying that General Sherman's advance was fully within the borders of North Carolina, and had thus far met with no serious opposition. The rebels had all fallen back towards Goldsboro.

Kinston, North Carolina, had been evacuated by the rebels.

Great alarm prevailed throughout the eastern part of North Carolina, and rebel deserters, including officers, were hourly coming in.

Beauregard is fortifying Raleigh and Goldsboro, but is terrified at the apparition of our co-operating column, advancing from Newbern. A number of our prisoners have reached Newbern, having escaped while being removed from Florence to Salisbury. They state that the prisoners are guarded by boys from 14 to 16 years old.

Negroes are coming into Newbern in droves frightened by the prospect of being drawn into the rebel armies. The whites are despondent. A gentleman who left Newbern on the 7th, brings authentic intelligence that the rebels have abandoned all the country between that place and Goldsboro. Kinston was evacuated on the 3d inst. Refugees and deserters have heard of no engagement between Sherman and the rebels. Just before leaving Wilmington it was reported that the rebels had fallen back from their position, 15 miles northeast of the city. There was no doubt Sherman was well within North Carolina.

The Meridian (Miss.) Clarion denies the report that Mobile was being evacuated.

The Washington Republican of Friday publishes the following, and says there is every reason to believe it true:

Maj. Gen. Thomas telegraphs the Government that one of his scouts had come in with the information that the rebel Gens. Lee and Cheatham had been sent from Alabama against Sherman, but Lee was subsequently recalled to defend Selma. Cheatham proceeded, intending to form a junction with Hardee from Charleston, but scouts report that the rebels have information that before the junction was formed Sherman hurled a few of his veteran brigades back upon Cheatham's column, completely crushing it. Hardee was not up in time, and the report does not say that he gave battle to all, but that Johnston was supposed to have attacked Sherman in front and got awfully whipped.

By Telegraph—Sunday noon.

PHILADELPHIA, 11th — The Bulletin's Washington despatch says a letter dated Wilmington 6th, states that a scout from Sherman had reached Terry's headquarters, who left our forces in occupation of Chenau, S. C., and but a few miles from North Carolina. Nothing but cavalry skirmishes had taken place; the army had rested for some days, and found fair subsistence along the route.

The Wilmington Herald of Tuesday intimates that Sherman was then in North Carolina—and all things combine to render it certain—and it is also stated that Sherman moved from Chenan towards Fayetteville.

NEW YORK, 11th—The Post's Washington despatch says "good news has been received from Sherman, the remnants of Early's forces have fled to the mountains and the rebel army is believed to be broken up."

Gold at the evening exchange 190 3-4.

— Perley says: The proviso forbidding recruiting in rebel States was inserted in a bill which passed. Prominent Congressmen were not inclined to believe this, but it is so.

GOLD, Friday, 189 to 190 in New York.—In Boston, $45,000 were sold at 188 1-2. A New York dispatch of Saturday says numerous statements and rumors were afloat Friday night, at the gold board, to the effect that Sherman and Schofield had been routed.—They were merely gold speculations, without the shadow of a foundation.

N. H. SOLDIERS.—The Manchester Mirror has received a letter from Lieut. Col. Frank W. Parker, dated Wilmington, the 27th ult. His testimony in regard to the cruel treatment of our men who are prisoners, is the same constantly received. After saying that hundreds of them were cared for by Dr. Buzzel of the 3rd, he continues:

"They were covered with filth and vermin, emaciated, and so weak that they could not speak. O, it made the blood of every Union soldier boil to see how our men have been treated! We never believed it before. One thousand paroled prisoners came in yesterday, and the same number to-day. I have seen Sergt. Robert Hume, Co. E; Carlton C. Richardson, Co. E; Edward O. Hill, Co. E; Richard Young, Co. K; Corp. George Hackett, Co. K, 4th N. H. Vols., all of Manchester, and Perley Rand, of Co, and Sergt. Peter O'Brien, Co. G. Sergt. Knight, Co. K, died at Florence, about the 11th of October; John Stewart, Co. E, died on the 22d of November, at Florence. All the above belong to the 4th N. H. Vols. Sergt. Hume is quite well.—Corp. Hackett and Carlton Richardson are very weak, but will soon be better, no doubt. I have not been able to get the names of the men from the 3d and 7th Regiments."

He says Gen. Terry's command is in first-rate spirits, and if the army can be recruited with good men, will march home overland.

— The British Board of Trade report, just published, states the receipts of cotton for the last three years, computed in hundredweights, have been 4,670,000, 5,970,000, and 7,970,000. China, Egypt and Brazil showed the greatest increase in their consignments.

A Card to Invalids.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

Please inclose a stamped envelope, addressed to yourself.

☞ We copy on our fourth page, the Journal's account of how one of the flats was gulled. Such fellows, who "go in to win" other folks' money, and then "skwak" because they lose their own, deserve to suffer something, and don't merit much sympathy.

One of the hackmen informs us, that the passenger referred to—who, after all, appears not to have been so green—on arriving here, asked for a chance to "play," and requested to be shown to a saloon, &c.; and that he, the hackman, simply filled his business order, as he would anybody's.

We are also assured that the man drank but a single glass of liquor at the saloon alluded to, and that he was not drunk at all while there; that he gave at least two names for himself here, and stated that he had "played" often and heavily. He appears to have had no business here, but to fleece others, and cried badly when he got skinned himself. He was seen at a "saloon" in Boston the next day after leaving here; but the proprietor refused to allow him to play, after learning of his capers here.—All of which goes to show, perhaps, only that he was no better than he should be, and at least as much to be blamed as anybody concerned.

☞ The little steamer Emerald, which has rendered such efficient service for the past three weeks, thereby restoring the confidence of all interested in her daily trips,—and encouraging the belief that as she had run twenty-one days, that she would continue to ply to and from the Navy Yard to the end of time—alas, is again hauled up for repairs, having broken some of her gear on Friday last.

☞ The Stars and Bars says the Republicans have no expectation of electing Marston to Congress in this District; and that "Bets have been freely offered against them in this city and in Dover, but there are no takers." To which we reply that we long ago offered to stake from $100 to $1000 on the result, in greenbacks or gold, as the Democrats prefer; and we are ready to do the same now.

☞ Thomas L. Tullock, jr., of this city, has been ordered to duty as Paymaster of the U. S. steamer "Paul Jones," now ready for sea at the Boston Navy Yard. She has a very heavy armament, and we understand is detailed for special service.

PATRIOTISM.—John Smith Pike, a citizen of Middleton, N. H., was drafted in June, 1864, and promptly furnished a substitute. On Saturday the 11th inst. he volunteered at the Provost Marshal's office in this city, as a soldier in the 18th N. H. Regt.

—— The S. J. Court has been engaged the past week on the case of Bordman vs Woodman, being an attempt to set aside the will of Margaret Blydenburg, daughter of the late Rev. John Blydenburg, of Durham, who died a few years ago, bequeathing to Wm. L. Garrison $1000, and for charitable and philanthropic purposes connected with the Anti Slavery Reform, the greater part of the residue of her estate, amounting to six or eight thousand dollars, with the exception of real estate in Durham, which was given to her executor. The heirs at law contest the will on the ground of incapacity in the deceased, on account of insanity at the time, to make the will.

☞ The New York Herald's Washington dispatch says it is expected, by the new Secretary of the Treasury, that from the proceeds of large amounts of Southern products captured, a fund will soon be accumulated that will enable the government to resume specie payments sooner than expected.

EXCHANGED PRISONERS.—On Friday, nine steamers arrived at Annapolis, bringing about 3000 Union prisoners, most of them in a sad state of emaciation, and nearly destitute of clothing. Several died on the passage, and five dead were taken from one boat. Some 1500 of the poor fellows had to go to the hospital. A large number of rebel prisoners passed through Baltimore on the same day to be exchanged—all in good health and well clothed, and many of them with carpet bags full of clothing.

— A fellow named Wineland, at Tolano, Ill., killed his father and his cousin the other day. He thought his father had willed his property to his cousin.

— Daniel Flanagan, editor of a democratic paper in Warren county, Ohio, for "discouraging voluntary enlistments", and "counselling resistance to the draft," was sentenced to six months imprisonment, at Fort Delaware, to which place he will immediately be escorted. And we sincerely hope that all persons who emulate his example, will share the same fate.

— Thursday, March 23d, is to be observed by the old parish and church in Concord, as the 40th anniversary of Rev. Dr. Bouton's settlement as their pastor.—He will preach at 11 A. M.,—and the society are to have a social gathering in the evening.

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.

Two cents " " " $100 "

Ten " " " " $500 "

20 " " " " $1000 "

$1 " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

DR. URANN,

PRACTICAL PHYSICIAN

Who has made so many wonderful and instantaneous cures in Boston, New York, Hartford, Springfield, and more recently in New Hampshire and Vermont, has taken

ROOMS FOR THE PRESENT AT THE

FRANKLIN HOUSE,

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

DR. URANN'S treatment is such that by it

All Curable Diseases

are affected in one or two treatments, and many are entirely cured by one, as the following will testify:—

W. P. HOMER, 50 and 52 Federal Street, Boston for many years was troubled with Heart complaint, so bad that at times he was unable to attend to his business; after one treatment he was able to run up stairs, work in his garden and attend to his business; has since gained 12 pounds.

MRS. ELLEN CORRY, of Cambridgeport, Mass.—Sciatica; so lame that she could not walk without assistance; after one treatment of fifteen minutes was well as ever, and could walk a mile free from pain.

MRS. SARAH P. STILES, Lowell, Mass., had Fever Sores on both legs of twelve years standing; her right ankle measured eighteen inches, and was as blue as indigo; she could not move her foot; after one treatment it was reduced one-half, she could move her foot freely and is getting well rapidly, her left ankle all healed.

Prof. G. M. LARRON, 1 Dix Place, Boston, troubled with Spinal difficulty, was in much pain; relieved by one treatment.

Miss HANNAH COOL, Campton, N. H.—Spinal difficulties; was unable to walk but a short distance or do any kind of work; perfectly cured, and is now the picture of health.

Miss C. FROTHINGHAM, Boston, Portrait Painter, was troubled with great depression of spirits, at times was unable to attend to her favorite employment; was entirely cured, and she expresses herself, is "made over anew."

MRS. J. BROWN, Boston, a severe cough and pains through her lungs, cured.

Capt. W. H. LAMPSON'S CHILD, Lowell, Mass. The child was pronounced by physicians as hopelessly idiotic. The child could neither walk or sit alone, and took no notice of anything. After one treatment he began to improve, and has so far gained as to be able to walk alone, can talk, takes notice of everything, laughs and sings, and appears perfectly well.

MRS. HINCKLEY, wife of A. T. Hinckley, of State Arsenal, Hartford, Ct., troubled with hip complaint and contraction of the cords of the legs; could not get her heel to the floor within four inches; had to be brought down stairs in arms; after one treatment of twenty minutes was able to run up and down stairs with ease, and is now able to walk the streets.

Mr. J. TURNER, Hartford, Ct., troubled for many years with loss of memory; could not attend to business; had been under the best medical treatment in England with no beneficial effect; after one treatment was perfectly restored

Miss MARTHA ST. JOHN, Simsbury, Ct., was confined to her bed from spinal difficulty and prolapsus uteri; had not been dressed for more than a year; in twenty minutes she was enabled to dress and walk out to one of the neighbors, a distance of about a half mile; she has since been to Hartford and to church, and is improving daily.

MRS. HENRY LOOMIS, Southwick, Mass., troubled with fits and spinal difficulties, could not walk without much difficulty, perfectly cured by one treatment.

MRS. WM. JENKINS, Unionville, Conn., troubled for over two years with chronic liver complaint and rheumatism, had a large lump on her side which was very painful; was unable to lie down. Cured by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

JOSEPH H. ELDRIDGE, formerly of the Hartford Police, more recently on Hartford and New Haven Railroad, was obliged to give up his business on account of severe cough and bleeding, perfectly cured and can now do a good day's work.

LYDIA L. FULLER, of East Wallingford, Vt., had entirely lost the use of her limbs after a severe attack of diptheria, was restored by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

FANNY DAVIS, of Moretown, Vt., had been confined to her bed for more than five years—was not able to stand—after one treatment of less than an hour, was enabled to walk around the room, and is now quite well.

Miss HUTCHINSON, daughter of Judge Hutchinson of West Randolph, Vt., was troubled with fits, having some days from fifty to one hundred. She was unable to eat anything but liquids—was not able to stand. After one treatment she began to improve, until now, she is the picture of health, able to walk as well as any one, eats hearty and has no fits.

SOUTHWICK, MASS., July 21, 1862.

DR. URANN,—Dear Sir:—I suppose it is ever a pleasure to you to learn the convalescent state of your patients; notwithstanding my long three years of almost absolute confinement to my bed, unable most of the time to converse with or see any company, and for over two years unable to feed myself—yet with little painful picture of human wretchedness which made life almost a burden, since your treatment of my spine, on the 7th day of June, I have been able to take my meals at the table, with my family, ride out daily, and converse freely with all; and without some new misfortune befalls me, I shall soon be able to interest myself in the labors of my profession, at least to preach one sermon a Sabbath. Without flattery, in my honest judgment, there is no better treatment in the hands of men for the Spinal Disease than the one which you honor, and as my heart beats with sympathy with all Spinal sufferers, I only wish they knew the wonderful utility of your treatment, and avail themselves of the same. Yours with respect and gratitude,

M. H. RISING.

DR. URANN'S TERMS

Are such that all can avail themselves of his treatment.

☞ Persons at a distance who are unable to visit the Doctor, by sending particulars of their cases, with one dollar enclosed, will receive advice and learn whether their cases can be treated at a distance. In all cases, state age and sex.

Portsmouth, Feb. 22, 1865.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

OUTRAGEOUS DOINGS.—On Wednesday, Mr. Marvin C. Morton, a business agent from the State of New York, visited Portsmouth. On Thursday afternoon he called on Marshal Dresser, making complaint that being a stranger in the city he had been invited by a hack driver to take a stroll. That he had been taken to a saloon called the "Merchant's Exchange," in Ladd-street. That under the influence of liquor there drank, he was induced to engage in the game of faro with one Downing and others, and had lost thirteen 7-30 Treasury Notes, $50 each, worth $650, a gold watch worth $500, a gold chain worth $300, a diamond ring worth $150, a cluster of diamonds worth $500, and $235 in currency. This stripped him of nearly all his property. Mr. Morton was a young man of about 25, recently married, of good connections, in every respect gentlemanly, and evidently not given to gambling. With tears streaming from his eyes, he said that he was ruined by his visit to Portsmouth. Those who had gained his property had out of pity returned to him his watch, and then fled from his presence, taking all his other effects, amounting to $1833, with them.

Marshal Dresser at once went in pursuit, and meeting Messrs. Carter and Bell, the proprietors of the saloon, demanded the restoration of the property. They said that the man had engaged, in a game of chance: if he had gained, he would have said nothing about it—and he had therefore no right to complain. They asked, however, for what sum a compromise could be made. Nothing short of every cent and article, was the reply—and if this is not done, your concern will be broken up. They asked for fifteen minutes absence, and in due time returned with every article; for which Mr. Morton gave his receipt, and at five in the afternoon on Thursday took the cars for Boston—learning a lesson at a much cheaper rate than he expected, to beware of the cup, of the gambling table, and of men who lead strangers to such places.

Much credit is due to the City Marshal for his prompt and decisive action in the matter.

A HERO OF THE ALBEMARLE AFFAIR.—We were pleased this week to shake hands with Ensign Thomas S. Gay, who has returned home for exchange, after five months fearful experience of the barbarity of Southern prisons. His account confirms all that is said of the terrors of Salisbury, Danville and Libby prisons. He brings as a memento one third of a day's rations, which is hardly sufficient to satisfy a year old babe for a breakfast. We hope to give another week an account from him of his adventure in the taking of the ram steamer, and of his subsequent experience.

The old ROCKINGHAM BANK, from which for more than half a century, no bill has been issued which has not borne the name of Pickering for Cashier, and which has had but two Presidents in that time—it will be seen by a notice is about to adopt the National system. This bank has ever enjoyed the fullest confidence of the community, and we trust will continue to enjoy it, as its old officers will remain the same. The venerable John Haven was President about thirty years, and his immediate successor, J. M. Tredick, bids fair to add thirty more years to the twenty he has already served.

It is strange that no Portsmouth bank has yet adopted the delicious and popular local name of "STRAWBERRY BANK."

WHO OUGHT TO VOTE?—This question is under discussion by the public prints. We will not attempt to draw the exact line at this time, but will only say that in our opinion no man ought to be allowed to cast a ballot who has not sufficient knowledge to read his vote—nor should any man be permitted to vote who has not paid all the arrearages of public taxes assessed upon him.

EPPING, N.-H., Feb. 26, 1866. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—to it effected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swett's PANACEA, and half a dozen bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicine can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my neighbors, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with disease at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eat ing it, and all medicine failed to give me relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not been troubled from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHENEY, Lee, May 31, 1841

DR. SWETT. Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named. IRA CHENEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not as represented. All orders directed to DR. S SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. mxv26

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water: also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes of the

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

THE TANEY "DRED SCOTT" DECISION. There was a very lively debate in the Senate one day last week, upon the proposition to appropriate $1000 for a bust of Chief Justice Taney. The thing did not "go down" easily. Sumner, Wilson, Hale Wade and others rebelled against the proposition. This angered Johnson of Maryland, and he turned in his wrath upon Wilson, accusing him of being no lawyer. His manner was sneering and irritating. Wilson replied in a decided manner, but Bluff Ben Wade charged home upon the old Maryland turncoat. Wade said he would give more for the opinion of a man who was not a lawyer, than he would for a "feed attorney" in the very Dred Scott case which was under consideration. This was a home thrust, and Johnson denied that he was paid for his argument in the case. Then followed another good hit of Wade, as follows:

Mr. Wade—He was an attorney in the case, and if he volunteered, so much the worse.

Mr. Johnson—I did volunteer.

Mr. Wade—I am sorry for it; I was in hopes you were only induced to embark in so bad a cause by an enormous fee.

Mr. Johnson—I would rather take the court's opinion than yours on that point.

W.—I suppose you would, and the court was more likely to be favorable to you than I should be. Sir, the decision in that case will admit of no criticism judicially. Take the opinions of Judge McLean and Judge Curtis, and they tear your Dred Scott decision to pieces, and everybody who reads them knows it. The fame of that decision and of all its proposers, in spite of all the eulogies of those who pronounced them, has gone down to posterity with utter contempt and disgrace; and the people of Ohio, whose opinions I profess to represent on this floor, would pay $2000 to hang this man in effigy rather than $1000 for a bust to commemorate his merits. I was willing that he should sleep; but his friends injudiciously, notwithstanding all the admonitions of public sentiment upon this head, saw fit to drag him here and to propose to take money out of the treasury to pay for a bust to commemorate him whom the world execrates.

Hale said a good thing in defence of Wilson:

"If there is one single thing in the history of my friend from Massachusetts [Mr. Wilson] that I have congratulated him for, and think he is lucky in, it is that he was not educated a lawyer. There is no knowing what legal nonsense he might have babbled here, if he had had his strong good sense spoiled in the technicalities of Blackstone, and the black-letter decisions of the old English courts. He was saved from that, and he stands here now as nature made him, an honest, sensible man. Mr. President, in saying this I do not mean to say anything disparaging to the profession, and I need not, for the Honorable Senator from Maryland intimates that I am not so much of a lawyer as to hurt me a great deal. [Laughter.] That statement was accompanied by a profession of humility; but in my judgment, so far as my experience goes, real, genuine humility, such as you will find in the Pilgrim's Progress, is not uttered with such a dogmatical manner, and in such a vociferous tone as the Hono able Senator from Maryland takes when he is going to profess a great deal of humility." [Laughter.]

— The Hottentots are said to possess a certain kind of literature, consisting of songs, legends, fables and proverbs,—enough to fill sixty-five quarto pages, which have been printed. One of the fables runs thus:—

The Cock, it is said, was once overtaken by the Jackal. "Please, pray first, (before you kill me) as the white man does." The Jackal asked, "In what manner does he pray? tell me." "He folds his hands in praying," said the Cock. The Jackal folded his hands and prayed. Then the Cock said, "You ought not to look about you as you do. You had better shut your eyes." He did so; and the Cock flew away, upbraiding at the same time the Jackal with the words: "You rogue! do you also pray?" There sat the Jackal, speechless, because he had been outdone.

THE WEDDING RING.—Mr. Massingberd, in his recent "Lectures on the Prayer-book," thus accounts for the connection between the wedding-ring and the bride's fourth finger: "According to the old service books the practice was for the man to place the ring first on the tip of the thumb, reckoned as the first finger, saying, 'In the name of the Father;' then on the second finger, saying, 'and of the Son;' then on that of the third finger, saying, 'and of the Holy Ghost;' and so finally on the fourth with the word, 'Amen;' and so it remained on the fourth, where it does and will remain on all properly-married ladies; and thus the custom is accounted for.—Public Opinion.

HOW EQUAL SCHOOL PRIVELEGES RESULT IN BOSTON.—Our Providence friends who are fighting the good fight of equal school privileges, may be pleased to know that one of the black-skinned girls in Miss Penniman's school, in Boston, went to the Winthrop school, last Monday, with one hundred per cent. of correct answers, beating every white girl but one in the district, and she a little Irish girl!—Boston Commonwealth.

— They have basket dances in Bath, Me., according to the Times. Each couple carries supper in a basket. Such dances are novel and economic.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 1865.

NEW HAMPSHIRE STATE ELECTION occurs to-day; and though there have been less outward demonstrations than usual, the election itself is important; and we presume the vote will be large, believing that most of the voters who are at home will exercise their privilege at the polls. As most of the soldiers are not here, it becomes every Union man to be at his post of duty. The question is, shall our State Government and our Delegation in Congress be ranged on the side of the Union? or on that of the rebels?

☞ Mr. McCulloch, the Secretary of the Treasury, made a speech in Washington, March 9, in which he said: he had full confidence in our National resources and in the steady, unwavering determination of the loyal people of this country, irrespective of party, to preserve the Union and maintain the public credit. Confidence that the people will cheerfully furnish the money required to bring the war to a successful conclusion, and that they will be able to bear any burthens that have been or may be created in the great contest which the Government is waging for its own preservation. He says his chief aim will of course be to provide means to discharge the claims upon the Treasury at the earliest day practicable, and to institute measures to bring the business of the country gradually back to a specie basis, a departure from which, although for the time being a necessity, is no less damaging and demoralizing to the people than expensive to the Government.

GOLD FLEEING FROM RICHMOND.—PRISONERS GONE.—The Richmond Enquirer editorially declares that the banks in Richmond are deporting their gold to the enemy, and adds that if Lee should seize it, it would supply his army with provisions for a year; but if he fails to do that, it will be impossible to furnish the army with the necessary supplies. The Examiner says that all of the Richmond prisons have been cleared of Union prisoners, the last lot of nine hundred having been sent off on Friday. Major Generals Crook and Kelley still remained, but it was supposed that they would go in a few days.

TEST OATH FOR LAWYERS.—Previous to the adjournment of the U. S. Supreme Court an order was promulgated requiring an oath to be taken by all practitioners at that bar, that they have never voluntarily borne arms against the United States, and have not given aid, counsel or encouragement to the rebellion, &c., and that they will support and defend the Constitution, and will demean themselves as attorneys and counsellors of the court, uprightly and according to law.

THE LAW OR GOLD.—Judge Coster, the United States District Judge for the District of Columbia, in charging a jury last week, in regard to gold transactions, stated that the purchase and sale of gold for purposes of trade and commerce or use was valid, but that all transactions for speculative purposes, which tend to depreciate the currency, are not only against Public policy, but illegal and void.

JUST SENTENCE.—Hanley C. Gardner, of Charlestown, who plead guilty of placing some sleepers upon the track of the Eastern Railroad at South Malden, in December last, has been sent to the House of Correction for three years. Judge Brigham stated that it was one of the worst of crimes known to the law. It was worse than murder to place any obstructions upon the railroad which would endanger the lives of the passengers.

BOUNTY JUMPERS AND SWINDLERS.—Some of these gentry have come to grief in New York. On Saturday March 11, it is stated seven hundred bounty jumpers and seventeen substitute brokers were arrested at Hoboken, after having enlisted at a bogus recruiting office. They were put in irons and sent to Governor's Island.

DESERTERS.—In accordance with the the law, the President has issued a proclamation, calling upon all deserters to return to their regiments and companies. All who shall so return within sixty days, or on or before the tenth day of May next, they will be pardoned; but if any do not they will be deemed and taken to have voluntarily relinquished their right of citizenship, and shall forever be incapable of holding any office of trust or profit in the United States, and of exercising the rights of citizens thereof.

— The Richmond Enquirer denounces the State Bank of Virginia, charging that, in order to avoid aiding the Confederate cause with the two millions of gold in its possession, it has by resolution of its directors voted to divide the specie among the note holders—one dollar of gold for six of notes. The Enquirer calls upon Lee to seize the gold and give it to his soldiers.

THE REBELLION.

The rebel Gen. Bragg reports that he attacked the enemy (U. S. force) March 8th, 4 miles in front of Kinston, and drove him from his position. He disputed the ground obstinately, and took up a new line three miles from his first. Bragg claims that he captured three pieces of artillery and fifteen hundred prisoners, and that the U. S. loss was large and his small.

The Richmond Examiner and Whig of Friday, 10th inst, exult over the above rebel success near Kinston, N. C.,—as they ought to, as it is the first they have had for a long time. They hope it may embarrass Sherman's movement. But the same Examiner editorially says that the vital strain of the great campaign will be upon them in two weeks—even before their negro troops, can be put into the field; but if the white absentees return to the army, their success will be certain. It adds that the Confederacy now turns to Lee, and the efficiency of the armies under his control; if he fail, then indeed the cause is lost. The negro soldier bill has passed by one majority.

In Grant's army on Friday, a report was current at the front that a mutiny had taken place among a large batch of deserters, who were sent up James River on Friday morning, and as sharp firing was heard, it was believed that extreme measures had to be resorted to in order to quell the disturbance. Another report prevailed that a force of Union cavalry had made its appearance on the North side of Richmond, and was having an engagement.

Deserters who came in Saturday say that two brigades of Ricket's Division, had been sent from Petersburg to reinforce Early, and that Sheridan had captured 1000 of them in addition to the number before reported.

A rebel dispatch, dated Mobile Feb. 28, says twenty-two steamers and six Mississippi river transports are in the lower bay, and a large number of troops are on Dauphin Island and at Pensacola, indicating an early attack on that city.

A dispatch from Newbern, N. C., of Thursday, March 9, says:

Maj. Gen. Schofield and staff have arrived here, having left Wilmington on Monday last. They bring no news from Sherman. The rebel papers are equally as ignorant of Sherman's whereabouts. The roads are bad, which delays his progress somewhat.

A letter was received here the other day from a young man who has been confined in the Salisbury prison for the past two years, stating that he was liberated by the Union forces.

The rebels are in considerable force at Kinston, N. C., having been recently reinforced. Lee's corps from Hood's army is reported there.

Yesterday the enemy captured some of our skirmishers near Kinston, belonging to the 15th Conn. and 17th Mass. Maj. Osborn of the 15th Conn. is reported wounded and a prisoner. Our captures will offset the rebels thus far. Bragg is reported to be in command of the enemy's forces at Kinston.

The N. Y. World's Washington dispatch of Monday, March 13, says the War Department attaches very little importance to Bragg's reported success in North Carolina, as the force captured must have been only a construction party accompanied by a small force as guard. They were opening the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad.

Richmond papers report another skirmish between Sherman's cavalry and that of Hampton, at a point not named. The rebel Col. Aiken was killed, and Hampton's Adjutant General wounded.

A greater portion of the rebel troops left in the Shenandoah Valley have been sent to Lynchburg, which position has been strengthened for Lee, if he deems it necessary to fall back to that point.

Official dispatches from Gen. Sheridan, dated Columbia, Va., March 10, show that Charlottesville surrendered to him the next day after Custar's victory over Early; and that since that time his different divisions have made great havoc of the Lynchburg and Gordonsville bridges, mills, &c. He says:—

We have found great abundance in this country for our men and animals. In fact, the canal had been the great feeder of Richmond.

At the Rockfish river the bank of the canal was cut, and at New Canton, where the dam is across the James, the guard lock was destroyed, and the James river let into the canal, carrying away the banks and washing out the bottom of the canal. The dam across the James at this point was also partially destroyed.

I have had no opposition. Everybody is bewildered by our movements. I have had no news of any kind since I left. The latest Richmond paper was of the 4th, but contained nothing.

Up to the present time we have captured 14 pieces of artillery—11 at Waynesboro' and 3 at Charlottesville.

The party that I sent back from Waynesboro' started with six pieces, but they were obliged to destroy two of the six for want of animals. The remaining four pieces were thoroughly destroyed.

We have captured, up to the present time, 12 canal boats laden with supplies, ammunition, rations, medical stores, &c.

Commodore Hollins, of the rebel navy, was shot near Gordonsville while attempting to make his escape from our advance in that direction.

The Tribune's Wilmington correspondence of the 7th says advices deemed trustworthy state that Sherman's army passed into North Carolina at least by the 3d inst. The rebel forces under Hardee were reported lying on the two sides of the Pedee, which river Sherman successfully crossed, placing himself between Hardee and Beauregard.

Chronicle Correspondence.

BALTIMORE, March 10th.

Quite a commotion was created in the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the other day, by a Rev. Mr. Bull declaring that he "believed in the divinity of slavery as much as he did in the divinity of Jesus Christ." In fact it kicked up quite a row, and a committee was appointed to take Mr. Bull in hand. The committee reported, and requested him to "locate," or to be publicly reprimanded by the Bishop.

To-day the sentence was to have been carried into effect; but the gentleman who has such a love for slavery being very stubborn, refused either to "locate" or be reprimanded,—upon which the conference made short work of the matter, by expelling the Rev. John W. Bull.

There has been some very lively debates on slavery during this Conference; but the majority of the members don't see the divinity of the thing quite so strong as they did before this war.

The remains of the late Senator Hicks were received here yesterday and were taken to the Maryland Institute, where they remained until this morning, when they were placed aboard a steamer to be taken to Dorchester county, on the Eastern shore, where they will be finally interred. A large number of persons visited the Institute to take a last look at one, who has borne a conspicuous part in the great struggle which is now taking place. The Legislature yesterday chose Hon. J. A. J. Cresswell, as his successor. He was member of the last Congress, from the Eastern Shore district, and is a strong Union man, with good abilities, and very popular.

Thousands of Baltimoreans visited Washington on the 4th inst., to see the Inauguration, and all of them brought home a liberal supply of—mud! People who have never been in Washington, don't know what Washington mud is.—Those who were so fortunate as to be present on the 4th, do know what it is.

New Hampshire soldiers are passing through here, in large numbers, on their way home to vote. The sons of the old Granite State here, hope that enough of them will have a vote in the First District, to offset those few miserable disorganisers who are trying to defeat Gen. Marston, and elect Daniel Marcy. It will be a burning shame if the efforts of a few disaffected men succeed—but they will not, can not, if the Unionists do their whole duty.

Yours truly,

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Last week at Claremont, Lucien Jackson was arrested on complaint of the Deputy Collector for neglecting to conform to the United States Excise Law, requiring him to take license as a wholesale dealer in liquors. He was brought before the U. S. Commissioner, plead guilty, and gave bonds of one thousand dollars, for appearance at the District Court at Portsmouth, in May.

—— Leonard B. Spencer, of Claremont, was arrested, on charge of doing business as a broker, without a license. He waived an examination, and gave $1000 bonds for appearance at the same Court.

—— George Howe, of Milton Mills, at the close of an exhortation in a prayer-meeting, fell and instantly expired, February 12th.

☞ A report of Monday, in Boston and elsewhere, that Lynchburg had been captured by Sheridan, proves to be untrue. He has taken Charlottesville, and inflicted great damage on the Richmond canal, which was one of Lee's most important lines for supplies, and also on the lines of railroad within his reach. The intelligence of the capture of Lynchburg may reasonably be expected; but it has not come yet in an authentic way.

☞ The N. Y. Post's Washington dispatch says good news has been received from Sheridan.

The remnant of Early's forces have fled to the mountains. The rebel army is believed to be broken up.

Rumors of disaster to Schofield, originated in a boastful dispatch from Bragg, published in the Richmond papers, claiming he had checked him. No importance is attached to the statement, and it is believed that Schofield and Sherman are all right.

— In the deserted office of the Charleston Courier, was found the beginning of an editorial in type thus:—"There are no indications that our authorities have the first intention of abandoning Charleston, as we have ascertained from careful inquiry," and then the compositor dropped his stick and ran with the rest."

— Rev. H. P. Torsey, Principal of the Maine Wesleyan Seminary, says that from his school one hundred and sixty young men have volunteered in a single year; and that recently, while on a visit in South Carolina, he found eight of them buried side by side. All of them, when at school, were preparing for the ministry.

— A dwarf of English birth, calling herself the Countess Gayton, of good figure and shorter than Tom Thumb, has appeared at Lyons.

— GREAT LOSS OF REBEL RAILROAD STOCK. The Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist of February 27, has the following:

There are about thirty-five miles of railroad stock, making nearly three thousand engines and cars, belonging to every five-foot gauge in the Confederacy, accumulated about Charlotte, N. C. The gauge changes there, preventing them from going further. Sherman's move has caused or will cause their destruction. All were heavily loaded with stores. For the want of wood and water at the different stations, they could not be moved between Chester and Charlotte.

A Card to Invalids.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, free of charge, to any one who needs it. Free of Charge.

HIGH SCHOOL CADETS.—We give below the list of Officers of this new Military Company—which if not the most efficient and terrible which could be organized among us, is certainly one of the most hopeful and desirable, besides being the only Company we do possess. We congratulate the community, that the teachers of our schools are now so generally appreciative of the good effects of music, and the necessity of exercise for their pupils. Particularly are the High School teachers up to the times, in this regard—and the School is fortunate in enjoying the services of Col. Jackson as drill master.

The Cadets have a neat uniform;—and when the weather becomes suitable for out-door work, will make a show which will shame their grown up brothers.

POLICE COURT, March 13.—Wm. Wagner, a marine, complained of Henry Meredith, Em. Grant and Mary Crissell, for robbing him of $250 on Saturday night in a house on Hancock street. Two hundred dollars of the stolen property was recovered by the police, and the parties were found guilty and each ordered to recognize in the sum of $400 for their appearance at Exeter in April. Mittimus issued. Abbott and Fredson were subpœned as witnesses in this interesting case.

☞ Parents and children, and those interested in either or anything, will not forget or neglect Mr. Joy's Singing School Concert, to-morrow evening.

☞ That bet on Marston hasn't been taken up yet. Faith, we can't even get a chance to wager a hat on him.

BEWARE OF SPURIOUS BALLOTS.—Plans have been arranged to flood the First Congressional District with Union Ballots with the name of Daniel Marcy or Thomas E. Sawyer in the place of Gilman Marston; and the Second District with Ballots with the name of Lewis W. Clark, or some other name, instead of Edward H. Rollins.

If such spurious Union Ballots, or others, are discovered in circulation, expose the fraud in open town meeting.

— Gold, Monday, 186 5 8.

— The U. S. Senate has adjourned.

— Over $20,000,000 of the 7-30 U. S. loan were taken last week.

— The Boston Post of Monday, March 13, says: "Next Friday is rebel fast day." No other paper has the news.

— Somebody calls the Confederates a nation of regicides. They burn their King—cotton.

— Mr. Vallandigham refuses to be a candidate for Governor of Ohio. A wise decision.

— The rebels kept their Fast Day last Friday,—and their Congress and the Virginia Legislature were to adjourn on Saturday.

— The steamer Gen. Leary arrived at Annapolis on Saturday, with 802 "exchanged prisoners," five hundred and four of whom had been sent to the hospital.

— The rebel papers chronicle the passage of the negro enlistment act, saying it is a measure of necessity; not of choice. Wigfall during the debate denounced the Legislature of Virginia and demanded the resignation of Davis.

— When General Sherman left Savannah for his onward march he is reported to have said, "I will not go within one hundred miles of Charleston, but mark my words, I will compel them to evacuate without firing a gun."

— N. O. Mitchell, esq. (Union) was elected Mayor of Gardiner on Monday last, without opposition. On the same day Geo. S. Wiggin, esq, was re-elected Mayor of Rockland with only one vote, probably his own, against him.

— It is stated that Gen. Canby has at least 50,000 men at his disposal for the capture of Mobile. Many of the vessels set at liberty by the capture of Charleston and Wilmington have been dispatched to reinforce the already numerous fleet in Mobile Bay.

— The fluctuations and fall in gold, last week, caused a great fluttering among the speculators in the precious metal, many of whom were swept away with the receding prices. State street contained quite a number of lifeless "bulls."—So says the Boston Transcript; and if so, then there ought to be a fall in the price of beef.

TRIAL AND FRIENDSHIP.—Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus has had a trial among three million families, and is pronounced the best Saleratus in the known world. Its use always brings a smile to the household; it keeps them in health; it helps make the week strong, and saves hundreds from that dreadful disease, dyspepsia. As you value health, use it. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

A TRUE AIM.—It has not been the aim of the proprietor of Hunnewell's great preparations, advertised on our inside columns, to base a false reputation by long and numbing advertising, but a real one by true results, to which all who try them will cheerfully assent. See advertisement.

☞ One Edward C. Parks, of South Berwick, owes us one bill of long standing, of $5 or so; and another, a debt of honor, (if there be any honor in such fellows,) of $25 or more. How much are we offered for the same? We purpose to ask this question, Daily and Weekly, till he or somebody else answers it. dawtf

AGAIN AND AGAIN.—Our readers may think it strange that we so often urge upon their attention a medicinal preparation. Already have we, for a number of weeks, urged the importance of a supply of Coe's Cough Balsam in the house, ready for immediate use. Not our excuse is that the vast amount of sickness, sorrow and death that are the immediate result of sudden coughs, colds and pulmonary attacks; while thousands of our children are dying from croup and lung complaints. Time and experience have proved that Coe's Cough Balsam is the most speedy and reliable preparation ever known to the world. Like magic it relieves the irritation of the throat, removes the stoppages that prevent breathing in croup, and heals all soreness of the throat, chest and lungs. No man should neglect to supply his family with a safe and reliable remedy like Coe's Cough Balsam, any more than he should neglect the supply of their daily bread. It costs but 49 cents, and the bottles contain twice as much as those of any other remedy at the same cost, while in merit it is superior to all others. All drug stores keep it for sale. 4j18dawkm

The venerable Mrs. Partington once asked us if we believed that everything was foreordained before hand in advance. We were compelled to answer that sometimes we did and sometimes we didn't. She remarked that her son Isaac says he knows one thing was foreordained sure, and that is, that the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap will supersede and run out every other kind of soap made. The old lady further remarked, that she believed so to, and was sure that there was no other so good, for she had tried it. 108

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

WHAT IS A

FRENCH ROLL PAN?

IS A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.

It is simply a nicely made

IRON PAN,

Or rather a series of Pans connected in one, of such peculiar form that all parts of the material contained in them receive an equal amount of heat, thus insuring a very

QUICK AND LIGHT BAKE.

For Sponge or Drop Cake, Muffins, French Rolls, Corn Bread or Raised Flour Biscuit, these Pans are Invaluable.

IN these days of high prices, it is worth while to

ECONOMISE

in any way. We give below a receipt for making a Cheap, Wholesome, and

PALATABLE BREAD:

"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."

By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to set before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.

Spring Roll and Cog Wheel

WASHING AND WRINGING MACHINES.

WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME AN institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all save an immense amount of labor and cost of material.

We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tubs, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.

To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial. If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

MORE BEAUTIES OF CALIFORNIA.—A San Francisco correspondent of the Country Gentleman, under date Dec. 13, 1864, thus shows that all is not gold that glitters:

After two years of drouth, or three summers without rain, with two winters or rainy seasons in which only eight inches or less of rain fell, preceded as it was by fifty-six days of continuous rain, and devastating flood,—the rain has continued to fall for over three weeks, with an occasional hold up of a day or so, and a few hours of bright warm, sunny weather; and as I am writing, and all last night, the rain poured, absolutely poured, and is now pouring down. The farmers can only plow and till their lands after the first rains, as they usually have the early and latter rains—having an interval of fine weather for tillage and putting in of all crops; but as in the year 1861, the rain was so continuous they could not sow or plant, of course followed by a season of scarcity; then two years of not sufficient rain and no crops, and now, if this season proves one of continuous rain, it will be most disastrous to the agriculturists of the State.

I make these statements for the benefit of those from whom they are ever withheld, who are discontented at home, and who only hear that California is a land and clime which is a perfect paradise for the farmer. But examined in its true light it is no nearer heaven than the good old homesteads of the east. Bayard Taylor has written some very peculiar things of this State, not at all creditable to either his sense of truthfulness or usefulness.—One would infer from his writings that there was no rheumatism here—certainly he claims exemption, positive exemption from it; also consumption and bronchial affections. Go the world over, and you will find no city where the above diseases are so positively fatal as that of San Francisco. This I state without the fear of truthful contradiction, and will add to it apoplexy and diseases of the heart.

One of the most singularly marked features of the effect of climate on the constitution, is the premature baldness and gray hairs. Why, if a horde of Blackfeet or Camanche Indians were to get inside of one of our churches on a scalping expedition, most would escape the operation through the absence of hair, and the Indians would probably leave in perfect disgust. You hear no coughing in churches, you see no dirty-nosed children—colds find no such safety-valves—they are inward, they strike the vitals, they manifest themselves in rheumatics of the worst type—neuralgia—gallopping consumption. People die quick here; everything is done as St. Paul enjoins, "What your hands find to do, do it quickly." People haven't time to be sick.

Another virulent type or class of disease is erysipelas—a child or man with a sore shin is not to be neglected; if so, erysipelas sets in without the lawful three days' notice, and takes him to "Lone Mountain."

I would not be understood to state that this is a sickly country or city. So far as I am able to judge, it is infinitely more healthful than the Great West. But I do state that people sometime die here, as elsewhere; that there are peculiar diseases pertaining to this favored clime; that, as a whole, people mature quicker, and die sooner or younger, or break down earlier; but while living, probably enjoy a higher degree of health than at the East. It is an undeniable fact, that in the most favored climes, such as Chili, the average of life is much below that of Europe, or that of the Eastern and Middle United States; and this clime is like unto it.

PETROLIA.—The oil fever being confined to no particular locality, but embracing nearly the whole country, we feel justified in giving the following extracts from a private letter, written by a gentleman who has had much experience on American Grease:—

"TITUSVILLE, Pa., March 4. * * *
The excitement here is tremendous, and constantly increasing; every train arrives overflowing with living freight, that is nightly disposed of by the fortunate hotel keepers in a manner that would be laughable if it were not so serious. Rooms have four beds in each, with not less than two occupants in a bed, while the balance of the space in the room is filled by making up shake-downs on the floor. Pendleton—where we get our meals—has eight rooms, and last night received $103 from as many grumbling lodgers, and he refused to accommodate fifty more—all here to get rich in the oil business. I hope they may; but the most of them stand a better chance of being struck by lightning.

* * Our borough now boasts of a theatre, (a permanent institution—admittance one dollar,) and it is nightly crowded with admiring throngs of 'greasy mechanics' and the greasiest of greasy 'mudsills.' The stage is 14 feet wide by 16 feet deep. Last night they played 'Julius Cæsar.' I was not there, but have no doubt the scenery was gorgeous, the costumes appropriate, and the effects startling. I reckon Bill S—— would have thought so had he been there to see.

A Mr. Broas commenced a block of frame buildings, containing 32 offices, on the 3d of February; he has already finished them and leased all of them, for $500 each in advance; has got his money for the leases and has commenced another building. The first cost him $11,500, so he gets his money back in one year, and makes $4,500;—that's the way to do business. A friend of mine pays $150 per month for a room in the American Hotel, exclusive of meals."

— A Western paper tells a story of an ingenious robber who, having after much entreaty, beguiled a merchant to his store in the middle of the night, on pretence of buying a shroud to bury his deceased mother, suddenly gave a startling whistle, when the store was instantly filled by his accomplices. One of them held a pistol to the merchant's head, while the others helped themselves to his goods at leisure.

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Eye Water, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can have Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by its use. I have been an agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWEETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of those complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.
DR. SWETT:—Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, the benefit of my wife, who for her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow worse. She commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the diseases above named. ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. msv26

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable,—and is none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 25 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

☞ Speaking of the complaint made by the Democratic papers, because a colored gentleman had been admitted to practice in the Supreme Court, the Baltimore American suggests the following bit of advice:

Just as we expected. As soon as the negro, availing himself of the opportunity for improvement which freedom affords, shows himself capable of being something more than a slave and a beast, the narrow-minded Democrats raise a howl about "negro equality." Better try to keep yourselves superior to the negro by cultivating your own minds, instead of doing so by preventing him from cultivating his. Precious few Democrats in these parts will ever be able to gain admittance to the Supreme Court, in the present condition of their learning.

Very many of them deserve to be obliged to attend court, and receive the just reward of their deeds. D. C.

RELIGION AND HEALTH.—Henry Ward Beecher, in his Lecture Room Talks in the Independent, thinks that health is the first step towards a healthy and religious experience. He says:

"You will say, perhaps, 'What, then; is there no religion for the infirm and sick?' Yes; but that does not alter the fact that in their religious experiences, they are more or less gloomy and desponding. It is not always the effect of disease to produce gloom and despondency; sometimes it hightens the sensibilities; but as a general thing religious experiences are sounder and more rational in a healthy mind and a healthy body. So, I say that, as the first step, you must be healthy, if you expect to have broad and deep and sweet experiences. Health is a Christian duty. I have heard persons praying, and praying and praying for the presence of God; and I have thought that, if they would eat less, and work more, and spend twice as much time in the open air, they would not need to pray so much. What they wanted was not answer to prayer, but simple obedience to the laws of God in nature."

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS CONVENTION. A convention of the commissioners of the several counties of the State was held at Concord March 1st and 2d. The following resolution was introduced by Mr. Lawrence of Strafford:

Resolved, That in the opinion of the County Commissioners in Convention assembled, it is expedient for the coming Legislature to pass a law abolishing town settlements, and making all persons claiming assistance, county paupers.

The resolution was referred to a select committee of five, who submitted a report that in their belief the pecuniary interest of the tax-payer and the comfort of the pauper alike demanded the abolition of the present law relating to settlements, and the passage of a law making all persons receiving assistance county paupers. A committee of five was appointed to present the subject matter to the next Legislature, consisting of Lawrence of Strafford, French of Merrimack, Cole of Coos, Garvin of Carrol, and Bridgeman of Grafton.

The Committee on County Farms submitted the following report:

That the Committee on County Farms are unanimously of the opinion that the interests of our counties and of the unfortunate poor would be promoted by all our counties purchasing and fitting up suitable farms and county buildings for accommodation of our county paupers, and therefore urgently advise that the Commissioners of all our counties who are without county farms, to make persevering efforts to induce their counties to purchase farms without delay.

— A party of foragers came to a rebel plantation, the owner of which was absent in the rebel army. Gen. Sherman was near the house. The boys were running off the chickens and hogs with a view of having a good supper at the rebel's expense. The old lady came running out to Sherman, and exclaimed, very excitedly: "General, your men are taking all my chickens!" "O, yes," cooly replied the General, "they will have to roost very high," and unconcernedly rode off.

WRITE IT IN GOLD.—"The great comprehensive truths," says President J. Quincy Adams, "written in letters of living light on every page of our history, are these: "Human happiness has no perfect security but freedom; freedom none but virtue; virtue none but knowledge; and neither freedom nor virtue has any vigor in immortal hope, except in the principles of Christian faith and the sanctions of the Christian religion."

— A grand scheme of a lottery for the salvation of souls has just been got up in Mexico. The price of a ticket is two and a half pence—half a real—and the fortunate winner of a prize becomes the possessor of masses which will expedite his own soul to heaven.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15, 1865.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.

A CLEAN SWEEP FOR THE UNION.

We give all the returns which could be obtained up to midnight—and they are sufficient for all practical purposes. Things turn out just as we expected, only more so perhaps. It will be seen that Mr. Sawyer don't go to Congress; and Mr. Marcy is elected—to stay at home. Our Ward Three did nobly. And it is gratifying to see Portsmouth roll up such a vote for Fred. Smyth for Governor. And more so, to have Marston backed up by such a majority, in spite of all the clamor.

A dispatch from Dover, at half-past ten o'clock, says returns in nineteen towns and cities give Gen. Marston, for Congress, 4607, Marcy 2964, Sawyer 237, Marston's maj. over Marcy 1643. This ensures the election of three Republican members of Congress—one gain.

Strafford County complete gives Smyth 3085, Harrington 2078, scattering 1. Marston 2932, Marcy 1974, Sawyer 148, scat. 6. Senator for Dist. No. 5, Burleigh 2476, Cloutman 1876, scattering 65.

A dispatch from Concord at midnight says the vote for Governor in 127 towns foots up. Smyth 24,665, Harrington 18,313.

Marston in the first congressional District will be elected by nearly 1500 majority; and in the other Districts, the majority will be near 2,000.

All the Republican Councillors are elected; nine of the twelve Republican Senators; and the majority in the House must be near one hundred.

— New Jersey authorizes the Governor to appoint one policeman for any railroad company which shall request it, who shall have power to arrest persons guilty of any offense on the line of such road.

— Brigands in Greece pour boiling oil on their captives, to extort money. That's an unpalatable "ile" of Greece.

— When there is a spanking breeze, bad children should be put out to take the air.

— The winds sweep, the waves wash, the clouds weave, and the planets spin. A good housewife does all these.

— In female schools the demand is for principals—not men.

THE REBELLION.

The rebel Gen. Lee states that on 12th of March, (he does not say where),—

Gen. Hampton attacked Gen. Kilpatrick at daylight, and drove him from his camp, taking his guns, wagons, many horses, several hundred prisoners, and relieving a great number of our own men who had been captured. The guns and wagons could not be brought off for want of horses. Many of the enemy were killed and wounded. Our loss was not heavy. Col. J. S. King was killed, and Brig. Gen. Horne and Cols. Kugan and Morrison, and Majors Davis and Ferguson and others were wounded.

A Richmond paper says of this:

Matters are beginning to look decidedly better for us in the South. In the last three days we have had news of two victories—one in North Carolina and one in South Carolina.

The great rebel victory in North Carolina, so loudly Bragged, turns out to be a very small affair. A Newbern dispatch of March 11, says:

The enemy, elated with the capture of two or three small guns and a line of skirmishers in our front, made several charges, yesterday, of a most reckless character, in which they were repulsed each time with heavy loss.

Gen. Schofield's official account of this same affair says, under date Wise's Fork, March 10:

The enemy made a heavy attack on our left and centre to-day, but was decisively repulsed with heavy loss. His dead and badly wounded were left upon the field. We also took several hundred prisoners. Gen. Couch is only twelve miles from here to-night, and will be up early in the morning. We took prisoners from Lee's and from Stewart's corps. They say two corps are here and the rest of Johnston's army are coming.

A Louisville, Ky., dispatch of March 13, states that an expedition of fifty men of the 30th Wisconsin regiment, sent from there on Saturday, surrounded a barn on the 12th, in Webster, Meade County, and after some resistance, in which three men were slightly and one mortally wounded, captured Captains Sue Munday alias Jerome Clarke, Magruder and Henry Metcalf. The prisoners were brought to Louisville on the 13th, and lodged in the military prison. Magruder is suffering from a recent wound, and not likely to recover.

Sec. Stanton telegraphs from Washington, Tuesday, 10 o'clock A. M., as follows:

Dispatches direct from Gens. Sherman and Schofield have been received this morning. Gen. Sherman's dispatch is dated March 8, at Laurel Hill, N. C. He says: "We are all well and have done finely."—Details are for obvious reasons omitted.

Gen. Schofield, in a dispatch dated at Newbern, 12th, says: "On the night of the 10th near Southwest Creek, Bragg was fairly beaten; that during the night he retreated across the Neuse at Kinston, and now holds the north side of the river at that place."

In Washington it is thought Sheridan has already passed Burk's Station, the junction of the Petersburgh & Lynchburg and Richmond & Danville Railroads, and gone either to Sherman or Grant.—This saves Grant the trouble of cutting the Southside Railroad, and leaves to Gen. Lee the alternative of starving, or dividing his force, and thus open Richmond to a promenade for Gen. Grant.

The N. Y. Herald's Washington despatch says the present military situation is understood to be more promising than at any period during the war.

Monday Richmond papers are filled with doleful comments on the condition of affairs, which they represent as desperate. Sheridan has played the mischief with their avenues of supply, and fears are expressed that he will reach Burke's Station and destroy the last link between Richmond and anywhere else.

Richmond papers say that with due deference to the mandate of the Government against publishing military news, the people should not be kept ignorant of the movements of the enemy at their doors. They say Grant may not be required to move at all upon the Southside Railroad. It will be cut by Sheridan unless their troops move down to prevent it.

The Government deems the destruction of the James River Canal of the utmost importance, as it is the main artery of supply to Richmond.

— Columbia, from which Gen. Sheridan dates his despatch, is at the confluence of the James and Rivanna Rivers, on the James River Canal, 52 miles W. by N. of Richmond, and about 75 miles from Lynchburg. It is a position of great importance. It enables Sheridan to destroy the northern railroad connection of Lynchburg with Richmond, damage the James River Canal immensely, and sweep away the supplies which have been collected for the rebel army, near the line of the canal.

— The district of Georgetown, S. C., now occupied by Admiral Dahlgren, is the richest rice growing section of the Union, and must have been of great importance to the rebels. It was also one of the heaviest slave districts, only 2894 of its people having been whites in 1860, while 17,553 were slaves.

— On the 25th ult., Company B of the 6th North Carolina Confederate cavalry came into our lines at Newbern in a body, numbering over 60 men. They were heartily welcomed, and stated that, if assured of a similar reception, the entire army would desert en masse.

☞ The Comptroller of the currency has issued a circular, calling public attention to a recent most important amendment of the national banking law. This amendment provides that the three hundred millions contemplated by the bank act, be apportioned to the different States and Territories. In view of this enactment, no new national banks can be organized until an examination of the data on which the apportionment is to be based, shall prove that the State or Territory asking for them, is entitled to more institutions of this character. The apportionment will probably be grounded upon the congressional representation. The banking bureau will soon publish the bank "quotas" and "credits" of the different States.

☞ The Commercial Bulletin says borrowers find that money is not at present very abundant in Boston. The banks are poor. Government is drawing very freely, and other depositors, preferring investments in the 7-30s to large balances in banks paying at the most but 4 per cent., keep very snug accounts. Call loans on collateral are made with difficulty. Good business paper is not discounted at less than 7 1-2 per cent. Rates are generally tending upward.

THE EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS. The Federal authorities are now about twenty thousand ahead of the rebels in the exchange of prisoners. Recently Col. Mulford asked Ould, the rebel commissioner, why he did not send along our prisoners. "The truth is", replied Ould, "we find it difficult to keep them out of Sherman's way, and our transportation is so limited that we cannot forward them so fast as we desire."

— The Times Shenandoah correspondent says that among the papers found in Early's baggage, was a letter from Jeff. Davis, in reply to a petition of the soldiers to have the war brought to a close, as they had fought four years and accomplished nothing. Davis' reply is characteristic. He simply expresses the hope that it does not represent the feelings of a majority of his men.

— A bold attempt by pirates to capture the American steamer Shooting Star, was made on the night of the 4th in the harbor of Havana, but failed. It was repeated the next night, when, with the assistance of the authorities, a boat containing 25 men was captured, but on being taken ashore, they were liberated.

— Advices from Vera Cruz of the 3d inst., and Mexico, of the 28th ult., had been received, bringing two decrees of Maximilian, one granting religious liberty, and the other approving the secularization of the Church property, ordained by the Republican Government in 1857 and 1859.

QUEEN ZENOBIA.—The announcement of the final withdrawal from public view, of this magnificent work by Harriet Hosmer, upon the close of its Exhibition in Boston, has called forth earnest expressions of regret and remonstrance from all parts of the country: but Messrs. Childs & Jenks state that the decision is imperative, and admits of no change; the Statue will go to the Private Gallery of the owner in New York, as soon as arrangements are completed for its reception. Twenty-five thousand visitors have paid homage to the Queen; and to give greater facilities to those wishing to see the Marble within the short time it remains with them, they will open the Gallery one additional Evening in the Week, until its departure.—The hours of exhibition will be, daily from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M., and Wednesday and Saturday evenings, until 9 o'clock; at Childs & Jenks, Gallery of Art, 127 Tremont St.

☞ Messrs. Hatch, Johnson & Co., dealers in furnishing goods, of Boston, have established a branch house at 81, Warren, and 27 Murray streets, New York. Messrs. H. J. & Co., are agents for the celebrated Gray's Molded Collar. The manufactory is now turning out 160,000 collars daily, and the directors of the company have voted to have the capacity doubled, as they are largely behind orders, though running night and day.

— In Quincy, Illinois, two men recently went to law about a calf which they both claimed. Numerous witnesses testified on each side, and the Judge, finding his legal acumen quite at fault, at last decided to place the calf on the street, at an equal distance from the residence of each claimant, and leave the animal to find the way home and decide the case by his own instinct.

GOLD, Tuesday, 1841-2 to 1785 8.—The general markets are dull, and prices are gradually falling.

— The Fall in gold adds daily to the value of the 7-30 loan, and the rush to obtain it, is correspondingly great. The subscriptions on Friday last were between four and five millions.

☞ In Biddeford, Monday, Charles A. Shaw (Democrat) was elected Mayor of that city, by 175 majority. The Democrats also carried five of the seven wards.

— Wanted: The exact elevation of a man who is above telling a lie.

— Was it the "Singer's Sewing Machine" that sang "The Song of the Shirt?"

PETROLEUM OIL AGENCY.

The California Petroleum Company,

In the Summer of 1864, Professor B. Silliman, Jr., examined this locality, now owned by the CALIFORNIA PETROLEUM CO., the purchase of which he strongly recommended to his friends in New York.

The property covers an area of 18,000 acres in one body, on which are at present at least twenty Natural Wells, some of them the largest flow. Artesian Wells can be put down, 25 miles in extent. The Ranch is an old Spanish Grant of four leagues, and perfect title.

WEBLES, FARGO & CO. say that "those who wish to invest in this class of security need not hesitate a moment where to place their money:—here is a good, honest, reliable concern—one which in our judgment will pay."

Shares $40. Par Value $100.

Rensselaer Petroleum Com'y.

The property consists of 100 acres, in fee simple, on Two Mile Run, near Oil City—a double lease of the Clapp Farm above Oil City, and four acres in fee simple on Pithole Creek, in the heart of the Oil Regions.

Capital $300,000. Shares $5. Par Value $6.

Sheffield Petroleum Company.

This property consists of 225 acres on the Tionesta Creek—seventy-five acres in the same vicinity. This property is cut through by the main mile run, a branch of the Tionesta, and the Sudley & Erie Railroad. This property is considered of great value in the market.

Capital $300,000. Shares $1. Par Value $2.

Everett Oil Company,

OF BOSTON.

The property of this Company consists of 200 acres of land owned in fee simple, and two leases as follows: This land is located on Oil Creek, near Centreville Depot. The Oil Creek Railroad passes through this land. It has a river front of over one quarter of a mile. It is rich oil.

Capital $300,000. Subscription price $5.

President Petroleum Company.

A few Shares of this valuable Stock can be had if applied for soon, at the original subscription of $500 per Share. It contains 8,400 acres, very valuable in Oil, Coal and Timber.

All the above Stock for sale at the AGENCY, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, where Maps, Drawings and Pamphlets are ready for distribution.

I am fully persuaded that all the above Companies are good, well managed, and will pay good dividends, and are the best investments now in the market.

A Card to Invalids.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious practices. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

☞ In March 1864, Gov. Gilmore had 1229 votes in Portsmouth; Mr. Harrington 659; Rep. maj. 570.

In November, Pres. Lincoln had 1228; McClellan, 678; maj. 550.

In March, 1863, Mr. Eastman had 922 votes in Portsmouth: Mr. Marcy 756.

This year, the Union vote for Smyth is 1245, and he has 708 majority. He has the largest vote we ever gave any governor.

Two years ago Portsmouth gave Mr. Eastman 166 majority—now we give Mr. Marston 638 maj:—net gain 472.

☞ The Town Meeting in Greenland, we deeply regret to say, was broken up in a disgraceful row, the ballot-box destroyed, and of course the vote of the town lost. The town officers by law hold over for another year; but they can have no Representative to the Legislature. The vote would doubtless have been nearly equally divided; so this mishap will not have much effect, except to tarnish the good name of the place.

We are told that the row was caused by a gang of copperheads, immediately on the rejection of the vote of a blatant fellow, whose name the Selectmen had previously and deliberately refused to put on the check list,—and that it occurred soon after the opening of the meeting, and was evidently premeditated and arranged for beforehand. Of course no respectable citizen encouraged or approved any such lawless outrage, no matter what the alleged provocation.

☞ In Newington the vote for Senator was 56 for Frink to 66 for Smith, being 15 better for the Union ticket than the Governor's vote. The Governor's vote was a Union gain of 11 on last year.—Marston's vote was 2 below that of the Governor.

☞ A correspondent, on Sir John Smith's Isles, writes thus—"Gosport has cast 16 votes for liberty and 2 for slavery; hope the whole State will do as well. We have elected Wm. H. Caswell, Union, representative; and Origen S. Caswell town clerk."

☞ A gem of a place—Thacher's new Apothecary Store, corner of Congress and Vaughan Streets.

☞ Messrs. C. W. Varney & Co., at their new Saloon on Congress Street, have a large and always fresh stock of Confectionery, Fruit, and Cakes. Their store is one of the nicest,—their articles of the best quality, and the attendants always courteous,—the "odor" of the place, in fact, is first-rate.

☞ Rev. J. Stockbridge, Chaplain of the Naval Hospital at Norfolk, in a letter dated March 10, says:

George Hennessey, aged 20 years, who shipped in the Navy at Portsmouth, N. H., last December, and came to this Hospital on the 27th ult., died on the 5th inst. We do not know where his friends live, as he came here delirious, and remained so till death. Please publish this notice of his death. Hennessey was born on the Atlantic Ocean, probably an emigrant's child.

☞ It will be seen that Mr. Harvey offers a variety of the best Oil Stocks. He evidently believes in Ile, and we hear has invested quite heavily himself. Some folks are very fond of prophesying that the Oil business will "explode"; and perhaps it will, in some instances. But Mr. Harvey has had a long and varied experience, and has on the whole proved himself a shrewd and successful business man,—and the opinion of such is always worthy of consideration, at any rate. Read his advertisement—and remember, that they who risk nothing, gain little.

☞ Don't forget Mr. Joy's Concert at the Temple this evening. Arrangements are made for a good time.

☞ We are indebted to Ensign Thos. S. Gay, for Richmond papers; and to Mr. Jas. J. Cleer, of U. S. Steamer Maratanza, for a copy of the royal "Herald of the Union," printed at Wilmington.

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY.—The regular Weekly Rehearsals are held on Wednesday Evenings, at Mercantile Hall, at half past 7. All good Singers, desiring to join, are invited to attend.

☞ Kerosene Oil of prime quality, and the best quality Chimnies and Fixtures, may always be had at H. H. & F. W. HAM'S, Exchange Buildings, Portsmouth. 19tf

The venerable Mrs. Partington once asked us if we believed that everything was foreordained before hand in advance. We were compelled to answer that sometimes we did and sometimes we didn't. She remarked that her son Isaac says he knows one thing was foreordained sure, and that is, that the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap will supersede and run out every other kind of soap made. The old lady further remarked, that she believed so to, and was sure that there was no other so good, for she had tried it. 108

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the Seven-Thirty Loan.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is

THE ONLY LOAN in the Market

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

DR. URANN,

PRACTICAL PHYSICIAN

Who has made so many wonderful and instantaneous cures in Boston, New York, Hartford, Springfield, and more recently in New Hampshire and Vermont, has taken

ROOMS FOR THE PRESENT AT THE

FRANKLIN HOUSE,

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

DR. URANN'S treatment is such that by it

All Curable Diseases

are affected in one or two treatments, and many are entirely cured by one, as the following will testify:—

W. F. HOMER, 50 and 52 Federal Street, Boston for many years was troubled with Heart complaint, so bad that at times he was unable to attend to his business; after one treatment he was able to run up stairs, work in his garden and attend to his business; has since gained 12 pounds.

Mrs. ELLEN COREY, of Cambridgeport, Mass.—Sciatica; so lame that she could not walk without assistance; after one treatment of fifteen minutes was well as ever, and could walk a mile free from pain.

Mrs. SARAH P. STILES, Lowell, Mass., had Fever Sores on both legs of twelve years standing; her right ankle measured eighteen inches, and was as blue as indigo; she could not move her foot; after one treatment it was reduced one-half, she could move her foot freely and is getting well rapidly, her left ankle all healed.

Prof. G. M. LARSON, 1 DIX PLACE, Boston, troubled with Spinal difficulty, was in much pain; relieved by one treatment.

Miss HANNAH COOL, Campton, N. H.—Spinal difficulties; was unable to walk but a short distance or do any kind of work; perfectly cured, and is now the picture of health.

Miss C. FROTHINGHAM, Boston, Portrait Painter, was troubled with great depression of spirits, at times was unable to attend to her favorite employment; was entirely cured, and she expresses herself, is "made over anew."

Mrs. J. BROWN, Boston, a severe cough and pains through her lungs, cured.

Capt. W. H. LAMPSON'S CHILD, Lowell, Mass. The child was pronounced by physicians as hopelessly idiotic. The child could neither walk or sit alone, and took no notice of anything. After one treatment he began to improve, and has so far gained as to be able to walk alone, can talk, takes notice of everything, laughs and sings, and appears perfectly well.

Mrs. HINCKLEY, wife of A. T. Hinckley, of State Arsenal, Hartford, Ct., troubled with hip complaint and contraction of the cords of the legs; could not get her foot to the floor within four inches; had to be brought down stairs in arms; after one treatment of twenty minutes was able to run up and down stairs with ease, and is now able to walk the streets.

Mr. J. TURNER, Hartford, Ct., troubled for many years with loss of memory; could not attend to business; had been under the best medical treatment in England with no beneficial effect; after one treatment was perfectly restored.

Miss MARTHA ST. JOHN, Simsbury, Ct., was confined to her bed from spinal difficulty and prolapsus uteri; had not been dressed for more than a year; in twenty minutes she was enabled to dress and walk out to one of the neighbors, a distance of about a half mile; she has since been to Hartford and to church, and is improving daily.

Mrs. HENRY LOOMIS, Southwick, Mass., troubled with fits and spinal difficulties, could not walk without much difficulty, perfectly cured by one treatment.

Mrs. WM. JENKINS, Unionville, Conn., troubled for over two years with chronic liver complaint and rheumatism, had a large lump on her side which was very painful; was unable to lie down. Cured by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

JOSEPH H. ELDRIDGE, formerly of the Hartford Police, more recently on Hartford and New Haven Railroad, was obliged to give up his business on account of a severe cough and bleeding, perfectly cured and can now do a good day's work.

LYDIA E. FULLER, of East Wallingford, Vt., had entirely lost the use of her limbs after a severe attack of diptheria, was restored by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

FANNY DAVIS, of Moretown, Vt., had been confined to her bed for more than five years—was not able to stand—after one treatment of less than an hour, was enabled to walk around the room, and is now quite well.

Miss HUTCHINSON, daughter of Judge Hutchinson of West Randolph, Vt., was troubled with fits, having some days from fifty to one hundred. She was unable to eat anything but liquids—was not able to stand. After one treatment she began to improve, until now, she is the picture of health, able to walk as well as any one, eats hearty and has no fits.

SOUTHWICK, Mass., July 21, 1862.

DR. URANN,—DEAR SIR:—I suppose it is ever a pleasure to you to learn the convalescent state of your patients; notwithstanding my long three years of almost absolute confinement to my bed, unable most of the time to converse with or see any company, and for over two years unable to feed myself—yet with this painful picture of human wretchedness which made life almost a burden, since your treatment of my spine, on the 7th day of June, I have been able to take my meals at the table, with my family, ride out daily, and converse freely with any; and without some new misfortune befalls me, I shall soon be able to interest myself in the labors of my profession, at least to preach one sermon a Sabbath. Without flattery, in my honest judgment, there is no better treatment in the hands of men for the Spinal Disease than the one which you honor, and as my heart beats with sympathy with all Spinal sufferers, I only wish they knew the wonderful utility of your treatment, and avail themselves of the same. Yours with respect and gratitude,

M. H. RISING.

DR. URANN'S TERMS

Are such that all can avail themselves of his treatment.

☞ Persons at a distance who are unable to visit the Doctor, by sending particulars of their cases, with one dollar enclosed, will receive advice and learn whether their cases can be treated at a distance. In all cases, state age and sex.

Portsmouth, Feb 22, 1865.

Morning Chronicle.

SKILLFUL SURGEONS IN SHERMAN'S ARMY.—The surgery of this army is reaching an extraordinary high scale, as weapons reach perfection. Men wounded in the head are fed for weeks through silver or rubber tubes. The following is an instance of the wonderful cures made by our surgeons. A man with throat cut from ear to ear was thought to be mortally wounded by a council of surgeons,* but the one under whose care the man was, thought, as he was to die, he was justified in making an experiment for the good of others, at the same time having great hopes of saving the man. He first commenced his task by cutting through where the two upper ribs meet the sternum, and through this orifice for forty days this man has been fed five gallons of milk per week, and sometimes his appetite required five per day. He is fat and hearty, and the surgeon thinks in two weeks he shall have him able, and the inside of his throat so nearly healed as to allow him to swallow by the natural passage. He at first introduced a stomach pump and thus fed his patient, and after a few hours would clear his stomach by the same means, thus producing artificial digestion, until it was no longer necessary. A silver tube is now used to feed him, and such is the progress made by the medical department in these parts, that half of a man's face demolished by a ball or piece of shell is replaced by a cork face, and it will be nothing strange to see men in after years walking our streets with cork heads; and here the rebels have the advantage of us, for most of them were born with wooden heads.—Correspondent Springfield Republican.

Cleanse the Blood.

With correct, disordered or vitiated Blood you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of blood, such as Scrofula, or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Ketention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Spinal or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla, for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little if any Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various compounds of Sarsaparilla, now in the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, for the great demand for such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We therefore, for the sake of those who need what we know will be irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure, we can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we are reason to believe, it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is needless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

ESTABLISHED
FACTS AND REASONS
FOR USING
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
BLOOD-ROOT ELIXIR!

FIRST. The extraordinary curative effect of the Blood-Root Elixir was discovered by a regularly educated Physician: and the present proprietor also is a graduate from one of the highest Medical Colleges in New England.

SECOND. The Elixir is not alcoholic, contains no minerals, and may be relied upon as being composed of strictly vegetable substances; and no ingredient is intermixed that can unfavorably affect the most delicate constitution.

THIRD. The extensive and successful use of the Blood-Root Elixir, during the past year, proves it to be, without any qualification, the best and most valuable medicine that has ever been prepared for family use.

FOURTH. Medical science and skill have never been able to produce a cathartic medicine of equal power and effect, which contains so many desirable qualities. Its superiority as an aperient consists in its sure and thorough action, operating equally through all parts of the Bowels. It never produces griping pains in its operation; never occasions nausea; its flavor is pleasing and agreeable: and it will not be rejected by the most fastidious child. It may be safely used in all cases where laxative medicine is required. It will promote the comfort and health of both sexes, and of all ages: it will assist Nature during all infantile changes; it will, during the anxious hours of a mother's life, hasten and assuage her maternal pangs; it will render joyous and happy the lingering days of the aged and venerable. And when the Elixir has once been introduced into any household, it will thereon supersede all other laxative medicine.

FIFTH. The long period which the Elixir was used by the original proprietor, in prescriptions to his patients, and the great and unqualified success which has attended its more general use, during the past year, are confirmed by unsolicited testimonials, which in number and extended results exceed any estimate our most sanguine hopes so early had anticipated,—therefore we are fortified by unrefutable evidence, that our estimate of the efficacy and value of the Blood-Root Elixir has not been exaggerated.

SIXTH. In examining certificates received during the past year of its successful results, we are gratified in believing that our medicine has not failed in any case where it has been tried, to cure the most stubborn and chronic cases of COSTIVENESS.

SEVENTH. Most grateful manifestations have also been evinced by patients who have been relieved from LIVER COMPLAINTS of long standing. Also it has been effectual in curing CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN; and in eradicating HUMORS OF THE BLOOD. And many afflicted with deep seated incurable SCROFULA, have been greatly benefitted by a moderate use of the Elixir.

EIGHTH. In cases of COUGHS and COLDS it has proved successful beyond any assurance we have ever expressed; and those who have thoroughly tested its effect, believe it to be superior to all other cough preparations—the Elixir, by its physical properties, equalizes the circulation of the Blood, and removes congestion. It also, when used as a gargle, or swallowed slowly, heals and soothes the irritated and inflamed membranes, from which the cough arises.

NINTH. Many persons suffer periodically from JAUNDICE, which is occasioned by a morbid and inactive state of the Liver. The Blood-Root Elixir is a sure relief from the despondent feelings and painful symptoms which are peculiar to that disease.

TENTH. DYSPEPSIA is an aggravating and disheartening disease, often leading to dangerous results. A limited use of the Elixir, according to the directions, will regulate the stomach and bowels with unerring certainty, and restore digestion to a natural and healthy action.

ELEVENTH. RHEUMATISM the Blood-Root Elixir will readily relieve; its warm and quickening effect counteracts the cold and morbid condition of the fluids, which is the primary cause of all Rheumatic affections.

TWELFTH. Persons subject to HEADACHE will be relieved in a few hours by a single dose of the Elixir.

☞ Every person taking the Elixir should carefully read the printed pamphlet which accompanies each bottle.

EXE, N.H., Feb. 20, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum has been expended in the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold at a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and other symptoms of a dyspeptic character, which I attribute, at, and medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. W. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humors, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without the natural rest by day or night; that she had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then she is has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. mav26

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK,

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fine or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The Chronicle.

☞ Mrs. Edgworth, of Edgworthown, Ireland, the fourth wife of Richard Lovell Edgworth, and stepmother of the celebrated Maria Edgworth, the authoress, died February 5th, aged 95 years. Her husband was born 121 years ago. She was a lady of varied accomplishments, and was spoken of in the highest terms by Miss Edgworth, who was her senior by one year. She retained to the last her interest in literary matters, and was a warm friend of the North in our struggle, which she longed to know more about. Her talents were of a superior order, her taste in painting and kindred arts very marked, and she was the centre of a brilliant circle. The associations connected with her life and death carry us back to the palmy days of English literature.

— Gen. Saxton of the U. S. army, was carried up to Charleston, in the U. S. steamer Planter, Captain Robert Small. Capt. S. was the negro pilot, who brought the Planter out of Charleston harbor three years ago. He was put in pilot of the P. under a white captain; but in a case of danger, this white man showed the white feather and ran below; but Small saved the boat,—and for this was very properly made commander of the craft.

— A member of the Maine House of Representatives was making a speech the other day, when the House being rather noisy, the gaval of the Speaker fell, and he remarked "The gentleman cannot be heard." The member took it in high dudgeon, and demanded to know why the speaker would not allow him to be heard. The matter was explained and the orator proceeded.

A PECULIAR WAGES ARRANGEMENT. In the last number of the Technologist, there is a description of a sugar refinery in Bengal, which closes with this statement: Lastly. We may remark that the wages of every employee in the Cossipore factory, from the head boiler down to the coolie, who carries the bags of sugar (weighing nearly two cwt.) to the export warehouse—that all these wages are calculated according to the production of manufactured sugar during the month. The result is, that every one works with a sense of self-interested alacrity which would astonish some of those complacent Englishman, who regard the Hindoos as a set of lazy, lethargic barbarians.

Three or four millions of colored people in the country, treated as aliens, without interest in the government, without education, without a voice in the choice of their rulers, will constitute a very dangerous element—a great black cloud surcharged with barbarism and fraught with mischief; but educate them, sympathize with them, treat them as men, admit them to the same privileges as other men, give them a voice in the making of the laws that are to govern them, and all danger will be removed, and this mass of ignorance and barbarism will become a great civilized power in the nation.—Exch.

—The scholars of the high school in Machias thought to gain a holiday one day las week by putting cayenne pepper on the stove. The school was adjourned, but some of the scholars afterward made the acquaintance of the police, and learned a hard lesson in law.

ANOTHER REBEL DISCOVERY.—The Richmond Enquirer, in its researches after arguments to sustain the policy of arming negroes, has stumbled upon the fact that slavery is dead in Virginia. As the Enquirer well argues, therefore, the institution will not be harmed by the proposed measure. The present war has been a great schoolmaster for the South, as well as the North, but the latter has uniformly kept slightly ahead in the march of improvement. —Transcript.

—The citizens of Massachusetts are trying to obtain a repeal of the laws which forbid the seining of menhaden. This fishery is conducted without restraint in Rhode Island, and is very profitable. The fish are used wholly for manure.

A PLACE FOR "WOMAN'S RIGHTS"—In Idaho, if a woman becomes dissatisfied with her husband, or finds some one she likes better, she states the case to the President of the mining district where they reside; he calls a miners' meeting; they unties the matrimonial knot, and she is at liberty to take whomsoever she pleases, in case she can get him.—Am. Flag.

— Major T. C. Jameson, 8th Rhode Island artillery, who was lately tried by court martial and sentenced to three years' imprisonment at Norfolk and to pay a heavy fine, is at once to be released by order of the President, who has examined the case, and disapproved the findings and sentence of the court.

— The 7-30s are still selling rapidly.—Of three hundred millions, only sixty remain in the market. Since the first of February, thanks to the mighty press, over one hundred millions have been purchased.

THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

A returned prisoner from Richmond says there was a great stir there last Saturday, from the announcement that Sheridan was near the city. Alarm bells were rung and all the home guards and every available man that could be spared, hurried off to repel the Yankees, who were said to be at the Beaver Mills Aqueduct on James river, some 20 miles from the city, destroying the canal, the main feeder of Richmond. The excitement continued all night and increased to a panic. Throughout Sunday and down to Monday morning, when he left, the alarm still prevailed.

Movements indicating preparations for the abandonment of Richmond have been in progress for some time. The heavy machinery for manufacturing iron has been removed, also the machinery of their percussion cap manufactory, and all the carpenters in the city were at work filling large Government orders for packing-boxes.

The base of supplies for Sherman's army, in view of his rapid movements northward, is to be established at Wilmington.

In Kentucky, an order from Major Gen. Palmer announces that by the act of Congress, the wives and children of colored men who have enlisted or may enlist in the army are free. The order promises an enforcement of their rights by the military authorities if necessary, and urges the loyal men and women of Kentucky to encourage the enlistment of colored men in the army, and afterwards to recognize them as upholders of the Government and defenders of their homes.

From North Carolina, — the New York Herald's correspondence, dated in front of Kinston, 11th inst., says Gen. Couch's division of Union troops joined Gen. Cox on the morning of the 11th, and it was thought that another battle might take place that day, though there were indications that Bragg would fall back to the north side of the Neuse River. During the engagements on the 8th, 9th and 10th, nearly 2000 rebels were made prisoners. The entire Union losses in killed, wounded and captured were stated as not over that number.

A letter from Gen. Schofield's headquarters, Newbern, March 11th, says Hoke that morning attempted to break our lines, but was repulsed with terrible slaughter. Our loss is not much more than three or four hundred is killed, wounded and missing. The rebel loss must be at least eight times greater. We have the field with all the rebel killed and wounded. They came up a dozen times with a bravery worthy of a better cause, but our men had the advantage, and mowed them down. That night and the next morning Gen. Couch's forces came up, and the rebels began to fall back across the river into Kinston. Our forces followed them up vigorously, and will cross the river as soon as the bridge can be repaired. The rebel ram Neuse, lying in the Neuse river near Kinston, has been destroyed.

The U. S. transport steamer Thorn was blown up by torpedoes in Cape Fear river, near Fort Anderson, on the 4th inst., and sunk—the crew barely escaping with their lives.

At Washington, one report says Sheridan has entered Gen. Grant's lines north and east of Richmond, while another says he has kept on southward just west of Richmond.

The Richmond Whig of the 13th, says, "though it is well known there is yankee cavalry raiding through some of the counties west of Richmond on the Central Railroad, yet under the advice of the War Department it is considered inexpedient to publish anything concerning their movements."

It appears by late news that the defence of Fort Myers, Fla., by the Union garrison, was a very brave one, and resulted in finally obliging the rebels to retreat.

Gen. Sherman is reported at Fayetteville, N. C., and has opened communication with Wilmington from that place. He sends word that he is all right and marching on. We expect to hear some gratifying news from him in a few days.

A Washington dispatch of March 15 says the government has received dispatches announcing the capture of Kinston. Bragg retreated.

By the steamer Champion, which arrived at Fortress Monroe on the 14th, it is definitely learned that Sherman's army is quietly resting at Fayetteville, preparatory to another march northward.

— New York has enlisted 400 negroes on her quota, at Charleston.

— Queer, isn't it, how things sometimes work in the world. John Brown's daughter is now keeping a school for negro children in the old mansion of Henry A. Wise, in Virginia.

— Lieut. Col. Addison Brown, late of the 5th Vermont, and son of Rev. Addison Brown of Brattleboro', who resigned lately on account of ill health, died very suddenly at Harrisburgh, Pa., on Thursday week.

THE PEOPLE OF FREDERICKSBURG.—A correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, who accompanied the recent tobacco expedition to Fredericksburg, thus speaks of the people and their feeling about the war:

"The people in the town were all women or old men and boys, and appeared to be very destitute. I saw many women dressed in clothes made of cotton duck tents. The men wore garments which looked like faded revolutionary relics. A few people were well dressed, but most bore marks of deep poverty. All the men with whom I conversed were reconstructionists, and all the people seemed glad to see us, and hoped we would remain. One gentleman, who came from Richmond the day before, who was said to be a man of wealth and influence, told us that he had reason to believe that the war would end in four weeks by submission of the rebel leaders. All were agreed that this campaign would finish up the Confederacy, the most bitter secessionists only claiming that the South had vindicated their pluck and endurance."

The expedition captured Sergeant Shadburne of Wade Hampton's cavalry, one of the most noted guerrillas of the South, who has killed and robbed hundreds of our men. He made a desperate resistance, and offered his two captors three thousand dollars each to be released. His capture is considered of more account than all the rest that was done. Expeditions have been repeatedly sent out for the sole purpose of taking him, but all in vain.

THE REBELS ON MR. LINCOLN'S RE-ELECTION.—Last year, early in the season, some time before the meeting of the National Convention which nominated Mr. Lincoln for President, a correspondent of a Chattanooga Journal furnished the editor with the summary of a conversation with a Georgia secessionist. In view of the events which have already taken place, and which are apparently soon to occur, we think the story worthy of reproduction.

From the Chattanooga Daily Gazette.

Mr. Editor:—A few days ago I fell in company with a prominent rebel citizen of Chattanooga County, Ga.

The conversation turned upon the probabilities of Lincoln's re-election to the Presidency of the United States, whereupon he remarked, with considerable warmth:

"If Lincoln is re-elected, we may just as well give up the game; for we can, in that case, have no hope of gaining our independence. We have been trying to keep up appearances with the hope that the peace men of the United States would be able to carry the election. Our all is staked upon the issue; for it is an absolute impossibility for us to hold out for another four years. God grant that our fears be not realized. For my own part, I would rather see the sun plucked from its orbit than to see old Abe re-elected. If we have to return to the hated Union, I would rather submit to any other man than Lincoln." SCOUT.

☞ The report current for a few days past, that the U. S. consul has been ordered from Matamoras, is without foundation in fact. The consul, Mr. L. Pierce, resigned his office last year, and the subsequent closing of the consulate was a matter of course. In view of the complications incident to a war in Mexico, and the blockade of the Rio Grande, the U. S. Government has since that time preferred to be represented at Matamoras by commercial agents instead of a consul. This class of officers have no political function, and do not require an exequatur or official recognition by the government of the country in which they reside. E. D. Etchinson was appointed such commercial agent in September, 1864, and in December, 1864, was recalled for other than political reasons, and Mr. Wood, who now holds the position, was appointed in his place. Dispatches have been received from Mr. Wood within a few days, showing him to be at his post and in the discharge of his functions.

☞ The Boston Post's Washington correspondent says:

Grave apprehensions have been expressed for Mr. Lincoln's health, but his physicians pronounce his illness only the effect of exhausting labors. He has been so beset by office-seekers that he now denies himself to all visitors until his strength is restored.

Vice President Johnson, it is understood, has pledged himself to total abstinence for the next four years.

[That's right, (says Uncle Toby,) but he had better do it for life.]

SOLDIERS' VOTE.—Col. Charles H. Long, of the 1st Regt. N. H. Heavy Artillery, stationed at Washington, telegraphed on Tuesday evening, that the whole number of votes cast by ten companies of his command, was 769—of which 704 were Republican and 65 Democratic, being a majority of 639. That's the way the soldiers vote.

HAMPTON TOWN OFFICERS.—Selectmen—Jacob T. Brown, Edmund Mason, John H. Fogg. Town Clerk—John J. Leavitt.

—— The Cabinet says the Amherst Pauper Farm, the past year, has paid all the pauper expenses, and left a surplus to the credit of the Farm of $472.65, while the appraisal of property now on the farm exceeds that of last year by about $1500.

— Gold, Wednesday, 178 3-8.

— The managers of the New York Inebriate Asylum have concluded, after trial, that they can't cure drunkards in less than a year.

DROP LETTER, No. 9.—Lexington, Mass., March, 14.—The cultivation of no faculty is productive of more pleasure to ourselves, or creative of more wonder in others, perhaps, than that of observation. Heller, the world renowned magician, tells that when a boy he was trained to walk by the show-windows in Paris, and to enumerate as near as possible from the hasty glance thus obtained, the articles exhibited for sale. By this course he not only developed the habit of comprehending at a glance what would have otherwise have required a long time, but he strengthened his memory in a like degree; and it is mainly on this habit of observation and tenacious retention, he tells us, that some of his most remarkable feats depend.

To a newspaper correspondent, such a training would be invaluable, as he is expected to find an interesting item of news or general information where the mass see naught but barren fields, desolate rocks or dirty, dingy, smoky towns. He is expected to know the physical, political and moral condition and opinions of the various peoples he may chance to be among; to be able to rightly conjecture the next move to be made by any military chieftain (even before that officer shall have decided upon the step himself); to feel the pulse of the mining, manufacturing, agricultural and commercial interests, and correctly inform the public on the subject of fevers in the national system, whether gold or oil fevers; his eyes must be open to individual, corporate, State and National abuses; his ears must bear all that is audible, from the chirp of the first migratory bird that visits us in the Spring, to the thunders of Grant's heavy guns around Richmond; his feet must be ready to carry him to scenes of disaster, and his hand must be equally ready to brush the thorns from his own path, or to wield a pen that shall fearlessly attack whatever is wrong and side with the right, however feeble the latter may be.

Don't imagine that I flatter myself as possessing all or any of these gratifications; I have simply learned the list of requisites for a good correspondent, and perhaps by a score of years hence may have acquired some of them.

If this habit of observation were more general we should not feel obliged to make expensive foreign tours, for pleasure simply, for in our own New England, "out in the cold" though it be, there is enough of interest and beauty to rivet the chains of admiration upon us for many years. And then, when we did go abroad and meet intelligent men, we should not be abashed by the obligation to answer "I don't know, sir!" when questioned upon the generalities of life at home.

The numerous towns that dot the hillside and skirt the streams of New England, have nearly all of them some striking monument of American mechanical ingenuity or Yankee go-ahead-itiveness. Par example, Waltham, one of the most charming suburban towns in this vicinity in the summer season, contains the works of the American Watch Manufacturing Company, (the first and we think the only one in the world to make watches by machinery), employing nearly a thousand hands, and paying them wages sufficient to enable them to live in a class of houses, that are an ornament to any town, and which would astonish all Europe with its boasted civilization, as dwelling-places for the "working classes." The largest manufactory of sulphuric acid in the world, is situated on the opposite side of the river from the main portion of the town: a large group of great wooden buildings, exhaling such powerful gases as to change the paint on buildings a mile distant, across the river. Here, too, we are shown the factory in which both Gen. Banks and his wife are said to have labored in early life, and from which "the Bobbin Boy" has graduated with such high honors. From loom and spindle he is now far removed, but the thread of his life has been judiciously spun, and so intwought with the esteem of his countrymen, that as his hair assumes the tint of the fleecy Southern king he once helped weave into domestics, nearly all now conjoin in praise of one of America's grandest products—a self-made man.

At West Cambridge is seen a modest machine-shop, with a sign informing the public that there John L. Holbs manufactures cutlery, &c. Nearly fourteen years since he opened the eyes of all European locksmiths by picking all their vaunted safe-guards against burglary, and exhibiting to them a lock of his own manufacture, which defied all their efforts to pick.

Observation may be made subservient to the pleasures and needs of of ourselves and friends, and with this observation I will close. ION.

— President Lincoln has been suffering from a severe attack of influenza for several days; is confined to his bed to-day, and consequently is not receiving visitors.

— Two rebel negroes were recently captured in front of the army of the James, who had concealed themselves and picked off several of our men. They said they had been promised $20 for every Yankee they would kill.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—There is one adventure of Election Day which you have not recorded. You have referred to the shameful outrage in Greenland, upon the sacred privilege of suffrage. I have to report that in the evening, as I sat with a few friends around my own fireside, thinking only kindly thoughts concerning the city and the world, I heard the measured tread of footsteps and the hum of voices, and a startling ring at my door. Answering the summons, I was surprised to see a long line of persons, "armed to the teeth," stretching away into the darkness. The number of the assailants it was impossible to tell. Instantly they charged in upon us, took possession of the castle, turned things up side-down, stacked arms on the ten-table, and had things their own way generally. "Surprised" and overpowered by superior numbers, we surrendered without resistance.

At length we were summoned to the centre hall, where tastefully arranged upon the table were a large number of beautifully-wrought implements—of silver—which a young lady (who seemed to be a kind of "Captain of the Host") in a very kindly and considerate manner invited us to "accept," and defend ourselves as best we could. To this exhibition of magnanimity on the part of our captors I undertook to respond. I don't know what I said. My opinion is, that I broke down. However, "all is well that ends well." My failure may have served my purpose better than a successful speech could have done. They may have felt compassion for my weakness. At all events they committed no further depredations. We spent the evening in mutual congratulations, feasting and singing—not forgetting to be thankful to the Bountiful Giver of all our blessings. It was eleven o'clock before we thought it nine. The raiders departed, leaving in our hands all the spoils of the expedition, among which was a considerable amount of silver plate, the value of which, to us, can never be estimated either in greenbacks or gold. I ought to add that the railing party consisted of the "Universalist Sunday School Social Circle." "May the Lord reward them double." A. J. PATTERSON.

THE LYCEUM is to close with a really grand entertainment, this evening—musical and literary. None of those who are announced to take part, it would seem, need much introduction to this public. Mr. Marshall is everywhere known as a most distinguished representative of the histrionic art—a very fine reader—and is an old favorite with a Portsmouth audience.—Mrs. Cary is hardly less famous, and will not fail to delight her audience with her finished vocalism.—Mr. Day has but recently come among us, but is greeted on all hands as a whole-souled man always will be, and is already considered an old acquaintance; he is a studious and pains-taking musician, of good talents, and always ready to lend his very efficient aid to any good cause, as now—and his performances on the new and splendid Chickering piano-forte will add much to the interest of the evening.—Our Band has proved that it is amply able to speak for itself.—We shall only add that the new and enlarged Temple will be handsomely decorated on this closing occasion; and that evening-ticket buyers will get double the worth of their money; the season ticket-holders being joint proprietors, are of course entitled to the fat dividend furnished for them.

☞ Mr. Joy's Singing School Concert, at the Temple last evening, passed off to the satisfaction of all concerned. The stage—in fact the entire hall—was decorated hansomely with the red, white and blue, &c., as were also all the children in the large class. Mr. Joy spared no pains or expense in his endeavors to please his pupils and their parents, and furnish an entertainment as interesting as it is rare among us—and we hope he will reap the reward his commendable endeavors merit, in full new Classes next Saturday—for which see his advertisement.—The audience at the Concert was large, and the new hall presented a most beautiful appearance—as it will also to-night, for the Lyceum.

☞ Professor Gardner of soap notoriety is again in this city with his usual accompaniment—soap. He visited the citizens of Rye on Tuesday, and after selling a number of dollars' worth of his soap, a remark was made by some of the bystanders which reflected somewhat on the "old flag," and caused the Prof. to open on them for the space of fifteen or twenty minutes in one of his right-up-to-the-hub-Union speeches. One gigantic fellow, however, to whom the remarks applied, doubtless, pulled off his coat, and while thus engaged, was observed by Gardner, who, believing in the old adage, that "he who fights and runs away, will live, &c.," gave his three minute horse the hint, and left his antagonist and a gaping crowd gazing after him. He visited the Navy Yard and Kittery Foreside on Wednesday.

☞ That steamer which was to have run between Dover and Boston during the past winter, is now in Boston for the purpose of having a new propellor put in. Her movements on our river were made in the most clandestine manner, evidently, as she came in and went out without anyone seeming to have seen her.

THE CALIFORNIA OIL COMPANY.—We call special attention to the advertisement in another column.—The richest oil lands of the world are in California; and this Company is recommended upon the highest authority. We may have occasion to notice it more particularly hereafter; but in the meantime we advise those who have "ile on the brain," to consult Mr. Harvey in relation to this stock.

☞ Kerosene Oil of prime quality, and the best quality Chimnies and Fixtures, may always be had at H. H. & F. W. HAM'S, Exchange Buildings, Portsmouth. f9tf

The venerable Mrs. Partington once asked us if we believed that everything was foreordained before hand in advance. We were compelled to answer that sometimes we did and sometimes we didn't. She remarked that her son Isaac says he knows one thing was foreordained sure, and that is, that the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap will supersede and rule out every other kind of soap made. The old lady further remarked, that she believed so too, and was sure that there was no other so good, for she had tried it. 108

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the Seven-Thirty Loan.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is

THE ONLY LOAN in the Market

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

DR. URANN,

PRACTICAL PHYSICIAN

Who has made so many wonderful and instantaneous cures in Boston, New York, Hartford, Springfield, and more recently in New Hampshire and Vermont, has taken

ROOMS FOR THE PRESENT AT THE

FRANKLIN HOUSE,

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

DR. URANN'S treatment is such that by it

All Curable Diseases

are affected in one or two treatments, and many are entirely cured by one, as the following will testify:—

W. P. HOMER, 50 and 52 Federal Street, Boston, for many years was troubled with Heart complaint, so bad that at times he was unable to attend to his business; after one treatment he was able to run up stairs, work in his garden and attend to his business; has since gained 12 pounds.

MRS. ELLEN COREY, of Cambridgeport, Mass.—Sciatica; so lame that she could not walk without assistance; after one treatment of fifteen minutes was well as ever, and could walk a mile free from pain.

MRS. SARAH P. STILES, Lowell, Mass., had Fever Sores on both legs of twelve years standing; her right ankle measured eighteen inches, and was as blue as indigo; she could not move her foot; after one treatment it was reduced one-half, she could move her foot freely and is getting well rapidly, her left ankle all healed.

Prof. G. M. LARRON, 1 DIX Place, Boston, troubled with Spinal difficulty, was in much pain; relieved by one treatment.

Miss HANNAH COOL, Campton, N. H.—Spinal difficulties; was unable to walk but a short distance or do any kind of work; perfectly cured, and is now the picture of health.

Miss C. FROTHINGHAM, Boston, Portrait Painter, was troubled with great depression of spirits, at times was unable to attend to her favorite employment; was entirely cured, and she expresses herself, is "made over anew."

Mrs. J. BROWN, Boston, a severe cough and pains through her lungs, cured.

Capt. W. H. LAMPSON'S CHILD, Lowell, Mass. The child was pronounced by physicians as hopelessly idiotic. The child could neither walk or sit alone, and took no notice of anything. After one treatment he began to improve, and has so far gained as to be able to walk alone, can talk, takes notice of everything, laughs and sings, and appears perfectly well.

Mrs. HINCKLEY, wife of A. T. Hinckley, of State Arsenal, Hartford, Ct., troubled with hip complaint and contraction of the cords of the legs; could not get her heel to the floor within four inches; had to be brought down stairs in arms; after one treatment of twenty minutes was able to run up and down stairs with ease, and is now able to walk the streets.

Mr. J. TURNER, Hartford, Ct., troubled for many years with loss of memory; could not attend to business; had been under the best medical treatment in England with no beneficial effect; after one treatment was perfectly restored.

Miss MARTHA ST. JOHN, Simsbury, Ct., was confined to her bed from spinal difficulty and prolapsus uteri; had not been dressed for more than a year; in twenty minutes she was enabled to dress and walk out to one of the neighbors, a distance of about a half mile; she has since been to Hartford and to church, and is improving daily.

Mrs. HENRY LOOMIS, Southwick, Mass., troubled with fits and spinal difficulties, could not walk without much difficulty, perfectly cured by one treatment.

Mrs. WM. JENKINS, Unionville, Conn., troubled for over two years with chronic liver complaint and rheumatism, had a large lump on her side which was very painful; was unable to lie down. Cured by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

JOSEPH H. ELDRIDGE, formerly of the Hartford Police, more recently on Hartford and New Haven Railroad, was obliged to give up his business on account of a severe cough and bleeding, perfectly cured and can now do a good day's work.

LYDIA L. FULLER, of East Wallingford, Vt., had entirely lost the use of her limbs after a severe attack of diptheria, was restored by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

FANNY DAVIS, of Moretown, Vt., had been confined to her bed for more than five years—was not able to stand—after one treatment, of less than an hour, was enabled to walk around the room, and is now quite well.

Miss HUTCHINSON, daughter of Judge Hutchinson of West Randolph, Vt., was troubled with fits, having some days from fifty to one hundred. She was unable to eat anything but liquids—was not able to stand. After one treatment she began to improve, until now, she is the picture of health, able to walk as well as any one, eats hearty and has no fits.

SOUTHWICK, Mass., July 21, 1862.

DR. URANN,—Dear Sir:—I suppose it is ever a pleasure to you to learn the convalescent state of your patients; notwithstanding my long three years of almost absolute confinement to my bed, unable most of the time to converse with or see any company, and for over two years unable to feed myself—yet with this painful picture of human wretchedness which made life almost a burden, since your treatment of my spine, on the 7th day of June, I have been able to take my meals at the table, with my family, ride out daily, and converse freely with all; and without some new misfortune befalls me, I shall soon be able to interest myself in the labors of my profession, at least to preach one sermon a Sabbath. Without flattery, in my honest judgment, there is no better treatment in the hands of men for the Spinal Disease than the one which you honor, and as my heart beats with sympathy with all Spinal sufferers, I only wish they knew the wonderful utility of your treatment, and avail themselves of the same. Yours with respect and gratitude,

M. H. RISING.

DR. URANN'S TERMS

Are such that all can avail themselves of his treatment.

☞ Persons at a distance who are unable to visit the Doctor, by sending particulars of their cases, with one dollar enclosed, will receive advice and learn whether their cases can be treated at a distance. In all cases, state age and sex.

GOOD SENSE AT THE SOUTH.—We have before us the Raleigh, N. C. Standard of Feb. 8, which takes ground in favor of Peace, to be made by North Carolina with the United States, by submission to the constitution and the laws. We make an extract from one article, in which the writer looks at the good condition of the South before the rebellion, and contrasts it with their present misery. He says:

There must always exist an undying, deathless, irrepressible antagonism between slave and free institutions. Grant as a reality, the independence of the South. Will we have Tennessee, Kentucky, Maryland, or those twenty-five counties in Northwestern Virginia within our limits? Will we hug the confident assurance to our hearts that New Orleans is once more the emporium of the South? The North will and must, for her own self-existence, possess the free navigation of the "father of waters." Shall we recapture New Orleans and deny them this privilege? When? When? We are a long ways yet from the grand ultimatum, but then we are so brave!

However, granting independence of the South, what is her present actual territory, and what do we have? An imperial Southern Republic? Not at all. Because we are still antagonistic to the North; and must ever remain so, as long as we allow our minds to be enthralled by narrow bigotry, sectional hate, and low, purblind ignorance. Establish the independence of the South, and our first necessity as a people is a standing army of 300,000 men; always provided we make our terms, as this inexorable war has been prosecuted under the influence of hate, malice, mad ambition, and sectional illiberality. It stands to reason that the North will never wholly relinquish this pet scheme of our final subjugation. She will of course maintain a large standing army as a contingency of her peculiar relations towards us; and we, in the very nature of things, are forced to follow her example.

From whence will we recruit this army? Not by foreign emigration; we have long since declared this to be impolitic, and it would be, perhaps, a really dangerous condition to have 300,000 drilled foreigners continually under arms within our midst. Not from the free-colored population. They would not be reliable in case of emergency, nor would that mode of life suit their peculiar tendency. Well, then, from our native population by draft? In no other manner could we pretend to keep a standing army up to the proper numbers in case reliable, politic, and efficient. We have this prospect immutably certain as an adjunct of self-government, a standing army of 300,000 men, at an annual cost of $300,000,000.

Does any one dispute these predictions? If so, let him but refer to the annual appropriations of the United States Congress for the maintenance of the army in time of profound peace. And if it is not sufficiently evident that we have, in fact, sold our glorious birth-right of freedom for a paltry mess of pottage, then condemn your humble servant for an unmitigated fool or a false prophet. With a standing army such as I here hint at, it is simply preposterous to assert that we can hope for any other system of government here than a military despotism such as Russia or Austria.

☞ The Superintendent of Freedmen in the Department of Tennessee says it has been impossible to get ten hours' work per day from the hired negroes. The average is eight hours, and that only for five, or five and a half days of each week.—So says an exchange, and very likely it is true. We perceive also, that hired whitemen, in some places, are for working eight hours a day, and no more. Eight hours a day for oxen, have been counted as a day's work, in this region, for fifty years past, probably for a century. Every good farmer or teamster has supposed that, though a team might plow more in 10 hours than in 8, for one single day, yet in plowing 5 or 6 successive days, 8 hours per day of good, solid work, would show as many deep furrows, and better work than more hours per diem.

In regard to human laborers, it is doubtless true, that if everybody labored enough to secure good appetite and good sleep, no one need to overwork himself. But in fact, some classes of human beings hurt themselves by lazy or luxurious inaction, and other classes are injured by overworking, with too hard labor, or too many hours, with too few rests or holidays. U. T.

— In the course of a speech made at a late meeting of a farmers' club in England, Lord Palmerston said: "A few years since the firlemen thought that the threshing machine would take the bread out of their mouths, and the threshing machines were destroyed in consequence of this jealousy of the firlemen. The other day when I was down in Hertfordshire, I was told by a farmer that the laborers now considered the flail too severe an employment, and that they would not thresh with the flail, but only by machinery."

ZENO KELLY, the convicted slave trader of New Bedford, has not been pardoned by the President, as heretofore stated. The Massachusetts delegation in the House of Representatives signed a memorial to the President for his pardon, but the two Senators refused to sign the petition. Although the President agreed to pardon Kelly, by some hitch in the proceedings, the thing has not yet been accomplished. Those, who most thoroughly know the case, are of the opinion it never should be.

— John Lowell, esq., of Boston, has been appointed Judge of the U. S. District Court in Massachusetts.

GREAT GIFT DISTRIBUTION.—A rare opportunity is offered for obtaining watches, chains, diamond rings, silverware, etc., by Messrs Arrandale & Co., at No. 167 Broadway. They have an immense stock of articles, varying in value, and all are offered at one dollar each. The distribution is very fairly done—you agree to take a certificate of a certain article, enclosed in an envelope, and are required to pay your dollar unless you are satisfied with the article which certainly is worth more than that amount, and may be worth a fortune. An excellent mode this of investing a dollar.—Sunday Times, N. Y. City, Feb. 19, '65.

Messrs. Arrandale & Co. have long been personally known to us, and we believe them to be every way worthy of public confidence.—N. Y. Scottish American Journal, June 11, 1864.

We have inspected, at the office of Arrandale & Co.'s Advertising Agency, Exron Manufacturing Jewellers, a large assortment of fashionable and valuable jewelry of the newest patterns. We also noticed a large quantity of silver plate, and understand that the whole of these newly imported articles are to be disposed of on a novel principle, giving great advantages to buyers, and affording extensive employment to jobbers. We know the firm in question to be very respectable and thoroughly worthy of public confidence and recommend our friends to read their advertisement.—N. Y. Albion, Sept. 3, 1864.

By Messrs. Arrandale & Co.'s arrangement, the advantages must be on the customer, for he has everything to gain, and nothing comparatively to lose. He knows what he will get for his dollar beforehand, and he need not send it if he is not satisfied.—N. Y. Sunday News, Aug. 6, 1864.

EMPLOYMENT FOR LADIES.—The easy, pleasant and profitable employment we have heard of for ladies in the sale of certificates for the "Great Gift Distribution" of Arrandale & Co. A lady of our acquaintance has been very successful in this way, not only in filling her own purse, but also in doing a great kindness to those to whom she sold the Certificates, as will be seen from our advertising columns. Gentlemen can also be thus engaged.—Sunday Mercury, Aug. 14, 1864.

In our columns, the reader will find an advertisement of Arrandale & Co.'s Gift Distribution of watches, jewelry, and silver-ware. In payment of that advertisement, we received several sets of the jewelry advertised, and we are warranted in saying that, both in finish and quality, they quite exceeded our expectations. They proved not to be just what they had been represented.—The Democrat, (Lewistown,) Aug. 17, 1864.

The Boston Post of Kingston, C. W. says, Nov. 28, 1864, one of our lady subscribers received an agent for Arrandale & Co., and by request brought a specimen of the articles, sent as prizes for her agency, to this office for inspection, without any hesitation we can state that each and all of the articles were worth much more than the amount of cost to the recipients, and some of them six times.

We have seen some very pretty specimens of Table and Tea Spoons, Gold Watches, Ladies' Chains, Pins, Bracelets, etc., which have been sent by Arrandale & Co., to this place for 25 cents.—Angelica Reporter, N. Y. State, Feb. 15, 1865.

Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, is the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most inveterate cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, including Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the many and fearful effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, love of solitude, are the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotins, warranted the most effectual preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plates, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also, on hand an assortment of the different sizes

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The Chronicle.

TOO LENIENT.—A very "conservative" democratic journal says it is characteristic of this administration, as disgraceful as it is remarkable, that it has let more rogues go unpunished, than all other administrations of the country put together.

It is certain that many rascals who have printed and published aid and comfort to the rebels all through the war, deserve condign punishment, which they have not yet received!—And the rascals at home and abroad, are Legion. It would not do, to hang the whole of them; and so the President pardons many that deserve to swing.

THE OIL REGION.—It is said that upwards of six thousand engines will be in operation in Venango and Clarion counties this Spring and the ensuing Summer, and perhaps as many as two thousand more in Lawrence and Butler, and in the Green and Fayette regions. This fact will give the community some idea of the magnitude of the work now going on in the oil territories of Western Pennsylvania. When the other fact is taken into consideration that the oil regions of Ohio and West Virginia are also being extensively operated, it is impossible to estimate the vast extent of the wealth that is to be added to the resources of the country.

—Col. Woodford, the military commander at Charleston, when called upon by one of the "citizens" committee of Charleston charged with the distribution of rice, and requested to issue an order requiring the colored people to meet at specified places on one day and the white people on the succeeding day, is reported to have replied:—"Sir: When a man approaches me with the shield of loyalty before him, he seems so bright that I cannot see that he is black; and when he comes with the shield of disloyalty, he looks so black that I cannot see that he is white!"

RHETORIC AND REALITY.—The most passionate admirers of Jeff. Davis cannot feel much confidence in him as a prophet. Four years ago, in February, 1861, he said in Stevenson, Alabama: "Your border States will gladly come into the Southern Confederacy within sixty days, as we will be your only friends. England will recognize us, and a glorious future is before us. The grass will grow in the Northern cities where the pavements have been worn by the tread of commerce. We will carry war where it is easy to advance, where food for the sword and torch await the armies in the densely populated cities."

BRIGADES AND PROCLAMATIONS.—When Bragg was in Augusta, Georgia, Jeff. Davis telegraphed to him,—according to the Chronicle—"to hold the State at all hazards, stop up the roads, destroy supplies, and crush Sherman." At the close of the despatch, the strange phenomenon of an idea seemed to strike him, and he asked: "What is your available force for this purpose?" To which Gen. Bragg promptly replied: "Five proclamations and one brigade."

Our informant did not see the point, and asked Gen. Bragg to explain. "Why," said he, "Gov. Brown issued a proclamation, that was one; Gen. A. R. Wright's made two; the President's made three; Senator A. H. Hill's made four, that from the eight members of Congress made five. I shall consider Sherman a hard case if I can't 'crush' him with five proclamations and one brigade."

—Australia is now trying the experiment of allowing women the privilege of the elective franchise. At the recent general election there the female householders voted, the new electoral act having conferred the franchise on them without intending it. The Melbourne papers say that the ladies exercised their new privilege with dignity and discretion.

—Five hundred Hungarian families want to emigrate to one of our territories. An agent is at Washington trying to arrange for their transportation from Europe to Arizona.

—It is asserted that the seeds and roots of the asparagus plant contain an abundant supply of the active principle of tea and coffee—caffein.

—Ciprain Ricaud, the richest colored man in the United States, is worth over a million of dollars. Among others is Stephen Smith, of Philadelphia, whose property is valued at $500,000.

—It is stated on good authority that there are not 20 houses to let in the city of Brooklyn, and in that part of the city which was before called Williamsburg, not half as many.

—50,000 barrels of mackerel were caught in Maine last year.

FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 1865.

SCRAPS ABOUT OUR ELECTION.—Speaking of the New Hampshire election, the Boston Post says "the result leaves the Democrats in a favorable situation for a gain next March."

The Concord Patriot says, its returns embrace "not quite so many towns as we have usually had, we believe, but full enough, such as they are. The great "bolt" in the first district probably made Marston's majority larger than it would otherwise have been."

The Manchester Union has a fiery editorial on the election, closing with these words:—"The wretches who have brought all these calamities upon the country shall call upon the rocks and mountains to fall upon them, and hide them from the wrath of a deceived and ruined people."

The Union also has this item:—"the bolt in this district didn't amount to much.—Very few votes were cast for Sawyer—less, we think, than the number of men who participated in his nomination."

The Portland Press says:—"The result of the New Hampshire election shows that the people are not to be turned from their great purpose to save the Union, to put down rebellion and to blot out slavery forever. In the next Congress, New England will be a unit, if Connecticut follows the lead of Maine and the Granite State."

☞ The Manchester Union of the day after election, says:

We understand quite a sensation was produced among the provost guards and police who surrounded the polls in Ward 3 yesterday, by the appearance of a man just from a sick bed, and bearing upon his face the scabs of the small-pox. They gave him plenty of elbow room as he deposited his vote.

We should suppose so;—but the man himself should have been in a proper hospital, or his own room,—and the scoundrels who encouraged his coming to the polls, ought to be in the penitentiary.

IMPORTANT ORDERS.—The President has ordered the arrest of all American citizens who have been or shall be engaged in blockade running, and orders all foreigners in like business to leave the country forthwith, and stay out during the war;—if found here after a specified time, to be arrested. Provost and Marshals U. S. Dist. Marshals are to execute the order.

Gen. Grant has issued an order, suspending all permits for trade with rebel or semi rebel States.

REBEL TREATMENT OF OUR PRISONERS. We have seen several of our returned prisoners, who make the statement, that since Sherman's great march through Georgia, there has been a decided improvement in the treatment of our own suffering braves. Whether this is due to the demise of the infamous Winder, or to the belief that summary vengeance can and may be inflicted on all who have taken part in the barbarities practised on our soldiers, we do not know, certain are we, that no change in the general control of prisoners established by the rebel authorities, could help being an improvement on Winder.—Washington Chronicle.

— The President, although suffering from weakness, received as visitors on Wednesday, members of the Cabinet and Senators.

GOLD in New York, Thursday, 175 to 177: in Boston 175 to 175 1-2.

— Mr. Alexander, the great stock-dealer of Kentucky, has been compelled to remove all of his fine stock from that State, in consequence of the depredations of guerrillas.

— Columbia, Va., whence Gen. Sheridan's last dispatch is dated, is a post village on the north bank of the James, 50 miles west of Richmond.

— Richmond papers show that the rebel Congress, which was to adjourn last Saturday, have, at the request of Jeff. Davis, postponed the adjournment, he informing them he expected to have something of importance to lay before them.

— The Hon. W. A. P. Dillingham, Speaker of the Maine House of Representatives, has been appointed to take charge and dispose of confiscated Rebel property in Mississippi. He has accepted the appointment.

INTELLIGENT OFFICIALS.—Each ward of New York city has a health warden, whose duty it is to investigate, abate or remove nuisances, to report upon the danger of epidemics, and to exercise a general supervision over all matters relating to the sanitary condition of the city. The intelligent manner in which the duty of some of them is performed is exhibited in the following extracts from evidence taken by and investigating committee of the New York Senate:

"Albert J. Terhune, Health Warden of the tenth ward, said that hygienics was a new compound which the doctors sold.

John Donnelly, Health Warden of the sixth ward, said he believed hygienics was something that arose from the gutters.

Judge Whiting—An effluvium which produces epidemics?

Witness—Yes, sir."

THE REBELLION.

A Wilmington despatch of the 11th, says two of Sherman's scouts reached that place that morning, reporting Sherman was at Laurel Hill, and was marching on to reach Fayetteville on the night of the 10th or morning of the 11th.

Boats started at once up Cape Fear River to remove obstructions and open communication with Fayetteville. Sherman met no serious opposition on his march, and had fought no battles. Rebel scouts have been hovering about him constantly with a division of cavalry (Gen. McButler's) on his rear. Dick Taylor has not been seen, rebels report to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sherman crossed the Great Pedee at Cheraw on the 4th. The town on the south bank was entrenched, but the rebels made feeble defence. Sherman's cavalry dashed in, and the rebels dashed out on the run. In their flight they left 17 guns in position; four more found on the north bank. The rebels appeared as an escort to Sherman's army, trotting along in front, or as if they had captured his whole army, as they also had a division of very peaceable cavalry following behind.

Fortress Monroe correspondence says a raiding party went out from Suffolk last Friday and penetrated Virginia as far as Mustroe's station, the terminus of the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad, where they effected considerable damage by destroying the railroad track, depot, warehouses, cotton and much other property. They met with scarcely any opposition.

There was heavy shelling on both sides before Petersburg on Monday afternoon without much effect. The Rebels are strengthening their their James River ironclad fleet.

The rebels continue advancing in large numbers into Grant's lines, as deserters. They report orders for Lee's men to be ready to march at short notice.

The Boston Herald's dispatch says a direct appeal from Richmond, thro' the clergymen of that city, was made to President Lincoln Tuesday for food for the women and children in the rebel capital, tobacco and cotton to be furnished in exchange.

☞ A letter is published from Gov. Fenton, of New York, announcing a postponement of the Draft in that State. The assurance is given to the Governor by the Provost-Marshal-General, that no draft will be ordered in the State so long as recruiting is "progressing reasonably fast," and where it has already taken place, the drafted men will not be required to report if volunteers are procured fast enough to insure the filling of the quota within a reasonable period.

THE ALTERNATIVE.—The Richmond Enquirer, discussing the question of peace, says:

"This Confederacy, or the Yankee nation, one or the other, goes down, down to perdition. That is to say, one or the other must forfeit its national existance, and lie at the mercy of its mortal enemy. We all know, by this time, the fate in store for us if we succumb. The other party has no smaller stake. Assurely as we completely ruin their armies—and without that there is no peace or truce at all—so surely as we will make them pay our war debt, though we wring it out of their hearts; and they know it well, and therefore they cannot make peace, except through their utter exhaustion and absolute inability to strike an other blow."

This is frank, and shows us what we are to expect if we yield in the deadly struggle which is upon us. There is no alternative but to fight it through, or sink down in abject submission, to be despised among the nations. As Patrick Henry said: "People may cry Peace, peace, but there is no peace." We might as well talk of entering into a treaty with a Bengal tiger, as to make terms with the fiendish spirit of this rebellion. The only peace which will last, or which will be worth having, will be the peace that comes with victory. And to that we believe God is leading us with rapid steps.—N. Y. Evangelist.

POLITICAL DOCTRINES FROM ROME.—A notification has been issued by the Cardinal Vicar from Rome, relative to the Jubilee. In this document the Cardinal reverts to the object of the Encyclical, and particularizes as especially deplorable errors, liberty of conscience and worship recognized as a legal right; the recognition of the right of all to propagate thro' the press erroneous principles; and finally the declaration that the will of the people is supreme law.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTEEN MILLIONS of 7-30s.—Nearly 115 millions of the popular 7-30 Loan had been disposed of up to Saturday night last, and not more than 50 millions of this particular loan yet remain. It will be borne in mind that the notes now sold have a little less than two and a half years to run before they mature, when the valuable privilege occurs of their convertibility into 5-20 bonds, which have five years to run from August 15, 1867. It is generally believed that our new and able Secretary, Mr. McCulloch, favors the present popular system of distributing Government loans, as now familiar to the people. Therefore it is to be expected that, after the present issue of 7-30s is exhausted, the sale will be continued upon a new issue, having a longer period to run before the valuable privilege of convertibility into 5-20 bonds occurs to them.

The six hundred millions just authorized by Congress will probably, as far as needed, be raised from sales of the 7-30 loan, divided up into three or four series of issues—say 100,000,000, or 150,000,000 each—the first series of one hundred and fifty millions maturing say one year later than the present old issue, and so on, making each series mature one year later than the previous one, and if holders required the loan to be paid at maturity, the demand could be met by receipts from internal revenue and other sources.

The subscription agent, while endeavoring to dispose of the present issue as rapidly as possible, does not wish to convey the idea that there will be no more of the 7-30 loan, as Mr. McCulloch will doubtless decide that the people shall be allowed to continue their subscriptions without changing the nature of the loan further than to postpone the maturity of the issues to later periods. Some will regard those maturing at an earlier date with more favor; others, regarding probability of a speedy resumption of specie payments, will favor those having longer time to run.

GOLD, in New York, Wednesday, 178 to 174 3 4, after call in the evening.—Pork fell $1 on a barrel; cotton goods declined; steamer Canada took out no specie for England that day. The business papers hope for a gradual decline of prices, lest a sudden fall should break the traders, check business, and throw working men out of employ. If our military success continues, however, prices will continue to go down; and peace would bring them down with a jerk. On the other hand, great disasters would send gold upwards.

On Wednesday in New York, the Express says, there was a general feeling of depression and uneasiness at the Produce Exchange, which increased at the announcement of failures among Philadelphia dealers. Goldoperators, the same paper states, are in trouble and the names of some eight or ten firms are mentioned as having failed, among them Thomas F. Warner, Escanazi, Caymaie and J. F. Meymen. Two large firms in the butter trade, have gone up.

THE GREAT ARTESIAN WELL OF CHICAGO.—Messrs. Editors: Considerable has been said in the papers about the newly-finished Artesian Well at Chicago; but no one who has not lived, or at least been in that city, can form an estimate of the value of such a discovery. A city of nearly two hundred thousand inhabitants, its drainage is into Lake Michigan,—and by steam pumps, water from this same Lake is distributed to the inhabitants—mixed inevitably with some proportion of the drainage. This impurity of the water renders it of course unhealthy, and many diseases, some of them peculiar to the place, are attributed to it.

As the city is rapidly increasing in size, the evil was growing worse. So great had it become (and the Lake supposed to be the only possible source of supply) that a contract was made the city for tunneling the Lake a distance of two or three miles, in hopes to get beyond the perceptible flow of the drainage. It is reported that the contract is about to be thrown up by the the contractors as a bad job. In the meantime, a private company have sunk this artesian well, and after boring more than 700 feet, have struck an inexhaustible supply of the purest water.

There is before me a letter from one of this company, George A. Schuplett, Jr., esq., published in the Banner of Light for March 4th, in which he states that the well is a gift to the people of Chicago from the spirit world. He says that through Mr. Abraham James, a Medium of that city, the whereabouts of the water was told, and all the directions given for successfully reaching it. The water rises more than one hundred feet above the surface of the ground, and a 15-inch bore is being sunk, which, it is calculated, will furnish nine millions of gallons of water per day—enough to supply the city for years to come. Machinery is being arranged to bore this well, by the force of the flow from the other. This appears to be a practical use of Spiritualism; but we think there are few Spiritualists who would have faith sufficient to risk their money in such an enterprise, though in this case it appears to have been abundantly rewarded. — The people of Morocco have not taken kindly to the telegraph, recently introduced into that country. They cut the wires, and the Emperor returned the compliment by cutting off the heads of two offenders, and ornamenting the telegraph poles with them.

The Best Ink in the World!

A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.

A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!

INK POWDERS

TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.

THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.

Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.

FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.

An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.

It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.

A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.

The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:

1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.

2d—It flows freely, does not gum up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.

3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.

4th—Convenience. It can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.

5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.

Testimonials.

MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.

To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.

American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made Ink, for eight years past, from Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppa Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.

Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.

To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without it. I remain yours,

GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.

Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but it was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.

I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient serv't,

GEO. W. PARKER.

Deering, March 1, 1865.

To the American Ink Company: This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,

AARON M. CLARKEY.

Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you gave me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.

Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.

Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Ridlon's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.

Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

PETROLEUM OIL AGENCY.

The California Petroleum Company.

In the Summer of 1864, Professor B. Silliman, Jr., examined this locality, now owned by the CALIFORNIA PETROLEUM CO., the purchase of which he strongly recommended to his friends in New York.

The property covers an area of 18,000 acres in one body, on which are at present at least twenty Natural Wells, some of them the largest size. Artesian Wells can be put down, 25 miles in extent The Ranch is an old Spanish Grant of four leagues, and perfect title.

WELLS, FARGO & CO. say that "those who wish to invest in this class of security need not hesitate a moment where to place their money—here is a good, honest, reliable concern—one which in our judgment will pay."

Shares $40. Par Value $100.

Rensselaer Petroleum Comp'y.

The property consists of 100 acres, in fee simple, on Two Mile Run, near Oil City—double lease of the Clapp Farm above Oil City; and four acres in fee simple on Pithole Creek, in the heart of the Oil Regions.

Capital $300,000. Shares $3. Par Value $6.

Sheffield Petroleum Company.

This property consists of 226 acres on the Tionesta Creek—seventy-five acres in the same vicinity. This property is cut through by the ten mile run, a branch of the Tionesta, and the Sudley & Erie Railroad. The property is considered of great value in the market.

Capital $300,000. Shares $1. Par Value $2.

Everett Oil Company,

OF BOSTON.

The property of this Company consists of 200 acres of land owned in fee simple, and two leases as follows: The land is located on Oil Creek, near Centreville Depot. The Oil Creek Railroad passes through this land. It has a river front of over one quarter of a mile. It is rich in oil.

Capital $300,000. Subscription price $5.

President Petroleum Company.

A few Shares of this valuable Stock can be had if applied for soon, at the original subscription of $5 per Share. It contains 8,400 acres, very valuable in Oil, Coal and Timber.

All the above Stock for sale at the AGENCY,

No. 17 Congress Street, Portsmouth, where Maps, Drawings and Pamphlets are ready for distribution.

I am fully persuaded that all the above Companies are good, well managed, and must pay good dividends, and are the best investments now in the market.

Local.

☞ Rev. D. P. Pike, of Newburyport, will preach this (Friday) evening, in the Court St. Christian Chapel, at 7 1-2 o'clk. We hope to see the Chapel crowded.

☞ Probably the largest audience ever gathered at an indoor entertainment in this city, was, that in the Temple, at Mr. Joy's Singing School Concert, Wednesday evening. The house was full, though by no means "packed" or stowed; and probably between 1500 and 2000 persons were present. The exhibition was a great success in every respect. It will be seen that Mr. Joy announces a new term for to-morrow.

☞ A man named Michael Hoffman stole $400 or $500 worth of rigging, mostly new, from Mr. Marcy's shipyard, on Tuesday night,—carrying it off in a boat. Marshal Dresser and Asst. Marshal Johnson hunted the matter out, and found the property at the junk store of Mr. Oren Bolles—who had paid $20 for it! Hoffman, "the thief," was before the Police Court on Thursday, but we do not learn that "the receiver" was taken with him.

☞ Don't forget Artemas Ward's entertainment at the Temple to-night. Music and Panoramas are among the attractions, as will be seen by the Programme.

☞ On the 9th inst., Capt. Matthew Matthew Betton, of this city, was relieved from duty with the 13th Regt. N. H. Vols. and assigned to the command of the 81st N. Y. Vols., now with the Army of the James.

☞ A little boy, aged 9 or 10 years, was drowned on Thursday afternoon, near the South Mill bridge, while playing on the ice All efforts to save him were unavailing, although the little fellow made frantic efforts to retain his hold upon the edge of the ice. His body was recovered after an hour's exertion in dragging the pond. He was the son of George Lane, a laborer.

☞ We wish to throw out a gentle hint to the managers of the only public place for entertainments in this city, in regard to the proper means of supplying the Temple with pure air. Now that this building has been so much improved by enlarging its area, and otherwise altering it—thereby increasing its capacity one-half,—some attention should at once be paid to the matter of properly ventilating it. At the juvenile concert on Wednesday evening, quite a number of ladies occupying seats in the galleries came near fainting while passing out, so dense was the crowd and so foul the air. We trust that the janitor of the building, whoever he may be, will also heed this suggestion, and use all the means of ventilation, which are now available, and thus when there is a crowded house, render the atmosphere tolerable.

☞ The Lyceum Committee is requested to meet at the Chronicle Counting Room, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock precisely. 2t

☞ Mdlle. Helen De Katow, the wonderful performer on the Violoncello; and Mr. James M. Welch the eminent Piano-Forte virtuous, are to give a Concert at the Temple in this city, on Wednesday evening next, March 22d. Particulars hereafter.

☞ Charles Coffin Haley, of this city, yeoman of the ill-fated U. S. steamer Merrimac, has been appointed Paymaster's Clerk, and ordered to U. S. Steamer, Queen, which sailed from New York on Tuesday.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT, Dover.—The Court adjourned on Monday last, having been in session since the 14th of Feb.—the longest term held in this County since Judge Greene, some thirty years ago, attempted to "clear up" the old Strafford, Belknap and Carroll docket, a job at which he labored six or eight weeks, but was finally compelled to abandon, having died in the harness, or reached the unconstitutional age of seventy in the meantime, we forget which.

At the present long term only one case has been before the Court—that of Boardman vs. Woodman—the Margaret Blydenburg will case—which has been before mentioned. About forty witnesses were examined, which with the arguments of counsel, occupied 21 days. It was given to the jury on Saturday afternoon last, who, after a brief deliberation returned a verdict for the defendant, or for sustaining the will. Exceptions were taken by the plaintiff's counsel, and the case goes to the full bench on questions of law.—Enquirer.

— The Boston Board of Aldermen have issued an order prohibiting the old-time custom of ringing the bells at morning, noon and night.

— Several of the prominent clergymen of New York, on Sunday, preached sermons upon the need of sanitary reforms in that city. They evidently believe that "cleanliness is akin to godliness," if not inseparable from it.

— Robert Cobb Kennedy, convicted in February last for acting as a spy, and in violation of the rules of war, has been sentenced to be hung. The execution will probably take place on the 24th inst.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the Seven-Thirty Loan.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is

THE ONLY LOAN in the Market

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

ABOUT the MIDDLE of APRIL.

It is expected that nearly 200 Performers

will take part in the exercises, and that the

will be the heaviest and best ever heard in this region.

All members of the Old Folks Choirs of Portsmouth or elsewhere, are hereby cordially invited to take part.

All Singers or Players to whom this Notice is sent, are particularly desired to join in the Concert; and a general invitation is also extended to all musicians to assist.

The arrangements for enlarging and beautifying the TEMPLE will be completed by the time of this Concert, and the new Hall will seat nearly 2000 people, while the new and spacious stage will afford ample accommodations for the large Choir. No effort will be spared to render this the grandest Musical Entertainment ever attempted here. Full particulars hereafter.

The Programme is selected from "The Continental Harmony," and all having copies of this Book, will please bring them.

WHAT IS A

FRENCH ROLL PAN?

IS A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.

It is simply a nicely made

IRON PAN.

Or rather a series of Pans connected in one, of such peculiar form that all parts of the material contained in them receive an equal amount of heat, thus insuring a very

QUICK AND LIGHT BAKE.

For Sponge or Drop Cake, Muffins, French Rolls, Corn Bread or Raised Flour Biscuit, these Pans are Invaluable.

IN these days of high prices, it is worth while to

ECONOMISE

in any way. We give below a receipt for making a Cheap, Wholesome, and

PALATABLE BREAD:

"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."

By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to set before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.

BAILEY'S

Spring Roll and Cog Wheel

WASHING AND WRINGING MACHINES.

WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME AN institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all save an immense amount of labor and cost of material.

We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tubs, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.

To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial. If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

Morning Chronicle.

— An interesting discovery has just been made in a tumulus at Ekaterinoslow, in Russia. It consists of a treasure which formerly belonged to a chief of the Huns. Among the different articles is a heavy gold diadem, a large collar, bracelets, and drinking cups, with handles formed by animals, the whole of which are in gold of remarkable workmanship.

— One of the most necessary appendages of a New York brokerage bureau is a fictitious mother, being a woman apt at disguising herself, and ready to express and certify her consent to enlistment of any number of minor sons. Colonel Baker's investigations found several estimable ladies following this profession, and making about $100 a day thereby.

— A good deacon making an official visit to a dying neighbor, who was a very unpopular man, put the usual question: "Are you willing to go, my friend?" "O, yes," replied the sick man, "I am glad of that," said the deacon, "for all the neighbors are willing."

— A cave, nearly as large as the mammoth cave of Kentucky, has recently been discovered about ten miles from Fort Ruby, California. It was found to be an immense subterranean lake of clear water, with high walls of limestone on either side. The ceiling or arch is fifty feet high.

— Mr. McCulloch, the new Secretary of the Treasury, was born in Wells, Me., but in early life went to Indiana, where he attained important military positions. He was for two years a student in Bowdoin College.

— Several fine colors have been produced from the residuum of petroleum, by some German chemists, who keep the process a secret.

—The New York Evening Post warns the public, and ship-owners especially, of numerous desperate thieves and blockade-runners now arriving from Nassau.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by transmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that much of the SUCCESS AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES OF ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a valuable collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary for an journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN SPECIFICATIONS, all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 INDIGOT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the great affliction of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never yet been first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D.. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins both body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded: loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, nervous irritability, weak nerves, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult Dr. Dow, of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 & 9 INDIGOT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fits, Hysteria, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief and cure are given. Dr. Dow is peculiarly certain in the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted persons are speedily made whole.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

In all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Indicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert E. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

SOUTHERN CALL FOR PEACE.—We give below, another extract from the Raleigh, North Carolina Standard, which tells its readers some home truths.

Had we been allowed peaceable secession, such as was so confidently and sagely predicted, undoubtedly we would have sprung forth a rival of the North, and always equalled, if we did not ultimately excel her, in the grand march of civilization and modern refinement. That hope, however, is long since an exploded fallacy; a sickening, terrible river of blood mantles the two sections as a fearful harbinger or reminiscene of past woe, of future misery!

Evidently, then, we have but the one alternative—to disabuse our minds of this long nursed fallacy, our infinite immaculateness as a people and allow our leading men—or force them if the necessity presents—to arrange an honorable peace with the United States; bearing ever in mind the fact, however humiliating to our egotism, that the people of the Northern States are in every respect our equals; and are in no wise more to blame for precipitating this unholy war upon this country, than ourselves. Is it overstepping the truth, to assert that the South no longer repose full and implicit confidence in President Davis and his omniscient, clique of favorites at Richmond? I notice in to-day's Mercury, an article headed: "Hurrah for Jeff. Davis, hurrah!" thereby treating as a burlesque or buffoon, one whom the best blood of "Dixie" has been shed to uphold in his present dangerous pre eminence. We cannot drift on in this bloody whirlpool much longer.

Reverse the picture, turn the other side, and suppose that when Gen. Lee fought the battle of Gettysburg, he had been completely victorious; and from thence continuing his triumphant march, had planted his standard in proximity to Niagara Falls; or on the summit of Faneuil Hall. What would have been the result? Would we not have been duly "electrified," in stentor tones; would we not have proclaimed to the world in general, and ourselves in particular, that we had conquered, subjugated, yea, annihilated the North; that henceforth and forever, they were by right of conquest our slaves, our minions or subjugated allies? And has Sherman and his cerulean hosts done any less? Is he not "monarch of all he surveys?" In invading Georgia, or so far on his route toward Branchville, has he incautiously stepped into the seething crater of a volcano, sub merging him and all his truckling minions; thus at one glorious sweep establishing the independence of the South as an accomplished fact? Is it allowed mankind to judge of a future event with the prescient faculty of the Almighty? We may only predict futurity by past precedents. Since 1862 the Federal armies have marched from New Madrid in Missouri, to the Atlantic coast; with more or less opposition, 'tis true, but still ever irresistibly onward.

The North has not been materially weakened, drawing the materiel almost exclusively from foreign population; while we are certainly suffering thousands and ten thousands horrors—every fireside desolated, every roof tree draped in funeral woe! When will it terminate? When we have conquered a peace? When we turn the tables, and pour forth the vials of our keenest agonized wrath upon the now flourishing people of Yankeedom? Do not the Napoleonic wars furnish an example, that valor however sublime, courage ever so desperate, talent ever so boundless, genius ever so aspiring, ambition ever so intrepid and lofty, must inevitably succumb to the overwhelming force of superior numerical numbers. * * * * *

We are a brave and honorable people; nevertheless, the desire is, I may say, universal for peace! This is the first necessity!—without it we are inevitably ruined!—and if our honor has not been fully vindicated by four bloody campaigns, it is too late now, I trow, to set about the congenial task of farther shedding sacred blood! If our politicians cannot settle this matter honorably, it is full time that the American people take the matter in hand themselves.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, MARCH 18, 1865.

ENGLAND AND THE U. S.—The Liverpool Post, in an editorial contending against a probable war between England and America, says—In a note from a member of the Government, received in Liverpool on the 2nd, occurs the following passage—"I hear the city is uneasy about America. We have, however, more pacific and satisfactory declarations from the United States Government than has for a long time been the case." The Post thinks the new Minister to Washington goes out to reciprocate the words of amity recently transmitted across the Atlantic.

ENGLISH ITEMS, by the Africa, are of great interest. The news of the fall of Charleston caused much sensation. The effect was an advance of two per cent. in the U. S. bonds, and a decline of four per cent. in the Confed. loan.

The London Times says: "The influence of the success at Charleston can hardly be exaggerated, and its moral effects cannot but be most powerful on the conduct of the war. It is seen that the population of the Southeastern States are not able to oppose the march of the Federal armies. The advance from Savannah to Charleston seems to have been as easy as the march from Atlanta to Savannah."

The London Star regards the fall of Charleston as premonitory of the utter overthrow of the rebellion.

LONDON ITEMS, March 5, Evening.—The rebel loan has declined four per cent.

The London Daily News says there is some prospects of shipments of gold being made to New York, owing to the flatness of exchange.

Ex-Senator Foote has issued an address at London to Tennesseeans, explaining his disconnection with the rebel government, which government he denounces and repudiates.

The London Times says the fall of Charleston is a victory which will recompense the Federals for many labors. It believes the South is now virtually shut out from the world.

The Morning Post says Sherman's movements have placed him in the foremost rank of military Generals.

IN THE BRITISH HOUSE OF COMMONS, March 3d, Mr. Shaw Lefevre asked whether the attention of the Government had been directed to the minute of instructions alleged to have been issued by the Confederate Government, with reference to the seizure and disposal by Confederate cruisers, of neutral vessels without adjudication by a Prize Court, and whether such instructions met the approval of the Government; and if not, what measure would be taken to prevent their being carried out.

Mr. Layard replied that the attention of the Government had been given to the instructions, and they were entirely disapproved. It would not, however, be consistent with the interest of the public service to state what steps had been taken regarding the same.

MILITARY OPINION ABROAD.—The English Army and Navy Gazette says:—"The evacuation of Charleston and Columbia and the concentration of their garrisons will strengthen the hands of Beauregard, Hardee and Hill, but the Confederates are placed in a position of exceeding danger from which it will require greater genius than ever Lee and Davis have as yet exhibited to extricate them. The purpose of Grant becomes more obvious as the campaign proceeds. He holds Lee fast, and thus paralyzes the strongest arm and neutralizes the greatest force of the Confederacy."

☞ Gold declined on Thursday afternoon, in Boston and New York; in Boston large amounts were sold, and at the evening Board, there was a rapid descent, the precious metal touching one hundred and sixty-five. The closing price at the Evening Board in New York was 167 1-4; the market was much excited.

REMOVAL OF GOLD FROM RICHMOND.—The exodus of gold is fairly under way. The Farmers Bank follows swiftly upon the example of the Bank of Virginia. The public enemy will soon hold all the gold heretofore so well guarded and defended by our army. The supplies of the country cannot be secured without gold. The banks have all the gold. Without supplies, the city of Richmond and the State of Virginia must be abandoned. The banks are squandering gold, defeating the Government of supplies, and rendering the surrender of the city of Richmond to the enemy imperative; and all this for the dishonorable and disreputable end of shaving their own notes. Shall this thing be permitted? Will the citizens of Richmond quietly submit to this? That the gold in the banks of Richmond would place the defence of the city and the holding out of the State beyond danger, we entertain no doubt whatever. General Lee's army can defend its lines, if it is fed, but without gold it is almost impossible to procure the necessary supplies. The banks hold money enough to procure twelve months' supplies for the army. If they are permitted to deport this gold to the enemy, then the people will have to give up their supplies, or give up the State.—Richmond Examiner, 10th.

THE REBELLION.

The Boston Herald's special dispatch of Washington, March 16, says—"There is no news by the mail boat from the Army of the Potomac. The rebels refuse to exchange Richmond papers with our pickets, and desertions from their lines are not so numerous."

On Sunday afternoon, the Mayor of Kinston, N. C., surrendered the city to our forces. The enemy retreated rapidly from Kinston to Goldsboro'.

A report states that Sherman was in possession of Goldsboro', and that the enemy were rushing back to Kinston to prevent our crossing the Neuse river. This is not official.

The enemy left 700 dead on the field before crossing the river, which we buried; also many wounded, who fell into our hands.

The gunboat Shamrock has gone up the Neuse to Kinston. The river is very high.

E. P. Gardner, the Government detective, just arrived from the front, states that he saw the bearer of dispatches from Gen. Sherman, who told him that Sherman was at Goldsboro'.

A Newbern dispatch of Monday states that officers just from the front say an order was read to the troops on Saturday evening from Gen. Cox, stating that they would be joined by Sherman's army in three days, which created the greatest enthusiasm.

A rebel surgeon came in, took the oath of allegiance. He says Sherman's cavalry was in Troy, N. C., a few days since, and that one wing of his army was marching on Fayetteville, one on Goldsboro', and another on Raleigh.

All the available pontoon trains at Newbern had been sent to Gen. Schofield.

A letter to Gen. Grant, from Gen. Sherman, of the 12th, from Fayetteville, N. C., describes his army as in fine health and spirits, having met with no serious opposition. Hardee keeps in his front for a respectable distance. At Columbia General Sherman destroyed immense arsenals and railroad establishments, and 43 cannon. At Cheraw he found much machinery and war material, including 25 cannon and 3600 barrels of gunpowder. In Fayetteville he found 20 pieces of artillery and much other material. He says nothing about Kilpatrick's defeat by Hampton, but the officer who brought this letter says that before daylight on the 10th Hampton got two brigades in the rear of Kilpatrick's headquarterters, and surprised and captured all the staff but two officers. Kilpatrick escaped, formed his men, and drove the enemy with great loss, recapturing about all that he had lost. Hampton lost 86 left dead on the field.

The N. Y. Herald's Army of the James correspondent learns from a rebel officer, it is estimated that during the past two years 64,000 Union soldiers have died in rebel prisons; of these 30,000 were buried at Andersonville, 12,000 at Danville, and 10,000 at Richmond.

On Monday last a portion of Gen. Sheridan's cavalry was engaged in tearing up the railroad between Richmond and Hanover Junction, while the main body was pushing on towards White house, on the Pamunkey river, where it was expected supplies would reach him and enable him to continue his work. Sheridan's movements have created great uneasiness in the rebel army and capital.

Newbern correspondents of the 14th, say General Cox's total loss in the three days' fighting has been exaggerated. It will not exceed in either, wounded and missing 1000, which is more than one half the rebel casualties on a single day of fighting.

The N. Y. Times' army of the Potomac despatch of the 15th, says during the 14th, active operations on the most extensive scale could be discovered within the rebel army. Camps were' struck and masses of troops were in line of battle. Three columns of men were seen moving to and fro within their interior lines. Orders were issued to our troops to be in instant readiness to move.

It is believed the enemy have mined our works on the centre of the line near the Appomattox. Our engineers are investigating. During the night of the 14th, trains and wagons were in active motion; sutlers ordered to the rear. There is indication of a movement, and appearances look like a fight. So far as our army is concerned its movement depends only upon the weather.

— A paragraph has been going the rounds of the press stating that a flood at Eastport had destroyed one or two million dollars worth of commissary stores; but a dispatch received by Quartermaster General Meigs from Nashville says the loss at Eastport was trifling, with the exception of the submerging of fifty thousand or sixty thousand bushels of grain, most of which will be saved in a damaged state, and when sold will realize a part of its cost.

GEN. GRANT remarked in conversation recently:—"I do not believe in falling back into winter quarters, in giving the enemy time to plough, plant and gather in their crops, and to feed and recruit their armies. I do not believe in such a policy as that; but in dealing quick, sharp and heavy blows, till we conquer the rebellion, which I believe we shall successfully accomplish."

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

Stamp Act repealed, 1766.—The Repeal celebrated in Portsmouth.

Mr. Meserve did not receive his commission till long after the time appointed for the stamp act to commence its operation. As soon as it was known that he had received it the people were jealous, notwithstanding his resignation, that he intended to accept the office, and distribute the stamps. They assembled on the 9th of January, 1766 and demanded his commission and instructions, which he delivered up to them: they then required him to make oath that he would not directly, nor indirectly, attempt to execute the office; which oath was administered to him publicly, by Wiseman Claggett, Esq. They marched through the streets, carrying the commission in triumph on the point of a sword, exposed to public view. They afterward sent it, enclosed to the agents of the province in England, referring the disposal of it to their discretion. But lest some clandestine measures should be adopted to stop it, they required the master of the ship, by whom it was sent, to swear that on his arrival in England, he would deliver the package, containing the commission and instructions, according to the direction. They used a flag on this occasion, on which were inscribed in large letters the words "Liberty, Property, and no Stamp." And to perpetuate this memorable event, they erected this standard at Swing bridge, which on this occasion they called Liberty-Bridge.

The stamp act was repealed the 18th day of March, and the news was received in this country, with extravagant demonstrations of joy. The pleasing intelligence was brought here by express from Boston, the 14th of April, and was confirmed by an arrival from St. Christopher's the same day. All the bells immediately commenced a joyful peal.

Thursday, the 22d day of May 1766, was appointed for celebrating this important event in Portsmouth. At early dawn, all the bells began to ring; a discharge of cannon saluted the rising sun. A battery of 21 guns was erected near Liberty Bridge, and dedicated to his Majesty. Another of thirteen guns was erected on church-hill, in honour of Mr. Pitt, and a third, of five guns on the town-wharf. The ships in the harbour were decorated with their colours; drums and military music contributed to the hilarity of the day. At twelve o'clock a royal salute was fired at Castle William and Mary by order of the Governor, which was answered by the batteries in town. A large number of gentlemen assembled at the Council chamber, and drank several patriotic toasts. In the afternoon a grand procession was made through the principal streets, and a salute was fired at each of the batteries as they passed. Magazines were provided, and the people were abundantly supplied with every kind of refreshment. The bells continued ringing through the day. In the evening a bonfire was kindled on windmill hill. A mast had been raised, the foot of which was set several feet in the ground, and a stage was built round it, filled with combustible materials; the fire ascended majestically to the top of the mast, when it communicated with a bomb, deposited there, which made a fine explosion. A house near the State house, was illuminated, and a beautiful display of fire-works was made from a stage erected in the front of it. The whole transaction was conducted with decorum, sobriety, and innocent mirth, "to the honour of the managers, who obtained the universal applause of the spectators."

Mr. Meserve petitioned the General Assembly for indemnity for the injuries he had sustained. His petition was referred to a committee, who reported, "that he had suffered no real damage either in person or property; but that, when any real danger had been expected, guards had been appointed to protect him;" upon which the petition was dismissed.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Concord Monitor says, Capt. Silvey, A. A. Provost Marshal of this State, has received an order from Gen. Fry to commence the draft on the 21st inst., Tuesday next, and to forward the men to the rendezvous as rapidly as possible. The total deficiency, under the present assignment, is about 250. By prompt action this entire deficiency may be made up and all necessity for a draft avoided. Let there be earnest and energetic action in those towns whose quota is not yet filled.

NEW ENGLAND AGRICULTURAL SOC'Y. The Concord Monitor says the managers of this Society, it is understood, voted at a recent meeting to accept the invitation of the Merrimack Co. Ag. Soc., to hold their Fair next Fall at Concord,—on certain conditions—which will be promptly complied with.

—— Hon. Wm. E. Chandler of Concord, has been nominated to the Senate, and confirmed for Naval Solicitor and Judge Advocate General.

—— The Manchester Mirror says that a fireman on the Northern Railroad went to sleep while the train was below Franklin, and upon the engineer's touching him to wake him up, jumped from the engine down a high bank, supposing the train was meeting another. The train was stopped, and he made his appearance with no injury except a severe fright.

PETROLEUM OIL AGENCY.
The California Petroleum Company,
In the Summer of 1864, Professor B. Silliman, Jr., examined this locality, now owned by the CALIFORNIA PETROLEUM CO., the purchase of which he strongly recommended to his friends in New York.
The property covers an area of 18,000 acres in one body, on which are at present at least twenty Natural Wells, some of them the largest size. Artesian Wells can be put down, 25 miles in extent. The Ranch is an old Spanish Grant of four leagues, and perfect title.
WELLS, FARGO & CO. say that "those who wish to invest in this class of security need not hesitate a moment where to place their money;—here is a good, honest, reliable concern—one which in our judgement will pay."
Shares $40. Par Value $100.

Rensselaer Petroleum Comp'y.
The property consists of 100 acres, in fee simple, on Two Mile Run, near Oil City—a double lease of the Clapp Farm above Oil City, and four acres in fee simple on Pithole Creek, in the heart of the Oil Region.

Local.

☞ The mechanics and laborers on the Navy Yard are being paid off,—payments having commenced on the 15th. There are 2645 names on the February Roll, and $144,840 are required to pay this body of workmen. This pay-roll foots up $14,870 less than that of the preceding month—there being but twenty-three working days in February, while in the month before there were 26.

☞ We have allowed Thacher to tell his own story in his own way, in our advertising columns; and don't know that we have anything to add, except that we believe he is the first trader here who ever kept a trio of stores of any sort, and to suggest Trinity Medicine Stores as a trade mark for his establishments. Thacher is one of the smartest traders and hardest-working business men in the city; and such cannot but succeed. He knows how to keep an apothecary shop, sure, and more than one of 'em.

☞ A temporary building is to immediately erected on the Navy Yard, to be used as an iron foundry. The iron-armor shop—recently taken away on account of its interference with the bows of the Minnetonka, now being erected in the ship-house near by—is to serve the purpose of a foundry for a time. The establishment of a good iron-foundry on this Yard will be a "big thing" for the yard itself, and a step of economy on the part of the government. We need also a good ropewalk, and when that is completed, and put in good running order, the Portsmouth Navy Yard will be first-class in point of merit, if it is not "rated" as such.

☞ The eighth and last lecture of the Sunday Evening Temperance Series will be delivered in the Court St. Christian Chapel by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Waterhouse, to morrow (Sunday) evening at 7 1-2 o'clock.

☞ The Executive Committee of the Philharmonic Society have decided to change the Rehearsal for next week, from Wednesday to Tuesday evening.

☞ Don't forget that Mr. Joy's new Term of Singing School commences this afternoon—two Classes. A gentleman who was going in to his Concert, the other night, thought the performances were over, so many people were coming from the doors, unable to get in. Replying to the numerous requests for repetition, Mr. Joy desires us to state that this will be impossible at present, but that he intends giving a similar exhibition at the close of his next term in June. The tuition price is only $1.

☞ The Stars and Bars, printed two or three days after Election, does not view the vote of Rye, the stronghold of copperhead treason. Why not—are they ashamed of it? Perhaps the voters there do as other people who read that edifying sheet appear to—act on its advice by inversion.

☞ Pearson's great Combination Exhibition, at the Temple for the last time this evening, (and this afternoon for the children) is really a fine entertainment, musical and artistic—well worth going to see and hear. The paintings are fine and the music good; and the lecture on Mormons and all, is interesting as well as amusing. A good quarter's worth, we tell you.

☞ Ward Three, in this city, we think can claim to be the Banner Town of the State. We congratulate the Republicans of that ilk, that at last this Sebastopol of blatant treason is ranged on the side of liberty and Union—a result attained only by the most persistent determination and exertion on their part.

☞ The Stars and Bars don't like it, that the sovereign people of New Hampshire grow "blacker" and blacker, every year—or that they prefer liberty and progress, and true Union, rather than to follow the counsels of such as he, and flounder in the mud of bunkerism, defeat and disgrace. We can tell them that the Republicans (or Abolitionists, if the term suits better) will roll up a round 10,000 majority, another year.

☞ A good work—digging up the ice in our streets. To save one accident will more than pay all the expense, not to mention the comfort and decency of the thing.

☞ Hoffman, one of the cordage thieves, was bound over in $400 for trial. His companion got away to Newburyport, but will be caught, no doubt.

☞ Messrs. Bidwell & Pike's Dramatic Company are playing a long, and we hear very successful engagement in Portland; at the close of which, in a short time, we understand they will re-open at the Temple here.

☞ Arrangements are progressing for that Old Folks Concert, by-and-by. A rehearsal is held each Sunday evening, for which see advertisement.

☞ A large-sized Melodeon is to be sold at auction, by Mr. Wendell, this (Saturday) morning at 10 o'clock, at his store—a rare chance to get a good instrument cheap. 1t

☞ A gem of a place—Thacher's new Apothecary Store, corner of Congress and Vaughan Streets.

STOVE WITHOUT A FUNNEL.—One of the novel things which attracts the attention of visitors to the neat and tasty medicine and drug store just opened by Mr. Thacher on the corner of Vaughan and Congress streets, is a cylinder stove without any funnel in the center of the room, doing all the work of warming the room. The fuel is gas.

THE DIFFERENCE.—Exeter, the home of Gilman Marston, gave him a plurality of 346. Portsmouth, in which Daniel Marcy resides, gave a plurality against him of 660; and his own Ward, which two years ago gave him a majority of 84, now gives a majority against him of 74.

☞ The order of the Navy Department, appointing Com. M. C. Marin to the command of the Vandalia, at this station, has been revoked.

— Capt. Geo. W. Towle, formerly of Co. G. 10 Regt. N. H. V. has been detached and is at present stationed at Camp Berry, Portland.

GOLD, in New York, Friday, opened at 167, fell to 159, and at 12 o'clock was quoted at 163. Pork fell $2 on the barrel. The Boston Journal says:

A citizen had the curiosity on Wednesday last to note the names of twenty-five of the gold speculators at a certain board, and on referring to the tax list he found two of them only assessed—one on $70 and the other on $164 income.

THE STONEWALL.—The rebel ram Stonewall continues at Ferrol, watched by Federal cruisers. It is stated that the existence of an alleged leak is not authentically established, for she continued to take on board a large quantity of coal.

— Commander Parker, who is on a charge of deserting his post when the rebel fleet recently came down the James river, has the reputation of being a brave officer, and there is little doubt that the investigation will show that he was actuated by honorable motives, and that the insinuations of cowardice are altogether unfounded.

— The Commencement exercises at the Mass. Medical College took place in Boston last week. Among the graduates were John P. Brown of Raymond, and John W. Parsons of Rye. The latter delivered a dissertation on "Pyœnia," which "I." of the Ballot says was very highly spoken of.

— The Boston Herald's Washington correspondent says there are not so many office seekers there as the papers are trying to make out. Bennett, of the New York Herald, has been offered the French Mission, but has not yet accepted the appointment.

—The New York Post's Washington dispatch says Richmond papers of Monday are filled with accounts of Sheridan's exploits in the vicinity of Richmond. He has evidently created great consternation among the rebels.

—On Wednesday, in New Jersey legislature, John P. Stockton was elected United States Senator, receiving forty votes against 37 for Mr. Ten Eyck, late Senator.

—Thursday, April 13, is appointed Fast Day in Massachusetts.

☞ Don't forget Artemas Ward's entertainment at the Temple to-night. Music and Panoramas are among the attractions, as will be seen by the Programme.

☞ The Lyceum Committee is requested to meet at the Chronicle Counting Room, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock precisely. 2t

☞ Kerosene Oil of prime quality, and the best quality Chimnies and Fixtures, may always be had at H. H & F. W. HAM'S, Exchange Buildings, Portsmouth. 19tf

No vocabulary can furnish language sufficiently strong in commendation of that excellent and indispensable article known as the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap. The lady having aught to do in any household department, from the wash tub to the finest needle work, should not fail to supply herself with a year's stock. It only requires a person to use it once to use it their whole life. Most of the grocers sell it. 109

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

ESTABLISHED

FACTS AND REASONS

FOR USING

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S

BLOOD-ROOT ELIXIR!

FIRST. The extraordinary curative effect of the Blood-Root Elixir was discovered by a regularly educated Physician: and the present proprietor also is a graduate from one of the highest Medical Colleges in New England.

SECOND. The Elixir is not alcoholic, contains no minerals, and may be relied upon as being composed of strictly vegetable substances; and no ingredient is intermixed that can unfavorably affect the most delicate constitution.

THIRD. The extensive and successful use of the Blood-Root Elixir, during the past year, proves it to be, without any qualification, the best and most valuable medicine that has ever been prepared for family use.

FOURTH. Medical science and skill have never been able to produce a cathartic medicine of equal power and effect, which contains no many desirable qualities. Its superiority as an aperient consists in its sure and thorough action, operating equally through all parts of the Bowels. It never produces griping pains in its operation; never occasions nausea; its favor is pleasing and agreeable: and it will not be rejected by the most fastidious child. It may be safely used in all cases where laxative medicine is required. It will promote the comfort and health of both sexes, and of all ages: it will assist Nature during all infantile changes; it will, during the anxious hours of a mother's life, hasten and assuage her maternal pangs; it will render joyous and happy the lingering days of the aged and enervated. And when the Elixir is once introduced into any household, it will therein supersede all other laxative medicine.

FIFTH. The long period which the Elixir was used by the original proprietor, in prescriptions to his patients, and the great and unqualified success which has attended its more general use, during the past year, are confirmed by unsolicited testimonials, which in number and extended results exceed any estimate our most sanguine hopes so early had anticipated,—thereby we are furnished by unexceptable evidence, that our estimate of the efficacy and value of the Blood-Root Elixir has not been exaggerated.

SIXTH. In examining certificates received during the past year of its successful results, we are gratified in believing that our medicine has not failed in any case where it has been tried, to cure the most stubborn and chronic cases of COSTIVENESS.

SEVENTH. Most grateful manifestations have also been evinced by patients who have been relieved from LIVER COMPLAINTS of long standing. Also it has been effectual in curing CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN; and in eradicating HUMORS OF THE BLOOD. And many afflicted with deep seated incurable SCROFULA, have been greatly benefitted by a moderate use of the Elixir.

EIGHTH. In cases of COUGHS and COLDS it has proved successful beyond any assurance we have ever expressed; and those who have thoroughly tested its effect, believe it to be superior to all other cough preparations—the Elixir, by its physical properties, equalizes the circulation of the Blood, and removes congestion. It also, when used as a gargle, or swallowed slowly, heals and soothes the irritated and inflamed membranes from which the cough arises.

NINTH. Many persons suffer periodically from JAUNDICE, which is occasioned by a morbid and inactive state of the Liver. The Blood-Root Elixir is a sure relief from the despondent feelings and painful symptoms which are peculiar to that disease.

TENTH. DYSPEPSIA is an aggravating and disheartening disease, often leading to dangerous results. A limited use of the Blood-Root Elixir, according to the directions, will regulate the stomach and bowels with unerring certainty, and restore digestion to a natural and healthy action.

ELEVENTH. RHEUMATISM the Blood-Root Elixir will readily relieve; its warm and quickening effect counteracts the cold and morbid condition of the fluids, which is the primary cause of all Rheumatic affections.

TWELFTH. Persons subject to HEADACHE will be relieved in a few hours by a single dose of the Elixir.

☞ Every person taking the Elixir should carefully read the printed pamphlet which accompanies each bottle.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the Patent Office, or the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, and ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not unexcelled by any other, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below, give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber: and in SUCCESS, AND THE BEST TOOLS, ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and from years, first at the head of the office of the kind and the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay thereby are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me SIXTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent, and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. Dow has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impurity of blood, Inveterate, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, gloomy, &c., are some of the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, a sure and safe preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 Endicott street, Boston, Mass., continues to treat all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has had much and greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Ladies accompanied with or patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success obtained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE ROSE.—The Ghebers believe that when Abraham was thrown into the fire by Nimrod, the flame turned into a bed of roses. The Turks have an idea that it sprung from the sweat of Mahomet, and they cause a rose to be sculptured on the monument of all young women who die unmarried. The mythological writers say that Apollo caused Rhopante, Queen of Corinth, in consequence of her extreme beauty, to be changed into a rose. The rose is said to be given by Hypocrates to the god of silence, to engage him to conceal the unbecoming conduct of his mother Venus—and hence it was made the symbol of silence. A rose was always placed above the guest in a banqueting hall, to banish restraint, and to denote that nothing said there should be repeated elsewhere; and hence originated the saying, sub rosa, when a secret was to be kept.

Rhodes is thought to owe its name to the immense number of roses it produces. At Salreay in France, a curious festival is kept up, called the festival of roses. A young girl is selected from among three of the most noted for female virtues. Her name is announced from the pulpit. She is afterwards conducted to attend the vesper service. She was formerly accustomed to open the ball at night with the signor; now a present is bestowed upon her, and she is called—la rosiere, because she is always adorned with roses.—The perfume of the delicious flower is thus accounted for by the fabulous authors:—"Love, at a feast at Olympus, in the midst of a lively dance, overset by a stroke of his wing a goblet of nectar, which, falling on a rose, embalmed it with its rich fragrance, which it still retains."

COLLEGE EXAMINATIONS IN ENGLAND. Numerous stories are always afloat of wonderful blunders in divinity; some, of course, are invention, and others facts, or founded on facts. Here are a couple of amusing specimens, which we credit with some foundation:

Examiner — "What can you tell me about St. Paul?"

Under-graduate—"He was also called Saul, and was brought up at the foot of Gamaliel."

Examiner—"Yes, quite right. What do you know about Gamaliel?"

Under-graduate—"It is a mountain in Galilee."

For the following we do not attempt in any way to vouch, although we have heard its authenticity strenuously asserted:

Examiner—"Why was John the Baptist beheaded?"

Under-graduate (falteringly)—"Because he would dance with Herodias' daughter."

A REBEL LETTER.—A rebel letter dated "Rocky Hill, March 1," was picked up after one of the late fights at Kinston, which says:

"There seems to be some excitement among the people about the Yankees advancing from Wilmington. It is reported that a small portion of cavalry are a few miles behind our troops and cleaning out the country as they go. It is said that the have taken 2000 prisoners. * * * The South seems to be completely paralyzed. It seems t me our people have completely given up. * * * I see no other chance but subjugation."

COTTON.—The prediction that our war would prove the world to be dependent on the South for cotton, has not proved true, as will be seen from the fact that while Great Britain, in 1861, imported 1,842,000 bales American, and 1,194,000 from other countries; in 1864 her imports were but 197,000 from the United States, against 2,389,000 from other sources. The sources of the supply of 1864 were as follows: India, 1,399,000 bales; China, 400,000; Egypt, 247,000; United States, 197,000; Brazil, 212,000; West Indies, 60,000; Smyrna and Mediterranean, 61,000. Total, 2,586,000 bales. The Eastern cotton is, however, very much inferior to that produced in this country.

— At the Turpentine Works of Lake, Hill & Co., Welchville, Me., tar and spirits of turpentine are manufactured from pine stumps. One cord of pitchwood will make three barrels of tar and about eighteen gallons of spirits, which pays well. Pitch pine stumps are plentiful in the vicinity, and the owners are very glad to have them pulled ☞ J. G. Cooley, of New York, offers us the chance to insert a column of solid matter three months for $16! He must have intended to add another cypher, 0. But notbstanding he presents the extra inducement to pay us in wooden type, we shall not accept his very liberal contract just yet. The suggestion is altogether too Cool-ey made, for an old printer like him.

— The editor of the Boston Traveller has "been shown the 'copy book' of one of the Freedmen attending school at the Warren Street Chapel, who first took a pen in his hand three months ago;" and says "very few of the students of our best teachers of writing have made such progress as this man, who was but recently a slave in Maryland."

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, MARCH 20, 1865.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—The vote is: Gov. Smyth 34,145; Harrington 28,084; scat. 52.

Whole vote cast, (exclusive of Greenland, which would have been about 200,) 62,278. Smyth's majority, 6007.

The vote for President last fall was, Lincoln 34,159; McClellan 31,574.

Vote for Gov. Gilmore in 1864 was 37,085; Harrington 31,340.

Representatives elected: Union 201; Dem. 102. Towns to be heard from gave last year, 6 to 11.

VOTE OF THE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS. — The Governor's vote in the First District is as follows: Smyth, 12,684; Harrington, 10,196; Smyth's majority, 2488. Congressional vote, in all but ten towns, in which we substitute the Governor's vote: Marston, 12,203; Marcy, 10,151: Sawyer, 446. Marston's plurality, 2052. The scattering vote in these ten towns will not be sufficient to reduce the plurality below 2,000.

In the Second District, Mr. Rollins' vote will give him a plurality of over 1,700. In he Third District the Congressional vote runs the same as for Governor, which will give Mr. Patterson a plurality of 1,813.

HARD TIMES IN RICHMOND.—Jeff. Davis sent a special message to Congress last Monday, which is a confession of the desperate condition of rebel affairs generally. He says the capital of the Confederacy is in greater danger now than ever before during the war.

After the failure of the Hampton Roads conference, he says he made efforts to initiate negotiations by a conference between Gens. Grant and Lee. It appears Gen. Ord said there was a prospect of settlement by a military convention and if Lee desired an interview with Gen. Grant it would not be declined.

Lee wrote Gen. Grant on the 2d. inst. Gen. Grant replied that his powers extended only to making a convention on subjects military, and Gen. Ord could only have meant that an interview on such subjects would not be declined. Hence Davis argues that the South can get no acceptable terms and must fight the issue out.

The Rev. M. D. Conway, the pioneer abolitionist of Massachusetts, and editor of the Commonwealth, is now out in favor of the recognition of the Confederacy. He says that as slavery is now out of the way, there is no pretext for continuing the war on the South.—Copperhead Paper.

"Mr. Conway was not the pioneer abolitionist of Massachusetts," and is not the "editor of the Commonwealth." We do not believe he is in favor of recognizing the Confederacy in any favorable way,—and in his letters we have not seen any such saying as the above item attributes to him, tho' he may have said something that looks a little like it. WE recognize the Confederacy as the enemy of the Union,—and would not "war on" the South any more than on the North: but as the slave power, alias Confederacy, "wars on" and against our Union, our forts, our commerce, our liberty and our people, we must fight it till it dies, and then we may have peace. We cannot see how to get it in any other way.

☞ In New York and Boston, on Friday, the fluctuations in the gold market were so rapid and violent that operations were unsafe on either side, while they tempted both "bulls" and "bears" alternately to new experiments.

Gold after a fall to 159 1-4 rose to 169, and subsequently declined to about 163 1-2 at the close.

Stocks were very dull in the latter part of the day, and even Government securities fell considerably, although a sharp rally followed. Almost all goods were a little lower. In New York Stewart was retailing cotton goods at 18 cents per yard.

Rumors that Jeff. Davis had abdicated, and that Sheridan had damaged the South-side Railroad, affected the gold and other markets late in the day.

A BULL FROM GEN. LEE.—In the report of the rebel Gen. Hampton's alleged victory of the 10th, Gen. Lee says that he "attacked Gen. Kilpatrick at daylight this morning, and drove him from the camp, taking his guns, wagons, many horses, &c."; and then he says that "the guns and wagons could not be brought off, for want of horses." The N. Y. Herald says this is the old story of the Arkansas lawyer and the iron pot: "May it please the Court, I submit, in defence of my client, first, that when she borrowed the pot in question it was broken; secondly, that when she returned the pot it was sound; and thirdly, that she never had the pot."—It may be added now, that Gen. Lee lied considerably bout the whole matter.

— A woman who had served for three years as a drummer boy in the army, was detected at Ellenboro', Ill., endeavoring to re-enlist.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Sheridan reports, on the 16th inst., from the bridge of the Richmond and Fredericksburg Railroad, across the South Anna river, that having destroyed the James river Canal as far to the east as Goochland, he marched up to the Virginia Central Railroad at Tolleville, and destroyed it down to Beaver Dam Station, totally destroying 150 miles of the road. Gen. Custar was then sent to Ashland and Gen. Devin to the South Anna bridges, all of which have been destroyed.

Gen. Sheridan says the amount of property destroyed in his march is enormous. The enemy attempted to prevent his burning the Central Railroad bridge over the South Anna, but the 5th U. S. cavalry charged up to the bridge, and about 30 men dashed across on foot, driving off the enemy and capturing three pieces of artillery—20 pounder Parrotts.

118 deserters, mostly North Carolinians, arrived at Washington on Friday from the Army of the Potomac.

Seven of White's guerrillas, who have been depredating on the Virginia side of the Potomac, were captured near Fairfax Court House, and commited to the Old Capitol Prison. The Potomac flotilla is still performing efficient service in preventing contraband trade, and has just sent to Washington two schooners having goods on board not in their manifests.

The temporary victory of Bragg before Kinston, N. C., on the 8th inst., was caused by three deserters who went over to the enemy the night before, and revealed to them the entire position of our lines.

By Telegraph—Sunday noon.

Washington, 18th.—Richmond papers say vigorous efforts are making there for the organization of colored troops.

Mobile dispatches, 4th, state the rebel Gen. Maury has issued a circular advising the citizens to prepare for the expected attack. A transport containing 2000 troops, entered the Bay the 3d, thro' Grant's Pass; 14 vessels were added to the fleet on the 4th, making 21 in sight of the city.

Lynchburg papers Monday furnish details of Gen. Sherman's raid. He destroyed the R. R., for more than 30 miles. Their nearest approach to Lynchburg was 17 miles. A party of 2000 to 3000 appeared at Bent's Creek, supposed to be making for So. side James river. The raiders could not cross the James, as the bridge was burned on their approach. They burned all the mills they could find, all the tobacco and warehouses, and carried off all the negroes, horses, &c.

The Danville, N. C., Register says the rebels have withdrawn from Kinston, and may be preparing to evacuate Goldsboro'. Kinston is now in possession of Union troops, and Goldsboro' seriously threatened. The Register believes the Union force will be met at some point south of Raleigh. The same paper observes that Sherman's and Sheridan's movements have greatly reduced the number of newspapers in that country.

Fayetteville dispatches of the 10th state that that day added that place to the list of cities which have fallen into Union hands. Hardee, said to have 20,000 men, withdrew across the river on the 9th, and is reported to be en route to Raleigh. The rebels skirmished in the town, and fired artillery upon houses occupied by women and children; they burned the bridge at Fayetteville, and removed all the public stores by R. R. which they could.

Gen. Sherman is at Fayetteville, and well. Many of his men are wanting shoes, clothing, &c., but the army was never in better condition. Signed O. O. Howard, Maj. Gen.

Gold at N. Y. Evening Exchange closed at 168 3-4.

— Refugees from upper Georgia report the Union feeling increasing very rapidly there. Many large slave owners are not only willing but prepared to yield their slaves and return back into the Union.

— 400 rebel deserters had come into the Federal lines at Charleston up to Feb. 26.

MINISTER TO FRANCE.—A Washington item of Friday says the names of at least a dozen prominent gentlemen were mentioned in connection with the French mission, but the appointment of our present Charge D'Affaires, John Bigelow, relieved all anxiety upon that subject.

GOLD, Saturday, 164 1-2 to 163 1 2.—Markets dull: less panic among gold holders, but less demand for gold than on Friday. The steamer Africa, from Liverpool, which reached Boston Saturday morning, brought $13,285 in specie. The steamer City of Baltimore, which left New York Saturday for Liverpool, took out $240,000.

— On Friday evening, March 17th, A. & W. Sprague's Artic mill in Warwick, 12 miles from Providence, Rhode Island, was destroyed by fire. It was the largest single mill in the State. Loss between $200,000 and $300,000.

— Jeff. Davis' veto to the Exemption Bill passed by the rebel Congress, can be compared to nothing but "the last kick of a dying jackass."

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Coos Republican gives the following account of a patriotic family in Randolph, Coos county: "The father, Clovis Low, esq., served 18 months, with his son Prof. Low, the well-known aeronaut, who held the grade of Colonel; another son occupies the same rank in the Q. M. Department of the western armies; another rose to a Lieutenancy from the ranks of the Fighting Fifth; and three remaining sons are in the service. The entire family, father and six sons engaged at once and in the same cause. Can any other family show a more honorable record?

—— Charles A. Warren of Wolf'boro', a member of Co. K, 12th N. H. Vols., who with 35 others was captured by the rebels on the 17th of November last, while on picket duty on the defences of Bermuda Hundred, and was sent to Libby Prison, at Richmond, Va., returned home on Tuesday last, on parole.

A "MILL."—We learn that two young men in Exeter, having had some altercation, last week agreed to settle it by a fight to decide which was "the best man." They met with their seconds, bottle holders, and a select party of spectators, in a barn, and went into the fight in accordance with the prescribed rules of the "ring." Four rounds were fought, during which both the combatants were pretty severely punished, and at the close of the fourth round, the one who seemed the victor fainted, and failed to "come to time" at call, when his opponent was declared the victorious champion. The affair was a disgraceful one to all concerned in it, as the combatants no doubt have since realized.—Ballot.

PROFITABLE HUNTING.—The Monitor states that Mr. Geo. W. Foot and son of this city, in five weeks' time have caught 75 mink (American sable) and a number of other fur-bearing animals. The mink were sold to Major Cyrus Hill, of this city, for $342, and the other skins for $31.50, making $273.50. This is hard to beat, and Mr. Foot may well be regarded as a great hunter.—Concord Patriot.

Thomas Hoyt of Candia caught sixteen last fall, and we have heard of many others who caught from twelve to forty, but we have heard of no one that got his foot so deep into mink hunting, last fall, as Foot and son. Where is Daniel Willard of Raymond? In former times he was hard to beat in the mink line.—Union.

SOBRIETY AND DESPATCH.—We learn, (says the Concord Statesman) that sobriety and good order prevailed to a much greater degree than usual on Tuesday, and that even in some towns, with two, three or four Representatives, business was concluded, and in apple-pie order, before sundown, and in some cases by 3 to 4 o'clock, where it often is extended into the night, and frequently into the following day. Less rum was drunk than in any year of the last twenty.

We are sure that very little drunkenness was seen in our streets on election day; and many people spoke of the remarkable stillness of the day and evening. Uncle Toby replied to these sayings, that if the very heavy vote had given the majority to the other side, we should have had a great noise.

☞ The Ballot's correspondent says: The Democracy of Ward 3, Portsmouth, have recently achieved a bloodless triumph in the carrying of School District No. 3. It is stated that the warrant for the meeting was posted on the door of the School House, and on the shop of Richard Waldon on Water Street. The friends of the Union were not permitted to see the notice, for if placed on the school-house it must have been instantly removed, and the meeting was held without the knowledge of a single Union man in the district. The result was what was desired; a knot of fellows met in the afternoon and elected somebody, whom it is not known, as Committee men. The meetings have usually been held in this district in the evening, and some time after the March election for State officers, and this unusual time was fixed upon to cheat the majority of the district out of the election. The people of the district are of course indignant at this outrage, and as far as can be judged the end is not yet.

DEATHS.

In Newcastle, March 12th, Mr. GEORGE BELL, aged 52 years 6 months.

MARRIAGES.

In Lawrence, Mr. BEN. C. COOK of Newburyport, to Miss VIENNA HERSEY of Sterling, Mass.

— The Portland Transcript says; Gen. Sherman's boys have reached the land of tar pitch and turpentine, but they will not be likely to stick there, though they will be sure to pitch in whenever they see a rebel.

—Thomas Leonard, Jr., who was pardoned from prison in Worcester to enlist, last September, and has since improved his opportunity by re-enlisting in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, and Illinois, was arrested in Worcester on Tuesday; escaped and was re-arrested and sent to Boston.

— In the Superior Court for Bristol County, Mass., John E. May sued Nathan S. Davis for damages to the amount of $1000, for the seduction of his (May's) wife, and the jury gave him $25.

Local.

☞ Look out for the Concert to-night, by Bishop & Lovett's Minstrel and Opera Troupe. It is a long time since we had such an entertainment here; and we doubt not but this is a good Troupe, and will have a big house.

"INK has been called the black slave who waits upon thought."—So says an excerpt from somebody; but it can't mean that printer's ink which the Stars and Bars man "borrowed" from us long ago, as before mentioned,—for that was merely spread over "words, words, words!" the veriest sound and fury, signifying nothing.

And by the way, we recommend a partnership between Jonathan of the Stars and Bars, and our old promising friend Ed Parks of South Berwick—for, as Master Tim Sentor used to say of two coppery school boys, "one can lie and t'other swear to it."

☞ The work on the Portsmouth Navy Yard is divided into 37 different classes, in the following order:—22 writing clerks, 2 draughtsmen, 1 receiver of provisions and clothing, 2 receivers of naval stores, 1 examiner of bills, 170 borers, 30 boat-builders, 696 ship carpenters, 23 yard carpenters, 5 coopers, 34 gun-carriage makers, 191 joiners, 40 sawyers, 16 spar-makers, 55 boiler-makers, 48 iron-platers; 225 machinists, armorers, brass founders, plumbers, coppersmiths, and pattern-makers, (all of which are included under the head of Machinist's Dept.;) 139 smiths and helpers; 72 calkers and reamers, 103 gunner's riggers, 343 laborers, 108 masons and helpers, 1 messenger, 25 painters, 42 boatswain's riggers, 50 master's riggers, 47 sailmakers, 32 teamsters, 54 watchmen; 41 helpers for yard purposes, in civil engineer's department; 4 timber markers; 2 on ordnance tug boat; 6 helpers at the naval store. Besides the above, there are 11 civil officers, which include all salaried civilians, from the naval constructor to the porter for the Yard.

☞ The press speaks in high terms of the new Artistes who announce a concert here for Wednesday evening. The Boston Transcript says "Mr. Webli's execution on the piano was in many respects superb, evincing an almost perfect mastery of the instrument, and his whole bearing was that of a modest yet enthusiastic devotee of his art. His left-hand performance is probably unrivalled, and elicited great applause. Mdlle De Katow, the Russian violoncellist, made a very favorable impression, both artistically and personally, handling her instrument with exquisite grace, and rendering the music with great precision and delicacy."

THE POETS OF PORTSMOUTH.—A Portsmouth boy in San Francisco, to whom we sent a copy of this beautiful book, writes us that he is delighted with it—though he expected more local poems.

Mr. Charles Akerman, of Providence, also one of our "Sons" abroad, writes to the compilers that he is "very much pleased" with the Book; and he adds:

"My business leads me to some acquaintance with books, and it surprises me to learn how you could get this one up in so creditable a style for the money that you ask for it. Indeed, I think that every Portsmouth boy and girl owe you a vote of thanks for the very successful manner in which you have finished your task. It is a beautiful book. I do hope that you will reap some pecuniary benefit for your labor."

Every Portsmouth "boy" and "girl," whether at home or abroad, who cares for the reputation of the old city, ought to have a copy of this the most beautiful home volume ever issued for us.

☞ It would seem that the Chronicle is appreciated, both at home and abroad, as an excellent advertising medium—wouldn't it, when we are constantly obliged to leave out from four to six columns each day, at this season of the year, of advertisements in type.

☞ A lady subscriber, whose paper was missed on Friday, says she don't see how folks got along without taking the Chronicle. Easy enough, we tell her—they read their neighbors'.

☞ The Boston Journal says that "Among those arraigned by the Suffolk Grand Jury, was the notorious iddividual generally known as 'Long John Abbott,' on two indictments, each charging him with having in his possession a forged order for the payment of money. He plead 'not guilty' to each indictment, and in default of bail was sent to jail to await trial." This Long John was formerly employed on the Stars and Bars newspaper in this city; and loyal people think the whole "glorious company" responsibly engaged thereon, ought to be indicted on more serious charges than small forgeries—though no doubt they too would plead not guilty. And John was the fellow, too, who was to edit the "conservative" Evening Daily here! Wonder when the first number will appear?

CONVICTED OF FORGERY.—The somewhat notorious person, known as "Long John Abbott," was convicted in the Superior Criminal Court, Boston, Thursday afternoon, of forging an order for the payment of ten dollars. He also pleaded guilty to another indictment for forging an order for $500, but a law question will be argued before the case is decided.—Transcript.

☞ There are quite a number of cases of small pox in this city, and proper precaution should be taken to prevent its spread. Physicians, and families who are unfortunate enough to be visited by this disease, are often too careless in regard to it.

☞ "The Household Physician," Dr. Ira Warren's (of Boston) great work, treats of small pox, as well as other diseases to which flesh is heir—and tells how to detect and cure the dread infliction—in fact takes away half its terrors. The Book is an exceedingly useful one, especially for families. For sale only by agents. Mr. C. Dwight Hanscom is sole agent for Portsmouth.

☞ More spool cotton has been found by the police. On Saturday while searching a house in Daniel Street for some articles stolen—a day or two since, a number of spools were discovered.

QUERY.—How does the editor of the Stars and Bars resemble a penny at the bottom of a well? His head is cast of the same metal, and he lies still.

— A deserter from the 105th Pennsylvania Volunteers has surrendered himself to Provost Marshal, at Washington. This is the first case of the kind in that city since the President's proclamation of pardon was issued.

The Best Ink in the World!

A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.

A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!

INK POWDERS

TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.

THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.

Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.

FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.

An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.

It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.

A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.

The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:

1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.

2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.

3d—Its exchange baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.

4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.

5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.

Testimonials.

MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.

To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.

American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made Ink, for legal years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Allepo Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This Ink is my husband's. It makes frozen up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.

Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.

To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without. I remain yours,

GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.

Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The best writing fluid I ever wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find it is not affected at all.

I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had a quantity of it. it would find a ready sale in behalf of the company, if the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servt,

GEO. W. PARKER.

Deering, March 1, 1865.

To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,

ALBON M. COREY.

Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.

Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.

Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Mayard & Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.

Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

DR. URANN,

PRACTICAL PHYSICIAN

Who has made so many wonderful and instantaneous cures in Boston, New York, Hartford, Springfield, and more recently in New Hampshire and Vermont, has taken

ROOMS FOR THE PRESENT AT THE

FRANKLIN HOUSE

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

DR. URANN'S treatment is such that by it

All Curable Diseases

are affected in one or two treatments, and many are entirely cured by one, as the following will testify:—

W. P. HOMER, 50 and 52 Federal Street, Boston for many years was troubled with Heart complaint, so bad that at times he was unable to attend to his business; after one treatment he was able to run up stairs, work in his garden and attend to his business; has since gained 12 pounds

Mrs. ELLEN COREY, of Cambridgeport, Mass.—Sciatica; so lame that she could not walk without assistance; after one treatment of fifteen minutes was well as ever, and could walk a mile free from pain.

Mrs. SARAH P. STILES, Lowell, Mass., had Fever Sores on both legs of twelve years standing; her right ankle measured eighteen inches, and was as blue as indigo; she could not move her foot; after one treatment it was reduced one-half, she could move her foot freely and is getting well rapidly, her left ankle all healed.

Prof. G. M. LARRON, 1 Dix Place, Boston, troubled with Spinal difficulty, was in much pain; relieved by one treatment.

Miss HANNAH COOL, Campton, N. H.—Spinal difficulties; was unable to walk but a short distance or do any kind of work; perfectly cured, and is now the picture of health.

Miss C. FROTHINGHAM, Boston, Portrait Painter, was troubled with great depression of spirits, at times was unable to attend to her favorite employment; was entirely cured, and she expresses herself, in "made ovhr anew."

Mrs. J. BROWN, Boston, a severe cough and pains through her lungs, cured.

Capt. W. H. LAMPSON'S CHILD, Lowell, Mass. The child was pronounced by physicians as hopelessly idiotic. The child could neither walk or sit alone, and took no notice of anything. After one treatment he began to improve, and has so far gained to be able to walk alone, can talk, takes notice of everything, laughs and sings, and appears perfectly well.

Mrs. HINCKLEY, wife of A. T. Hinckley, of State Arsenal, Hartford, Ct., troubled with hip complaint and contraction of the cords of the legs; could not get her heel to the floor within four inches; had to be brought down stairs in arms; after one treatment of twenty minutes was able to run up and down stairs with ease, and is now able to walk the streets.

Mr. J. TURNER, Hartford, Ct, troubled for many years with loss of memory; could not attend to business; had been under the best medical treatment in England with no beneficial effect; after one treatment was perfectly restored.

Miss MARTHA ST. JOHN, Simsbury, Ct., was confined to her bed from spinal difficulty and prolapsus uteri; had not been dressed for more than a year; in twenty minutes she was enabled to dress and walk out to one of the neighbors, a distance of about a half mile; she has since been to Hartford and to church, and is improving daily.

Mrs. HENRY LOOMIS, Southwick, Mass., troubled with fits and spinal difficulties, could not walk without much difficulty, perfectly cured by one treatment.

Mrs. WM. JENKINS, Unionville, Conn., troubled for over two years with chronic liver complaint and rheumatism, had a large lump on her side which was very painful; was unable to lie down. Cured by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

JOSEPH H. ELDRIDGE, formerly of the Hartford Police, more recently on Hartford and New Haven Railroad, was obliged to give up his business on account of a severe cough and bleeding, perfectly cured and can now do a good day's work.

LYDIA L. FULLER, of East Wallingford, Vt., had entirely lost the use of her limbs after a severe attack of diptheria, was restored by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

FANNY DAVIS, of Moretown, Vt., had been confined to her bed for more than five years—was not able to stand—after one treatment of less than an hour, was enabled to walk around the room, and is now quite well.

Miss HUTCHINSON, daughter of Judge Hutchinson of West Randolph, Vt., was troubled with fits, having some days from fifty to one hundred. She was unable to eat anything but liquids—was not able to stand. After one treatment she began to improve, until now, she is the picture of health, able to walk as well as any one, eats hearty and has no fits.

SOUTHWICK, Mass., July 21, 1862.

DR. URANN,—Dear Sir:—I suppose it is ever a pleasure to you to learn the convalescent state of your patients; notwithstanding my long three years of almost absolute confinement to my bed, unaple most of the time to converse with or see any company, and for over two years unable to feed myself—yet with this painful picture of human wretchedness which made life almost a burden, since your treatment of my spine, on the 7th day of June, I have been able to take my meals at the table, with my family, ride out daily, and converse freely with all; and without some new misfortune befalls me, I shall soon be able to interest myself in the labors of my profession, at least to preach one sermon a Sabbath. Without flattery, in my honest judgment, there is no better treatment in the hands of men for the Spinal Disease than the one which you honor, and as my heart beats with sympathy with all Spinal sufferers, I only wish they knew the wonderful utility of your treatment, and avail themselves of the same. Yours with respect and gratitude,

M. H. RISING.

DR. URANN'S TERMS

Are such that all can avail themselves of his treatment.

☞ Persons at a distance who are unable to visit the Doctor, by sending particulars of their cases, with one dollar enclosed, will receive advice and learn whether their cases can be treated at a distance. In all cases, state age and sex.

— Before Vice-President Johnson left his home for Washington, the colored people of Nashville waited upon him at his home, and in behalf of themselves and friends, presented him with a fine gold watch worth $350, for "his untiring energy in the cause of freedom."

REBEL STATE SOVEREIGNTY.—The Richmond Enquirer asks the Confederates: "Has not State Sovereignty been the weakness of our cause? Yes; and you might have known it would be, before you ventured to hold yourselves up with a rope of sand.

— At Fairmount, West Virginia, lately, Mr. John Pyles, aged seventy-two years, was married to Mrs. Sarah C. Carico, aged fifty. The bride was dressed in a plain linsey frock, without hoops, cut in the most economical style and abbreviated about a foot from the ground.

— Boston has had but two street commissioners for the past thirty years and more. The present incumbent has served about ten years, and his immediate predecessor served twenty-three years.

MORMONS IN ILLINOIS.—An Illinois paper says that young Joe Smith is gathering a Mormon settlement at Nauvoo, the place in Illinois from which the sect was expelled with violence and blood shed before they located themselves in Utah.

— A laboring man in Hawleyville, Conn., jumped from a loaded sled, slipped, and the whole load passed over his body. It was supposed he was killed—but it was found he had on five thick shirts, and will probably recover.

"Digby, will you take some of this butter?" "Thank you marm, I belong to the temperance society, and I can't take anything strong."

— The learned Professor Person had a great horror for the east wind; and Tom Sheridan is said to have once kept him a prisoner in the house for a fortnight by fixing the weather-cock in that direction.

FACTS AND REASONS

FOR USING

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S

BLOOD-ROOT ELIXIR!

FIRST. The extraordinary curative effect of the Blood-Root Elixir was discovered by a regularly educated Physician; and the present proprietor also is a graduate from one of the highest Medical Colleges in New England.

SECOND. The Elixir is not alcoholic, contains no minerals, and may be relied upon as being composed of strictly vegetable substances; and no ingredient is intermixed that can unfavorably affect the most delicate constitution.

THIRD. The extensive and successful use of the Blood-Root Elixir, during the past year, proves it to be, without any qualification, the best and most valuable medicine that has ever been prepared for family use.

FOURTH. Medical science and skill have never been able to produce a cathartic medicine of equal value and effect, which contains so many desirable qualities. Its superiority as a aperient consists in its cure and thorough action, operating equally through all parts of the Bowels. It never produces griping pains in its operation; never occasions nausea; its flavor is pleasing and agreeable; and it will not be rejected by the most fastidious child. It may be safely used in all cases where laxative medicine is required. It will promote the comfort and health of both sexes, and all ages: it will assist Nature during all infantile changes; and, during the anxious hours of a mother's life, hasten and assuage her maternal pangs; it will render joyous and happy the lingering days of the aged and venerable. And when the Elixir is once introduced into any household, it will thereafter supersede all other laxative medicine.

FIFTH. The long period which the Elixir was used by the original proprietor, in prescriptions to his patients, and the great and unqualified success which has attended its more general use, during the past year, are confirmed by unsolicited testimonials, which in number and extended results exceed any estimate our most sanguine hopes, early had anticipated,—therefore we are forcibly unreflective of the fact that our estimate of the efficacy and value of the Blood-Root Elixir has not been exaggerated.

SIXTH. In examining certificates received during the past year of its successful results, we are gratified in believing that our medicine has not failed in any case where it has been tried, to cure the most stubborn and chronic cases of COSTIVENESS.

SEVENTH. Most grateful manifestations have also been evinced by patients who have been relieved from LIVER COMPLAINTS of long standing. Also it has been effectual in curing CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN; and in eradicating HUMORS OF THE BLOOD. And many afflicted with deep seated incurable SCROFULA, have been greatly benefitted by a moderate use of the Elixir.

EIGHTH. In cases of COUGHS and COLDS it has proved successful beyond any assurance we have ever expressed; and those who have thoroughly tested its effect, believe it to be superior to all other cough preparations,—the Elixir, by its physical properties, equalizes the circulation of the Blood, and removes congestion. It also, when used as a gargle, or swallowed slowly, heals and soothes the irritated and inflamed membranes, from which the cough arises.

NINTH. Many persons suffer periodically from JAUNDICE, which is occasioned by a morbid and inactive state of the LIVER. The Blood-Root Elixir is a sure relief from the depressing feelings and painful symptoms which are peculiar to that disease.

TENTH. DYSPEPSIA is an aggravating and disheartening disease, often leading to dangerous results. A limited use of the Elixir, according to the directions, will regulate the stomach and bowels with unerring certainty, and restore digestion to a natural and healthy action.

ELEVENTH. RHEUMATISM the Blood-Root Elixir will readily relieve; its warm and quickening effect counteracts the cold and morbid condition of the fluids, which is the primary cause of all Rheumatic affections.

TWELFTH. Persons subject to HEADACHE will be relieved in a few hours by a single dose of the Elixir.

☞ Every person taking the Elixir should carefully read the printed pamphlet which accompanies each bottle.

EXE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, and Sarsaparilla, Syrup, &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since; I have been agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1852.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of those complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT:—Feeling it to be my duty to do my duty and to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previously your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I accompany my medicine one of the best that can be found for the diseases above named. ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines that shall fail to do what it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. may26

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, 8 years (1857,)

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed well, promptly, and on the most reasonable terms, with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials herein given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT PATENTS, or EQUALLY SUCCESSFUL, than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

Inventors, besides his acquaintance library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and trustworthy practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unusually severe and searching rejections of claims on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

"All work and no play Makes Jack a dull boy."

UNBENDING THE BOW.—One of our great American social faults is that we do not amuse ourselves enough—at least in a cheerful, innocent manner. We are never jolly. We are terribly troubled about our dignity. All other nations, the French, the German, the Italian, and even the dull English, have their relaxation, their merry-making; but we—why, a political or prayer meeting is about the most hilarious affair in which we ever indulge.

The French peasant has his ducas almost every week, when in some rustic orchard, lighted with variegated lamps, ornamented with showey booths, he dances the merry hours away with Pauline or Josephine, or sips his glass of wine with the chosen of his heart in a canvas cabaret, whilst a band of music and the voices of a hundred merry laughers regale his ears. He has, too, numberless fetes, which he celebrates with masquerades and other undignified kinds of jollification. At these entertainments all are welcome, high and low, and all conduct themselves with a politeness worthy of our best society—only more.

The Germans have endless kinds of festivals, and gift periods, when they have the meanness to present each other with little presents "that aint worth more than two or three cents"; but they are tokens of love and kindness, which makes them all feel better and happier. Then our grumpy friend John Bull has his free-and easys, and his cosy tavern-parlor meetings, and song singings, and his dinner-parties, and his tea-fights, where, be he rich or poor, you will get a good cup of tea, and tender muffins, and buttered toasts, and cake, and shrimps, and fresh radishes, and Scotch marmalade, or what not. At all events, a delightful repast and a cosy chat, followed perhaps by a rubber of whist and a glass of wine of whisky-punch, or mug of ale, according to the condition of the entertainer; then there is a general "unbending of the bow," and no one is troubled about his dignity.

We have seen, ourselves, in England, in a stately old castle, a party of lords and ladies, knights and dames of high degree, and of mature years, romping and frolicking together, like a lot of school-boys, playing "Hunt the Slipper," "Puss in the Corner," and "Blindman's Buff," without the remotest idea that they had such a thing as dignity to take care of; and no one seemed to have the slightest fear that any one of the party could by any possibility do anything that would offend or mortify any one else.

The fact is, a gentleman or gentlewoman can do anything; all depends on the way of doing it. If you are a snob, for heaven's sake don't be playful; keep a stiff upper lip and look grave; it is your only safety.—Northern Magazine.

TUESDAY, MARCH 21, 1865.

FISHWAYS ON THE MERRIMACK.—Judge Bellows appeared before the Massachusetts Legislature Thursday, in behalf of New Hampshire, making some general statements upon the decrease of salmon and shad in the rivers which pass through Massachusetts on their way from New Hampshire to the ocean, in consequence of the erection of dams for factory purposes. The policy of Massachusetts has been to keep open, always and under all circumstances, the passage of fish, and yet through inadvertence, as he believed, in the case of the Essex dam, that policy had been deviated from.

Professor Agassiz, who was present, said that the decrease had been caused by the mingling of acids and dyestuffs in the waters, but chiefly by saw-mills. He thought that the difficulty might be remedied and fish-ways constructed at a small cost. The Professor was of the opinion that the disturbance of the water did not cause the decrease of fish, as there were rivers where there were plenty of steamers, and fish were as numerous as ever.

☞ In a speech at Washington on Saturday, President Lincoln said—speaking of the rebel plan of arming the negroes:

I have in my lifetime heard many arguments why the negroes ought to be slaves, but if they fight for those who would keep them in slavery, it will be a better argument than any I have yet heard. [Laughter and Applause.] He who will fight for that ought to be a slave. [Applause.] They have concluded at last to take one out of four of the slaves and put them in the army; and that one out of the four, who will fight to keep the others in slavery ought to be a slave himself, unless he is killed in a fight. [Applause.]

While I often said that all men ought to be free, yet would I allow these colored persons to be slaves who want to be, and next, to them those white people, who argue in favor of making other people slaves. [Applause.] I am in favor of giving an appointment to such white men to try it for themselves. [Applause.]

I will say one thing in regard to the negroes being employed to fight for them. I do know he cannot fight and stay at home and make bread too, [Laughter and applause] and as one is about as important as the other to them, I don't care which they do. [Renewed applause.] I am rather in favor of having them try the slaves as soldiers. [Applause.] They lack one vote of doing that, and I wish I might send my vote over the river, so that I might cast it in favor of allowing the negro to fight, [applause.] but they cannot fight and work both.

We must now see the bottom of the enemy's resources. They will stand out as long as they can, and if the negro will fight for them, they must allow him to fight. They have drawn upon their last branch of resources, [applause.] and we can now see the bottom. [Applause.] I am glad to see the end so near at hand. [Applause.]

"IN GOD WE TRUST." It will be seen by our Washington special dispatches that in future all our coins are to bear the words "In God we Trust." It is a proper recognition of the Great Creator who has so wonderfully shaped the destinies of this nation, and preserved it from dangers which human foresight and human strength could not have averted.

THE MARKETS.—The Burlington Free Press says that butter sold at St. Albans, Vt., on Tuesday last, at 30 cents per pound by the tub. The same paper says: "We suspect that some dairy-men in our region who have held their fall stock of butter, in the belief that it would fetch 75 cents a pound before spring, will get a lesson which they will not soon forget."

— Henry S. Foote's address, published in London, sustains the Federal view of the origin of the war, and bitterly assails the secessionists. He says that even if the Confederates should succeed, the citizens of the South would find themselves "an enslaved and wretched people," and that the achievement of what is called their "independence" would be the most deplorable calamity which could befall them. This is turning "State's evidence" against "State Rights" with a vengeance.

— During the retreat of the rebels after one of their repulses before Kinston, a singular accident occurred. A white flag was displayed by some of their troops, and our men, readily guessing the meaning of the signal, called out to the rebels to "come in." The invitation met with a speedy response, and one hundred and forty of the disgusted cavalry came into our lines, and surrendered themselves as deserters.

— At a family gathering in Danbury, Mass., not long since, a great great-grandmother, Mrs. Irene Taylor, held in her lap a child, a grand-child, a great-grand-child, and a great-great-grand-child, in all, five generations!

— The Tribune has assurances from a high quarter that Secretary McCulloch will give no more gold-bearing interest bonds, and no addition will be made to the volume of currency.

THE REBELLION.

A New York dispatch of Sunday says Sheridan is lost sight of again. Last Wednesday he was at the crossing of the South Anna river by the Richmond and Fredericksburg Railroad, and expected to turn up at White House for supplies; but the Herald's City Point correspondent says a dispatch from that point on Friday states that he had not made his appearance. Scouts were sent out, and the people in the vicinity said he had had an engagement with Pickett's rebel division, in which the rebels were worsted. The report is confirmed by deserters, and exchanged prisoners say that Pickett's division was hurried out of Richmond last Sunday to meet Sheridan. Though not touching White House at the time expected, no fears are entertained for his safety.

A later account says part of his force has arrived at White House.

From Grant's army it is reported that all day Wednesday and Thursday the rebels were in active motion in front of the ninth corps; the camps were struck within their lines, and large bodies of troops could be seen moving to and fro. They kept up an unusually bold front—some supposed to hide an evacuation of Petersburg.

On Thursday a storm of wind and snow prevailed at the front; tents were blown away and trees uprooted. A number of men of the 37th Wisconsin were killed by the falling trees.

A heavy explosion took place on Thursday, which shook the boats in the James river. It appeared to be in the direction of Petersburg, and it was reported at City Point that it was occasioned by an attempt of the rebels to blow up Fort Hell, which had beep previously evacuated by our men, knowing that the rebels had previously undermined it.

The Augusta, Ga., papers say that A. H. Stephens has been in Georgia for ten days or more; that he has not yet been heard from, and that they hope this silence will not continue.

Mobile is in danger from U. S. forces. The rebel Gen. Maury has issued a circular advising the people to prepare for the expected attack. He urges the non-combatants to leave.

The N. Y. Tribune's Washington dispatch of Sunday night, says information from Gen. Sheridan to-night states that he is on the war path and will soon be heard from, again inflicting much punishment on the rebels.

The Tribune's army of the Potomac correspondence of the 16th, says all goes to show that we will have a short but severe campaign in a few days. A series of contests will have begun between the two armies that will cause a profound excitement all through the North.

Secretary Stanton telegraphs from the front that Gen. Grant knows just what Lee is about.

Mobile correspondence of the 9th says refugees from Mobile report the departure of troops from South Carolina, but there still remained about 15,000, mostly citizens, boys, and old men. An attack by the national forces was expected, and the women and children were being sent away. There was great suffering among the poor. Corn meal was selling at $15 per bushel, and other provisions in proportion. 20,000 bales of cotton were piled in the Railroad Depot to be fired when convinced that they cannot hold the city. The citizens believed Maury would attempt to burn the city if compelled to evacuate.

The great vandalage of our army at Columbia, so bitterly denounced by the rebels, and which has been used so extensively to fire the Southern heart, is related by the Tribune's correspondent in this wise:

When the advance of our army entered Columbia they found Hampton had piled immense quantities of cotton in the main street. The bales were opened and the cotton scattered all over the street by a high wind. The roofs of the houses were covered, and where the windows were open the rooms also. The great piles were set on fire by the rebels; and though put out in some places by our soldiers, the fire spread over the place, making great havoc.

It is reported that the rebels in front of the Army of the Potomac have concentrated their forces in the vicinity of Dinwiddie Court House, and taken additional precautions to strengthen their hold on the South Side railroad. Their movements are closely watched, and we are in readiness for a movement at any hour.

By way of Cairo, Ill., March 18, New Orleans dates of the 12th are received. A report had reached Vicksburg that a Texan regiment had recently demolished the prison pen at Jackson, telling the prisoners to go home, as they intended to go to Texas, being tired of the war. Guerrillas are roving through the country about the Big Black, and declare they will kill, indiscriminately, all Yankees who attempt to work plantations, and all southern men who remain at home.

It is reported that the rebel privateer Tallahassee, now called the Camilla, arrived at St. George, Bermuda, March 10.

— Gold in New York, Monday, 167 to 164 3-8.

SHERMAN'S GRAND MARCH.—The N. Y. Herald's correspondence from Sherman's army gives full details of its remarkable march. Wade Hampton's reported victory occurred thus: It was discovered on the morning of the 9th inst. that Hardee was making forced marches to reach Fayetteville before Sherman. Gen. Kilpatrick at once put his cavalry in motion to strik Hardee in flank, or intercept Wade Hampton, who was following in the rear with his cavalry. Gen. Kilpatrick reached Coleman's Grove just after Hardee's rear passed. Hampton was a few hours behind. Our cavalry, owing to the bad roads, had not all come up. Col. Spencer's Brigade and Col. Way's command were at once put in position to receive the attack of the rebel cavalry.

Just before day break of the 10th, and before the Brigade of Atkins and Jordan arrived, Hampton came in front of Kilpatrick's position, massed his troops, three divisions, and attacked in three columns. The attack was perfectly irresistible, and our first line standing their ground, was literally run over. Headquarters and artillery were captured. Gen. Kilpatrick managed to get away and joined Spencer's Brigade, which was falling back on foot, disputing every inch of ground. The rebels stopped a moment in camp to plunder.

This moment was fatal for the enemy, for our cavalry rallied under their leader, retook the hills upon the left, and then with one wild shout swept down upon the rebels, who were swarming about the captured artillery and Gen. Kilpatrick's former headquarters. In a moment we had the artillery again and turned it upon the flying enemy. The General's red battle flag was displayed and he announced to the men that the day was theirs. When with another deafening shout they dashed upon the rebels, driving them from every quarter.

Our loss did not exceed 100, while the enemy left on the field a large number of officers and 76 soldiers dead, besides many wounded. Thus less than two brigades of our cavalry held in check and finally drove in confusion Wade Hampton's entire cavalry corps, commanded by Hampton, Wheeler, Hume, Allen and Butler. A brief summary of what was accomplished shows that there were 14 cities, 100 miles of railroad, and thousands of bales of cotton burned, 85 cannon, 4000 prisoners, and 25,000 animals captured, and over 15,000 white and black refugees set free.

It was Capt. Ainsworth's tug Davidson that opened communication with Sherman. It was a brave act. The boat was constantly fired on by the rebels. Gen. Sherman complimented him highly and brevetted him commodore.

SHERMAN'S STRATEGY.—A correspondent states that when Sherman was at Cheraw, S. C., he was threatened by Joe Johnston on his left flank, and by Hardee upon his right, but adroitly evading a simultaneous attack by these Generals, which is the only kind of attack they can hope to make with success, he passed between them, leaving them discomfitted by his strategy, in his rear.

JOLLY PRISONERS.—When the rebels left Columbia, on Uncle Sam's presenting his Bill at that place, the Union prisoners were sent forward, and the correspondent of the Richmond Whig says of them: "Ten or twelve carloads of Yankee prisoners just ahead, likewise at a dead halt; the guards around their camp fires, and the individuals of a cerulean aspect singing with tremendous energy Union songs." The brave fellows began to think, no doubt, that their time had come "to booray."

THE HEROES OF WAGNER.—A Captain of a New York Regiment, just released from the rebel prisons, throws some light upon the fate of the soldiers of the 54th Mass., killed and captured in the assault on Fort Wagner. He says:

Sept. 13, the prisoners were sent from Savannah to Charleston with great haste. They were kept 13 hours in cattle cars. An order was issued to allow no one to leave the cars upon any pretext whatever. Those afflicted with the diarrhea and other complaints suffered dreadfully. They were imprisoned among murderers, thieves, deserters from the Union army, blockade-runners and vagabonds of every description. There were 20 negro soldiers, most of them belonging to Col. Shaw's 54th Massachusetts regiment, of immortal memory, among the number. They were never to be exchanged, but were to be reduced to slavery. These were all that were left of the colored troops captured at Wagner. The rest were bayoneted and shot after they surrendered. Their rations were bread and water; still they would sing Union songs, pouring their melody through their prision bars, for the entertainment of the Union officers in the prison and below.

HAY.—The extravagant run of prices for hay has come to a stand. Government bought any quantity in Maine last month for $27 per ton pressed the old way, delivered on shipboard, $32 per ton compressed the new method. Our informant, who bought for government, says the orders are to pay a good deal less this month, that hay is abundant and an immense quantity of it in the hands of speculators.—Ex.

— "Aretmas Ward defines the war as hard tack for the soldiers, and hard taxes for the citizens.

☞ To prevent stringency in the money market arising from the withdrawal of the large sums of money realized by subscriptions to the seven-thirty loan through the National banks and other agencies, and the locking up of the same in sub-treasuries, an order has been issued by the War Department, at the instance of the Treasury Department, rescinding the order of last year which prohibited disbursing officers from depositing without drawing direct upon National banks in the cities of Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore. By this means violent contractions and fluctuations in the money market, so far as Government operations are concerned, will be avoided.

—The gale of wind on Thursday last did great damage through all the central section of the country, especially in the interior of Pennsylvania. The rivers were raised by freshets sweeping the banks and washing the railroads; and the oil country was submerged.

— In New York State the freshet has done much injury. In Pennsylvania the damage to railroads is less than was supposed.

—— The freshet has done considerable damage to bridges, roads, &c., in Concord and vicinity.

A TRUE AIM.—It has not been the aim of the proprietor of Hunnewell's great preparations, advertised on our inside columns, to base a false reputation by long and unmeaning advertising, but a real one by true results, to which all who try them will cheerfully assent. See advertisement.

It is but simple justice to the Manufacturer of the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap, to award him the credit of being far ahead of all competitors in catering to the luxury of the ladies, who prize nice, clean, white clothes (and what lady does not?). Local.

☞ We give on our first page what we call a capital article on recreation or amusement—which men and women need, (though not the liquor-drinking) as well, if not so much, as boys and girls. But in stiff Yankeedom, so few people know how to keep their hearts young, that the few who do, are oftentimes the mark for scorn and ridicule of the prudes and fogies—old women of both sexes.

For instance, a couple of gentlemen of our acquaintance, both of whom are most happy in their family relations, not long ago shocked the propriety of a young "lady," by their hilarity and innocent freedom of manners at a private social gathering; but this same Miss has, with others equally thoughtless, on two recent public occasions, considerably disturbed the audience by ill-timed and senseless chatter and giggling, and on a third such occasion, when desired to make room for another female, actually made broader her farthingale, and kept the other standing! So much for good manners; and so true is it that real ladies and gentlemen never need think of "dignity."

☞ Bishop's Minstrels gave a bang-up Concert at the Temple last night; and will give another like it, only more so, to-night. We think they made a mistake in charging less for gallery than parquette; for tho' the lower seats are, for most occasions, at least equally good, yet people don't see it so; and besides, the lower price will carry all the fools who have more boot-heels and whistle than brains and good manners, up stairs, to to pound over the heads of decent folks. There ought to be, and will no doubt be, two prices,—but the gallery we do not think will command double price. To-night tickets will be twenty five cents all over the house.

☞ The Boston Transcript says again of the performers announced to appear at the Temple in this city on Wednesday evening:

Mlle. De Katow and Mr. Welhi have appeared in Boston under favorable circumstances, and obtained from critical audiences a demonstrative reception and approval. The lady violincellist is a graceful and pleasing player, draws a good, warm, pure, satisfying tone from her instrument,—and the melodies under her treatment sing expressively and with sympathetic influence to the ear. Mr. Wehli is a very able pianist, cool, self-possessed, as unimpassioned as Thalberg, and with much of the quiet, well-bred traits of that artist. His manner is gratifyingly devoid of affectation and his performances are far removed from mere effective display.

☞ The almost uniform inflation of prices has really affected most business men but comparatively little; but on men and women with fixed salaries, this national burden has fallen with crushing force.—This remark will apply especially to our School Teachers and to Clerks on the Navy Yard, as well as many other classes of employees, private and public; and it would seem that common justice, no less than necessity for them and the city, requires that the teachers' pay should be raised, else we shall be liable ere long to lose them.

GREENLAND.—This beautiful town is known, far and near, as one of the most desirable places of residence in New England; and all good citizens will regret exceedingly, the reproach which the recent election-row there must leave upon her hitherto fair name. For instance, the Boston Transcript says:

"Greenland, in Rockingham County, is the only place in New Hampshire where their was any marked disturbance at the polls on election day. In that town, the Copperheads, seeing that they would probably be beaten on the ballot for Moderator, snatched the ballot boxes, took the clock list from the proper officers, kicked over the stove, and performed other deeds of violence, which would have reflected credit upon the experience election rowdies of New York. In the returns of the county, instead of figures, the words appear—'Greenland, no election.' It appears that there are many men of extreme Southern views even in Greenland."

We have received two communications concerning the affair, and the remarks made upon the same in the Journal—which a press of other matters prevents our giving to-day; but as an affair of public interest and importance, we propose to discuss the matter some what at length to-morrow.

☞ The Boston Courier of Saturday last contains an elaborate editorial account of the riot which broke up the Greenland town-meeting. This account is given as "the facts, furnished by the best possible authority,"—doubtless by one of the conspirators or rioters themselves. The account, however, as it stands in the Courier, states that a "leading citizen" threatened to break up the meeting if a certain vote was not received; and that threats were made to murder certain "civil officers" present, if they should show their weapons! The account winds up with the assertion that the Selectmen "retreated, leaving the Democrats masters of the field." The riot is shouldered and approved, in that account, as the proper result of a great provocation; exactly in the same way as the copperhead press generally have justified the rebellion on the ground of the dreadful wickedness of the people of the free states in general and the abolitionists in particular.

☞ We have long thought that there was no office in the gift of our government or people which we should desire; but we are not sure now we might not like to be a Selectman of our neighboring "town" of Newington—which, by the way, should never have been a town at all. We are informed that whereas the total bills of the Board have seldom if ever amounted to $100 per year heretofore, the charges of the chairman alone (the same being elected both years, and also this year,) footed up about $100 for 1863, and upwards of $300 for last year—the town actually paying in 1865 more than $500 for Selectmen and Overseers of the Poor. And an innovation on the old usage has been introduced—last year and this—in voting not to read the previous year's accounts of the Selectmen until after the choice of a new Board.

☞ Town Meetings in Kittery and Eliot were held on Monday, 20th. Of course both went Republican—Eliot about 180 to 80. Geo. B. Brooks is Town Clerk; Timo. Dame, Jona. F. Worster, John D. Frost, Selectmen; B. F. Cram, Treasurer; T. Dame, Town Agent; Geo. C. Bartlett, J. D. Frost, Supt. Sch. Com.; Auditors, Nath'l Knowlton, Wm. Hill; Overseer Almshouse, Nath'l Staples; Constable, Eben. Simpson.

☞ The Executive Committee of the Philharmonic Society have decided to change the Rehearsal for next week, from Wednesday to Tuesday evening.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the Seven-Thirty Loan.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

This is

THE ONLY LOAN in the Market

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ The Traveller very pertinently says that "it must be clear to all men that if the New Hampshire democracy would have any well grounded hope of rising again, they should throw overboard their attachment to slavery, and go back to the position they held in 1843, when they denounced the vicious institution with all their might. Having condemned it when it was alive, why should they cling to it when it is dead, and rotting?"

☞ Messrs. A. Williams & Co., Booksellers and Publishers, 100 Washington Street, Boston, announce that they have taken great pains to make a large collection of Agricultural Books, both American and Foreign—probably the largest of the kind in New England—and hope to get them generally introduced in families and in our Agricultural Societies.

— J. S. Ford, enlisted in Portland, some days since for South Berwick, received the bounty, and was granted a furlough. Shortly after he was enlisted in Auburn, Me., by a broker, as a substitute, receiving $ 250—200 of which was pocketed by the broker. Subsequently he voluntarily confessed to the previous enlistment, saying that he was drugged and knew nothing of what occured until after he was mustered in at Auburn.

PETROLEUM OIL AGENCY.
The California Petroleum Company
In the Summer of 1864, Professor B. Silliman, Jr., examined this locality, now owned by the CALIFORNIA PETROLEUM CO., the purchase of which he strongly recommended to his friends in New York.
The property covers an area of 18,600 acres in one body, on which are at present at least twenty Natural Wells, some of them the largest size. American Wells can be put down, 25 miles in extent. The Ranch is an old Spanish Grant of four leagues, and perfect title.
WELLS, FARGO & CO. say that those who wish to invest in this class of security need not hesitate a moment where to place their money—here is a good, honest, reliable concern—one which in our judgment will pay."
Shares $40. Par Value $100.

Rensselaer Petroleum Comp'y.
The property consists of 160 acres, in fee simple, on Two Mile Run, near Oil City—a double lease of the Clapp Farm above Oil City, and four acres in fee simple on Pithole Creek, in the heart of the Oil Regions.
Capital $300,000 Shares $3. Par Value $5.

Sheffield Petroleum Company.
This property consists of 225 acres on the Tionesta Creek—seventy-five acres in the same territory. This property is cut through by the ten mile run, a branch of the Tionesta, and the Sunbury & Erie Railroad. This property is considered of great value in the market.
Capital $300,000. Shares $1. Par Value $3.

Everett Oil Company,
OF BOSTON.
The property of this Company consists of 200 acres of land owned in Venango, and Warren Counties as follows: The land is located on Oil Creek, near Centreville Depot. The Oil Creek Railroad passes through this land. It has a river front of over one quarter of a mile. It is rich in oil.
Capital $300,000. Subscription price $5.

President Petroleum Company.
A few shares of this valuable Stock can be had if applied for soon, at the original subscription of $5 per Share. It contains 3,600 acres, very valuable in Oil, Coal and Timber.

New York and Newark
PETROLEUM CO.
The property of this Company consists of five parcels of land in Venango, all bearing oil, the Celebrated Oil District of Pennsylvania (Venango County), and lays in the immediate vicinity of Oil City, the nearest being two miles and the farthest five; and within one-quarter of a mile of Allegheny River, one piece being on that river.—The Company have a twenty years' lease for one-half the Oil.
It is the interest of the Trustees to invest every dollar in sinking Wells and obtaining Oil, and not speculating in stock. HAMILTON E. TOWLE is Engineer and Superintendent of this company.
Capital $300,000. Shares $1.

All the above Stock for sale at the AGENCY,

ESTABLISHED
FACTS AND REASONS
FOR USING
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
BLOOD-ROOT ELIXIR!
First. The extraordinary curative effect of the Blood-Root Elixir was discovered by a regularly educated Physician; and the present proprietor also is a graduate from one of the highest Medical Colleges in New England.
Second. The Elixir is not alcoholic, contains no minerals, and may be relied upon as being composed of strictly vegetable substances; and no ingredient is intermixed that can unfavorably affect the most delicate constitution.
Third. The extensive and successful use of the Blood-Root Elixir, during the past year, proves it to be, without any qualification, the best and most valuable medicine that has ever been prepared for family use.
Fourth. Medical science and skill have never been able to produce a cathartic medicine of equal power and effect, which contains so many desirable qualities. Its superiority as an aperient consists in its sure and thorough action, operating equally through all parts of the Bowels. It never produces griping pains in its operation; never occasions nausea; its flavor is pleasing and agreeable; and it will not be rejected by the most fastidious child. It may be safely used in all cases where laxative medicine is required. It will promote the comfort and health of both sexes, and of all ages: it will assist Nature during all infantile changes; it will, during the anxious hours of a mother's life, hasten and assuage her maternal pangs; it will render joyous and happy the lingering days of the aged and venerable. And when the Elixir is once introduced into any household, it will therein supercede all other laxative medicine.
Fifth. The long period which the Elixir was used by the original proprietor, in prescriptions to his patients, and the great and unqualified success that has attended its more general use, during the past year, are evidenced by unsolicited testimonials, which in number and extended results exceed any estimate our most sanguine hopes so early had anticipated,—therefore we are fortified by unrefutable evidence, that the estimate of the efficacy and value of the Blood-Root Elixir has not been exaggerated.
Sixth. In examining certificates received during the past year of its successful results, we are gratified in believing that our medicine has not failed in any case where it has been tried, to cure the most stubborn and chronic cases of COSTIVENESS.
Seventh. Most grateful manifestations have also been evinced by patients who have been relieved from LIVER COMPLAINTS of long standing. Also it has been effectual in curing CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN; and in eradicating HUMORS OF THE BLOOD. And many afflicted with diseases called incurable SCROFULA, have been greatly benefitted by a moderate use of the Elixir.
Eighth. In cases of COUGHS and COLDS it has proved successful beyond any assurance we have ever expressed; and those who have thoroughly tested its effect, believe it to be superior to all other cough preparations—the Elixir, by its physical properties, equalizes the circulation of the Blood, and removes congestion. It also, when used as a gargle, or swallowed slowly, heals and soothes the irritated and inflamed membranes, from which the cough arises.
Ninth. Many persons suffer periodically from JAUNDICE, which is occasioned by a morbid and inactive state of the Liver. The Blood-Root Elixir is a sure relief from the dependent feelings and painful symptoms which are peculiar to that disease.
Tenth. DYSPEPSIA is an aggravating and disheartening disease, often leading to dangerous results. A limited use of the Elixir, according to the directions, will regulate the stomach and bowels with unerring certainty, and restore digestion to a natural and healthy action.
Eleventh. RHEUMATISM the Blood-Root Elixir will readily relieve; its warm and quickening effect counteracts the cold and morbid condition of the fluids, which is the primary cause of all Rheumatic affections.
Twelfth. Persons subject to HEADACHE will be relieved in a few hours by a single dose of the Elixir.
☞ Every person taking the Elixir should carefully read the printed pamphlet which accompanies each bottle.

Rye, N.H., Feb. 26, 1865. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum has been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some two or twelve bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as the cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and it invariably many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
Portsmouth, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with dyspepsia, dis-tress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomiting up all of my food immediately after eating, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Panacea, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
From Elder I Chesley, Lee, May 31, 1861
Dr. Swett: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humors, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but could not get grown weaker till she commenced using your Panacea and Humor Wash. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to go quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." Isaiah Chesley
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it does not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. mav26

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, mild and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

STATE RIGHTS INVADED.—Messrs. Editors: There is some talk about State Rights, and some people are fearful they may be swallowed up by a great Abolition Monster. These people, however, look on the wrong side for the danger; exactly as some people on a railway, looking at one train, step backward on the other track, to be crushed by another train. I am told that very recently, in our neighboring town of Greenland, a noted copperhead lawyer, who holds a lucrative and important office under the United States Government, actually rescued and carried off a prisoner who was under arrest by civil process of the State of New Hampshire for non payment of taxes. If I am rightly informed in this matter, this was a very grave offence, and deserving of punishment,—and it is worthy of consideration whether the offender should not be, at least, dismissed from his office, to appease the offended dignity of the State of New Hampshire. X. L.

—Several of the Paris journals speak against the extremely decolleté style of dress which the ladies have adopted at the balls this season in the French capital:—"What remains at the present day of woman's dress," says M. E. Texier in the Siecle," is so small that it is hardly worth talking about. Ladies are almost attired like the natives in South America—with nothing but a necklace. Besides that such a style of dress may be made very rich, it has the advantage of covering but little; and at a ball where the heat is excessive, one cannot be too thinly clad!" M. Venet in the Monde makes the following remark:—"If one of the present queens of Parisian beau-monde were to walk out of doors in ball costume, the sergens de ville would lock her up and the correctional tribunal visit her with the withering effect of a conviction."

John Josselon, Gentleman, speaking in "New England Rarities discovered in 1672" observes that "cabbidge grows there exceedingly well," also that "the pond-frog, which chirp in the Spring like sparrows, and croke like toads in Autumn. Some of these, when they set upon their breech, are a foot high. The Indians will tell you that up in the country there are pond frogs as big as a child a year." We can imagine the misty sort of wonder with which gentleman Josselyn listened to these plumpers of the copper colored wags, illustrated, perhaps, by some tremendous chq of a venerable patriarch of bull-frogs, in the swamps of the aboriginal forest.—Mirror.

EDUCATION IN CHARLESTON.—By the system of instruction inaugurated in Charleston, Col. Woolford has gathered about fifteen hundred children into his public schools. There has been no parallel to this fact in the history of any captured city in the insurrectionary States. Thirty-eight teachers are employed, and the Christian Commission has generously furnished all the primers necessary for the use of beginners.—Trans.

A paper before us, whose editor by his treason has shown himself fit only to fraternize with the southern rebels, speaks of Andrew Johnson, as a coarse vile blackguard, and contrasts him with "that accomplished gentleman, Geo. H. Pendleton."—The cream of the joke is that in 1860, before the Charleston convention assembled, this same editor was urging the nomination of this "coarse" Andrew Johnson for the Presidency, upon the attention of that convention.—Portland Press.

→ A young man in Winsted, Conn., named Churchill, undertook the other day to put a cat into a barrel, for the purpose of sending it to Hartford. While in the act the cat turned upon him and with her teeth and claws literally tore his hands to pieces.

— Among the recent arrivals in the Army of the Potomac is a heavy artillery regiment, numbering some 1600 men; over 1000 of these men received $1000 each as bounty, for one year, and it can therefore be graphically described as "a million dollar regiment."

—Dr. Livingston proposes to make another expedition to Africa. A private friend has contributed £1000 to the cause, the Royal Geographical Society $500 and the Foreign Office $500. Dr. Livingston also receives a yearly salary of $500 as Consul to the Eastern races in Africa.

—The letters captured in the rebel mails during Sherman's march show the utmost discouragement on the part of the writers, who were principally officers and enlisted men of the rebel army.

—The rebel Senate on the 14th passed bills for the impressment of slaves, to diminish the number of exemptions, and to regulate the business of conscription.

—The first to "strike ile," it now appears was Job, who says, "When I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured me out rivers of oil." (Job.29; 6.)

— Ornaments and fancy articles for the Chinese market, are being manufactured in great quantities in Paris.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

Thirty-nine escaped Union officers came up from Wilmington in the steamer. At the time the rebels were transferring our prisoners from Columbia to Charlotte in anticipation of Sherman to release them, these officers hid themselves in the ceiling of the hospital at Columbia, and unobserved, made their escape during a stormy night, and traversing various forests, travelling only in the night, and guided only by faithful negroes, they crossed the line between North and Carolina, reaching Sherman's forces.

They belong mostly in Eastern regiments and are in a very destitute condition, many of them having been prisoners for the past year, and the little money they possessed when captured was either spent or taken by the rebels.

A little expedition by two U. S. gunboats, on the Tennessee river about March 4th was successful in disturbing Rhoddy's rebel camp, and making some captures.—Loyal sentiment is expressed by many citizens of Alabama.

The Navy Department has received information of the capture and destruction of the rebel schooner Annie Dale by an expedition from the U. S. gunboat Panola on the 18th ult. in Pass Cavello, Texas.

It is reported from Nassau that a rebel pirate, "The Confederate States," was lying off the harbor on the 14th inst., being refused admittance by the authorities. She is of 800 tons burthen, bark rigged, has two funnels and two propellers.

The result of the battles in front of Kinston will not be far from 2000 in killed, wounded and missing on our side, and all of 3000 on the enemy's side, whose dead outnumbers ours five to one, owing to their assaults upon our works.

Refugees report that General Robert E. Lee is in command of the enemy's forces in North Carolina with his headquarters at Raleigh. He has brought quite a strong force with him from Richmond. The refugees state that Johnston and Beauregard are in command at Richmond, and the fortifications there are being manned with the negro troops, who relieved the force which accompanied General Lee to North Carolina.

A Fortress Monroe dispatch of Monday, reports Sherman's cavalry near White House at noon Saturday; and that General Sherman's army, at last accounts, had reached Cape Fear river, and was marching on Goldsboro'.

Wilmington correspondence of the 15th, says all the refugees, deserters and prisoners brought in by Gen. Sherman are being sent from that place.

On the 14th Sherman left Fayetteville, marching toward Goldsborough. Before leaving, the extensive arsenal was completely destroyed. It was the largest in the South. Every cotton mill and several residences were also destroyed. Six small steamers were burned.

The negroes who have followed Sherman will be sent to South Carolina, to General Saxton.

The rebels will make a stand near Goldsborough. Johnston having united with Bragg, and large reinforcements having come from Richmond, giving a combination with which they hope to defeat Sherman and Schofield combined. If successful, they calculate to return and crush Grant.

On Monday at Washington it was reported that Davis had abdicated in favor of Lee, proposing that Grant and Lee settle the controversy and arrange terms of peace. Also that the soldiers and inhabitants of Richmond are on the verge of starvation, Sherman's raid having cut off their supplies.

We learn via New Orleans, that on the 11th an attack was made on two batteries defending Mobile bay, by the monitors.—Two of them silenced the batteries.

Deserters report that Union cavalry had occupied Burkesville, the junction of the Richmond, Danville and Lynchburg R. R.

GOLD in Boston, Monday P. M., sold at 165.—In New York, at Gallagher's Evening Exchange, 159. The attendance was very large and the excitement intense; gold after call sold down to 158 1-4; rallied to 159 1-4, and closed at 158 7-8 bid and 159 asked.

GOLD.—In New York, Tuesday morning, gold opened at 155, under great depression, caused mainly by the reported abdication of Jeff. Davis, and other statements made in regard to the critical condition of affairs at Richmond. The price suddenly dropped to 154 1-2, which is lowest point reached since January, 1864, when it stood at 151. The market, however, soon rallied and at 1.20 was 157 7 8.—In Boston, at the Brokers' Board, gold sold at 152, sellers 60 days.

The wholesale general markets dull and unsettled: prices nominal. All kinds of produce tend to lower prices. A N. Y. dispatch says pork declined $5 per barrel, but from $1 to $2 was recovered.

PRICES.—The Boston Herald notices sales of new butter in Worcester for twenty cents per pound, and at Fall River, by the keg, at twenty-four cents. The leading dry goods retail houses in the city of New York are marking down their prices to correspond with the reduced price of gold.

Mr. Editor:—A true and accurate relation of the circumstances attending the unfortunate disturbance in the town meeting at Greenland not having yet been published, while many unfair and distorted accounts are in circulation, we are constrained to appeal to your known liberality and love of fairness, to publish an exact but brief account of the affair as it actually occurred.

For a few years past, parties in the town of Greenland have been nearly equally divided. In March, 1864, the election was carried by the votes of men who had (as the minority insisted) no right to vote, but whose names were placed upon the check-list in defiance of the earnest remonstrances of a large number of the citizens of the town. Several of these men are never seen in town except on town meeting day, and it is believed that some of them have exercised their undoubted right to vote elsewhere. An attempt was made to procure the indictment of these men, but by a skillful and unscrupulous manipulation of the grand jury, they escaped.

At the meeting for the correction of the check-list on the 13th instant, about forty persons (supposed to be Democrats) applied to the Selectmen to have their names placed on the list. They offered proof that they were American citizens, and had resided in Greenland more than six months,—many of them with their families, and part being young men who have no families. No evidence was offered to the selectmen to contradict their statements, nor did any person suggest any objection to placing their names on the check list. The selectmen, however, refused to decide upon any one of these applications at that meeting, saying that they wanted time for deliberation. They were urged to make known the objection to the right of these men to vote, if any existed, and they were notified that they could not fairly nor honestly act upon statements which might be made to them privately and out of the meeting, when the applicants could have no opportunity to answer. To these suggestions no reply was made, and it was painfully apparent that the selectmen had determined to exclude these men from voting, without any regard to their rights. It has even been said that a large sum of money was subscribed and pledged to indemnify the selectmen against the legal consequences of so doing.

At the meeting for the revision of the check-list, on the morning of the election, the selectmen did nothing until about a quarter of an hour before the time allowed by law for the correction of the check-list had expired, replying to repeated questions, whether the names offered the preceding day had been put on the list: "That they wanted further time for deliberation." Finally, and just before the opening of the town meeting, they announced that they had rejected the names of about thirty of the applicants. They refused to give any reason for this decision, whereupon much indignation was manifested by the crowd of citizens assembled, and some confusion arose, increased by the presence of a body of police and military officers from the city of Portsmouth, with whom the selectmen had surrounded themselves, evidently for the purpose of overawing the meeting.

At this juncture the Hon. Clement March addressed the meeting, earnestly counselling the observance of good order and quiet, and deprecating in the strongest manner any proceeding which should tend at all to interrupt the meeting. He advised all who had the right to vote to offer their ballots to the selectmen, and told them that if their votes should be unjustly refused, the remedy would be to bring actions for damages against the selectmen, and to apply to the Supreme Court, if necessary, to set aside the proceedings of the meeting as fraudulent and void, by reason of the unwarrantable refusal of the selectmen to place the names of the voters upon the check-list. The judicious and manly advice of Mr. March was seconded by his friends in all parts of the hall; quiet was restored, the warrant was read, and balloting for Moderator was commenced.

In a short time, however, some of the persons whose names the selectmen had excluded from the check-list, approached the polls and offered their votes. Instead of accepting or refusing them, the selectmen adopted the course of taking no notice whatever of the offer, expecting probably by this wise device to avoid the legal consequences of a refusal. In vain were they urged to act upon the request of these persons; the selectmen could not be brought to manifest any consciousness of their presence. As the number of this class of applicants increased, the approach to the polls became obstructed. An active member of the Administration party seized a Democrat who was standing near the selectmen, and hurled him over upon the floor. In an instant every thing was in confusion, and fighting commenced all over the hall. The Chairman of the Selectmen kicked over the table at which they had been sitting, throwing the ballot-box, town-books and papers promiscously on the floor. Much confusion ensued, during which the selectmen retired from the hall, and did not return, nor attempt to reorganize the meeting.

What persons are to be blamed as the immediate cause of the uproar does not distinctly appear, and the matter is stoutly disputed by the friends of each party. Two things are certain: that the course of the selectmen was well calculated, if not intended, to produce a conflict; and that the leading men of the Democratic party earnestly exerted themselves to dissuade their friends from any other manifestation of their indignation at the denial of their lawful and inalienable rights, than such as the laws point out. The advantages of the breaking up of the meeting are wholly on the side of the selectmen; for by it they continue by law to hold offices from which a fair vote of the town would eject them by an overwhelming majority. GREENLAND.

Communication.

Mr. Editor:—The private business of an individual can hardly be considered a fair subject for newspaper comment. But as your neighbor of the Journal has chosen, in connection with a characteristic account of the disturbances at the Greenland town meeting, to make a statement respecting the collection of the taxes of a gentleman of that town, which contains precisely as many falsehoods as lines, will you permit me to correct at least a portion of them.

In April, 1864, the gentleman in question being absent in a distant city, inadvertently omitted to render to the Selectmen an inventory of his taxable property. Taking advantage of this omission, the Selectmen doomed him sufficiently to make his tax amount to some fifteen hundred dollars, being about one-fourth of the whole amount of the taxes, in a town which has many other rich citizens. Being informed of the assessment, the gentleman protested against it as entirely unequal and unreasonable, and applied to the Selectmen for an abatement, but without effect. He then gave notice that he would contest the tax in the Courts, and the matter rested.

On the day previous to the election, the tax collector for the first time personally addressed the gentleman referred to, just as he had got into the sleigh of a friend, and was starting for his home. As it was late in the day, and the sum demanded was larger than men commonly carry about their persons, it is now understood that the object of the collector, and of those who were instigating him, was to arrest the tax-payer and keep him in confinement, if possible, until after the town meeting. It happened, however, that neither the gentleman nor his companion understood the purpose of the collector; and after listening to what appeared to be a notice that he intended to resort to an arrest at some future time, if the tax should not be paid, they quietly drove away. A little later in the day the collector called at the house of the tax-payer, and announced his intention of then arresting him. His friend remonstrated so strongly on the indecency of such a proceeding, against a man who had a large amount of property exposed to be taken by the collector, if he should choose to take it, that the collector voluntarily agreed to postpone his proceedings to a day after the town meeting. Then he met the gentleman by appointment, went through the form of making the arrest, the tax was paid under protest, and a suit was forthwith instituted against the selectmen and collector, to recover it back, as paid unjustly. There was no rescue or attempt at rescue in the case; and the whole matter had no connection with the town meeting, except in the virtuous imagination of the editor of the Journal, whose manner of narrating the incident is characterized with as much of truth as of decency and good manners. AN EYE WITNESS.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Saturday afternoon March 11, as the train was leaving the station in Brunswick for Augusta, a man about 70 years of age, attempted to get on the cars. Though warned, he tried twice, and the last time fell and was run over by the cars. He was taken up, and his left leg amputated above the knee,—but he died on Tuesday night. On inquiry, he was found to be Hon. Nathl. M. Towle, of Saco, formerly landlord of the Stage House in Kennebunk, and always a business man. For several years he had, at times, been partially deranged, and was so at the time of the accident.

☞ John W. Sweetser eloped last week from Saco, with the wife of John Henry Gordan. Mr. and Mrs. Gordan had several years lived in the house with Mr. Elliot Sweetser, the father of the young man who has now left with another man's wife. Mrs. G. is said to be 25 years old, and good looking. The Democrat says, Sweetser is a young man, about 20 years of age, and has been sick some time, and Mrs. Gordan has nursed him a part of the time. It is said that Gordan has not lived happily with his wife. Both parties have heretofore sustained good characters, being members of the Methodist Episcopal Society. The last heard from them they were in New York.

LEE AND THE NEGRO.—The last number of Frank Leslie's newspaper has an illustration exhibiting a negro tied to a post and a driver lashing him. Lee appears presenting a musket and exclaiming: "Hold on there, driver; we want Sambo now to fight for liberty and Independence. You can thrash him as much as you like when he comes back."

—Hezekiah Payne, who was arrested some time since at Detroit, and taken to St. Albans, on suspicion of being connected with the St. Albans raid, has been committed for trial.

—Not long since a married couple in Farmington, Van Buren county, Iowa, early one morning found a cow and a calf in their lot; the cow had a collar on with a note attached, saying the cow should be taken care of till called for. Some nights afterward a basket was found at their door containing an infant about a week old, and a note saying the baby was the owner of the cow.

— A young man advertises for a situation as son-in-law in a respectable family. Would have no objection, he says, to go a short distance into the country.

— At a trial of the steam fire-engine, in Newburyport, the new linen hose was found to leak badly at the couplings, and is to be exchanged.

— The Persians, as writers tell us, used to teach their sons to ride, pay their debts and tell the truth.

FAST DAY. — The Concord Monitor says:—"In this State and Vermont Good Friday, the 14th of April—will probably be designated as the day for our annual State fast."

☞ Harper's Monthly for April abounds in interesting matter and is profusely illustrated.—"Where the Waterce was," is a fine account of a hard cruise.

AGAIN AND AGAIN.—Our readers may think it strange that we so often urge upon their attention a medicinal preparation. Already have we, for a number of weeks, urged the importance of a supply of Coe's Cough Balsam in the house, ready for immediate use. But our excuse is that the vast amount of sickness, sorrow and death that are the immediate result of sudden coughs, colds and pulmonary attacks; while thousands of our children are dying from croup and lung complaints. Time and experience have proved that Coe's Cough Balsam is the most speedy and reliable preparation ever known to the world. Like magic it relieves the irritation of the throat, removes the stoppages that prevent breathing in croup, and heals all soreness of the throat, chest and lungs. No man should neglect to supply his family with a safe and reliable remedy like Coe's Cough Balsam, any more than he should neglect the supply of their daily bread. It costs but 40 cents, and the bottles contain twice as much as those of any other remedy at the same cost, while in merit it is superior to all others. All drug stores keep it for sale. 4jt8dawkm

THE GREENLAND RIOT.

The little town of Greenland was the scene of a disgraceful riot on Tuesday, the day of election of State and town officers; and as many versions of the circumstances are abroad, we will give a plain statement of the facts as we have learned them from conversation with individuals present.

To begin at the beginning. It is well known that the millionaire, ever since he deserted his old friends and joined the faction of the late ex-President, has used every means in his power to turn the vote of this loyal town to his own party purposes. In furtherance of this plan, great exertions were made by said millionaire at the Spring election of 1864, himself being the candidate for Representative; but the Copperheads as is well known, were foiled at every point, and the little town still remained upright in its loyalty.

The millionaire now gave out that the town should be turned, at whatever cost, and that to ensure his purpose he would bring into it men enough to effect it. Accordingly in September last, just in season for a six months' residence, he imported a colony of shoemakers and blacksmiths, built shops and houses, bought farms and other houses, and went deeply into the profitable job of making shoes and shoeing horses; for our millionaire, though profuse in his expenditures, has a keen eye for the investment of the large fortune lately fallen to his possession. These new comers immediately notified the Town clerk of their arrival, claiming the right of citizenship. But as the time of election drew near, the Selectmen were advised by learned counsel, that as these men came into the town for the express purpose of affecting the election, many of them having families elsewhere and their names retained on check lists in other towns, they ought not to be allowed to vote. Acting upon this advice and in accordance with their own views, the Selectmen, on the morning of the election, refused to put their names on the check list, and great confusion and shouting immediately took place, with all sorts of threats and exclamations. Quiet being restored, the warrant was read, and votes called for Moderator. A very few votes here thrown, when the employees of the millionaire crowded the stand so as to prevent access to the ballot box. The row now commenced, and some fighting took place, but without much damage on either side.

The scene is thus described by their own party organ in this city:—

"When the polls were opened, one of the disfranchised men offered his vote for Moderator, to the chairman of Selectmen, who held the ballot box. The vote was refused, which was the signal for a very summary cleaning out of the Town House, the hasty skedaddle of the valiant Selectmen and the indefinite postponement of the election in that town. In the fury of the moment, the various articles of furniture and several specimens of loyal paraphernalia were pretty essentially smashed. Some bellicose policemen of Portsmouth, who had previously been called to protect the Selectmen in the consummation of their outrage upon the Democracy of Greenland, suddenly found their own courage sadly at fault, and beat an incontinent retreat. The Democracy were soon masters of the field, and, as we go to press, this Thursday P. M., they still hold it."

The stage is elevated above the floor of the Hall about three and a half feet, and it is understood that no person should be there except the officers of the town; but three noisy Copperheads, two of whom signed the famous letter of 1864, had taken position beside the table on the stage, and at a signal given by these intruders, a rush was made for the stage—the tables and benches overthrown and smashed, the stove was broken to pieces, pannels were knocked out of the doors, the ballot-box seized by one of our millionaire's principal workmen, the Town Clerk's records were seized and carried off by a Newburyport architect, another of his employees, and very soon everything came to a stand-still. The Selectmen soon retired, and comparative quiet was restored. In the afternoon, however, the Copperheads rallied under the auspices of a prominent contractor, were addressed by the millionaire, and they kept up their orgies till past midnight.

It may not be amiss to add, as closely connected with these proceedings, that the millionaire was arrested on Monday, the day previous to the election, for non-payment of his taxes, but was rescued by a prominent counsellor of Portsmouth who had him in charge. This being a little too serious, the counsellor found it necessary to give a written obligation to surrender the prisoner or pay the tax on Wednesday, and this latter alternative we understand was effected.

Although the matter is disgraceful to those who engaged in it, it only results in Greenland being left without a Representative. The old Republican board of town officers hold over for another year.

SHARP PRACTICE.—The meetings in the School Districts of this city have always been held sometime in the fourth week of March, and nobody thinks of their occuring at any other time. Last week a squad of Democrats was seen coming from the South School House. On inquiry, it was said that they had been there to elect the School Committee. It appears that a warrant had been put up on the school house door some evening, which was probably removed before morning, as no one in the neighborhood saw it. One other copy was said to have been stuck up in Russell's shop! in Water street—a place which no Republican would be likely to visit. This was claimed to be a public notice, and on it John E. Rider, Esq., was elected a Committee man for three years, Whether he will stand under such circumstances! or whether the citizens of this District will connive at such trickery, remains to be seen.

NINETY-FIVE DAYS SLEIGHING.—Up to Thursday last, sleighs were seen in our streets—having had uninterrupted sleighing since the 10th of December—95 days. Spring is now upon us—the ice is fast melting, and the robins have made their appearance.

SPEER'S NEW JERSEY WINE.—This wine is known to be the most healthy and invigorating beverage now in use. It is recommended by physicians and other professional men, and it is particularly adapted to the present weather—keeping the stomach in a clear and healthy state. See advertisement on another page, under the lady plucking grapes from a vine.

PETROLEUM OIL AGENCY.

The California Petroleum Company

In the Summer of 1864, Professor B. Silliman, Jr., examined this locality, now owned by the CALIFORNIA PETROLEUM CO., the purchase of which he strongly recommended to his friends in New York.

The property covers an area of 18,000 acres in one body, on which are at present at least twenty Natural Wells, some of them the largest size. Artesian Wells can be put down, 25 miles in extent. The Ranch is an old Spanish Grant of four leagues, and perfect title.

WELLS, FARGO & CO. say that "those who wish to invest in this class of security need not hesitate a moment where to place their money; here is a good, honest, reliable concern—one which in our judgment will pay."

Shares $40. Par Value $100.

Rensselaer Petroleum Com'y.

The property consists of 100 acres, in fee simple, on Two Mile Run, near Oil City—a double lease of the Clapp Farm above Oil City, and four acres in fee simple on Pithole Creek, in the heart of the Oil Regions.

Shefield Petroleum Company.

This property consists of 225 acres on the Tionesta Creek—seventy-five acres on an island. This property cut through by the ten mile run, a branch of the Tionesta, and the Sudbury & Erie Railroad. This property is considered of great value in the market.

PETROLEUM CO.

The property of this Company consists of five parcels of land situated in the very centre of the Celebrated Oil District of Pennsylvania (Venango County), and is in the immediate vicinity of Oil City, the nearest being two miles and the farthest five; and within one-quarter of a mile of Alleghany River on piece being on that river—The Company have a twenty years' lease for one-half the Oil.

It is the interest of the Trustees to invest every dollar in sinking Wells and obtaining Oil, and not speculating in stock. HAMILTON E. TOWLE is Engineer and Superintendent of this company.

ESTABLISHED
FACTS AND REASONS
FOR USING
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
BLOOD-ROOT ELIXIR!

FIRST. The extraordinary curative effect of the Blood-Root Elixir was discovered by a regularly educated Physician; and the present proprietor also is a graduate from one of the highest Medical Colleges in New England.

SECOND. The Elixir is not alcoholic, contains no miucrals, and may be relied upon as being composed of strictly vegetable substances; and no ingredient is intermixed that can unfavorably affect the most delicate constitution.

THIRD. The extensive and successful use of the Blood-Root Elixir, during the past year, proves it to be, without any qualification, the best and most valuable medicine that has ever been prepared for family use.

FOURTH. Medical science and skill have never been able to produce a cathartic medicine of equal power and effect, which contains so many desirable qualities. Its superiority as an aperient consists in its sure and thorough action, operating equally through all parts of the Bowels. It never produces griping pains in its operation; never occasions nausea; its flavor is pleasing and agreeable; and it will not be rejected by the most fastidious child. It may be safely used in all cases where a laxative medicine is required. It will promote the comfort and health of both sexes, and of all ages: it will assist Nature during all infantile changes; it will, during the anxious hours of a mother's life, hasten and assuage her maternal pangs; it will render joyous and happy the lingering days of the aged and venerable. And when the Elixir is once introduced into any household, it will therein supersede all other laxative medicine.

FIFTH. The long period which the Elixir was used by the original proprietor, in prescriptions to his patients, and the great and unqualified success which has attended its more general use, during the past year, are continued by unsolicited testimonials, which in number and extended results exceed any estimate our most sanguine hopes so early had anticipated,—therefore we are fortified by unrefutable evidence, that our estimate of the efficacy and value of the Blood-Root Elixir has not been exaggerated.

SIXTH. In examining certificates received during the past year of its successful results, we are gratified in believing that our medicine has not failed in any case where it has been tried, to cure the most stubborn and chronic cases of COSTIVENESS.

SEVENTH. Most grateful manifestations have also been evinced by patients who have been relieved from LIVER COMPLAINTS of long standing. Also it has been effectual in curing CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN; and in eradicating HUMORS OF THE BLOOD. And many afflicted with deep seated incurable SCROFULA, have been greatly benefitted by a moderate use of the Elixir.

EIGHTH. In cases of COUGHS and COLDS it has proved successful beyond any assurance we have ever expressed; and those who have thoroughly tested its effect, believe it to be superior to all other cough preparations,—the Elixir, by its physical properties, equalizes the circulation of the Blood, and removes congestion. It also, when used as a gargle, or swallowed slowly, heals and soothes the irritated and inflamed membranes, from which the cough arises.

NINTH. Many persons suffer periodically from JAUNDICE, which is occasioned by a morbid and inactive state of the Lives. The Blood-Root Elixir is a sure relief from the dependent feelings and painful symptoms which are peculiar to that disease.

TENTH. DYSPEPSIA is an aggravating and disheartening disease, often leading to dangerous results. A limited use of the Elixir, according to the directions, will regulate the stomach and bowels with unerring certainty, and restore digestion to a natural and healthy action.

ELEVENTH. RHEUMATISM the Blood-Root Elixir will readily relieve; its warm and quickening effect counteracts the cold and morbid condition of the fluids, which is the primary cause of all Rheumatic affections.

TWELFTH. Persons subject to HEADACHE will be relieved in a few hours by a single dose of the Elixir.

☞ Every person taking the Elixir should carefully read the printed pamphlet which accompanies each bottle.

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—sometimes so bad as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintance, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by its since. I have been agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dyspepsia or sour stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Sir: I think it my duty to tell you, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined the number of months without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker and also commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I consider your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." IERAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. mav26

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and end-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Local.

POSTPONED.—The Concert which was announced for this evening at the Temple, by Mr. Welhi, pianist, and Miss De Katow, violincellist, is deferred until some future day, to be decided hereafter—the troupe having changed their course of travel.

LOOK OUT!—The clothes-line of Mr. Walter A. Cate, on High street, was stripped of a good part of the week's wash, one night last week; an overcoat was stolen from the residence of Geo. W. Tucker, esq., on Court street, an evening or two since; and we hear of a store being broken into and robbed.

NAVAL.—Lieut. Geo. Dewey has been detached from the Colorado and ordered to the Kearsarge.

Capt. Wm. M. Walker has been ordered to the command of the De Soto.

Acting Rear Admiral H. K. Thatcher has arrived at New Orleans, where he has relieved Commodore Palmer, in command of the West Gulf Squadron.

GREENLAND ELECTION, &c.—We devote more space than we can well spare, this morning, to the discussion of the deplorable row at the neighboring polls—but not more than the importance of the subject warrants; and we are always as ready and willing to present one side of a question as the other, when there are two sides. By which, however, we would not be understood as saying that we believe this question has more than one side—any more than the Brooks' assault or the Rebellion has. No, for even if all the statements of the Greenland democrats, the Brooksites, or the rebels are correct—not even then was there the slighest excuse for the outrageous infringement of the people's right of suffrage, or Senatorial freedom of debate, or of National life—the dangerous violations of law and order, which this trio of crimes (alike in kind but different in degree) has developed.

We gave yesterday, an extract from the Boston Transcript, condemning the riot and the democrats for it. Per contra, the Stars and Bars of this city, and the Boston Courier, (how does that sheet know so much of our local affairs?)—as usual with that class of papers, denounce the legal town authorities as the cause of the outrage, and defend the rioters—just as the copperheads did toward the city authorities here at the time of our riot.

And we deeply regret to see by these same papers, "that at a fully attended meeting of the Democracy of Greenland, held at Brackett's Academy in that town, on the evening of election day, (Hon. Albert Blaisdell presiding and Howard T. Marston esq. secretary,)" Resolutions were passed condemning the Selectmen for not putting certain names on the check-list, &c., and not giving a reason therefor; but with no word of censure for the violators of the public peace and infringers on the sacred right of suffrage—no, not even a regret for the outrage. Alas! for partisan blindness. As if that riotous outrage was a matter for political or partisan discussion or consideration—and as if every citizen of the State and nation was not equally interested in "the enforcement of the laws" and the protection of the ballot-box.

One communication refers entirely to an alleged civil arrest and rescue (the Journal's account of which in full we give on our 4th page) and we don't see that the two matters of election and taxes need have any connection—though probably in the bitterness engendered, they might have. Nor do we see any need of arresting a heavy property-owner at all; although that may be the shortest way in a contested case.

In conclusion, we must say that neighborhood jealousies or political prejudices which which can lead to such results, are lamentable indeed; and while on the one hand, we wish every man had work enough which he must do, to keep him better employed than in making special exertions to "carry" any place where it don't want to go; on the other, we think the authorities of the meeting and the custodians of the ballot-box might have shown a little more pluck than appears on the public record, maintaining the one and defending the other. The fellows who began to break ballot-boxes, ought to have ended with broken heads.

THE GREENLAND BALLOT-BOX SMASHERS.—George E. Brackett (Post Master of the town under Buchanan) and James F. Leavitt (one of the imported men) were arrested and brought before W. H. Y. Hackett, esq. of this city, on Monday, charged with removing the ballot-box from the polls at Greenland, on election-day; and were bound over in $800 each for the April term Court.—Messrs. Rufus Sargent (of Newburyport) and Charles E. Dearborn, an old resident of Greenland, are to be examined on similar or kindred charges, of removing records, &c., on Saturday next.

POLICE COURT, March 20.—Robert Locke was arraigned for brawl and tumult; and for this breach of conduct injured justice would not be avenged for less than three dollars, and costs amounting to $3.86, which number of "stamps" were cheerfully disbursed.

☞ Old Winter is nearly played out. We noticed while travelling through the suburbs of this city on Tuesday, green grass peeping up on the roadside where it had been sheltered by some kindly nook in warm sun. The sweet carol of the early spring birds was also heard, imparting joy and new life to our well nigh dormant spirits.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD - BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. CARTER'S

Clarified Molasses Candy

DR. URANN,

PRACTICAL PHYSICIAN

Who has made so many wonderful and instantaneous cures in Boston, New York, Hartford, Springfield, and more recently in New Hampshire and Vermont, has taken

ROOMS FOR THE PRESENT AT THE

FRANKLIN HOUSE

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

DR. URANN'S treatment is such that by it

All Curable Diseases

are affected in one or two treatments, and many are entirely cured by one, as the following will testify:—

W. P. HOMER, 50 and 52 Federal Street, Boston for many years was troubled with Heart complaint, so bad that at times he was unable to attend to his business; after one treatment he was able to run up stairs, work in his garden and attend to his business; has since gained 12 pounds

MRS. ELLEN CORBY, of Cambridgeport, Mass.—Sciatica; so lame that she could not walk without assistance; after one treatment of fifteen minutes was well as ever, and could walk a mile free from pain.

MRS. SARAH P. STILES, Lowell, Mass., had Fever Sores on both legs of twelve years standing; her right ankle measured eighteen inches, and was as blue as indigo; she could not move her foot; after one treatment it was reduced one-half, she could move her foot freely and is getting well rapidly, her left ankle all healed.

Prof. G. M. LARRON, 1 Dix Place, Boston, troubled with Spinal difficulty, was in much pain; relieved by one treatment

Miss HANNAH COOL, Campton, N. H.—Spinal difficulties; was unable to walk but a short distance or do any kind of work; perfectly cured, and is now the picture of health.

Miss C. FROTHINGHAM, Boston, Portrait Painter, was troubled with great depression of spirits, at times was unable to attend to her favorite employment; was entirely cured, and she expresses herself, is "made over anew."

Mrs. J. BROWN, Boston, a severe cough and pains through her lungs, cured.

Capt. W. H. LAMPSON'S CHILD, Lowell, Mass The child was pronounced by physicians as hopelessly idiotic. The child could neither walk or sit alone, and took no notice of anything. After one treatment he began to improve, and has so far gained as to be able to walk alone, can talk takes notice of everything, laughs and sings, and appears perfectly well.

Mrs. HINCKLEY, wife of A. T. Hinckley, of State Arsenal, Hartford, Ct., troubled with hip complaint and contraction of the cords of the legs; could not get her heel to the floor within four inches; had to be brought down stairs in arms; after one treatment of twenty minutes was able to run up and down stairs with ease, and is now able to walk the streets.

Mr. J. TURNER, Hartford, Ct., troubled for many years with loss of memory; could not attend to business; had been under the best medical treatment in England with no beneficial effect; after one treatment was perfectly restored.

Miss MARTHA ST. JOHN, Simsbury, Ct., was confined to her bed from spinal difficulty and prolapsus uteri; had not been dressed for more than a year; in twenty minutes she was enabled to dress and walk out to one of the neighboring distance of about a half mile; she has since been to Hartford and to church, and is improving daily.

MRS. HENRY LOOMIS, Southwick, Mass., troubled with fits and spinal difficulties, could not walk without much difficulty, perfectly cured by one treatment.

MRS. WM. JENKINS, Unionville, Conn., troubled for over two years with chronic liver complaint and rheumatism, had a large lump on her side which was very painful; was unable to lie down. Cured by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

JOSEPH H. ELDRIDGE, formerly of the Hartford Police, more recently on Hartford and New Haven Railroad, was obliged to give up his business on account of a severe cough and bleeding, perfectly cured and can now do a good day's work.

LYDIA L. FULLER, of East Wallingford, Vt., had entirely lost the use of her limbs after a severe attack of diptheria, was restored by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

FANNY DAVIS, of Moretown, Vt., had been confined to her bed for more than five years—was not able to stand—after one treatment of less than an hour, was enabled to walk around the room, and is now quite well.

Miss HUTCHINSON, daughter of Judge Hutchinson of West Randolph, Vt., was troubled with fits, having some days from fifty to one hundred. She was unable to eat anything but liquids—was not able to stand. After one treatment she began to improve, until now, she is the picture of health, able to walk as well as any one, eats hearty and has no fits.

SOUTHWICK, Mass., July 21, 1862.

DR URANN,—Dear Sir:—I suppose it is ever a pleasure to you to learn the convalescent state of your patients; notwithstanding my long three years of almost absolute confinement to my bed, unable most of the time to converse with or see any company, and for over two years unable to feed myself—yet with this painful picture of human wretchedness which made life almost a burden, since your treatment of my spine, on the 7th day of June, I have been able to take my meals at the table, with my family, ride out daily, and converse freely with all; and without some new misfortune befalls me, I shall soon be able to interest myself in the labors of my profession, at least to preach one sermon a Sabbath. Without flattery, in my honest judgment, there is no better treatment in the hands of man for the Spinal Disease than the one which you honor, and as my heart beats with sympathy with all Spinal sufferers, I only wish they knew the wonderful utility of your treatment, and avail themselves of the same. Yours with respect and gratitude,

M. H. RISING.

DR. URANN'S TERMS

Are such that all can avail themselves of his treatment.

☞ Persons at a distance who are unable to visit the Doctor, by sending particulars of their cases, with one dollar enclosed, will receive advice and learn whether their cases can be treated at a distance. In all cases, state age and sex.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— On Friday, in Manchester, two Irishmen—John Kearn, a paroled soldier, and Patrick Holiban, a soldier at home on furlough, got into a fight. Kearn choked Holiban till his tongue protruded from his mouth, and then bit off a piece of the tongue, and a piece of lip.

—— George F. Merriam of the last class in the Union Theological Seminary, was ordained as pastor of the Congregational Church in Mason Village on the 9th inst.

—The Rev. Dr. Nathaniel Bouton of Concord, will preach a discourse on Thursday the 23d inst., at 11 o'clock, commemorative of the 40th anniversary of his settlement as pastor of the first church in that city.

—— Rev. Dr. Barstow of Keene has completed forty-seven years of his ministry at Keene, N. H., having lost but eight Sabbaths in all that period, from ill health.

—— The Exeter News Letter publishes a private letter, from Capt. George H. Giddings, of the third N. H. Volunteers.

Wilmington, N. C., March 10.

Our regiment is doing Provost Guard Duty in Wilmington, and we are having light duty at present. My health is good, never was better. All the Exeter boys are well, I am at present in command of Company K., which has recently been filled up with substitutes. They are a very good set of men, and much better than I expected to get. There are about 7000 citizens here, all Union of course. A very good theatre is in operation here, and it is well filled every night.

—— Joseph Staples, charged with breaking and entering the house of Mr. Charles Haley of Exeter, in September last, was examined before Justice Batchelder in Exeter last Friday, and was ordered to recognize in $1000, for appearance at the April Term of the S. J. Court.

—— The Mirror learns that Lucien Holmes, son of the Rev. Mr. Holmes of Auburn, died in the rebel prison at Salisbury, on the 7th of January. John D. Neller, also of Auburn, died in January at the same place. Both died of starvation and chronic diarrhea.

☞ The Manchester Union complains, because of a notice served upon the Selectmen of Ward Five, by a certain Captain and Provost Marshal in the service of the Federal Government, requiring them to reappear before certain other servants of the Federal Executive, and to produce the Check List used at recent elections in said Ward,"—and also "to testify what they know relative to the enrolment of Ward 5, in said Manchester." —The complaint is, that the proceeding sets aside State Rights. But the real difficulty is most probably that some persons calling themselves aliens or non-residents at the Provost Marshal's office, called themselves citizens to get on the check list and vote! It is the Provost Marshal's duty to arrest such rascals,—and the fear is, that he may do it. If all were right, the Selectmen would not be afraid, and the State Rights would not suffer. —Apropos of enrolment and check list, we are told that some of the rejected voters in Greenland had previously stated themselves to be non-residents of Greenland to get clear of the draft!

A TOUCHING INCIDENT.—The following is taken from an abstract, given by the correspondent of the N. Y. Christian Inquirer, of a sermon recently preached in Washington by Rev. W. H. Channing:

Next he carried his audience to hospitals of the soldier, where again he found Christ manifested — sometimes consciously and then unconsciously. Among many other exquisite anecdotes, exquisitely told, was that of a boy not eighteen, whom in his office of Chaplain he found dying. He said to him, "My boy, what shall I do for you?" "Take my pocket-book out," said he. Mr. Channing did so, and the boy opened it and took out three photographs. At one he looked and said, "My mother, you did not so soon expect to meet me." (His mother was evidently dead.) He then took out another and said, "Dear sister Lizzie, you did not think I should die so far from you;" he then kissed this, as he had done that of his mother, with more loving words to both. He then took out the third and looked up into Mr. Channing's face and smiled. It was his betrothed. Mr. Channing said: "It is hard to die when life is so sweet." "Oh, no, no, no," said the boy: "I thank God that I have a life to give for my dear country."

TRIAL AND FRIENDSHIP.—Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus has had a trial among three million families, and is pronounced the best Saleratus in the known world. Its use always brings a smile to the household; it keeps them in health; it helps make the weak strong, and saves hundreds from that dreadful disease, dyspepsia. As you value health, use it. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York.

PROSPECT OF PEACE.

GLORY OF THE REPUBLIC.

This war, waged by the corrupt rulers of the South without any justifiable cause, has lasted two years, at least, longer than was anticipated—partly in consequence of not having at its commencement well qualified and loyal Generals and Naval Officers in command of our military and naval forces. After the rebels had seized all the property of the United States within their reach, and after they fired the first gun at Fort Sumter, we stated that we must conquer or be conquered. Still we never doubted for a moment that the North would conquer. "He that taketh the sword shall perish by the sword" is a declaration being fulfilled. "Whom the Gods would destroy, they first make mad." Surely the petty despots were made mad when they involved the nation in a civil war to gain an object, which being lost, they will fall like Lucifar, to rise no more. For the recent brilliant success of our national arms, our hearts are filled with devotional gratitude to the Almighty Disposer of events, in whose hands are our national destinies. It is, indeed, possible that some reverses may take place, but these could tend only to prolong the war a short time. The victories achieved by our valiant troops at Atlanta, Fort Fisher, the evacuation of Savannah, Columbia, Wilmington, Charleston, Fort Sumter, and the defeat of Early and his army, the capture of Charlottesville and Kinston, without enumerating other victories by sea and land, afford triumphant evidence that the Republic will live, and, we trust, will live forever. But while we give all honor and praise to the patriots and heroes who peril their lives in its defence, let us give glory to God, who, by human instrumentality, gives us the victory over the rebel traitors who conspired to destroy the national life.

Charleston was the nursery of treason. It was there that the chief conspirators, haughty, arrogant and imperious, first plotted the subversion of the government, with a view to extend and perpetuate their hell-born institution over our vast free territories, and thereby secure their political control of the national council. What is their fate? Their proud city is in ruins, and they have fled from their homes, and are now wanderers upon the face of the earth, while their down-trodden slaves remain exulting with irrepressible joy, that they have gained their national rights. Is it not the decree of High Heaven that retributive justice follows crime? The only remaining strongly fortified rebel intrenchment is Richmond, the proud capital of Virginia. The public journals of that city concede that should it be captured or evacuated, the rebels must soon lay down their arms—that all would be lost! No doubt of that. Should their army be withdrawn, without a bloody battle, into the interior among their mountains and valleys, demoralized as it is, with constant desertions, without pay, poorly clothed and fed, how long would any considerable force remain to carry on a guerrilla warfare?

The Northern armies are rapidly increasing and concentrating near Richmond for its capture, or surrender, by cutting off the supplies. Gen. Lee must, therefore, soon quit his entrenchments and offer battle in the open field, or else be starved out, unless he should escape into the interior. The Southern population now in favor of prosecuting the war does not probably exceed four or five millions, perhaps much less than that number. On the other hand, the Northern and Northwestern population, including all the loyal States, is not less than twenty-four millions; and four millions of slaves declared to be free, are at heart with the latter. Should future exigencies require it, rather than be conquered our loyal population could call to the tented field a million and an half of troops in addition to our present military forces. Our resources are inexhaustible. Our soldiers are more liberally paid than were any others in ancient or modern times. "Money is the sinews of war," and of that the rebel government is destitute. Its paper currency is as worthless as the paper of which it is made, and will never be redeemed, much to the disappointment of foreign capitalists who have aided the rebellion. Our brave Generals, Grant, Sherman, Thomas and Sheridan will soon bring the war to a close. The Angel of Peace will come with glad tidings, and

"Sa ;hall our Nation's song second
To Thee, our Ruler, Father, Friend;
While Heaven's wide arch resounds again
With Peace on Earth—good will to men."

Bot the comparatively few tyrannical oppressors of the down-trodden white and colored races, who instigated the war, and caused the vast expenditure of treasure, the effusion of blood, and filled the whole nation with bitter and mourning, cannot expatiate their crime even by suffering Haman's fate!

The crowned heads of Europe, with their nobility, have sympathized with the rebels; not that they did not abhor slavery, but because they viewed with a jealous eye the rising greatness of the American Republic, and therefore would rejoice at a disruption of our Union. They feared that our example of free government, if successful, would ultimately cause an uprising of their degraded subjects. This was would have long since ended, had it not been for military supplies, munitions of war, and foreign loans, and other things essential to the support of the rebel army, manufactured in the work-shops of England, although she professes a strict "neutrality" in respect to the conflicting parties! Armed vessels, constructed in her shipyards, have done an immense amount of injury to our commerce. Had not the English nobility stood in fear of the people, who generally wish success to our arms in crushing the insurrection and emancipating four millions of slaves, that Government, possibly that of France also, would have recognized the independence of the rebels as a separate nation. But under the present posture of affairs, neither of those Powers will do any act which might lead to a war with our loyal States,—for in such event the latter could let loose privateers enough, with other armed vessels, to sweep their commerce from every ocean of the globe. Various other valid reasons will prevent foreign interference.

With the return of the blessings of peace—the one nation, united again under the best government on earth,—the star-spangled emblem of freedom waving in the air, will resume her front rank among the nations of the earth. Most of our war vessels will be converted into merchantmen, although we now have the most numerous mercantile marine in the world;—our canvass will whiten every ocean;—our products, agricultural, manufacturing, mechanical, and mineral, will far exceed those of past periods;—our population will rapidly increase—and, in fine, our national wealth and prosperity will far exceed that of any nation under arbitrary government. We predict the future glory and prosperity of the republic not without valid reasons. Our vast domain extends from ocean to ocean, embracing various climates and a fertile soil, capable of producing all the varieties of fruits in the vegetable kingdom, sufficient for the supply of several hundred millions. Our system of self-government, (the people being the source of political power) and the rights of every one to the wages of his labor, give a stimulus to all industrial pursuits. The people have vested sufficient power in their government for its own preservation and prosperity. The cause which for thirty years past has agitated the nation, greatly impeding the welfare and prosperity of the Southern part of it, can no longer be the bone of contention and discord. The return of smiling Peace will open a new era to the people inhabiting the "sunny plains of the South."—They will be entitled to the fruits of their own industry, and therefore their products will be increased at least two-fold. They will emerge from the long night-darkness of heathenism, superstition and ignorance, to the resplendent sun-light of freedom and civilization. Dreadful as has been the scourge of war, its history will afford evidence that to them it will be the means of their regeneration, disenthrallment, and improvement of their social condition, welfare and happiness.

CIVIS.

COLD COMFORT.—The Concord Patriot speaks of the election returns in this wise:

They will afford no great satisfaction to the Democracy generally; but it is their own fault that they do not present a brighter hue, or indicate a less gloomy future. About 5000 of them neglected to vote, and generally our friends neglected the labor which is essential to success. This resulted from a general feeling that success was neither attainable nor desirable at this time—as no considerable public benefit could be effected by it. * * * * And when the time arrives when the patriotic Democracy of New Hampshire see an opportunity to benefit their country, to promote any great public interest, or to aid in saving our national institutions from the wreck that seems impending, they will rally again in their old vigor, in their old courage, in their old stength. * * * * *

The Republican vote now is very near the vote for Lincoln in Novem ber—showing that about the full Republican strength was brought out. When the country demands it of them, the Democracy can and will overcome this strength.

The country does not demand it this year.—The rebels might have been pleased with it, before they were so discouraged,—but nobody demands it now. Copperheads are at discount, and the hypocrites who pretended to be loyal but went with them, are despised but not feared.

SOLDIERS' VOTES.—We see several items of N. H. soldiers' votes, that may interest some readers. The second regiment gave 61 votes—22 for Marston, Rollins 21, and Patterson 18, and none for a copperhead. 6th regiment, Union 58, copperhead 0; 9th regiment, Union 84, copperhead 2; 11th regiment, Union 152, copperhead 10; 18th, 1 batt., Union 266, copperhead 6.

MAD DOG IN READVILLE.—On Saturday morning last, as Mr. Wm. Bullard, a gentleman of seventy years, who lives in the immediate vicinity of Camp Meigs, was quietly milking his cows in his barn, a savage and ferocious, large, black Newfoundland dog in the worst stage of hydrophobia, rushed in and attacked him. The old gentleman with firm presence of mind seized a fork and was able to prevent his cows being bitten and also himself, but during the struggle two cats were bitten and also a valuable horse belonging to his son, known as the "Richmond Black Hawk." Captain Wilkie, Provost Marshal, immediately sent out a detachment of men with loaded muskets, and late in the afternoon they succeeded in killing the dog in a place known as Dedham Upper Village. No one knows where the dog came from.

— A relic hunter in the abandoned house of R. Barnwell Rhett, editor of the Charleston Mercury, found a package very characteristic of the chivalry—fifty unpaid tradesmen's bills.

— The miners in California "strike a vein;" in Colorado they "strike a pocket;" in Pensylvania they "strike ile."

THE REBELLION.

Richmond papers say the rebel Congress adjourned sine die without passing any of the measures for the salvation of the Confederacy urged by Davis in his special message. Congressmen are anxious to get out of Grant's trap while they can. They intimate that Stephens has deserted the cause. From the tone of calls for negroes, it seems the owners are not willing to turn their slaves over to the government. Lee has printed another letter urging this measure.

In a debate in the North Carolina Legislature a few weeks since, one of the members stated that the entire effective force of the Confederacy numbered only one hundred and twenty-one thousand men, which statement, on being questioned, was substantiated by official documents from Richmond.

The State authorities in North Carolina, who allow no guerrillas to prowl within their borders, have repeatedly remonstrated with the authorities at Richmond, against the inhuman treatment extended by the rebel Government to prisoners of war.

Our Gen. Sheridan's troops are in the best condition, and appear to have suffered little from their long march from Winchester. About three hundred rebel prisoners are at White House, together with three thousand negroes who followed our troops as they passed through the country.

A large number of prisoners were captured during the raid, but owing to the rapidity of Sheridan's movements, many of them had to be abandoned, and others made their escape. The entire cavalry force has crossed to the south bank of the Pamunkey river, preparatory to a new movement.

The rebel Gen. Longstreet with his force, is supposed to be lurking in the vicinity of White House; for on the evening of the arrival of Sheridan, several skirmishes occurred between his advance pickets and unknown small squads of the enemy, who were prowling about for reconnoitering purposes.

The Washington Republican contains an extract from the Richmond Sentinel of Monday, stating that on the 17th four divisions of Sherman's army were repulsed near Fayetteville with heavy loss; but the Republican adds that the Government has reliable information that this report of a repulse is untrue, and that later news has been received of Sherman's movements, which show that he is triumphantly marching on.

The issue of passes to civilians to the army of the Potomac was suspended. A large number of sutlers came up, and the remainder will follow expeditiously.

Full dispatches from Kinston, N. C., March 17, state that intelligence had been received there that Sherman's left was at Bayardsville, eight miles south of Raleigh, and his right about twenty miles from Kinston, on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

A Newbern, N. C., dispatch of March 18, says Lieut. Knox, Chief Signal officer, who is just from the front, says a report was brought in from Goldsboro' stating that the enemy had evacuated that place and was moving towards Virginia.

A Senator at Washington, just from the front, says that Gen. Grant is of the opinion that Richmond will be evacuated within the next ten days.

The Tribune's James River correspondence says refugees from Richmond report great consternation in that city, which has been for some time in course of evacuation, in the way of sending government materials, machinery, &c., to Lynchburg and Danville. They say Sheridan has put a stop to this in a great measure by destroying the Richmond and Lynchburg Canal—the main means of communication left. The Danville Railroad is almost worn out, with no material or men to spare to repair it. These men think Davis, Lee and other leaders have lost all hope, and look to Mexico as an asylum.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says it is known by the Administration that Stephens, Hunter and Lee are hopeless of the rebellion, and have so informed Davis. Lee looks on the arming of slaves as a failure, for Congress delayed the measure too long; besides, the failure to make the negroes free renders the plan useless.

President Lincoln does not believe there will be any more serious fighting, but that the rebels will soon surrender.

Gen. Sherman wrote several days ago from Fayetteville, N. C., to a friend that he had received his supplies from up Cape Fear river, and was, at the time of writing, ready to move again, and that he had followed, with slight exception, the path laid out before he left Savannah.

The U. S. naval expedition up St. Marks river did much damage to the rebels, but did not capture the the town of St. Marks.

A Baltimore dispatch of the 22d says the steamer Ajax, from Morehead City, 20th, has arrived at Fortress Monroe, and reports that all that was known of Schofield was that he had advanced from Kinston. As the Ajax steamed out to sea all the war vessels in the harbor were observed to display flags in the rigging, and it was supposed that some good news had been received.

— Twenty years ago when a bill presented in Congress by John Quincy Adams had just been defeated, one of the Southern members said to him: "So, Sir, you are in a minority again—when do you think it will be otherwise with you Yankees?" "I don't know, I'm sure," replied Adams; "probably when votes are weighed instead of counted."

The properties of this Company consist of 643 acres, principally owned in Joe Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possesses. Three engines are already at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McElhany farm has commenced flowing, which places this Company beyond a doubt of success. The Officers of this Company, in placing this property before the New England public, have full confidence that no properties yet offered are superior, or any out of which larger and more certain dividends may at once be expected. ☞ Capt. Hall, Provost Marshal of this District, has issued a circular in conformity with the President's proclamation of the 11th inst., announcing that all deserters from the U. S. service who shall fail to return to said service, or report themselves to a Provost Marshal within sixty days after the said proclamation, or any who shall desert hereafter, and all enrolled persons who shall flee to avoid any draft, shall forfeit their citizenship of the United States. The time expires May 10th, and it becomes all real friends of deserters to encourage their return in season. The Secretary of War also directs that no reward be paid for the arrest of deserters who may be hereafter arrested.

☞ A man named Wm. Mills, was brought before the Police Court charged with complicity in the theft of rope and other material from Marcy's ship-yard, a week or more ago. Michael Hoffman, another party,—who is now boarding with J. B. Adams on Islington street—was solicited to appear and identify this Mills as an accomplice. Michael at once yielded to these importunities, but on beholding Mr. Mills declared in the most solemn manner that "the like o' the man he never beheld." So William was discharged, as nothing could be proved against him, and Michael immediately sought his up-town boarding-house.

☞ Somebody says "There is more light in a quart of ink than in a million feet of gas, a million quarts of oil, and a million pounds of tallow." That's what we call "making light" of ink—and if that can be done to such an extent, we hope the Stars and Bars man will keep what he "borrowed" of us—as in fact he seems determined to.

☞ Mr. Wendell advertises to sell a House with land, at auction this morning.

CHARLESTON AS IT IS.—Advices from Charleston of the 14th inst. represent that the only activity displayed in that city at present is exhibited by the citizens desirous of taking the oath of allegiance and resuming a loyal position towards the national government. A committee consisting of Governor Aiken, Dr. Mackey and Alderman Williams, are still busy in distributing rice to the poor. At the West Point Mills the other day, at least six thousand people, of all classes and colors, received a measure of rice, which was all they had to keep starvation from their doors. Since the occupation of the city, boats from the navy and army have been engaged in a search for the torpedoes which were to blow everything sky-high that attempted to enter the inner harbor. None have as yet been found in the vicinity of the channel, and the tremendous obstructions we used to hear so much about are also wanting. The number of heavy guns already found is nearly five hundred; others are coming, to light A vast quantity of ammunition has also been found.

GOLD has an antipathy to Davis, and does not like to "see him about." In his last message to the Confederate Congress he said that, with two millions in coin, the armies of Virginia and South Carolina could be amply supplied for the remainder of the year. The Richmond banks seem to have obtained a hint of this fact, and they accordingly have for the past fortnight been sending their gold to some place of safety, where it will not be applicable to the wants of those armies.

— The rebel Senate, by a vote of nine to six, rejected Davis' proposition to suspend the writ of habeas corpus. The supporters of the measure included only the so-called "Senators" from Missouri, Tennessee and Kentucky—fellows that have been hanging around Richmond for two years or more, without venturing within sight of their respective constituencies.

— Intelligence from San Domingo says that a counter revolution had broken out among the patriots, one portion of whom, under a planter named Martinez, had raised a force and attacked, defeated and captured his compatriots at Santiago, liberated the Spanish prisoners and put arms into their hands to fight against his countrymen.

— The present is the proper time to divest fruit and shade trees of the mass of caterpillar's eggs which encircle the limbs, and which will certainly prove a scourge unless they are removed before the approaching summer.

— A large and orderly meeting of colored people was held in Savannah on the 5th inst., to listen to the reading of one of Henry Ward Beecher's sermons by Lieut. A. P. Ketchum, of Gen. Saxton's staff.

— A "faro bank" at Portland, kept by Joseph Gardiner and another Boston man, was gobbled up by the police, and thirty persons present at the game arrested and released on parole.

— Gold, Wednesday, 156 1-8.

— A petroleum company has been started in New York, with a capital of half a million, shares only twenty-five cents.

— A man named Root was killed in Sunderland, Vt., by the bursting of a grindstone.

—Sherman took more cannon at Charleston without a battle than Napoleon took in any three of the greatest battles he ever fought.

— "Incoherence"—it's the name now applied to officials suffering from Andy Johnson's disease. An old distemper in a new form.

— The Post says Fawney's twaddle about Andy Johnson's health is awful. He had too many "healths"—that's what's the matter.

"Put me in the grave, but never put on me the garment of a submissionist!"—Howell Cobb.

Poor Cobb! Has it come to this, that he wants to be buried without a shroud?

— The Queen of the turf, Flora Temple, now almost out of her teens, is to trot in New York this Spring, with a lot of the new and young time-clippers. We hope the little beauty (handsome is who handsome does) will beat them all, unless they beat the old lady's best time.

— We find it stated that the Navy Department propose to retire about one half of our blockading fleet, and to use one half or 25,000 of the seamen for land duty. This will materially reduce the expenses of the Department.

— The Directors of the Globe Mill, Newburyport, have voted to suspend work for one month; and the Bartlett directors voted to suspend one half of their work. We suppose the other mills will be forced to do the same.

— In Illinois, Indiana, Iowa and Wisconsin recruiting is brisk, and the best men are volunteering, many of them having seen service. The army is extensively reinforced, 15,000 men having been received at the general rendezvous, New York, within the past two weeks.

— A letter from Charleston in the Washington Republican, says ex-Governor Aiken has reported the names of all his slaves, seven hundred and fifty in number, to the Commandant of the post, and given each family a farm on one of the most fertile and productive islands on the coast, placed them on it, and all are well started in life.

— The rebel arsenal at Fayetteville, N. C., destroyed by General Sherman, was the most complete establishment of the kind in the South. It contained all the valuable material taken from the Harper's Ferry arsenal at the commencement.

— The Platteville, Wis. Witness notes the return home of a Miss Georgiana Peterman, who has been for two years a drummer in the 7th Wisconsin regiment. She lives in Ellenboro', is about twenty years old, wears soldier clothes, and is quiet and reserved.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the Seven-Thirty Loan.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD - BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is

THE ONLY LOAN in the Market

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

DR. URANN,

PRACTICAL PHYSICIAN

Who has made so many wonderful and instantaneous cures in Boston, New York, Hartford, Springfield, and more recently in New Hampshire and Vermont, has taken

ROOMS FOR THE PRESENT AT THE

FRANKLIN HOUSE

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

DR. URANN'S treatment is such that by it

All Curable Diseases

are affected in one or two treatments, and many are entirely cured by one, as the following will testify:—

W. F. HOMES, 50 and 52 Federal Street, Boston for many years was troubled with Heart complaint, so bad that at times he was unable to attend to his business; after one treatment he was able to run up stairs, work in his garden and attend to his business; has since gained 12 pounds

MRS. ELLEN COREY, of Cambridgeport, Mass.—Sciatica; so lame that she could not walk without assistance; after one treatment of fifteen minutes was well as ever, and could walk a mile free from pain.

MRS. SARAH P. STILES, Lowell, Mass., had Fever Sores on both legs of twelve years standing; her right ankle measured eighteen inches, and was as blue as indigo; she could not move her foot; after one treatment it was reduced one-half, she could move her foot freely and is getting well rapidly, her left ankle all healed.

Prof. G. M. LARRON, 1 DIX Place, Boston, troubled with Spinal difficulty, was in much pain; relieved by one treatment.

MISS HANNAH COOL, Campton, N. H.—Spinal difficulties; was unable to walk but a short distance or do any kind of work; perfectly cured, and is now the picture of health.

MISS C. FROTHINGHAM, Boston, Portrait Painter, was troubled with great depression of spirits, at times was unable to attend to her favorite employment; was entirely cured, and she expresses herself, it "made over anew."

MRS. J. BROWN, Boston, a severe cough and pains through her lungs, cured.

Capt. W. H. LAMPSON'S CHILD, Lowell, Mass. The child was pronounced by physicians as hopelessly idiotic. The child could neither walk or sit alone, and took no notice of anything. After one treatment he began to improve, and has so far gained as to be able to walk alone, can talk, takes notice of everything, laughs and sings, and appears perfectly well.

MRS. HINCKLEY, wife of A. T. Hinckley, of State Arsenal, Hartford, Ct., troubled with hip complaint and contraction of the cords of the legs; could not get her heel to the floor within four inches; had to be brought down stairs in arms; after one treatment of twenty minutes was able to run up and down stairs with ease, and is now able to walk the streets.

Mr. J. TURNER, Hartford, Ct, troubled for many years with loss of memory; could not attend to business; had been under the best medical treatment in England with no beneficial effect; after one treatment was perfectly restored.

Miss MARTHA ST. JOHN, Simsbury, Ct., was confined to her bed from spinal difficulty and prolapsus uteri; had not been dressed for more than a year; in twenty minutes she was enabled to dress and walk out to one of the neighbors, a distance of about a half mile; she has since been to Hartford and to church, and is improving daily.

MRS. HENRY LOOMIS, Southwick, Mass., troubled with fits and spinal difficulties, could not walk without much difficulty, perfectly cured by one treatment.

MRS. WM. JENKINS, Unionville, Conn., troubled for over two years with chronic liver complaint and rheumatism, had a large lump on her side which was very painful; was unable to lie down. Cured by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

JOSEPH H. ELDRIDGE, formerly of the Hartford Police, more recently on Hartford and New Haven Railroad, was obliged to give up his business on account of a severe cough and bleeding, perfectly cured and can now do a good day's work.

LYDIA L. FULLER, of East Wallingford, Vt., had entirely lost the use of her limbs after a severe attack of diptheria, was restored by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

FANNY DAVIS, of Moretown, Vt., had been confined to her bed for more than five years—was not able to stand—after one treatment of less than an hour, was enabled to walk around the room, and is now quite well.

MISS HUTCHINSON, daughter of Judge Hutchinson of West Randolph, Vt., was troubled with fits, having some days from fifty to one hundred. She was unable to eat anything but liquids—was not able to stand. After one treatment she began to improve, until now, she is the picture of health, able to walk as well as any one, eats hearty and has no fits.

SOUTHWICK, Mass., July 21, 1862.

DR. URANN,—Dear Sir:—I suppose it is ever a pleasure to you to learn the convalescent state of your patients; notwithstanding my long three years of almost absolute confinement to my bed, unable most of the time to converse with or see any company, and for over two years unable to feed myself—yet with this painful picture of human wretchedness which made life almost a burden, since your treatment of my spine, on the 7th day of June, I have been able to take my meals at the table, with my family, ride out daily, and converse freely with all; and without some new misfortune befalls me, I shall soon be able to interest myself in the labors of my profession, at least to preach one sermon a Sabbath. Without flattery, in my honest judgment, there is no better treatment in the hands of men for the Spinal Disease than the one which you honor, and as my heart beats with sympathy with all Spinal sufferers, I only wish they knew the wonderful utility of your treatment, and avail themselves of the same. Yours with respect and gratitude,

M. H. RISING.

DR. URANN'S TERMS

Are such that all can avail themselves of his treatment.

☞ Persons at a distance who are unable to visit the Doctor, by sending particulars of their cases, with one dollar enclosed, will receive advice and learn whether their cases can be treated at a distance. In all cases, state age and sex.

Morning Chronicle.

AN UP COUNTRY LETTER.—Windsor, Vt., March 17.—It is very seldom that a physician avails himself of what he prescribes for others; yet here I am, only a few days after advising others to gain a knowledge of their own country, before going abroad, writing you from under the shadow of Ascutney, the highest of the Green Mountains; while the steady drip, drip of the melting snow on the roof, gives a patter familiar as household words. But you say, this must be an out andout fool who seeks such a country for pleasure at this season of the year. All that may be true, but I hold that the man who fails to see the mountains in their robes of ermine, loses a grander sight than those who fail to see them in summer.

Leaving that beautiful granite depot in Boston, (of the interior improvements to which, rendering it one of the most pleasant and convenient in New England, you sometime since gave an account,) we had a pleasant trip over the Fitchburg Railroad, but the fog rather interfered with our prospecting the country. At Lincoln, a small station, where a number of years since the depot master was shot dead, while courageously pursuing a mail robber, a youthful rascal robbed the mail about a week since, but has been apprehended. At Acton great piles of timber and logs surround the saw-mills near the railroad, and I think the vicinity might be called the lions of Massachusetts, being evidently the lumber region of the State.

Groton Junction, the intersecting point of the Fitchburg and the Nashua & Worcester roads, is quite a stirring place; Ames' great manufactory of agricultural implements being among the industrial monuments. At Shirley there are a number of cotton factories—a horse-nail manufactory and an establishment for condensing milk. The nails are made by a small trip-hammer, six or eight at each heating of the rod; afterwards assorted, the defective ones rejected, and put up in 25lb. boxes. The milk is condensed by steam, four gallons being reduced to one by evaporation, sugar is added, and the result put up in cans. Patent skates are manufactured here. In this town is a community of shakers, consisting of three families, numbering about a hundred persons. Leominster also appeared quite a thriving place.

Fitchburg should be called the "City of Bridges," as seen by the traveller, there appears to be one on nearly every street. Hardware is manufactured there we know, for we saw a pottery factory and an establishment for making grindstones. The water power is increased by a reservoir in Ashburnham. Several years since the dam at this reservoir gave way, but a courier warned the mills below in season to allow time for opening their gates and so prevented the flood by drawing off the water.

Not caring to await the express train, we made a trip over the Cheshire Railroad in a car attached to a freight train. Entering the Granite State, we saw no traces of the exciting election of the day before, and naturally concluded it must have been like a jug handle—all on one side. At Fitzwilliam tubs and buckets are made in large numbers. After passing Troy, (a little town so situated among the hills, that had Priam carried the lovely Helen thither; he might have been speedily forced to shell her out or be shelled out himself,) we missed much of the scenery on account of the mist.

Swanzey Pond, a beautiful sheet of water with a number of little islands on its breast, and these again furnishing support for a number of trees, is said to be the point nearest Boston to which the aborigines penetrated during the Indian war.

Arrived at Keene, we were reminded of a circumstance relating to the Keene High School, told in our hearing by a gentleman of long experience in teaching youth. As a visiter to the school he was requested to ask any of the pupils when they had received a mark for being tardy. Astonished at the universality of the reply "Not for three years," he was still more astounded when the principal informed him that for that length of time he had not had a scholar tardy; and that it was not only the case in the boys' school, but the girls not to be outdone had equalled them in punctuality.

Circling around high upon the inner circle of a vast amphitheatre of hills, the railroad overlooks the villages of East Westmoreland and Westmoreland, giving charming views of the Connecticut river, and soon after bringing us to Bellows Falls.

Here we took a tangent from the Burlington and Troy route, and moved up on the Vermont Central Railroad, so called from running a long way in New Hampshire, into which State it crosses immediately after leaving the Falls. At Charlestown there is a beautiful spring of water, flowing from a massive square of Granite set by the roadside. Night closed so darkly in upon us, that my observations were brought to an untimely end. IOX.

PETROLEUM OIL AGENCY.

The California Petroleum Company

In the Summer of 1864, Professor B. Silliman, Jr., examined this locality, now owned by the CALIFORNIA PETROLEUM CO., the purchase of which he strongly recommended to his friends in New York.

The property covers an area of 18,000 acres in one body, on which are at present at least twenty Natural Wells, some of them the largest size. Artesian Wells can be put down, 25 miles in extent The Ranch is an old Spanish Grant of four leagues, and perfect title.

WELLS, FARGO & CO. say that "those who wish to invest in this class of security need not hesitate a moment where to place their money;—here is a good, honest, reliable concern—one which in our judgment will pay."

Shares $40.—Par Value $100.

Rensselaer Petroleum Comp'y.

The property consists of 100 acres, in fee simple, on Two Mile Run, near Oil City—a double lease of the Clapp Farm above Oil City, and four acres in fee simple on Pithole Creek, in the heart of the Oil Regions.

Capital $300,000. Shares $3. Par Value $6.

Sheffield Petroleum Company.

This property consists of 226 acres on the Tionesta Creek—seventy-five acres in the same vicinity. This property is cut through by the ten mile run, a branch of the Tionesta, and the Sedburyle Erie Railroad. This property is considered of great value in the market.

Capital $300,000. Shares $1. Par Value $3.

Everett Oil Company,

OF BOSTON.

The property of this Company consists of 200 acres of land owned in fee simple, and two leases as follows: The land is located on Oil Creek, near Centreville Depot. The Oil Creek Railroad runs through the land. It has a river front of over one quarter of a mile. It is rich in oil.

Capital $300,000. Subscription price $5.

President Petroleum Company.

A few Shares of this valuable Stock can be had if applied for soon, at the original subscription of $6 per Share. It contains 5,400 acres, very valuable in Oil, Coal and Timber.

New York and Newark

PETROLEUM CO.

The property of this Company consists of five parcels of land situated in the very centre of the Celebrated Oil District of Pennsylvania (Venango County), and lays in the immediate vicinity of Oil City, the nearest being two miles and the farthest five; and within one-quarter of a mile of Allegheny River, one piece being on that river.—The Company have a twenty years' lease for one-half the Oil.

It is the interest of the Trustees to invest every dollar in sinking Wells and obtaining Oil, and not speculating in stock. HAMILTON E. TOWLE is Engineer and Superintendent of this company.

Capital $600,000. Shares $1.

All the above Stock for sale at the AGENCY, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, where Maps, Drawings and Pamphlets are ready for distribution.

I am fully persuaded that all the above Companies are good, well managed, and must pay good dividends, and are the best investments now in the market.

ESTABLISHED

FOR YEARS

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S

BLOOD-ROOT ELIXIR!

FIRST. The extraordinary curative effect of the Blood-Root Elixir was discovered by a regularly educated Physician; and the present proprietor also is a graduate from one of the highest Medical Colleges in New England.

SECOND. The Elixir is not alcoholic, contains no minerals, and may be relied upon as being composed of strictly vegetable substances; and no ingredient is intermixed that can unfavorably affect the most delicate constitution.

THIRD. The extensive and successful use of the Blood-Root Elixir, during the past year, proves it to be, without any qualification, the best and most valuable medicine that has ever been prepared for family use.

FOURTH. Medical science and skill have never been able to produce a cathartic medicine of equal power and effect, which contains so many desirable qualities. Its superiority as an aperient consists in its sure and thorough action, operating equally through all parts of the Bowels. It never produces griping pains in its operation; never occasions nausea; its flavor is pleasing and agreeable; and it will not be rejected by the most fastidious child. It may be safely used in all cases where laxative medicine is required. It will promote the comfort and health of both sexes, and of all ages: it will assist Nature during all infantile changes; it will, during the anxious hours of a mother's life, hasten and assuage her maternal pangs; it will render joyous and happy the lingering days of the aged and venerable. And when the Elixir is once introduced into any household, it will therein supersede all other laxative medicine.

FIFTH. The long period which the Elixir was used by the original proprietor, in prescriptions to his patients, and the great and unqualified success which has attended its more general use, during the past year, is continued by unsolicited testimonials, which in number and extended results exceed any estimate our most sanguine hopes so early had anticipated,—therefore we are fortified by unrefutable evidence, that our estimate of the efficacy and value of the Blood-Root Elixir has not been exaggerated.

SIXTH. In examining certificates received during the past year of its successful results, we are gratified in believing that our medicine has not failed in any case where it has been tried, to cure the most stubborn and chronic cases of COSTIVENESS.

SEVENTH. Most grateful manifestations have also been evinced by patients who have been relieved from LIVER COMPLAINTS of long standing. Also it has been effectual in curing CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN; and in eradicating HUMORS OF THE BLOOD. And many afflicted with deep seated incurable SCROFULA, have been greatly benefitted by a moderate use of the Elixir.

EIGHTH. In cases of COUGHS and COLDS it has proved successful beyond any assurance we have ever expressed; and those who have thoroughly tested its effect, believe it to be superior to all other cough preparations,—the Elixir, by its physical properties, equalizes the circulation of the Blood, and removes congestion. It also, when used as a gargle, or swallowed slowly, heals and soothes the irritated and inflamed membranes, from which the cough arises.

NINTH. Many persons suffer periodically from JAUNDICE, which is occasioned by a morbid and inactive state of the Lives. The Blood-Root Elixir is a sure relief from the despondent feelings and painful symptoms which are peculiar to that disease.

TENTH. DYSPEPSIA is an aggravating and disheartening disease, often leading to dangerous results. A limited use of the Elixir, according to the directions, will regulate the stomach and bowels with unerring certainty, and restore digestion to a natural and healthy action.

ELEVENTH. RHEUMATISM the Blood-Root Elixir will readily relieve; its warm and quickening effect counteracts the cold and morbid condition of the fluids, which is the primary cause of all Rheumatic affections.

TWELFTH. Persons subject to HEADACHE will be relieved in a few hours by a single dose of the Elixir.

☞ Every person taking the Elixir should carefully read the printed pamphlet which accompanies each bottle.

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure There can be no mistake, as the cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicine can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give me relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1839, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named. ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it does not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. mav26

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

GRAPES IN N. JERSEY. WE HAVE BEEN shown specimens of sacramental or pure juice Wine, prepared by Mr. Alfred Speer, of Passaic, N. J., out of the Portuguese Sambuco, a valuable grape which he cultivates in the country. In taste it assimilates to port with out its heating qualities, being absolutely free from spirits further than its own fermentation affords. Preference is given to it over all other wines in New York and other hospitals, as a tonic, gentle stimulant, diuretic and sudorific. Mr. Speer has been nine years experimenting in the production of this Wine, and the newest wine he sells is four years old.

AFFAIRS NEAR CHARLESTON.—A young Naval officer belonging to Salem, Mass., who is on board one of the gunboats in Cooper River, S. C., has written a letter to his father, dated March 7, from which we make extracts:

"We are having some excitement every day. The negroes are raising Old Nick on the plantations, in this part of the country. Our troops are going through, scouting, and yesterday they captured a rebel Major and several privates. The troops tell the negroes they are free, and when they come to a house that is locked up and "Massa gone away," they open it and tell the negs to help themselves to everything; they do so, thinking that it all belongs to them. Many planters are running to us for protection from their former slaves. Some are willing to take the oath, and others not quite ready; these we tell to look out for themselves, as we have no dealings with traitors.

We have had a squad of men out around several plantations, the last week, and Capt. M. has been busy in this vicinity. I would not show the first man any sympathy, for I have not seen one that I thought was a real loyal man; no, only loyal because property stands in the way, and policy is the only thing that makes them loyal.

Our negro regiments are in this vicinity, We got a note from an old lady on one of the plantations, a little way down river, today, and she says several negro soldiers came with 55 M on their caps, (55th Mass.) and they gave her hands everything that she had and left her almost naked. The negro soldiers have such feelings against every one who ever owned slaves, that they having an opportunity, are bound to show them. When a rich planter comes and tells his story of his losses and troubles, I rather pity him; but when I think of his having aided for the last four years to carry on this wicked rebellion against a good government, I throw aside my personal pity, and, taking a wider view of affairs, come to the conclusion that in this South Carolina, cradle of rebellion, if the fortunes of war make it necessary for these planters to become beggars, I must say that I cannot have any pity for them. Among them the rebellion started; here it was fed and clothed; they planted the seed, and now they are reaping the harvest of their wickedness. The curse is upon them; they are afraid to sleep nights, for fear of their slaves murdering or burning them out; they are fleeing from their homes, for what? because the aristocracy that they attempted to build upon the foundation of slavery, has fallen. They were rich; now they are poor as their slaves. Must I pity them? No, I cannot, or must not, to be able to do my duty to my country.

But I am getting on a little longer strain than I intended. The fact is, things have got to such a state here in South Carolina that the slave tells his master to leave, and he is compelled to do it.

OUR HAIR.—During the cold season the hair is cut too short; the ears are exposed. The cold winds not only produce buzzing and roaring in them, but often injure the hearing. While the weather is cold, the ears should be covered. The natural protection and the best one is the hair. The common nakedness of the back of the neck, is still more mischievous—leaving that vital part exposed to the extreme changes of our climate, produces innumerable weak eyes and irritable throats. Women are most fortunate in the present style. That net which hangs the hair upon the back of the neck, is not only artistic, but physiological. During cold weather men should allow their hair to meet the coat-collar.—Dio Lewis.

NOT AT HOME.—A worthy Hibernian, who was laboring under the delusion that men and women meant what they said, was tempted by a very cordial invitation from a lady of distinction to call at her house. The servant opened the door so quick that her voice was heard by Dr. M. saying, "Tell him I am not at home." His Irish wit came to his rescue, for he immediately said in a loud voice to the darkey: "Tell your mistress I have not called upon her this evening as she wished." The lady ran out and took the doctor by both hands, laughing heartily at his ignorance of the greatest institution of respectable life—lying.

— There was quite an exciting earthquake in the Furness district in Lancashire, Eng., recently. A house fell in one place, in another bells were rung, and on the seashore two fishermen observed the ground open, and sand and water thrown up to the height of eight or ten feet.

— Pork and butter speculators of Ohio are said to be in a rather tight situation, arising from the decline in gold and the prices of merchandise in general. It is said that the local banks (both State and National) advanced so largely to dealers in hogs that they are unable to discount to their regular customers.

— Alexander Milliner, a revolutionary soldier, died at Adams' Basin, thirteen miles from Rochester, N. Y., on Tuesday morning, at the age of one hundred and five years. There are only four of the revolutionary heroes alive, so far as is known.

— A friend of Mrs. Partington thinks it a sociable outrage that liquor-sellers are not to be allowed to serve on the jury, when all the lawyers are admitted to the bar.

FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1865.

BONAPARTE'S PREDICTION OF AMERICA.—The Worcester Palladium reminds us that, in a mood of thought and reflection, Napoleon, nearly half a century ago, made that remarkable prediction of the future of this country, which to day seems to be in the process of sharp but certain fulfilment. At St. Helena he said:

"Ere the close of the nineteenth century, America will be convulsed by one of the greatest revolutions the world ever witnessed. Should it succeed, her power and prestige are lost; but should the government maintain her supremacy, she will be on a firmer basis than ever. The theory of a republican form of government will be established, and she can defy the combined powers of the world."

Adopting the Napoleonic idea, (says the editor) we met our great Southern Rebellion with the declaration, that if the government encountered it with the vigor and earnestness of men determined to be successful, we should demonstrate to the world a wealth of power in popular governments almost beyond all calculation of the most zealous enthusiasts. The revolution, which the great Napoleon saw must come from the existence, in contiguity, of opposite ideas of human freedom and the rights of man—from the collision or conflict of opposite and adverse forms of civilization—is now in the fourth year of its progress. It has certainly been one of the greatest conflicts the world has ever witnessed. The success of the Rebellion must involve, fatally, the power and prestige of the government; while, as Napoleon said, if the government shall maintain its supremacy, the United States may be placed upon so firm a basis that it may defy the combined powers of the world.

This prediction—almost prophecy—of Napoleon, should be inspiration to both government and people, to rise above all considerations but those of nationality, fully vindicated and firmly established;—the largest liberty, incompatible with licentiousness, of every man before the supremacy of the law;—and that security for republican institutions which is found in its fullest measure in the guaranty, to all men, of equality of rights and of privileges.

The rebellion suppressed—the attempted revolution will close in a stupendous failure and SLAVERY, the great cause of all our woes, banished from the face of the continent, and all men being free to promote the glory of the Republic, while promoting their own individual welfare, the United States—the American people—fortified against national disaster by the arrangement of their powers as a nation and as States—and growing in strength as in age, the NATIONAL UNION, as Napoleon prophesied, will move on its way majestically, with the ability, at all times and under all circumstances, to "defy the combined powers of the world."

☞ The New York Herald prints official documents going to show that there is a complete rupture between Maximilian and the Catholic Church. Among them is a letter from the Pope to Maximilian, in which he utters warnings and gives advice, all of which however, are disregarded by the latter. The archbishops and bishops of Mexico also protest against the acts of Maximilian, and appeal for the suspension of the measure against the church. Their protest is also unheeded, and the final decrees of religous tolerance and confirmation of the reform laws of Juarez are pronounced.

A Vienna paper says that the Emperor Maximilian's renunciation of the succession to the Austrian throne is only valid so long as he is in possession of his Mexican Empire; that if he were compelled to abdicate, the document would become void, and the Archduke would again enter on the whole of the rights and estates descended to him from the Austrian dynasty.

☞ The Boston Post's dispatch from Washington, March 22, says, A paymaster who arrived to-day from the North Carolina coast, gives a cheering account of the condition of affairs there. Immense numbers of white refugees, estimated at 2000, were moving towards Wilmington, and their advance, three hundred in number, had already arrived at Fort Monroe. The banks of Cape Fear River were lined with turpentine, rosin and cotton, awaiting transportation. The most intelligent affirm that a scheme is cherished among the leading rebels and is now upon the tapis, in the event of any serious disaster to their arms, to retreat Westward with as large a portion of their army as they can keep together, and cross into the Trans Missisippi Department, in the hope of establishing their slave empire in Texas and Northern Mexico by means of an alliance with Louis Napoleon.

— Wm. S. Key, a grandson of Francis S. Key, of Star Spangled Banner fame, died lately in the Old Capitol Prison. He was a rebel soldier.

—Funds for the payment of Sheridan's gallant cavaliers will be ready in a few days.

— "Long John Abbott" has been sentenced to State Prison one year, for forgery.

THE REBELLION.

The Washington Republican Extra of March 22d, says the government has received intelligence that on Sunday last Sherman's army entered Goldsborough. His march was unopposed. Gens. Schofield's and Sherman's armies have formed a junction. The Republican says Sherman's present command is sufficiently formidable to confront Lee's whole army in open field without the assistance of Gen. Grant, and no force that the rebels may raise can impede Sherman's triumphant march Northward.

The Boston Post's special dispatch of the 22d, says, the Government is hourly expecting intelligence announcing the capture of Raleigh by Gen. Sheridan.

From Grant's army we learn that the rebels have erected a new battery to fire on our railroad trains between City Point and Hatcher's Run. It opened on Monday, but the shells fell far short. The winds are rapidly drying the roads. Our troops are ready to move at any hour. It is said that several days ago a party of Sheridan's scouts were driven in from White Oak swamp. It is reported a rebel pirate is to fit out at Bermuda:—and that a rebel force is near White House, Va.

A Tribune correspondent avers, on the best authority, that Richmond is now being evacuated as fast as possible, and that in a few days it will be occupied by Union troops without a battle.

A Washington despatch says it is believed by military men that the rebels will evacuate Raleigh, and make their stand at Danville, if they fight at all south of Richmond.

The World's dispatch says Gen. Grant some time since told Hon. S. S. Cox that he believed Lee desired to evacuate Richmond, but did not think it would be done. It is doubtful whether Lee could begin such a move without Gen. Grant's knowledge, and once known our armies would move.

The Richmond Despatch of Monday quotes from the Raleigh Progress a statement that there are rumors that one of Sherman's columns is moving in the direction of Hillsborough to cut the railroad communication between Greensborough and Raleigh.

Deserters report an army of rebel deserters in Western North Carolina, under one Kirk. They are armed and organized for protection against conscripting officers and to inflict such injury on the rebel cause as will contribute to the speedy termination of the war and enable them to return to their homes.

Steamer Varuna, from Beaufort, N. C., 20th, has arrived at New York. By her we learn that the news of capture of Goldsboro was received after the victory by dispatches from Gen. Sherman, which called for reinforcements for his army during his further march northward. An immense number of troops were promptly sent from Beaufort by rail and other roads to Goldsboro' preparatory to meeting the main army of Shermn. A battle was imminent, and hence Shrman's has an overwhelming force. Reinforcements and supplies have also been sent from Newbern to Sherman.

Refugees at Beaufort and Morehead City declare the rebel troops are demoralized and their supplies begin to fail.

It is reported that a part of Lee's army has been sent to reinforce Gen. Johnston, and that his main force was about five miles north of Raleigh. Sherman, at last accounts, was marching on Raleigh.

Sheridan is off on another raid, and it is expected he will intercept Johnston in his retreat.

GOLD, Thursday, 157 to 155 3-8.—Molasses sold at 70 cents per gallon, and sugar at 12 cents per pound, at wholesale, in New Haven, on Monday. Markets in Boston and New York are dull and unsettled.—Buyers are shy: waiting for something to turn up.

— The circular address of the rebel Congress to the people of the South has found its way into our lines. It is a more doleful document than Jeff. Davis's message to Congress.

—All the Union prisoners delivered by the rebels up to March 22, except those received at Wilmington, will, in a few days, be declared exchanged.

— A Montreal paper states that ten gentlemen of the rebel persuasion have $2,300,000 on deposit in that city. It would be a great relief to the United States if the "ten gentlemen" rebels would deposit themselves in Montreal, or some other place outside our limits.

— Last December, a young lady named Sarah A. Lowell, left her boarding house in Saco, and nothing was heard from her until last Sunday forenoon, when her body was found in the river, frozen to a cake of ice.—In her purse was found money and papers valued at over $700. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of voluntary drowning while in an insane condition of mind.

— A proposition is on foot for celebrating the completion of fifty years' peace between England and France.

— Two new brick blocks, to contain 70 tenements, are soon to be erected by the Pacific Mills Company at Lawrence, Mass.

NORTH CAROLINA.—Late accounts from Newbern say,—The rebels after burning their ram, abandoned Kinston in great haste, throwing all their heavy guns into the Neuse river. They attempted to blow up their magazine, which contained several tons of powder, but failed, and it fell into our hands together with a large amount of ordnance and commissary stores. Our forces now occupy Kinston, which was surrendered to them by the Mayor of the city.

A deserter who came in from the rebels the other day says the rebel General Hoke was killed in the battle of Friday week.—It is reported that Bragg had 40,000 troops with him when he attempted to destroy the column that moved from Newbern.—Bragg and Hoke gave their men the most solemn assurance that they would march triumphantly into Newbern last Sunday morning, and that each man should realize a fortune from the proceeds of the victory, and that Sherman would then be annihilated and the Confederacy established beyond a doubt.

The loss of Friday's battle was the irretrievable ruin of the rebels' plans against Sherman. The manner in which our men successfully resisted from behind their works the eight repeated assaults of the enemy, who at that time greatly outnumbered us, not only astonished our own officers, but elicited a high tribute to their courage from Bragg. This battle made it apparent that Bragg's men could not be induced to make another stand.

OUR GEN. THOMAS in his official report of the recent Tennessee campaign, published by authority of the War Department, says there were captured from the enemy during various actions 13,189 prisoners of war, including seven general officers and nearly 1000 other officers of all grades, 72 pieces of serviceable artillery, and many battle flags. During the same period over 2000 deserters from the enemy were received, to whom the oath was administered. Our own losses will not exceed 10,000 in killed, wounded and missing.

RICHMOND ITEMS.— The Richmond Sentinel of Monday says there is no official information of the repulse of Sherman, but gives credence to it.

The Dispatch announces the arrival at City Point of a large fleet of gunboats and transports, and says the Yankees have erected saw mills, machine shops, &c., of all descriptions, and made a manufacturing city of the place.

Richmond papers say that the Arabian horse presented to Jeff Davis by the Viceroy of Egypt, and brought over in a blockade runner, and which was sent into the interior of North Carolina for safe keeping, has been captured by Sherman's scouts, who announced their intention of sending it to President Lincoln.

☞ The Tribune says that Jeff. Davis, in his last Message to the Rebel Congress, incidentally lets out the State right views he has found prevailing among certain Governors (we guess Brown of Georgia, for one). A Governor has informed him that "the law does not permit him to call out the militia from one county for service in another!"—so that we seem to have not merely State rights, but County rights, and we presume town rights, and probably ward rights, and then house rights, which would result in the convenient maxim that no man can be called on to fight for any other than his own particular altars and fires—and no more than he chooses for those. Behold the beauties of the theory, to maintain which the Calhounists rebelled.

— The judgment of the Court in the case of F. W. and B. G. Smith, of Boston, who were sentenced to two year's imprisonment and a fine of $20,000 for alleged frauds in Government contracts, has been disapproved by the President, and the parties fully exonerated of all blame. This, it will be recollected, accords with the opinion of Hon. John P. Hale expressed in the Senate, some months ago, in which he contended that the Messrs. Smith were the victims of persecution.

— A Federal officer who recently visited the rebel General Forrest, at Rienzi, Mississippi, upon business connected with the exchange of prisoners, represents the latter as being a very sociable and communicative person, both in manner and speech. Forrest is said to have talked freely about the war, and expressed the opinion that Lee would abandon Richmond and march his army through Kentucky into Illinois, and that the grand decisive battle of the war would be fought somewhere in that State. The life or death of the Confederacy, Forrest thinks, will depend upon the strength of the army with which Lee will invade the Northwest.

FROM HAYTI, via New York, we have a statement, that "an incendiary fire took place at Port au Prince on the 28th ult., by which one hundred and fifty houses were destroyed, involving a loss of $7,000,000 (Spanish); another attempt was made subsequently, but the incendiaries were caught and shot."—No doubt true in the main:—but the amount of loss looks incredible.

Superintendent.
W. W. WHITE, of Oil City.

This stock is bona fide, full paid, with no possibility of future assessments and no personal liability. The absolute value and actual cash cost of this property are so great as to preclude its being offered with the allurement of a reduction from a nominal par value.

It has been selected, at different times during the past year, by several old and experienced oil workers and residents of Oil Creek, who are familiar with the history, progress and value of every well and piece of property in that region.—Several of the producing interests were originally acquired for the purpose of holding as private investments and sources of regular income.

These gentleman have, however, been induced to combine their various interests, with additional property, into one strong, sound, and reliable company. Each of them will retain an interest as stockholders, and hold their stock as a permanent investment. Residing in the oil region, and directly concerned in the future success of the company, they are pledged to look closely after its operations; thus affording a guaranty of watchful supervision, and faithful and energetic management possessed probably by no other oil company ever formed. Two of these gentlemen are on the board of Direction, and one Superintendent of the Company.

The stock is sold to pay for the property, and to furnish a working capital to open up the large and promising tracts yet waiting to be developed.

The managers start with the intention of paying dividends quarterly and from actual earnings only. Paying quarterly affords time to sell the oil produced to the best advantage, and is believed to be in all respects the sound best policy.

The dividends will beyond question, be not only immediate, but regular, permanent and remunerative. We wish to avoid holding out any inducements not warranted by the same moderate and reasonable calculations that would be made in embarking in any legitimate business enterprise. It is safe, however, to assure subscribers of handsome quarterly dividends from the present wells of the company; which will moreover, we confidently believe, be very largely increased by new developments to be rapidly made upon our extensive and valuable properties.

We invite attention to, and the most careful examination of, the following list of properties, lands, and leases, the locations of which are all shown upon the map; believing that none more valuable and promising have ever been offered upon so small a capital, and none that have given greater assurance of permanent value and large returns. We invite subscriptions to the investment, and guarantee the most energetic and skilful efforts to develop the property thoroughly, as well as careful and faithful management.

Summary of Properties.

Two tracts of good boring land, one hundred and one hundred and four acres respectively, in fee, situated south of Oil City, in Venango county, in the immediate neighborhood of the Adamantine, Lee, and other large wells just struck on the East Sandy and Alleghany rivers.

Important interests and Leases on the best and most carefully selected properties on Oil Creek,—on the Hassan Flats,—Corplanter Run,—Rynd Flats,—Cherry Tree Run,—Clapp & Hassan, Widow McClintock, Foster, and two lots on the celebrated Hyde & Egbert Farm.

In all, fifteen wells, five of them producing, seven down from two to five hundred feet and still boring, and three just commencing, with room on the leases for several more wells.

Also a good Refinery, in complete working order, capable of refining 120 barrels per day, at a profit of one to five hundred dollars.

Also engines, tools, tubing, tanks, and improvements, the actual cash cost of which was $56,500, and worth to-day $75,000,—the whole comprising a property unsurpassed for present value and prospective increase.

Local.

☞ We are informed that on Tuesday night, a man named Tredick, from Newcastle, about midnight entered a drinking saloon at Noble's Island, with one or two other men, to play at cards. It is not known whether he won or lost; but shortly after he left the place, and when near the centre of the bridge leading to town, was heard by the crew of a schooner near to cry for help—which was followed by a splash as of a body falling into the river. A boat was lowered, but before the spot was reached, the cries and struggles had ceased. The river has been ineffectually dragged for the body, which when found may assist to clear up the mystery of the missing man.

Another and more probable story is that the man attempted to climb over the rail of Noble's bridge, from the railroad track, fell overboard and was drowned. His cries for help as he clung to the piers of the bridge were heard by a Railroad watchman, who immediately pushed off in a boat to rescue him; but ere he could arrive, the relentless waters had closed over him, and the stillness of death hung over the spot. It is said the poor fellow had passed the night in one of those dens of iniquity in that vicinity, and came out about three o'clock in an intoxicated state; and that the watchman at the bridge observing his condition, took him into the watch-house near the drawer, and having occasion to leave for a few moments to attend to a train, told him to remain until he returned; but, prompted by the rum influence within, the drunken man, instead of heeding this advice, left the watchman's quarters, and probably in attempting to get out on the public way, fell overboard as before stated.

☞ The large and shattered Elm tree in the side walk in front of the residence of Maj. William H. Hackett on Middle street, is being removed under the direction of Capt. Robert Shillaber,—much to the gratification of those who travel in that part of the city. The tree is an ancient landmark in that locality.

☞ The effort to pass an ordinance raising the salary of the City Marshal and Assistants ought to be successful, so that the city can have the benefit of their services, and the officers afford to remain on duty without attending to outside operations for a living.

☞ All who had the good fortune to attend the closing Lyceum, will rejoice to learn that a similar entertainment of Readings, Singing, &c., will be given here at an early day. Mrs. Cary, among others, will appear on the occasion; and nobody would be more cordially welcomed by a Portsmouth audience than she, we are sure.

☞ That Old Folks Concert will be given on Fast Night, at the Temple in this city; and probably another the Sunday evening following. Successful as have been all the entertainments heretofore given by this Choir, this is expected to eclipse all.

☞ Beautiful: the snow-squall yesterday morning. The flakes came down thick and fast, and white and light as feathers: while the sun shone out clear and bright at the same time.

☞ Gov. Miller, of Minnesota, has reappointed William H. Hackett, esq., of this city, a Commissioner for that State, to take acknowledgment of deeds, &c.

☞ Mr. Foster has Harper's Monthly for April, and the other Magazines, as usual.

☞ Quite a smashup-up occurred on the P. S. and P. railroad, between Brock's crossing and this city, on Wednesday night, caused by the freight train being thrown from the track, precipitating four or five cars down a high embankment, leaving them a mass of ruins. The accident was occasioned by a misplaced rail, torn up by an extra train of empty passenger cars which was returning from Boston, having transported a body of soldiers thither from Portland. The managers of this train probably did not know of the damage they had done to the track, or they would have stopped and signalized the freight train, which they knew must soon pass that way. It is a most singular circumstance that this train of cars should pass over a length of rail, tear it up, and escape unharmed. It was likewise fortunate for the engineer and fireman of the damaged freight train, that they were running at sufficient speed at this place to "jump it"—which they did, engine, tender and one car—the remainder of the train being thrown from the track.

The "Great Falls train," so styled, containing workmen for the Navy Yard, next morning, was detained an hour or more, until a train could be procured from the other side of the wreck.

— A letter in the Newburyport Herald from John D. Parsons, 23d Mass., regiment, says his wound received before Kinston, though somewhat severe is doing well. The ball entered his face so as to loosen his front teeth. After penetrating two inches, it bedded itself in the bones, whence it was extracted with difficulty.

A FAITHFUL PUBLIC SERVANT.—Amos Hadley, esq., of the Independent Democrat, was on Monday unanimously re-elected Clerk of the Common Council of the city of Concord; a position he has filled with credit to himself and to the satisfaction of the members of the City Government, for twelve years in succession, this being her thirteenth election. The salary of the office is but $25 per year; and the low compensation for the arduous labors of our cotemperary, demonstrate the fact that Editors are not always in receipt of high fodder at the public crib.

— A marketman recently undertook to sell poultry at a reasonable price in New Haven. The Police thought he must have stolen his chickens, and had him arrested. He was discharged, however, on examination.

— Large placards have been posted on the dead walls in Liverpool giving the passage from the eighteenth chapter of Revelations, beginning, "Babylon the great is fallen," as appropriate to the fall of Charleston.

— Rents in Jersey City are coming down. Landlords cannot sell their houses and want to let them.

— The iron workers of North Staffordshire have struck work rather than submit to a reduction of ten per cent. of their pay, in consequence of which the iron masters of England have formed a national association, and decided to stop work everywhere if the North Staffordshire men hold out. In that case 70,000 men will be thrown out of employment.

A coroner's jury in Wales returned as a verdict in the case of a woman who died suddenly, that "she died from congestion of the brain, caused by overtipulation."

☞ We call attention to the prospectus of the ANGLO-SAXON PETROLEUM COMPANY, of Boston. This Company is mainly formed by an association of old and experienced oil men in Oil City, Penn. The properties were carefully selected by these parties, and include some of the most valuable interests in the original oil region. Its officers are gentlemen of business experience and reputation, who are pledged to faithful and honest management. They invite subscriptions, not to a speculation, but to a permanent and profitable investment.

We were never aware that there was so great a difference in the qualities of bar soap until after using the J. He is the happiest who does most to make others happy. The inventor of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus must be the happiest man in existence, for we hazard nothing in saying that the use of the Gold Medal Saleratus cannot fail to make a happy household. Our better half says she does not fear our ever frowning, as long as she can get the genuine Herrick Allen's. We say success to the inventor, and if everybody knew how good it is, no other would be used. A good many of our Merchants have it. The depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

☞ Mr. Speer, having some property in New Jersey, turned his attention to the cultivation of the Sambuco, imported from Portugal. It bears a grape whose superior quality, juiciness and richness in saccharine matter is unexcelled by that of the Catawba. After numerous experiments in fermentation, Mr. Speer has produced a wine which will immortalize his name and prove a new honor to America.—[Boston Traveller.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the Seven-Thirty Loan.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent, including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.

Two cents " " " " " $100 "

Ten " " " " " $500 "

20 " " " " " $1000 "

$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

This is

THE ONLY LOAN in the Market

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities to take the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

DR. URANN,

PRACTICAL PHYSICIAN

Who has made so many wonderful and instantaneous cures in Boston, New York, Hartford, Springfield, and more recently in New Hampshire and Vermont, has taken

ROOMS FOR THE PRESENT AT THE

FRANKLIN HOUSE,

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

DR. URANN'S treatment is such that by it

All Curable Diseases

are affected in one or two treatments, and many are entirely cured by one, as the following will testify:—

W. P. HOMER, 50 and 52 Federal Street, Boston, for many years was troubled with Heart complaint, so bad that at times he was unable to attend to his business; after one treatment he was able to run up stairs, work in his garden and attend to his business; has since gained 12 pounds.

Mrs. ELLEN COREY, of Cambridgeport, Mass., —Sciatica; so lame that she could not walk without assistance; after one treatment of fifteen minutes was well as ever, and could walk a mile free from pain.

Mrs. SARAH P. STILES, Lowell, Mass., had Fever Sores on both legs of twelve years standing; her right ankle measured eighteen inches, and was as blue as indigo; she could not move her foot; after one treatment it was reduced one-half, she could move her foot freely and is getting well rapidly, her left ankle all healed.

Prof. G. M. LARRON, 1 Dix Place, Boston, troubled with Spinal difficulty, was in much pain; relieved by one treatment.

Miss HANNAH COOL, Campton, N. H.—Spinal difficulties; was unable to walk but a short distance or do any kind of work; perfectly cured, and is now the picture of health.

Miss C. FROTHINGHAM, Boston, Portrait Painter, was troubled with great depression of spirits, at times was unable to attend to her favorite employment; was entirely cured, and she expresses herself, is "made over anew."

Mrs. J. BROWN, Boston, a severe cough and pains through her lungs, cured.

Capt. W. H. LAMPSON'S CHILD, Lowell, Mass. The child was pronounced by physicians as hopelessly idiotic. The child could neither walk or sit alone, and took no notice of anything. After one treatment he began to improve, and has so far gained as to be able to walk alone, can talk, takes notice of everything, laughs and sings, and appears perfectly well.

Mrs. HINCKLEY, wife of A. T. Hinckley, of State Arsenal, Hartford, Ct., troubled with hip complaint and contraction of the cords of the legs; could not get her heel to the floor within four inches; had to be brought down stairs in arms; after one treatment of twenty minutes was able to run up and down stairs with ease, and is now able to walk the streets.

Mr. J. TURNER, Hartford, Ct, troubled for many years with loss of memory; could not attend to business; had been under the best medical treatment in England with no beneficial effect; after one treatment was perfectly restored.

Miss MARTHA ST. JOHN, Simsbury, Ct., was confined to her bed from spinal difficulty and prolapsus uteri; had not been dressed for more than a year; in twenty minutes she was enabled to dress and walk out to one of the neighbors, a distance of about a half mile; she has since been to Hartford and to church, and is improving daily.

Mrs. HENRY LOOMIS, Southwick, Mass., troubled with fits and spinal difficulties, could not walk without much difficulty, perfectly cured by one treatment.

Mrs. WM. JENKINS, Unionville, Conn., troubled for over two years with chronic liver complaint and rheumatism, had a large lump on her side which was very painful; was unable to lie down. Cured by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

JOSEPH H. ELDRIDGE, formerly of the Hartford Police, more recently on Hartford and New Haven Railroad, was obliged to give up his business on account of a severe cough and bleeding, perfectly cured and can now do a good day's work.

LYDIA L. FULLER, of East Wallingford, Vt., had entirely lost the use of her limbs after a severe attack of diptheria, was restored by one treatment, and is as well as ever.

FANNY DAVIS, of Moretown, Vt., had been confined to her bed for more than five years—was not able to stand—after one treatment of less than an hour, was enabled to walk around the room, and is now quite well.

Miss HUTCHINSON, daughter of Judge Hutchinson of West Randolph, Vt., was troubled with fits, having some days from fifty to one hundred. She was unable to eat anything but liquids—was not able to stand. After one treatment she began to improve, until now, she is the picture of health, able to walk as well as any one, eats hearty and has no fits.

SOUTHWICK, Mass., July 21, 1863.

DR. URANN,—Dear Sir:—I suppose it is ever a pleasure to you to learn the convalescent state of your patients; notwithstanding my long three years of almost absolute confinement to my bed, unable most of the time to converse with or see any company, and for over two years unable to feed myself—yet with this painful picture of human wretchedness which made life almost a burden, since your treatment of my spine, on the 7th day of June, I have been able to take my meals at the table, with my family, ride out daily, and converse freely with all; and without some new misfortune befalls me, I shall soon be able to interest myself in the labors of my profession, at least to preach one sermon a Sabbath. Without flattery, in my honest judgment, there is no better treatment in the hands of men for the Spinal Disease than the one which you honor, and as my heart beats with sympathy with all Spinal sufferers, I only wish they knew the wonderful utility of your treatment, and avail themselves of the same. Yours with respect and gratitude,

M. H. RISING.

DR. URANN'S TERMS

Are such that all can avail themselves of his treatment.

☞ Persons at a distance who are unable to visit the Doctor, by sending particulars of their cases, with one dollar enclosed, will receive advice and learn whether their cases can be treated at a distance. In all cases, state age and sex.

Morning Chronicle.

(For the Chronicle.)

THE BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG.

'Twas morn! the rising Orion smiled
Upon the purple sky;
And lit the victors to the field,—
The vanquished,—those to die.

All in the trim of battle's might,
All marched by battle's dirge,
And in fierce conflict met upon
The field of Gettysburg.

The sun that shone upon them there
Who met in dread array,
Was yet to see the rebels flee
Before the coming day.

Our gallant volunteers, so true,
Led on at freedom's call,
Remembered their forefather's prayers,
Who fought on Bunker Hill.

They thought of loved ones far away,
And sighed in hapless chance;
But such true hearts feared not the fray,
And onward still advanced.

As nearer came the haughty foe
To beat our banners down,
From cannon's mouth the fierce shot pour,
And strewed them o'er the ground.

From morn until the sun went down
Behind the mountain height,
The clashing steel and cannon's roar
Led up the Stars and Stripes.

When night had closed around the field,
And stars in radiance glowed,
They seemed in scorn to look upon
A wrapped and fallen horde.

And when the morn again appeared,
The rebel hosts were stirred
To try to gain—but all in vain,—
The field of Gettysburg.

In vain they led their columns up
In battle's dread array;
The deadly crash of shot and shell
Would sweep their ranks away.

(But many hearts once filled with joy,
Now sob a mournful dirge,
For cherished ones who fell upon
The field of Gettysburg.)

And falmer grew the cannon's roar,
But now no longer heard;
That flag we love now waves above
The field of Gettysburg.

BEECHER says:— Men die—books don't. Men have the bronchitis—books don't. Men have the dyspepsia—books don't; I wish some of them did! Men grow weary—books don't. A man having worn out his genius, can never be reproduced. He leaves his time, but that is the end of him. The series begins and ends with one. But if a book wears out, the stereotype plates can make one just like it, or a thousand just like it.

— The Rev. Dr. Teasdale, formerly of Washington, but now a resident of Richmond, has been in Washington for a few days past, endeavoring to obtain permission from President Lincoln to negotiate the sale of topacco and cotton for the benefit of the starving women and children in Richmond, whose destitution he describes as terrible.

— At the time of expected invasion at the beginning of the century, some of the town magistrates called upon an old maid lady of Montrose, and solicited her subscription to raise men for the service of the King. "Indeed," she answered right sturdily, "I'll do nae such thing; I never could raise a man for myself, and I'm no guan to raise men for King George."

An Irish pedler asked an itinerant poulterer the price of a pair of fowls. "Six shillings, sir." "In my country, my darling, you might buy them for sixpence a piece." "Why don't you remain in your own dear country then?" "Case we have no sixpences, my jewel," said Pat.

— An oil company in Penn., is said to have struck a layer of butter, of the strongest kind, and it has been introduced to all hotel tables in the oil region.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent issued, furnished by return mail. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that no other agency has had SUCCESS IN THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND SKILL, he would add, that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and a full account of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

The Best Ink in the World!

A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.

A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!

INK POWDERS

TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.

THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.

Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.

FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.

An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced

It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.

A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.

The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:

1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.

2d—It flows freely, does not gum up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is written.

3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.

4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.

5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this Ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.

Testimonials.

MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.

To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.

MERRIMC, MASS., Feb. 1, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have used it for the last eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppo Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and the best inks I have made in all these years, supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands from up north twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I think with one-quarter less ink it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.

Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.

To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used I would not be without it for ten dollars.

GEO. B. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.

KEWANEE, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.

American Ink Company:—I received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to express. I commenced to be long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and certainly have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected.

I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had I a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community, and wishing for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servt.

GEO. W. PARKER.

Deering, March 1, 1865.

To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks that I have knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires a good writing fluid. It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,

ALMON M. COREY.

Nashua, N. H., March 18, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: I received the powder from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that tends to corrode the stem of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.

Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.

Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moody's Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Kinsley's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.

Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

Cleanse the Blood.

With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are subject to all diseases. It may break out in pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. THE GREAT SECRET of health is while your Blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are masked by symptoms of the disease, such as Tetter, or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous, Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, for Complaints, and Heart Disease. Try AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.

During past years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla, for one dollar. Most of these have been made upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla, which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and hope to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We think we have prepared for believers in the virtue which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best article which we know how to produce, and we are reason to believe it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass, and sold by Sweetser Hutchings, Thacher, W. R. Preston, David Kimball, and all druggists.
